Increase of official pensions.

See reg. 2(1) & (2) of S.I. 2017/418 for details of the modification of section 59(1) in certain situations.

59.—(1) Where by virtue of [¹section 151 of the Administration Act a direction is given that the sums mentioned in section 150(1)(c) of that Act] are to be increased by a specified percentage the Minister for the Civil Service shall by order provide that the annual rate of an official pension may, if a qualifying condition is satisfied or the pension is [²a derivative or substituted pension or a relevant injury pension], be increased in respect of any period beginning on or after the date on which the direction takes effect—

- (a) if the pension began before the beginning of the base period for that direction, by the same percentage as that specified in the direction;
- (b) if the pension began during the base period, by that percentage multiplied by $\frac{A}{B}$ where A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning of the pension and the end of the base period and B is the number of complete months in the base period.

(2) Where an order is made under this section in consequence of any such direction as aforesaid the order shall, in addition to the provision required by subsection (1) above, authorise the payment of an increase in respect of any lump sum that becomes payable during the base period for that direction being an increase equal to the percentage specified in the direction multiplied by $\frac{A}{B}$ where—

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning date for the lump sum (or, if later, the date from which it was last authorised to be increased by an order under this section) and the date on which it becomes payable; and
- (b) B is the number of complete months in that base period.

(3) In the case of the first order made under this section in consequence of any such direction as aforesaid, subsection (1) above shall have effect as if the increase required to be authorised in the case of any pension (whether beginning before or during the base period) were an increase equal to the percentage specified in the direction multiplied by $\frac{A}{B}$ where—

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning of the pension (or, if later, the date from which it was last authorised to be increased by an order under section 2 of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971) and the end of the base period for that direction; and
- (b) B is the number of complete months in that base period.

1971 c. 56.

(4) In the case of the first order so made under this section, subsection (2) above shall have effect as if—

- (a) for the reference to any lump sum that becomes payable during the base period there were substituted a reference to any lump sum that becomes or has become payable before the end of the base period but after the date from which official pensions were last increased by an order under section 2 of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971; and

- (b) the reference in paragraph (a) of the subsection to the date from which the lump sum was last authorised to be increased were a reference to the date specified in paragraph (a) above.

(5) The increases in the rate of a pension that may be provided for by an order under this section are to be calculated by reference to the basic rate of the pension as authorised to be increased by section 1 of the said Act of 1971 or by any order under section 2 of that Act or this section; but where—

- [¹(a) a person is entitled to a guaranteed minimum pension when an order under this section comes into force; and
- (b) entitlement to that guaranteed minimum pension arises from an employment from which (either directly or by virtue of the payment of a transfer credit ...²) entitlement to the official pension also arises;

the amount by reference] to which any increase authorised by that or any subsequent order is to be calculated shall be reduced by an amount equal to the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension.

[³(5ZA) In the application of subsection (5) above in relation to a widow's [⁴, widower's or surviving civil partner's] pension in a case where the pensioner becomes entitled on the death of the deceased spouse [⁴or civil partner] to such a guaranteed minimum pension as is there mentioned—

- (a) the pensioner shall be treated as having been entitled to that guaranteed minimum pension at all times during the period beginning with the date on which the deceased spouse [⁴or civil partner] became entitled to a guaranteed minimum pension and ending with the date of the death;
- (b) the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension to which the pensioner is treated as so entitled at any time during that period [⁴("the relevant time")] shall be taken to be [⁴the rate provided for in subsection (5ZB);] and
- (c) the amount by reference to which any increase in the widow's [⁴, widower's or surviving civil partner's] pension is to be calculated shall, subject to any directions under section 59A below (whether made before or after the coming into force of this subsection), be accordingly reduced under that subsection by an amount equal to the rate, as determined under paragraph (b) above, of the guaranteed minimum pension to which the pensioner is treated as entitled;

[⁴(5ZB) The rate referred to in subsection (5ZA)(b) is—

- (a) in the case of a widow's pension, one half of the rate of the deceased husband's guaranteed minimum pension at the relevant time;
- (b) in the case of a widower's pension, one half of so much of the rate of the deceased wife's guaranteed minimum pension at the relevant time as is attributable to earnings factors for the tax year 1988-89 and subsequent tax years;
- (c) in the case of a surviving civil partner's pension, one half of so much of the rate of the deceased civil partner's guaranteed minimum pension at the relevant time as is attributable to earnings factors for the tax year 1988-89 and subsequent tax years.

(5ZC) Subsection (5ZA)—

¹ Words in s. 59(5) substituted by Social Security Act 1979 (c. 18), s. 11(1).

² Words in s. 59(5)(b) repealed by Social Security Act 1985 (c. 53), Sch. 5, para. 33 and Sch. 6.

³ Subsection (5ZA) inserted (24.7.90) by Pensions (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1990 (c. 7), s. 5(1).

⁴ Words in s. 59(5ZA) & (a)-(c) substituted, inserted and omitted and subsections (5ZB)-(5ZC) added (13.3.14) by the Pensions Act 2008 (c. 30), s. 137.

- (a) does not apply to a widow's or widower's pension in respect of any service of the deceased spouse if the deceased spouse's pension in respect of that service became payable before 24 July 1990;
- (b) applies to a surviving civil partner's pension only in respect of amounts payable after the coming into force of this subsection].

[¹(5A) Nothing in [²section 110(2) or (3) of, or paragraph 10 of Schedule 6 to, the Pension Schemes Act 1993] authorises any deduction from an increase in the rate of an official pension under this section.]

(6) Any order under this section shall be made by statutory instrument and shall be laid before Parliament after being made.

(7) In this section—

“base period”, in relation to any such direction as is mentioned in subsection (1) above, means the period ending with the coming into force of that direction and beginning with the coming into force of the last previous such direction or, if there was none, with [³13th November 1978 (date of the relevant order under section 124 of the principal Act, increasing rates of benefit);]

“beginning date”, in relation to a lump sum, shall be construed in accordance with sections 8(2) and 9(2)(a) of the said Act of 1971;

[⁴“employment”, “guaranteed minimum pension” and “transfer credit” have the same meaning as in section 181(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993.]

“lump sum” includes an instalment of a lump sum;

[⁵“widower's pension” means a pension payable in respect of the services of the pensioner's deceased wife] and this section [⁶and section 59A of this Act] and the said Act of 1971 shall have effect as if this section [⁴and section 59A of this Act] were contained in Part I of that Act.

[⁷(8) Where, for the purposes of this section it is necessary to calculate the number of complete months in any period an incomplete month shall be treated as a complete month if it consists of at least 16 days.]

Modification of effect of section 59(5).

[⁸59A.—(1) This section applies where the amount by reference to which an increase in an official pension is to be calculated would, but for the provisions of this section, be reduced under section 59(5) of this Act by an amount equal to the rate of a guaranteed minimum pension.

(2) The minister for the Civil Service may direct that in such cases or classes of case as may be specified in the direction—

- (a) no such reduction shall be made; or
- (b) the reduction shall be of an amount less than the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension; and in any case to which such a direction applies the increase shall, in respect of such period or periods as may be specified in the direction, be calculated in accordance with the direction, notwithstanding section 59(5).

[¹(2A) Where in any tax year [²as defined in section 181(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993]–

- (a) an increase is calculated in accordance with a direction under this section; and
- (b) the amount by reference to which the increase is calculated, or any part of it, is increased in that tax year [²as defined in section 181(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993] under [²section 109 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993], the increase calculated in accordance with the direction shall be reduced by the amount of the increase under [²that section].]

(3) A direction under this section may provide that where it has applied in any case and ceases to apply in that case, the rate of the official pension for any period following the date on which the direction ceases to apply shall, in such circumstances as may be specified in the direction, be calculated as if the direction had never applied.

(4) A direction under this section may provide that the rate of an official pension shall, in such circumstances as may be specified in the direction, be calculated as if the direction had been in force at all times during such period as may be so specified.

61B.—(1) Powers under this Act to make regulations or orders, [1], are exercisable by statutory instrument.

(2) Except in so far as this Act otherwise provides, any power conferred thereby to make regulations or an order may be exercised—

- (a) either in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of case;
- (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised—
 - (i) the full provision to which the power extends or any less provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),
 - (ii) the same provision for all cases in relation to which the power is exercised, or different provision for different cases or different classes of case or different provision as respects the same case or class of case for different purposes of this Act,
 - (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any specified condition;

and where such a power is expressed to be exercisable for alternative purposes it may be exercised in relation to the same case for any or all of those purposes; and powers to make regulations or an order for the purposes of any one provision of this Act are without prejudice to powers to make regulations or an order for the purposes of any other provision.

(3) Without prejudice to any specific provision in this Act, a power conferred by this Act to make regulations or an order includes power to make thereby such incidental, supplementary, consequential or transitional provision as appears to the authority making the regulations or order to be expedient for the purposes of the regulations or order.

(4) Without prejudice to any specific provisions in this Act, a power conferred by this Act to make regulations or an order includes power to provide for a person to exercise a discretion in dealing with any matter.

- (a) which contains (whether alone or with other provisions) any order or regulations made under this Act by the Secretary of State, other than an order which, under any provision of this Act, is required to be laid before Parliament after being made; and
- (b) which is not subject to any requirement that a draft of the instrument shall be laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

Transitional provisions.

(3) and (4) repealed, see Annex 1, page 5.691

63.—(1) Regulations may make provision for any transitional matter connected with the coming into force of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, regulations may in particular—

- (a) make provision whereby a contribution paid or credited before (or in respect of a period before) commencement is treated, for the purposes of entitlement to or the calculation of any benefit, as having been paid or credited at a specified time or in respect of earnings of a specified amount;
- (b) make provision whereby a person who has satisfied any contribution condition before commencement is treated as having satisfied any contribution condition having effect by virtue of this Act;
- (c) modify any contribution condition in cases where the period in relation to which it is to be satisfied begins before and ends after commencement;
- (d) modify any provision of this Act in relation to persons who have attained the age of 16 before commencement;
- (e) make provision with respect to the operation of Schedule 1 to this Act in relation to persons who have attained pensionable age before commencement but have not then retired from regular employment;
- (f) make provision for effecting orderly transition between Part III of the National Insurance Act 1965 and Part III of this Act, including provision modifying for that purpose any provision of those Parts;
- (g) repealed by 1993 c. 48, see Annex 1, page 5.691
