

State Immunity Act 1978

1978 CHAPTER 33

PART I

PROCEEDINGS IN UNITED KINGDOM BY OR AGAINST OTHER STATES

Supplementary provisions

14 States entitled to immunities and privileges.

- (1) The immunities and privileges conferred by this Part of this Act apply to any foreign or commonwealth State other than the United Kingdom; and references to a State include references to—
 - (a) the sovereign or other head of that State in his public capacity;
 - (b) the government of that State; and
 - (c) any department of that government,but not to any entity (hereafter referred to as a “separate entity”) which is distinct from the executive organs of the government of the State and capable of suing or being sued.
- (2) A separate entity is immune from the jurisdiction of the courts of the United Kingdom if, and only if—
 - (a) the proceedings relate to anything done by it in the exercise of sovereign authority; and
 - (b) the circumstances are such that a State (or, in the case of proceedings to which section 10 above applies, a State which is not a party to the Brussels Convention) would have been so immune.
- (3) If a separate entity (not being a State’s central bank or other monetary authority) submits to the jurisdiction in respect of proceedings in the case of which it is entitled to immunity by virtue of subsection (2) above, subsections (1) to (4) of section 13 above shall apply to it in respect of those proceedings as if references to a State were references to that entity.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/02/2023.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the State Immunity Act 1978, Cross Heading: Supplementary provisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Property of a State's central bank or other monetary authority shall not be regarded for the purposes of subsection (4) of section 13 above as in use or intended for use for commercial purposes; and where any such bank or authority is a separate entity subsections (1) to (3) of that section shall apply to it as if references to a State were references to the bank or authority.
- (5) Section 12 above applies to proceedings against the constituent territories of a federal State; and Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for the other provisions of this Part of this Act to apply to any such constituent territory specified in the Order as they apply to a State.
- (6) Where the provisions of this Part of this Act do not apply to a constituent territory by virtue of any such Order subsections (2) and (3) above shall apply to it as if it were a separate entity.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Ss. 12, 13, 14(3)(4) extended by Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982 \(c. 27, SIF 45:3\), ss. 31(4), 53, Sch. 13 Pt. II para. 7

15 Restriction and extension of immunities and privileges.

- (1) If it appears to Her Majesty that the immunities and privileges conferred by this Part of this Act in relation to any State—
 - (a) exceed those accorded by the law of that State in relation to the United Kingdom; or
 - (b) are less than those required by any treaty, convention or other international agreement to which that State and the United Kingdom are parties,
 Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for restricting or, as the case may be, extending those immunities and privileges to such extent as appears to Her Majesty to be appropriate.
- (2) Any statutory instrument containing an Order under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

16 Excluded matters.
