

Divorce (Scotland) Act 1976

1976 CHAPTER 39

Divorce

[<sup>F1</sup>3A Postponement of decree of divorce where religious impediment to remarry exists

- (1) Notwithstanding that irremediable breakdown of a marriage has been established in an action for divorce, the court may—
  - (a) on the application of a party (“the applicant”); and
  - (b) if satisfied—
    - (i) that subsection (2) applies; and
    - (ii) that it is just and reasonable to do so,postpone the grant of decree in the action until it is satisfied that the other party has complied with subsection (3).
- (2) This subsection applies where—
  - (a) the applicant is prevented from entering into a religious marriage by virtue of a requirement of the religion of that marriage; and
  - (b) the other party can act so as to remove, or enable or contribute to the removal of, the impediment which prevents that marriage.
- (3) A party complies with this subsection by acting in the way described in subsection (2) (b).
- (4) The court may, whether or not on the application of a party and notwithstanding that subsection (2) applies, recall a postponement under subsection (1).
- (5) The court may, before recalling a postponement under subsection (1), order the other party to produce a certificate from a relevant religious body confirming that the other party has acted in the way described in subsection 2(b).
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a religious body is “relevant” if the applicant considers the body competent to provide the confirmation referred to in that subsection.
- (7) In this section—

“religious marriage” means a marriage solemnised by a marriage celebrant of a prescribed religious body, and “religion of that marriage” shall be construed accordingly;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.

- (8) Any reference in this section to a marriage celebrant of a prescribed religious body is a reference to—
- (a) a minister, clergyman, pastor or priest of such a body;
  - (b) a person who has, on the nomination of such a body, been registered under section 9 of the Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977 (c. 15) as empowered to solemnise marriages; or
  - (c) any person who is recognised by such a body as entitled to solemnise marriages on its behalf.
- (9) Regulations under subsection (7) shall be made by statutory instrument; and any such instrument shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Scottish Parliament.]
