

Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977

1977 CHAPTER 15

RELIGIOUS MARRIAGES

10 Removal of celebrant's name from register.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Registrar General may remove the name of a person registered under section 9 of this Act from the register on the ground that—
- (a) that person has requested that his name should be so removed; or
  - (b) the body which nominated that person under section 9(1) of this Act no longer desires that he should be so registered; or
  - (c) the marriage ceremony used by the said body is no longer of an appropriate form within the meaning of section 9(3) of this Act; or
  - (d) that person—
    - (i) has, while registered as an approved celebrant, been convicted of an offence under this Act; or
    - (ii) has, for the purpose of profit or gain, been carrying on a business of solemnising marriages; or
    - (iii) is not a fit and proper person to solemnise marriages; or
    - (iv) for any other reason, should not be so registered.
- (2) The Registrar General shall not remove the name of a person from the register on any ground mentioned in subsection (1)(d) above unless he has given to that person at least 21 days notice in writing of his intention to do so.
- [<sup>F1</sup>(2A) For the purpose of subsection (2) above, notice which is given by electronic means is to be treated as in writing if it is received in a form which is legible and capable of being used for subsequent reference.]
- (3) The Registrar General shall—
- (a) in the notice given under subsection (2) above, specify the ground of removal and call upon the said person to show cause, within the period specified in the notice, why his name should not be removed from the register; and
  - (b) consider any representations made to him within the said period by that person.
