

Children Act 1975

1975 CHAPTER 72

PART II

CUSTODY

Custodianship orders

33 Custodianship orders.

- (1) An authorised court may on the application of one or more persons qualified under subsection (3) make an order vesting the legal custody of a child in the applicant or, as the case may be, in one or more of the applicants . . . ^{F1}
- (2) An order under subsection (1) may be referred to as a custodianship order, and the person in whom legal custody of the child is vested under the order may be referred to as the custodian of the child.
- (3) The persons qualified to apply for a custodianship order are—
 - (a) a relative or step-parent of the child—
 - (i) who applies with the consent of a person having legal custody of the child, and
 - (ii) with whom the child has had his home for the three months preceding the making of the application;
 - (b) any person—
 - (i) who applies with the consent of a person having legal custody of the child, and
 - (ii) with whom the child has had his home for a period or periods before the making of the application which amount to at least twelve months and include the three months preceding the making of the application;
 - (c) any person with whom the child has had his home for a period or periods before the making of the application which amount to at least three years and include the three months preceding the making of the application.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children Act 1975, Cross Heading: Custodianship orders. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The mother or father of the child is not qualified under any paragraph of subsection (3).
- (5) A step-parent of the child is not qualified under any paragraph of subsection (3) if in proceedings for divorce or nullity of marriage the child was named in an order made under paragraph (b) or (c) of section 41(1) (arrangements for welfare of children of family) of the ^{M1}Matrimonial Causes Act 1973.
- (6) If no person has legal custody of the child, or the applicant himself has legal custody or the person with legal custody cannot be found, paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) apply with the omission of sub-paragraph (i).
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order a draft of which has been approved by each House of Parliament amend subsection (3)(c) to substitute a different period for the period of three years mentioned in that paragraph (or the period which, by a previous order under this subsection, was substituted for that period).
- (8) Subsection (5) does not apply—
- (a) if the parent other than the one the step-parent married is dead or cannot be found, or
 - (b) if the order referred to in subsection (5) was made under subsection (1)(c) of section 41 of the ^{M2}Matrimonial Causes Act 1973 and it has since been determined that the child was not a child of the family to whom that section applied.
- (9) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the provisions of section 1 of the ^{M3}Guardianship of Minors Act 1971 apply to applications made under this Part of this Act.
- [^{F2}(9A) In this Part of this Act references (however expressed) to any relationship between two persons shall be construed in accordance with section 1 of the Family Law Reform Act 1987.]
- (10) This section and sections 34 to 46 do not apply to Scotland.

[^{F3}34 Access and maintenance.

- (1) An authorised court may, on making a custodianship order or while a custodianship order is in force, by order—
- (a) on the application of the mother, the father or a grandparent of the child, make such provision as it thinks fit requiring access to the child to be given to the applicant;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children Act 1975, Cross Heading: Custodianship orders. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) on the application of the custodian, require the child’s mother or father (or both) to make to the applicant for the benefit of the child or to the child such periodical payments, and for such term, as may be specified in the order;
 - (c) on the application of the custodian, require the child’s mother or father (or both) to pay to the applicant for the benefit of the child or to the child such lump sum as may be so specified;
 - (d) on the application of the child’s mother or father, revoke an order requiring the applicant to contribute to the child’s maintenance made (otherwise than under this section) by any court;
 - (e) on the application of the child’s mother or father or the custodian, vary an order made (otherwise than under this section) by any court requiring the mother or father to contribute towards the child’s maintenance—
 - (i) by altering the amount of the contributions;
 - (ii) by substituting the custodian for the person to whom the contributions were ordered to be made.
- (2) References in subsection (1) to the child’s mother or father include any person in relation to whom the child was treated as a child of the family (as defined in section 52(1) of the ^{M4}Matrimonial Causes Act 1973).
- [No order shall be made under subsection (1)(b) or (c) requiring the father of an ^{F4}(3) illegitimate child to make any payments to the child’s custodian or to the child.
- (4) An authorised court shall have power to make an order under subsection (1)(a) in favour of a grandparent of a child notwithstanding that the child is illegitimate.]
- (5) Subsections (2), (3), (3A), (3B), (4), [^{F5}(4A), (5A), (5B), (5C), (5D) and (5E)] (orders as to the supervision, local authority care, maintenance etc. of children) of section 2 of the ^{M5}Guardianship Act 1973 and sections 3 and 4 of that Act (supplementary provisions) shall apply to an application for a custodianship order as they apply to an application under section 9 of the ^{M6}Guardianship of Minors Act 1971 subject to the following modifications, that is to say—
- (a) in [^{F5}section 2(2)(b) and (4A)] of the ^{M7}Guardianship Act 1973 any reference to a parent of a minor to whom the order relates shall be construed as including a reference to any other individual;
 - (b) section 3(3) of that Act shall have effect as if the words “or the custodian” were inserted after the words “application of either parent”;
 - (c) in section 4(2) of that Act the reference to section 6 of that Act shall be construed as including a reference to section 39 and 40 of this Act.
- (6) A local authority may make contributions to a custodian towards the cost of the accommodation and maintenance of the child, except where the custodian is the husband or wife of a parent of the child.]

[^{F6}34A Matters to which court is required to have regard in exercising powers as to maintenance.

- (1) The court, in deciding whether to exercise its powers under section 34(1)(b) or (c) and, if so, in what manner, shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case including the following matters, that is to say—
 - (a) the income, earning capacity, property and other financial resources of each parent and of the custodian;
 - (b) the financial needs, obligations and responsibilities of each parent and of the custodian;
 - (c) the financial needs of the child;
 - (d) the income, earning capacity (if any), property and other financial resources of the child;
 - (e) any physical or mental disability of the child.
- (2) The court in deciding whether to exercise its powers under section 34(1)(b) or (c) against a person who is not the child's mother or father and, if so, in what manner, shall, in addition to the matters mentioned in subsection (1), have regard (among the circumstances of the case)—
 - (a) to whether that person had assumed any responsibility for the child's maintenance and, if he did, to the extent to which and the basis on which he assumed that responsibility and to the length of time during which he discharged that responsibility;
 - (b) to whether in assuming and discharging that responsibility he did so knowing that the child was not his own child;
 - (c) to the liability of any other person to maintain the child.
- (3) In subsection (1)—
 - (a) references to a parent of a child include any person in relation to whom the child was treated as a child of the family (as defined in section 52(1) of the ^{M8}Matrimonial Causes Act 1973);
 - (b) the reference in paragraph (a) to income, earning capacity, and other financial resources includes the income, earning capacity, property and other financial resources which the person concerned is likely to have in the foreseeable future; and
 - (c) the reference in paragraph (b) to financial needs, obligations and responsibilities includes the financial needs, obligations and responsibilities which the person concerned is likely to have in the foreseeable future.]

34B Duration of orders for maintenance.

- (1) The term to be specified in an order made under section 34(1)(b) in favour of a child may begin with the date of the making of an application for the order in question or any later date but—
 - (a) shall not in the first instance extend beyond the date of the birthday of the child next following his attaining the upper limit of the compulsory school age (that is to say, the age that is for the time being that limit by virtue of section 35 of the ^{M9}Education Act 1944 together with any Order in Council made under that section) unless the court thinks it right in the circumstances of the case to specify a later date; and
 - (b) shall not in any event, subject to subsection (2) below, extend beyond the date of the child's eighteenth birthday.
- (2) Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) shall not apply in the case of a child if it appears to the court that—
 - (a) the child is, or will be, or if an order were made without complying with that paragraph would be, receiving instruction at an educational establishment or undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation, whether or not he is also, or will also be, in gainful employment; or
 - (b) there are special circumstances which justify the making of an order without complying with that paragraph.
- (3) Any order made under section 34(1)(b) in favour of a child shall, notwithstanding anything in the order, cease to have effect on the death of the person liable to make payments under the order.

35 Revocation and variation of orders.

- (1) An authorised court may by order revoke a custodianship order on the application of—
 - (a) the custodian, or
 - (b) the mother or father, or a guardian, of the child, or
 - (c) any local authority in England or Wales.
- (2) The court shall not proceed to hear an application made by any person for the revocation of a custodianship order where a previous such application made by the same person was refused by that or any other court unless—
 - (a) in refusing the previous application the court directed that this subsection should not apply, or
 - (b) it appears to the court that because of a change in circumstances or for any other reason it is proper to proceed with the application.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children Act 1975, Cross Heading: Custodianship orders. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The custodian of a child may apply to an authorised court for the revocation or variation of any order made under section 34 [F⁷(other than an order under subsection (1)(c))] in respect of that child.
- (4) Any other person on whose application an order under section 34 was made, or who was required by [F⁸an order made under that section (other than an order under subsection (1)(c))] to contribute towards the maintenance of the child, may apply to an authorised court for the revocation or variation of that order.
- [F⁹(4A) An application for the variation of an order made under section 34(1)(b) may, if the child has attained the age of sixteen, be made by the child himself.]
- (5) Any order made under [F¹⁰section 34(1)(a), (b) or (e)] in respect of a child who is the subject of a custodianship order shall cease to have effect on the revocation of the custodianship order.
- (6) A custodianship order made in respect of a child, and any order made under [F¹¹section 34(1)(a)] in respect of the child, shall cease to have effect when the child attains the age of 18 years.
- [F¹²(7) On an application under this section for the revocation or variation of an order made under section 34(1)(b), the court shall have power to suspend the operation of any provision of that order temporarily and to revive the operation of any provision so suspended.
- (8) In exercising its power under this section to revoke or vary an order made under section 34(1)(b), the court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including any change in any of the matters to which the court was required to have regard when making the order.
- (9) Where on an application under this section the court varies any payments required to be made under section 34(1)(b), the court may provide that the payments as so varied shall be made from such date as the court may specify, not being earlier than the date of the making of the application.
- [Where an order made under section 34(1)(b) ceases to have effect on the date on which
- ^{x1}(10) the child attains the age of sixteen or at any time after that date but before or on the date on which he attains the age of eighteen, then, if at any time before he attains the age of twenty-one an application is made by the child to an authorised court for an order under this subsection, the court shall have power by order to revive the first mentioned order from such date as the court may specify, not being earlier than the date of the making of the application, and to vary or revoke under this section any order so revived.]
- [Where an order under section 34(1)(b) ceases to have effect on the date on which
- ^{F13}(10) the child attains the age of 16 or at any time after that date but before or on the date on which he attains the age of 18, the child may apply to an authorised court, other than a magistrates' court, for an order for the revival of that order, and if, on such an application, it appears to the court that—
- (a) the child is, will be or (if an order were made under this subsection) would be receiving instruction at an educational establishment or undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation, whether or not he also is, will be or would be in gainful employment; or
- (b) there are special circumstances which justify the making of an order under this subsection,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children Act 1975, Cross Heading: Custodianship orders. (See end of Document for details) the court shall have power by order to revive the order made under section 34(1)(b) from such date as the court may specify, not being earlier than the date of the making of the application and to vary or revoke under this section any order so revived.

(10A) Any order made by a magistrates' court under section 34(1)(b) which is revived by an order under subsection (10) shall for the purposes of the enforcement of the order be treated as an order made by the magistrates' court by which the order was originally made.]

(11) The powers of a magistrates' court to revoke, revive or vary under [^{F14}section 60 of the ^{M10}Magistrates' Courts Act 1980] an order for the periodical payment of money and to suspend or rescind under [^{F14}section 63(2)] of that Act certain other orders shall not apply in relation to a custodianship order or an order made under section 34.]

[^{F15}35A Care etc. of child on revocation of custodianship order.

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 34(1)(c), an order under that section for the payment of a lump sum may be made for the purpose of enabling any liabilities or expenses reasonably incurred in maintaining the child before the making of the order to be met.
- (2) The amount of any lump sum required to be paid by an order made by a magistrates' court under section 34(1)(c) shall not exceed £500 or such larger amount as the Secretary of State may from time to time by order fix for the purposes of this subsection.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children Act 1975, Cross Heading: Custodianship orders. (See end of Document for details)

Any order made by the Secretary of State under this subsection shall be made by statutory instrument and shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

- (3) The power of the court under section 35 to vary or revoke an order made under section 34(1)(b) shall include power to make an order under section 34(1)(c) for the payment of a lump sum by the child's mother or father (or both).
- (4) The amount of any lump sum which the mother or father of the child may be required to pay by virtue of subsection (3) shall not, in the case of an order made by a magistrates' court, exceed the maximum amount that may at the time of the making of the order be required to be paid under sub-section (2), but a magistrates' court may make an order for the payment of a sum not exceeding that amount notwithstanding that the child's mother or father was required to pay a lump sum by a previous order under this Part of this Act.
- (5) An order made under section 34(1)(c) for the payment of a lump sum may provide for the payment of that sum by instalments, and where such an order makes provision for the payment of a lump sum by instalments, an authorised court, on an application made either by the person liable to pay or the person entitled to receive that sum, shall have power to vary that order by varying the number of instalments payable, the amount of any instalment payable and the date on which any instalment becomes payable.
- (6) References in this section to the mother or father of a child include any person in relation to whom the child was treated as a child of the family (as defined in section 52(1) of the ^{M11}Matrimonial Causes Act 1973).]

36 Provisions relating to lump sums.

- (1) Before revoking a custodianship order the court shall ascertain who would have legal custody of the child, if, on the revocation of the custodianship order, no further order were made under this section.
- (2) If the child would not be in the legal custody of any person, the court shall, if it revokes the custodianship order, commit the care of the child to a specified local authority.
- (3) If there is a person who would have legal custody of the child on the revocation of the custodianship order, the court shall consider whether it is desirable in the interests of the welfare of the child for the child to be in the legal custody of that person and—
 - (a) if the court is of the opinion that it would not be so desirable, it shall on revoking the custodianship order commit the care of the child to a specified local authority;
 - (b) if it is of the opinion that while it is desirable for the child to be in the legal custody of that person, it is also desirable in the interests of the welfare of the child for him to be under the supervision of an independent person, the court shall, on revoking the custodianship order, order that the child shall be under the supervision of a specified local authority or of a probation officer.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children Act 1975, Cross Heading: Custodianship orders. (See end of Document for details)

(4) Before exercising its functions under this section the court shall, unless it has sufficient information before it for the purpose, request—

- (a) a local authority to arrange for an officer of the authority, or
- (b) a probation officer,

to make to the court a report, orally or in writing, on the desirability of the child returning to the legal custody of any individual, and it shall be the duty of the local authority or probation officer to comply with the request.

[^{F16}(5) Where the court makes an order under subsection (3)(a) the order may require either parent to make to the local authority or to the child such periodical payments, and for such term, as may be specified in the order; but the order shall only require payments to be made to the local authority while it has the care of the child.

[An order made under subsection (3)(a) with reference to an illegitimate child shall ^{F17}(5A) not require the father of that child to make any payments to the local authority or to the child.]

(5B) The court in deciding whether to exercise its powers under subsection (5) and, if so, in what manner, shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case including the matters to which the court is required to have regard under section 34A.

(5C) Section 34B shall apply in relation to an order under subsection (5) as it applies in relation to an order under section 34(1)(b).]

(6) Sections 3 and 4 of the ^{M12}Guardianship Act 1973 (which contain supplementary provisions relating to children who are subject to supervision, or in the care of local authority, by virtue of orders made under section 2 of that Act) apply in relation to an order under this section as they apply in relation to an order under section 2 of that Act [^{F18}subject to the modification that the reference in section 4(2) of that Act to section 6 of that Act shall be construed as including a reference to subsection (4) of this section].

(7) Subsections (2) to (6) of section 6 of the Guardianship Act 1973 shall apply in relation to reports which are requested by magistrates' courts under this section as they apply to reports under subsection (1) of that section.

37 Custodianship order on application for adoption or guardianship.

- (1) Where on an application for an adoption order by a relative of the child or by the husband or wife of the mother or father of the child, whether alone or jointly with his or her spouse, the requirements of [F19]section 12][F19]section 16 of the M13Adoption Act 1976] or, where the application is for a Convention adoption order, [F19]section 24(6)][F19]section 17(6) of that Act] are satisfied, but the court is satisfied—
- (a) that the child’s welfare would not be better safeguarded and promoted by the making of adoption order in favour of the applicant, than it would be by the making of a custodianship order in his favour, and
 - (b) that it would be appropriate to make a custodianship order in the applicant’s favour, the court shall direct the application to be treated as if it had been made by the applicant under section 33, but if the application was made jointly by the father or mother of the child and his or her spouse, the court shall direct the application to be treated as if made by the father’s wife or the mother’s husband alone.

- (2) Where on an application for an adoption order made—
- (a) by a person who is neither a relative of the child nor the husband or wife of the mother or father of the child; or
 - (b) by a married couple [F20]neither of whom is a relative of the child or the husband or wife of the mother or father of the child], the said requirements are satisfied but the court is of opinion that it would be more appropriate to make a custodianship order in favour of the applicant, it may direct the application to be treated as if it had been made by the applicant under section 33.

- (3) Where on an application under [F21]section 9 (orders for custody and maintenance)][F21]section 9 (orders for custody] on application of mother or father) of the M14Guardianship of Minors Act 1971 the court is of opinion that legal custody should be given to a person other than the mother or father, it may direct the application to be treated as if it had been made by that person under section 33.
- (4) Where a direction is given under this section the applicant shall be treated (if such is not the case) as if he were qualified to apply for a custodianship order and this Part, except section 40, shall have effect accordingly.

[F22(4A) Where a custodianship order is made by virtue of a direction under subsection (3) or a direction under section 8(3) of the M15Domestic Proceedings and Magistrates’ Courts Act 1978, the court may direct that the order, or such provision thereof as the court may specify, shall not have effect until the occurrence of an event specified by the court or the expiration of a period so specified; and where the court has directed that the custodianship order, or any provision thereof, shall not have effect until the expiration of a specified period, the court may, at any time before the expiration of that period, direct that the order, or that provision thereof, shall not have effect until the expiration of such further period as the court may specify.]

- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply to an application made by a step-parent whether alone or jointly with another person in any case where the step-parent is prevented by section 33(5) from being qualified to apply for a custodianship order in respect of the child.
- (6) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to an application for an adoption order made by the child’s mother or father alone.

38 Disputes between joint custodians.

If two persons have a parental right or duty vested in them jointly by a custodianship order or by virtue of section 44(2) but cannot agree on its exercise or performance, either of them may apply to an authorised court, and the court may make such order regarding the exercise of the right or performance of the duty as it thinks fit.

39 Reports by local authorities and probation officers.

- (1) A court dealing with an application made under this Part, or an application which is treated as if made under section 33, may request—
- (a) a local authority to arrange for an officer of the authority, or
 - (b) a probation officer,
- to make to the court a report, orally or in writing, with respect to any specified matter which appears to the court to be relevant to the application, and it shall be the duty of the local authority or probation officer to comply with the request.
- (2) Subsections (2) to (6) of section 6 of the ^{M16}Guardianship Act 1973 shall apply in relation to reports which are requested by magistrates' courts under this section as they apply to reports under subsection (1) of that section.

40 Notice of application to be given to local authority.

- (1) A custodianship order shall not be made unless the applicant has given notice of the application for the order to the local authority in whose area the child resides within the seven days following the making of the application, or such extended period as the court or local authority may allow.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Children Act 1975, Cross Heading: Custodianship orders. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) On receipt of a notice given by the applicant under subsection (1) the local authority shall arrange for an officer of the authority to make a report to the court (so far as is practicable) on the matters prescribed under subsection (3) and on any other matter which he considers to be relevant to the application.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall by regulations prescribe matters which are to be included in a report under subsection (2) and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the prescribed matters shall include—
- (a) the wishes and feelings of the child having regard to his age and understanding and all other matters relevant to the operation of section 1 (principle on which questions relating to custody are to be decided) of the ^{M17}Guardianship of Minors 1971 in relation to the application;
 - (b) the means and suitability of the applicant;
 - (c) information of a kind specified in the regulations relating to members of the applicant's household;
 - (d) the wishes regarding the application, and the means, of the mother and father of the child.
- (4) Subsections (2), (3) and (3A) of section 6 of the ^{M18}Guardianship Act 1973 shall apply to a report under this section which is submitted to a magistrates' court.

41 Restriction on removal of child where applicant has provided home for three years.

- (1) While an application for a custodianship order in respect of a child made by the person with whom the child has at the time the application is made had his home for a period (whether continuous or not) amounting to at least three years is pending, another person is not entitled, against the will of the applicant, to remove the child from the applicant's [^{F23}actual] custody except with the leave of a court or under authority conferred by any enactment or on the arrest of the child.
- (2) In any case where subsection (1) applies, and
- (a) the child was in the care of a local authority before he began to have his home with the applicant, and
 - (b) the child remains in the care of a local authority,
- the authority in whose care the child is shall not remove the child from the applicant's [^{F23}actual] custody except with the applicant's consent or the leave of a court.
- (3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding [^{F24}level 5 on the standard scale] or both.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order a draft of which has been approved by each House of Parliament amend subsection (1) to substitute a different period for the period mentioned in that subsection (or the period which, by a previous order under this subsection, was substituted for that period).

42 Return of child taken away in breach of section 41.

- (1) An authorised court may on the application of a person from whose [^{F25}actual] custody a child has been removed in breach of section 41 order the person who has so removed the child to return the child to the applicant.
- (2) An authorised court may on the application of a person who has reasonable grounds for believing that another person is intending to remove a child from the applicant's [^{F25}actual] custody in breach of section 41 by order direct that other person not to remove the child from the applicant's custody in breach of that section.
- (3) If, in the case of an order made by the High Court under subsection (1), the High Court or, in the case of an order made by a county court under subsection (1), a county court is satisfied that the child has not been returned to the applicant, the court may make an order authorising an officer of the court to search such premises as may be specified in the order for the child and, if the officer finds the child, to return the child to the applicant.
- (4) If a justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a child to whom an order under subsection (1) relates is in premises specified in the information, he may issue a search warrant authorising a constable to search the premises for the child; and if a constable acting in pursuance of a warrant under this section finds the child, he shall return the child to the person on whose application the order under subsection (1) was made.
- (5) An order under subsection (3) may be enforced in like manner as a warrant for committal.

44 Effect of custodianship order on existing custody.

- (1) While a custodianship order has effect in relation to a child the right of any person other than the custodian to legal custody of the child is suspended, but, subject to any further order made by any court, revives on the revocation of the custodianship order.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the person already having custody is a parent of the child and the person who becomes custodian under the order is the husband or wife of the parent; and in such a case the spouses have the legal custody jointly.

[^{F32}45 Affiliation order on application by custodian.
