II Act partly in force at Royal Assent see s. 24\(2\); Act wholly in force 1 July 1983

The Central Council

1 Constitution of Central Council.

- (1) There shall be a corporate body known as the United Kingdom Central Council for Nursing, Midwifery and Health Visiting.
- (2) The Council shall consist of the number of members, being not more than 45, prescribed by the Secretary of State by order.
- (3) Of the members of the Council—
 - (a) the majority shall be members of the National Boards established by section 5 below and be nominated by the Boards (in equal numbers) in accordance with Part I of Schedule 1 to this Act; and
 - (b) the other members shall be persons appointed by the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State's appointments shall be made from among persons who either are nurses, midwives, health visitors or registered medical practitioners, or have such qualifications and experience in education or other fields as, in the Secretary of State's opinion, will be of value to the Council in the performance of its functions.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (5) The Secretary of State shall have especially in mind the need to secure that qualifications and experience in the teaching of nurses, midwives and health visitors are adequately represented on the Council.
- (6) The Council shall have—
 - (a) a chairman appointed from among its members (initially by the Secretary of State and, as from such later day as he may by order appoint, by the Council itself); and
 - (b) a deputy chairman appointed by the Council from among its members.
- (7) Part II of Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the constitution and administration, etc. of the Central Council.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 S. 1(6)(a) : 12.7.1985 appointed for purposes of section 1(6)(a) by S.I. 1985/789, art. 2

2 Functions of Council.

- (1) The principal functions of the Central Council shall be to establish and improve standards of training and professional conduct for nurses, midwives and health visitors.
- (2) The Council shall ensure that the standards of training they establish are such as to meet any Community obligation of the United Kingdom.
- (3) The Council shall by means of rules determine the conditions of a person's being admitted to training, and the kind and standard of training to be undertaken, with a view to registration.
- (4) The rules may also make provision with respect to the kind and standard of further training available to persons who are already registered.
- (5) The powers of the Council shall include that of providing, in such manner as it thinks fit, advice for nurses, midwives and health visitors on standards of professional conduct.
- (6) In the discharge of its functions the Council shall have proper regard for the interests of all groups within the professions, including those with minority representation.

3 Standing committees of Council

- (1) The Secretary of State shall by order constitute as standing committees of the Council a Midwifery Committee and a Finance Committee.
- (2) The Council shall consult the Finance Committee on all financial matters.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order constitute other standing committees of the Council and (to the extent prescribed by the order) require the Council to consult them on, or empower them to discharge functions of the Council with respect to, other matters including in particular—

- (a) training;
 - (b) clinical nursing studies;
 - (c) mental nursing; and
 - (d) occupational health nursing.
- (4) An order constituting a standing committee of the Council—
- (a) may provide for persons who are not members of the Council to be appointed as members of that committee; and
 - (b) shall provide for a majority on the committee to be persons who work or have worked in the professional field with which it is primarily concerned.

4 The Midwifery Committee.

- (1) Of the members of the Council's Midwifery Committee the majority shall be practising midwives.
- (2) The Council shall consult the Committee on all matters relating to midwifery and the Committee shall, on behalf of the Council, discharge such of the Council's functions as are assigned to them either by the Council or by the Secretary of State by order.
- (3) The Council shall assign to the Committee any matter involving a proposal to make, amend or revoke rules under section 15 below; and—
 - (a) the Committee shall consider the proposal and report on it to the Council;
 - (b) the Council shall take no action on the report until they have consulted the National Boards with respect to the matters dealt with in it.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall not approve rules relating to midwifery practice unless satisfied that they are framed in accordance with recommendations of the Council's Midwifery Committee.
- (5) Any matter which is assigned to the Midwifery Committee otherwise than under subsection (3) shall be finally dealt with by the Committee on behalf of the Council, so far as the Council expressly authorise the Committee to deal finally with it; and the Committee shall make a report to the Council as to the way in which they have dealt with the matter.

The National Boards and their relationship to the Central Council

5 Constitution of National Boards.

- (1) England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland shall each have a National Board for Nursing, Midwifery and Health Visiting, and the Boards shall be corporate bodies.
- (2) Each of the National Boards shall have the number of members prescribed by the Secretary of State by order, the maximum being, in the case of the National Board for Northern Ireland, 35 members and, in the case of the other National Boards, 45 members.
- (3) Until the appointed day, the members of each National Board shall be persons appointed by the Secretary of State for a term of office ending not later than that day.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) With effect from the appointed day, each of the Boards shall consist—
- (a) of members directly appointed by the Secretary of State; and
 - (b) of elected members, that is to say members appointed by him on being elected under an electoral scheme to be prepared and approved as set out in Part I of Schedule 2 to this Act;
- and, in the case of each Board, the numbers of members who are directly appointed and of elected members shall be as prescribed for that Board by the Secretary of State by order, but so that the elected members form a majority on the Board.
- (5) In the case of each Board—
- (a) the majority of those appointed under subsection (3) shall be persons who are nurses, midwives or health visitors; and
 - (b) the Secretary of State's direct appointments under subsection (4)(a) shall be made from among persons who either—
 - (i) are nurses, midwives, health visitors, or registered medical practitioners, or
 - (ii) have such qualifications and experience in education or other fields as, in his opinion, will be of value to the Board in the performance of its functions.
- (6) The Secretary of State shall have especially in mind the need to secure that qualifications and experience in the teaching of nurses, midwives and health visitors are adequately represented on each Board.
- (7) Each of the Boards shall have a chairman and a deputy chairman appointed from among its members.
- (8) The chairman shall—
- (a) until the appointed day, be a person appointed by the Secretary of State;
 - (b) on and after that day, be a person appointed by the Board;
- and the deputy chairman shall at all times be a person appointed by the Board.
- (9) Part II of Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the constitution and administration, etc of the National Boards.
- (10) In this section and in Schedule 2, “the appointed day” means a day appointed by the Secretary of State by order, which must be not more than three years from the coming into force of this section.

6 Functions of Boards.

- (1) The National Boards shall in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland respectively—
- (a) provide, or arrange for others to provide, at institutions approved by the Board—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) courses of training with a view to enabling persons to qualify for registration as nurses, midwives or health visitors or for the recording of additional qualifications in the register; and
 - (ii) courses of further training for those already registered;
 - (b) ensure that such courses meet the requirements of the Central Council as to their content and standard;
 - (c) hold, or arrange for others to hold, such examinations as are necessary to enable persons to satisfy requirements for registration or to obtain additional qualifications;
 - (d) collaborate with the Council in the promotion of improved training methods; and
 - (e) carry out investigations of cases of alleged misconduct, with a view to proceedings before the Central Council or a committee of the Council for a person to be removed from the register.
- (2) The National Boards shall discharge their functions subject to and in accordance with any applicable rules of the Council and shall have proper regard for the interests of all groups within the professions, including those with minority representation.

7 Standing committees of Boards.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall for each of the National Boards by order constitute as standing committees of the Board a Midwifery Committee and a Finance Committee.
- (2) Of the members of the Board's Midwifery Committee the majority shall be practising midwives.
- (3) Each Board shall consult its Midwifery Committee on all matters relating to midwifery and the Committee shall, on behalf of the Board, discharge such of the Board's functions as are assigned to them by the Board or by the Secretary of State by order.
- (4) In particular, the Board, when consulted by the Central Council with respect to matters dealt with in a report of the latter's Midwifery Committee, shall seek the views of its own Midwifery Committee on those matters.
- (5) Each Board shall consult its Finance Committee on all financial matters.
- (6) In the case of any Board, the Secretary of State may by order constitute other standing committees of the Board and (to the extent prescribed by the order) require the Board to consult them on, or empower the committee to discharge functions of the Board with respect to, any other matters including any of those mentioned in section 3(3).
- (7) An order constituting a standing committee of a National Board—
 - (a) may provide for persons who are not members of the Board to be appointed as members of that committee; and
 - (b) shall provide for a majority on the committee to be persons who work or have worked in the professional field with which it is primarily concerned.

8 Joint committees of Council and Boards.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall by order constitute a joint committee of the Central Council and the National Boards, called the Health Visiting Joint Committee.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Of the members of the Health Visiting Joint Committee, the majority shall be practising health visitors.
- (3) The Council and each of the Boards shall consult the Joint Committee on all matters relating to health visiting and shall not act on any such matters before receiving a recommendation of the Joint Committee which shall be made within such period of time as the Council or Board shall specify; and the Committee shall, on behalf of the Council or of any Board, discharge such of the functions of the Council or the Board as are assigned to it by the body otherwise charged with those functions, or by the Secretary of State by order.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order constitute other joint committees of the Council and the National Boards and (to the extent prescribed by the order)—
 - (a) require the Council and the Boards to consult the appropriate joint committee on such matters as may be assigned to it; and
 - (b) authorise any such committee to discharge functions of the Council or a Board with respect to any matters including any of those mentioned in section 3(3).
- (5) There may in particular be constituted under subsection (4) a joint committee to be concerned with district nursing.
- (6) Joint committees shall be constituted from members of the Council and of the Boards, in such numbers and proportions as the Secretary of State's order may specify; and his order—
 - (a) may provide for persons who are not members of the Council or of any Board to be appointed as members of the joint committee;
 - (b) shall provide for a majority on the joint committee to be persons who work or have worked in the professional field with which it is primarily concerned.

9 Local training committees.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide for the constitution of training committees of the Boards for such areas of England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland as the order may prescribe.
- (2) The committees shall be charged with assisting the Boards in the exercise of their training functions, being the functions specified in section 6(1)(a) to (c) above.
- (3) The committees shall discharge the training functions of the Boards to such extent and in such cases as may be prescribed or (subject to orders under this section) the Boards may direct.
- (4) The committees shall carry out their functions in accordance with directions given to them by the Boards.
- (5) Orders under this section may make provision for persons who are not members of a Board to be appointed as members of any of its training committees.
- (6) Before making an order under this section, and before varying or revoking such an order, the Secretary of State shall consult the Central Council and have regard to any proposals made by the Council after it has consulted the Boards for the parts of the United Kingdom affected.

Registration

10 The professional register.

- (1) The Central Council shall prepare and maintain a register of qualified nurses, midwives and health visitors.
- (2) The register shall be divided into such parts as the Secretary of State may by order determine, the parts being indicative of different qualifications and different kinds and standards of training; and in this Act references to parts of the register are to the parts so determined.
- (3) The Council may by rules make provision—
 - (a) as to the documentary and other evidence to be produced, and the fees to be paid, by those applying for registration or for additional qualifications to be recorded, or for any entry in the register to be altered or restored;
 - (b) as to the keeping of the register and the means of obtaining access to, and copies of extracts from it;
 - (c) for a person's registration to remain effective without limitation of time (subject to removal from the register for misconduct or otherwise) or to lapse after a specified period or in specified cases, or to be subject to renewal as and when provided by the rules.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order provide—
 - (a) for persons to be registered in one or more parts of the register by virtue of having been included in one or more of the registers, rolls or lists maintained under enactments repealed by this Act, or having been certified under any of those enactments;
 - (b) for a specified part of the register to be closed, as from a date specified by the order, so that on or after that date no further persons can become registered in that part;
 - (c) for a specified part of the register to be sub-divided into two or more parts, or for two or more parts to be combined into one.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall consult the Central Council before making, varying or revoking any order under this section.
- (6) A certificate issued and duly authenticated by the Council stating that a person is, or was at any date, or is not, or was not at any date, registered shall be evidence in all courts of law of the fact stated in the certificate.
- (7) In any enactment or instrument (past or future, and including this Act)

“registered”, in relation to nurses, midwives and health visitors, means registered in the register maintained under this section by virtue of qualifications in nursing, midwifery or health visiting, as the case may be.
- (8) Orders under subsection (2) may, by reference to the part or parts in which a person is registered, prescribe the more advanced qualifications which he must have in order to be treated as a qualified nurse for the purposes of any particular enactment or instrument.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

11 Admission to register.

- (1) A person seeking admission to a part of the register must make application to the Central Council in accordance with the Council's rules.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4) below, the applicant shall be registered in that part (on payment of such fee as may be required by the rules) if he satisfies the Council that he is of good character and has the appropriate professional qualifications.
- (3) He is to be regarded as having those qualifications if—
 - (a) he has in the United Kingdom undergone the training, and passed the examinations, required by the Council's rules for admission to that part of the register; or
 - (b) being a national of any member State of the European Communities, he has professional qualifications, obtained in a member State other than the United Kingdom, which the Secretary of State has by order designated as having Community equivalence for purposes of registration in that part; or
 - (c) he has, elsewhere than in the United Kingdom, undergone training in nursing, midwifery or health visiting (as the case may be) and either—
 - (i) that training is recognised by the Central Council as being to a standard sufficient for registration in that part; or
 - (ii) it is not so recognised, but the applicant has undergone in the United Kingdom or elsewhere such additional training as the Council may require.

[^{F1}(3A) An order under subsection (3)(b) may provide that a professional qualification designated by the order is to be regarded as having Community equivalence for the purposes of registration in a part of the register only if prescribed conditions [^{F2}required by a directive issued by the Council of the European Communities] are fulfilled; and different conditions may be prescribed with respect to the same qualification for different circumstances.]

- (4) In the case of an applicant within subsection (3) . . . ^{F3}(c), the rules may either—
 - (a) make it an additional condition of his being registered that he has the necessary knowledge of English; or
 - (b) require him to have that knowledge within a period specified by the rules (failing which his registration will lapse at the end of the period).

[^{F4}(4A) In any case where—

- (a) an application for admission to a part of the register is made by an applicant within subsection (3)(b), and
- (b) the Council has received all the documentary evidence as to his character and qualifications required to enable him to be registered, he shall be registered in that part within 3 months of the date on which the Council was in receipt of that evidence.]

- (5) "National" in relation to a member State of the European Communities, means the same as it does for the purposes of the Community Treaties.

F18 Ss. 22A, 22B inserted by S.I. 1983/884, art. 6

22B Visiting EEC nurses and midwives.

- (1) In this Act “visiting EEC nurse” and “visiting EEC midwife” means a person who—
- (a) is a national of any member State, and
 - (b) is lawfully practising in a member State other than the United Kingdom as a nurse responsible for general care or, as the case may be, as a midwife, and
 - (c) holds the appropriate diploma, and
 - (d) is temporarily in the United Kingdom as a visitor, and
 - (e) provides the Council with the relevant documents.

- (2) A visiting EEC nurse and a visiting EEC midwife shall provide the Council with the relevant documents before he provides any services as a nurse or midwife in the United Kingdom except that, in a case of sudden or urgent necessity, a nurse may provide the documents as soon as possible after he has provided his services as a nurse.

This subsection is without prejudice to section 17(3)(a).

- (3) For the purposes of this Act “the appropriate diploma” means a diploma, certificate or other evidence of formal qualifications which member States are required to recognize in the case of a nurse, by the Nursing Directive or, in the case of a midwife, by the Midwifery Directive.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act “relevant documents”, in relation to any person means—
- (a) a written declaration stating—
 - (i) that he is intending to practise in the United Kingdom as a nurse responsible for general care or, as the case may be, as a midwife, and
 - (ii) the address of the place where and the period during which he intends so to practise, and
 - (b) a certificate or certificates issued, not more than twelve months before the date on which the Council is provided with the relevant documents, by the competent authority of the member State in which he is practising as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) certifying—
 - (i) that he is lawfully practising as a nurse responsible for general care or, as the case may be, as a midwife in that State; and
 - (ii) that he holds an appropriate diploma.

- (5) For the purposes of this Act—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) “competent authority” in relation to a member State means the authority or body designated by that member State as competent for the purposes of the Nursing Directive, or, as the case may be, the Midwifery Directive;
 - (b) “Nursing Directive” means the European Communities Council Directive No. 77/452/EEC, concerning the mutual recognition of diplomas, certificates and other evidence of the formal qualifications of nurses responsible for general care; and
 - (c) “Midwifery Directive” means the European Communities Council Directive No. 80/154/EEC, concerning the mutual recognition of diplomas, certificates and other evidence of the formal qualifications of midwives;
- and “national” shall be construed in accordance with section 11(5).

23 Interpretation and supplementary.

(1) In this Act—

“by order” means by order in a statutory instrument;

“the Central Council” and “the Council” mean the body established by section 1(1);

“elected members” has the meaning given by section 5(4)(b);

“the National Boards” and “the Boards” mean the bodies established by section 5(1);

“prescribed” means prescribed by the Secretary of State by order;

“the professional register” means the register maintained by the Council under section 10(1), and “registration” and “register” shall be construed accordingly;

“rules” means rules made by the Council; and “training” includes education;

and for a person to be treated as “practising” he must be working in some capacity by virtue of a qualification in nursing, midwifery or health visiting as the case may be.

(2) Orders under this Act shall be subject to annulment by resolution of either House of Parliament; but this does not apply to—

- (a) orders under section 22(4), Schedule 2, Part I, Schedule 3 or Schedule 5, Part I; or
- (b) orders appointing a day for the purposes of any provision of this Act.

(3) Schedule 6 to this Act has effect for adapting the provisions of this Act there mentioned in their application to Northern Ireland and to the National Board for Nursing, Midwifery and Health Visiting for Northern Ireland.

(4) The enactments specified in Schedule 7 are amended as there specified

(5) The enactments specified in Schedule 8 are repealed to the extent there specified

SCHEDULE 5

Section 21.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS, ETC.

PART I

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AND STAFF ETC. FROM EXISTING BODIES

- 1 In this Schedule—
- “the new statutory bodies” means the Central Council and the four National Boards;
- “the replaced statutory bodies” means the bodies mentioned in section 21(1) of this Act.
- (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide for the transfer on the day specified by the order—
- (a) to the employment of one or other of the new statutory bodies of any persons who immediately before that day were employed by one of the replaced statutory bodies;
- (b) to any one or other of the new statutory bodies of such of the property, rights and liabilities, which immediately before that day were property, rights and liabilities of one or other of the replaced statutory bodies, as may be specified by the order.
- (2) The reference in sub-paragraph (1)(b) above to rights and liabilities does not include rights and liabilities under any contract of employment.
- (3) An order under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above shall, in the case of any persons transferred by the order, provide for the scales of remuneration applicable to them in the employment of the new statutory body and, taken as a whole, the other terms and conditions of that employment to be in general no less favourable than the scales of remuneration, terms and conditions enjoyed by them immediately before the transfer.
- (4) Any such order shall so provide and have effect that, for the purposes of any enactment specified in it, the employments from which and to which persons are transferred by the order are to be treated as one continuous employment.
- 3 Orders under paragraph 2 shall provide for persons suffering loss of employment in consequence of the dissolution of any of the replaced statutory bodies (whether or not they are entitled to payments in respect of that loss of employment under legislation relating to redundancy) to be entitled, in such circumstances as the order may specify, to compensation payable by the Central Council on scales laid down by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Minister for the Civil Service.
- 4 Any dispute arising as to whether or not—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the terms of employment with one of the new statutory bodies are, or would be, less favourable to a person than those on which he was employed at the time when the employment was offered to him; or
- (b) whether or not a person's refusal of employment with one of those bodies was reasonable, and any dispute concerning the compensation referred to in paragraph 3, shall be referred to and determined by an industrial tribunal.

5 Any property, rights and liabilities (other than rights and liabilities under a contract of employment) which are vested in or incumbent on any of the replaced statutory bodies immediately before the day on which the replaced statutory bodies are dissolved and are not transferred on that day by virtue of an order under paragraph 2(1)(b) above shall by virtue of this sub-paragraph be transferred to, and vest in or become incumbent on, the Central Council on that day.

6 (1) Where a person formerly employed by any of the replaced statutory bodies claims to have a right of action against that body arising from his employment by them but is unable to pursue his claim because of the dissolution of the body, he may bring his claim—

- (a) if he is transferred to the employment of one or other of the new statutory bodies, against that body; or
- (b) in any other case, against the Central Council.

(2) The body against whom a claim is brought by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) shall be liable in the same manner and to the same extent as the replaced statutory body would have been liable if it had not been dissolved.

PART II

CONTINUATION OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

7 Where on the appointed day any disciplinary proceedings—

- (a) are pending before any of the replaced statutory bodies or before any committee of theirs; or
- (b) have begun but the body or committee seized of them has not communicated its decision to the person who is the subject of the proceedings, that body or committee shall refer the proceedings to the Central Council and the Council shall dispose of the matter in whatever way it thinks just.

8 An appeal by a person aggrieved by a decision of any of the replaced statutory bodies or any committee of theirs to remove or suspend him from one of the registers, rolls or lists maintained under any of the enactments repealed by this Act which is pending or proceeding before any court on the appointed day may be continued and disposed of as if the provision of the repealed enactments under which the appeal was brought had remained in force.

9 In this Part of this Schedule “the appointed day” means the day appointed by the Secretary of State by order for the purposes of this Part.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)
