

ELIZABETH II

Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1975

1975 CHAPTER 10

An Act to promote the reform of the statute law by the repeal, in accordance with recommendations of the Law Commission and the Scottish Law Commission, of certain enactments which are no longer of practical utility, and to make other provision recommended by the Commissions in connection with those repeals.

[13th March, 1975.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) The enactments specified in the Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.

(2) In section 2 of the Markets and Fairs (Weighing of Cattle) Act 1926 (part of which section is repealed by this Act, being a part with a reference in it to section 9 of the Markets and Fairs (Weighing of Cattle) Act 1887), for the words "the said section" there shall be substituted the words "section 9 of the Act of 1887".

(3) Whereas this Act repeals so much of section 16(4) of the Marriage Act 1949 as requires a surrogate, before granting a licence, to have given security by his bond for the due and faithful execution of his office, and also section 32(6) of that Act, which makes similar provision in relation to a superintendent registrar, now therefore any person who before this Act entered into a bond for the purposes of either of those subsections (or the former corresponding enactment) is hereby released from the bond.

Citation and extent.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1975.

(2) This Act extends to Northern Ireland.
