II Act wholly in force at Royal Assent

1 Exclusion orders.

- (1) Where a court by or before which a person is convicted of an offence committed on licensed premises is satisfied that in committing that offence he resorted to violence or offered or threatened to resort to violence, the court may, subject to subsection (2) below, make an order (in this Act referred to as an “exclusion order”) prohibiting him from entering those premises or any other specified premises, without the express consent of the licensee of the premises or his servant or agent.
- (2) An exclusion order may be made either—
 - (a) in addition to any sentence which is imposed in respect of the offence of which the person is convicted; or 4 Supplemental.

(1) In this Act—

“licensed premises”, in relation to England and Wales, means premises in respect of which there is in force [^{F6}a premises licence under the Licensing Act 2003 authorising the supply of alcohol (within the meaning of section 14 of that Act) for consumption on the premises] and, in relation to Scotland, means premises in respect of which a licence under the ^{M1}Licensing (Scotland) Act 1976, other than an off-sales licence or a licence under Part III of that Act (licences for seamen’s canteens), is in force; and

“licensee” in relation to any licensed premises means the holder of the licence granted in respect of those premises; and

“specified premises”, in relation to an exclusion order, means any licensed premises which the court may specify by name and address in the order.

(2) In the application of section 1 above to Scotland, the reference in subsection (1) of that section to a person’s being convicted of an offence shall, in relation to proceedings in a court of summary jurisdiction in which the court, without proceeding to conviction, discharges him absolutely under section 383 of the ^{M2}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975 or makes a probation order under section 384 of that Act, shall be construed as a reference to the court’s being satisfied that he committed the offence.

(3) Where a court makes an exclusion order or an order terminating or varying an exclusion order, the [^{F7}proper officer of the court], shall send a copy of the order to the licensee of the premises to which the order relates.

[^{F8}(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) above—

(a) the proper officer of a magistrates’ court in England and Wales is the [^{F9}designated officer] for the court;

(b) the proper officer of the Crown Court is the appropriate officer; and

(c) the proper officer of a court in Scotland is the clerk of the court.]
