

Fishery Limits Act 1976

1976 CHAPTER 86

An Act to extend British fishery limits and make further provision in connection with the regulation of sea fishing. [22nd December 1976]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Certain functions of Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food now exercisable (W.) by Secretary of State, or Minister and Secretary of State for Wales jointly: S.I. 1978/272, art. 2\(1\)\(4\), Sch. 1
Act: power to transfer functions conferred (1.7.1999) by S.I. 1999/672, art. 2, Sch. 1
- C2 Act: transfer of functions (31.3.2010) by The Welsh Zone \(Boundaries and Transfer of Functions\) Order 2010 \(S.I. 2010/760\), arts. 1\(3\), 4\(1\)\(d\) (with art. 5\(2\)\(3\))

Extension of British fishery limits

1 British fishery limits.

- [^{F1}(1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, British fishery limits extend to the seaward limits of any area for the time being designated by Order in Council under section 41(3) of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 (exclusive economic zone).]
- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council, for the purpose of implementing any international agreement or the arbitral award of an international body, or otherwise, declare that British fishery limits extend to such other line as may be specified in the Order.
- (3) Where the median line defined below is less than 200 miles from the baselines referred to in subsection (1), and no other line is for the time being specified by Order in Council under subsection (2), British fishery limits extend to the median line.
- (4) The median line is a line every point of which is equi-distant from the nearest points of, on the one hand, the baselines referred to in subsection (1) and, on the other hand, the corresponding baselines of other countries.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2011.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Fishery Limits Act 1976. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Subject to section 10(2)(b) below, references to British fishery limits in any enactment for the time being in force relating to sea fishing or whaling are to the limits set by or under this section.

Textual Amendments

- F1 S. 1(1) substituted (12.11.2009 for specified purposes) by Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 \(c. 23\), s. 324(1)(c)(d), Sch. 4 para. 2\(2\)

2 Access to British fisheries.

- (1) The Ministers may by order designate any country outside the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man and, in relation to it, areas within [^{F2}relevant] British fishery limits in which, and descriptions of sea fish for which, fishing boats registered in that country may fish.
- (2) A foreign fishing boat not registered in a country for the time being designated under subsection (1) shall not enter [^{F2}relevant] British fishery limits except for a purpose recognised by international law or by any convention for the time being in force between Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the government of the country to which the boat belongs; and any such boat which enters those limits for such a purpose—
- shall return outside the limits as soon as the purpose has been fulfilled; and
 - shall not fish or attempt to fish while within the limits.
- (3) A foreign fishing boat registered in a country designated under subsection (1) shall not fish or attempt to fish within [^{F2}relevant] British fishery limits except in an area and for descriptions of fish for the time being designated under this section in relation to that country.
- (4) At any time when a foreign fishing boat is in an area within [^{F2}relevant] British fishery limits and either—
- it is prohibited by this section from fishing in that area at all; or
 - it is permitted under this section to fish only for certain descriptions of fish, then, its fishing gear, or so much of the gear as is not required for permitted fishing, shall be stowed in accordance with an order made by the Ministers.
- (5) If this section is contravened in the case of any fishing boat—
- the master of the boat is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50,000 or on conviction on indictment to a fine;
 - the court may on convicting him of an offence under this section order the forfeiture of any fish or fishing gear found in the boat or taken or used by any person from the boat; and
 - where the contravention takes place in Scotland, any fish or fishing gear forfeited under paragraph (b) above may be destroyed or disposed of as the court may direct.
- (6) The foregoing provisions of this section do not prohibit or restrict fishing by fishing boats registered in a country outside the United Kingdom in any area with respect to which special provision is made by any arrangement between Her Majesty's

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2011.

Government in the United Kingdom and the government of that country for fishing by such boats for the purpose of scientific research.

(7) Orders made under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(8) Without prejudice to section 38(1) of the ^{M1}Interpretation Act 1889 (references to provisions repealed and replaced), a reference to this section is substituted for every reference to section 6 of the ^{M2}Sea Fisheries Act 1968 in the following enactments, that is to say, in—

(a) sections [^{F3}4], 6, 7, 8 and 10 of the ^{M3}Sea Fisheries (Scotland) Amendment Act 1885;

(b) ^{F4}

(c) section 17 (2) of the ^{M4}Sea Fish Industry Act 1962 ; and

[^{F5}(9) This section applies to Scotland with the modifications that—

(a) for “relevant British fishery limits”, in each place where it appears, there is substituted “the Scottish zone”;

(b) for “those limits” or “limits”, in each place where those words occur, there is substituted “that zone” or “zone” respectively; and

(c) in subsection (7) for “either House of Parliament” there is substituted “the Scottish Parliament”.]

(d) sections 8(1) . . . ^{F6}, 12(1) and (2), 13(2) and (4) and 14 of the Sea Fisheries Act 1968.

Regulation of sea fishing, etc.

3 Licensing of fishing boats.

The following section is substituted for section 4 of the ^{M5}Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967—

“4 Licensing of fishing boats.

- (1) The Ministers may by order provide
 - (a) that in any specified area within British fishery limits fishing by fishing boats (whether British or foreign) is prohibited unless authorised by a licence granted by one of the Ministers;
 - (b) that in any specified area outside those limits fishing by British fishing boats is prohibited unless so authorised.
- (2) Such an order may apply to fishing generally in the specified area or to fishing—
 - (a) for a specified description of sea fish ;
 - (b) by a specified method;
 - (c) during a specified season of the year or other period ; or
 - (d) in the case of an order under subsection (1)(a), by fishing boats registered in a specified country, and whether the order is general or limited in scope it may provide for exceptions from the prohibition contained in it.

- (3) Where any fishing boat is used in contravention of any prohibition imposed by an order under this section, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) are each guilty of an offence under this subsection.
- (4) An order under this section, if made with the consent of the Treasury given for the purposes of this subsection, may authorise the making of a charge for a licence under this section. Such an order shall specify a maximum charge and may specify different maxima in relation to different classes of licence.
- (5) A licence under this section shall be granted to the owner or charterer in respect of a named vessel and may authorise fishing generally or may confer limited authority by reference to, in particular,—
 - (a) the area within which fishing is authorised ;
 - (b) the periods, times or particular voyages during which fishing is authorised;
 - (c) the descriptions and quantities of fish which may be taken ; or
 - (d) the method of sea fishing.
- (6) A licence under this section may authorise fishing either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as appear to the Minister granting the licence to be necessary or expedient for the regulation of sea fishing, and in particular a licence may contain conditions—
 - (a) as to the landing of fish or parts of fish taken under the authority of the licence (including specifying the ports at which the catch is to be landed); or as to the use to which the fish taken may be put:

and if a licence condition is broken the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) of the vessel named in the licence are each guilty of an offence under this subsection.

- (7) The Minister granting a licence under this section may require the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) of the vessel named in the licence to provide him with such statistical information as he may direct and a person who fails to comply with such a requirement is guilty of an offence under this subsection.
- (8) The licensing powers conferred by this section may be exercised so as to limit the number of fishing boats, or of any class of fishing boats, engaged in fishing in any area, or in fishing in any area for any description of fish, to such extent as appears to the Ministers necessary or expedient for the regulation of sea fishing.
- (9) A licence under this section—
 - (a) may be varied from time to time; and
 - (b) may be revoked or suspended, if this appears to the Minister who granted the licence to be necessary or expedient for the regulation of sea fishing.
- (10) If a licence is varied, revoked or suspended the Minister who granted it may, if he considers it appropriate in all the circumstances of the case, refund the whole or part of any charge made for the licence.
- (11) The Ministers may make arrangements for any of their licensing powers under this section (but not the power to make orders under subsection (1)) to be exercised by other persons on their behalf.
- (12) In this section “British fishing boat” means a fishing boat which is registered in the United Kingdom or is British-owned, and “foreign fishing boat” means a fishing boat which is not so registered or owned.”

- (2) Such an Order may, in particular, specify waters adjacent to the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands as waters to which enactments relating to sea fishing or whaling apply—
 - (a) by virtue of having been extended by Order in Council to the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands; and
 - (b) with the exceptions, adaptations and modifications (if any) specified in the extending Order.
- (3) Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct that all or any of the provisions of sections 2(2) to (7), 3, 4, 5, 8 and 9 and of the Schedules to this Act—
 - (a) shall extend, with such exceptions, adaptations and modifications, if any, as may be specified in the Order, to the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands;
 - (b) shall apply, with such exceptions, adaptations and modifications as may be specified in the Order, in relation to British fishing boats registered in the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands as they apply in relation to British fishing boats registered in the United Kingdom.

12 Short title and commencement.

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Fishery Limits Act 1976.
- (2) The provisions of this Act come into force on such day as the Ministers may by order appoint and different days may be appointed for different provisions and for different purposes.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (2) orders under that subsection may so provide that the extension of British fishery limits by section 1 of this Act comes into force on different days in relation to different parts of the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) may contain such supplementary, incidental and transitional provisions as appear to the Ministers to be necessary or expedient in connection with the provisions of this Act which are thereby brought (wholly or partly) into operation, including such adaptations of those provisions then in force as appear to the Ministers to be necessary or expedient in consequence of their partial operation (whether before, on or after the day appointed by the order).

SCHEDULE 3

Section 9(2).

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Designation orders

- 1 (1) The provisions of this paragraph apply to orders made under section 1(3) of the ^{M9}Fishery Limits Act 1964 designating a country and the area in which and the descriptions of sea fish for which fishing boats registered in that country may fish in the outer belt defined by that Act.
- (2) Such an order continues in force notwithstanding the repeal of section 1(3) by this Act and has effect (and may be varied or revoked) as if it were an order made under section 2(1) of this Act designating that country for the purposes of that section and designating in relation to it that area (within the former outer belt) and those descriptions of fish.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Fishery Limits Act 1976. (See end of Document for details)

Fish size orders.

- 2 (1) The provisions of this paragraph apply to orders made under section 1 of the ^{M10}Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 prescribing minimum fish sizes for the purpose of prohibitions imposed by and under that section on the carrying, landing and commercial use of under-sized fish.
- (2) From the coming into force of the amendment by this Act of subsection (4) of that section replacing the reference to the fishery limits of the British Islands, orders which by virtue of that subsection impose a prohibition on the carrying of under-sized fish by foreign fishing boats shall have effect—
- (a) as if made by virtue of the subsection as amended; and
 - (b) as if the reference in the order to the fishery limits of the British Islands were a reference to British fishery limits.

Nets and gear orders

- 3 (1) The provisions of this paragraph apply to orders made under section 3 of the ^{M11}Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 imposing requirements relating to nets and other fishing gear carried by fishing boats.
- (2) From the coming into force of the amendment by this Act of subsection (2) of that section replacing the reference to the fishery limits of the British Islands, the prohibitions imposed on foreign fishing boats by Articles 5 and 7 of The ^{M12}Fishing Nets (North-East Atlantic) Order 1976 shall have effect—
- (a) as if that order had been made under the subsection as amended; and
 - (b) as if the reference in those Articles to the fishery limits of the British Islands were a reference to British fishery limits.
- (3) The said amendment does not, in the case of other orders made before its coming into force, extend any prohibition imposed by virtue of the said subsection (2), but this is without prejudice to—
- (a) the power conferred by paragraph 8(3) below to adapt such orders; or
 - (b) the power to vary such orders under the subsection as amended.

Licensing orders

- 4 (1) The provisions of this paragraph apply to orders made under section 4 of the ^{M13}Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 specifying an area in which fishing by British fishing boats by way of trade or business is prohibited unless authorised by licence.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2011.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Fishery Limits Act 1976. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Such an order continues in force notwithstanding the substitution of a new section 4 by section 3 of this Act and has effect (and may be varied or revoked) as if it were an order made under the new section 4 prohibiting, unless licensed, fishing by British fishing boats by way of trade or business in the area specified in the order.
- (3) Where such an order specifies the areas to which it applies by reference to the “fishery limits of the British Islands”, that reference shall continue to be construed in accordance with the ^{M14}Fishery Limits Act 1964.
- (4) Where an order continues in force by virtue of sub-paragraph (2), licences authorising fishing in the area to which the order applies also continue in force and have effect (and may be varied, revoked or suspended) as if they had been granted under the new section 4.

Prohibition orders

- 5 (1) The provisions of this paragraph apply to orders made under section 5 of the ^{M15}Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 imposing a prohibition in relation to fishing in an area specified in the order.
- (2) Where such an order specifies the area to which it applies by reference to “the fishery limits of the British Islands”, “the exclusive fishery limits” or any similar expression that reference shall continue to be construed in accordance with the ^{M16}Fishery Limits Act 1964.
- (3) From the coming into force of the amendment by this Act of subsection (8) of the said section 5 replacing the reference to the fishery limits of the British Islands that subsection applies as amended—
 - (a) to the prohibition contained in the ^{M17}Herring (Celtic Sea) (Prohibition of Fishing Method) Order 1971, and
 - (b) to subsection (6) of section 5 (duty to return fish) as that subsection applies to fish caught in contravention of that prohibition.
- (4) The subsection applies as unamended—
 - (a) to prohibitions contained in other orders made before the coming into force of the amendment, and
 - (b) to subsection (6) of section 5 as that subsection applies to fish caught in contravention of such prohibitions.

Powers of British sea fishery officers

- 6 (1) The provisions of this paragraph apply to orders made under section 15(3) of the ^{M18}Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967 conferring powers on British sea fishery officers to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 7 of that Act or of orders made under those provisions.
- (2) Where by virtue of any of the provisions of paragraphs 2 to 5 above any prohibition contained in, or operating by reference to, an order made under section 1, 3, 4 or 5 of the said Act of 1967 is extended to an area outside the old but within the new fishery limits, the powers conferred for the enforcement of that prohibition shall be correspondingly extended as if the order concerned had been made under section 15(3) as amended by this Act.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2) “the old fishery limits” means the fishery limits of the British Islands set by the ^{M19}Fishery Limits Act 1964 and “the new fishery limits” means British fishery limits set by or under this Act.
