5 Power of health authorities etc. to raise money, etc., by appeals, collections, etc.^{X3}

(2) After section 84 of the Scottish Act of 1978 there shall be inserted the following section—

“84A Power to raise money, etc. by appeals, collections, etc.

- (1) A Health Board shall have power to engage in activities intended to stimulate the giving (whether on trust or otherwise) of money or other property to assist them in providing or improving any services or any facilities or accommodation which is or are or is or are to be provided as part of the health service or to assist them in connection with their functions with respect to research.
- (2) A local health council shall have power to engage in activities intended to stimulate the giving (whether on trust or otherwise) of money or other property to assist them in carrying out any function conferred upon them by or under any enactment.
- (3) Subject to any directions of the Secretary of State excluding specified descriptions of activity, the activities authorised by this section include public appeals or collections and competitions, entertainments, bazaars, sales of produce or other goods and other similar activities and the activities may involve the use of land, premises or other property held by or for the benefit of the Board or local health council exercising the power subject however to any restrictions on the purposes for which trust property may be used.
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the Health Board or local health council at whose instance property is given in pursuance of this section shall, after defraying out of it any expenses incurred in obtaining it, hold, administer and apply the property on trust for or for the purpose for which it was given.
- (5) Where property held by a Health Board or local health council under this section is more than sufficient to enable the purpose for which it was given to be fulfilled, the excess shall be applicable, in default of any provision for its application made by the trust or other instrument under or in accordance with which the property comprising the excess was given, for such purposes connected with any of the functions of the Board or council as the Board or council think fit.
- (6) Where property held by a Health Board or local health council under this section is insufficient to enable the purpose for which it was given to be fulfilled then—
 - (a) the Board or council may apply so much of the capital or income at their disposal as is needed to enable the purpose to be fulfilled in that respect there shall, in respect of each financial year, be paid by the Secretary of State sums equal to the expenditure which he determines is attributable to the performance of those functions in that year.

(2A) The Secretary of State may give directions to a body referred to in subsection (1) with respect to the application of the sums paid to them under that subsection and it shall be the duty of any body to whom directions have been given under this subsection to comply with the directions.”

^{x4}(4) After the said section 85 there shall be inserted the following section—

“85A Financial duties of bodies referred to in section 85.

- (1) It is the duty of each such body as is referred to in section 85(1), in respect of each financial year, so to perform their functions as to secure that the expenditure attributable to the performance of their functions in that year does not exceed the aggregate of—
 - (a) the amounts allotted to that body for that year under section 85(1);
 - (b) any other sums received under this Act in that year by that body; and
 - (c) any sums received otherwise than under this Act in that year by that body for the purpose of enabling them to defray any such expenditure.
- (2) Subsection (3) of section 85 shall apply for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.
- (3) The Secretary of State may give such directions to a body referred to in section 85(1) as appear to him to be requisite to secure that the body comply with the duty imposed on them by subsection (1) and it shall be the duty of the body to comply with the directions.

Directions under this subsection may be specific in character.

- (4) To the extent to which—
 - (a) any expenditure of a Health Board or a local health council is defrayed by that body as trustee; or
 - (b) any sums are received by such a body as trustee or under section 84A,that expenditure and, subject to subsection (5), those sums shall be disregarded for the purposes of this section, and, for those purposes, sums which, in the hands of such a body, cease to be trust funds and become applicable by that body otherwise than as trustee shall be treated, on their becoming so applicable, as having been received by that body otherwise than as trustee.
- (5) Of the sums received by a body under section 84A so much only as accrues to the body after defraying any expenses incurred in obtaining them shall be disregarded under subsection (4).
- (6) Subject to subsection (4), the Secretary of State may, by directions, determine—
 - (a) whether sums of a description specified in the directions are or are not to be treated for the purposes of this section as being receivable under this Act by a body of a description so specified;
 - (b) whether expenditure of a description specified in the directions is or is not to be treated for the purposes of this section as being attributable

12 Meaning of “controlled premises”.^{x6}

(1) In subsection (2) of the Act of 1976 (control of construction and extension of controlled premises)—

(a) for the definition of “controlled premises” there shall be substituted the following definition—

“ “controlled premises” means hospital premises which provide or will provide beds for the use of patients, being hospital premises—in the case of which the number of beds which are or will be so provided is one hundred and twenty or more; or which are or are to be situated in an area designated by the Secretary of State under subsection (2A) below;”; and

(b) after the definition of “controlled works” there shall be inserted the following definitions—

“ “hospital premises” means premises at which there are or are to be facilities for the provision of hospital services;

“hospital services” means all or any of the following services, namely—

(a) the carrying out of surgical procedures under general anaesthesia;

(b) obstetrics;

(c) radiotherapy;

(d) haemodialysis or peritoneal dialysis;

(e) pathology or diagnostic radiology;

“relevant hospital premises” means hospital premises occupied otherwise than by or on behalf of the Crown or for the purposes of a visiting force”.

(2) After the said subsection (2) there shall be inserted the following subsections—

“(2A) If, on an application by a health authority, the Secretary of State is satisfied that relevant hospital premises in the whole or any part of their area or district provide or will provide, if taken together, one hundred and twenty or more beds for the use of patients, he may, after consulting with such persons and representative bodies as appear to him to be concerned, by regulations designate the whole or, as the case may be, that part of the authority’s area or district as an area in which all hospital premises which provide or will provide beds for the use of patients shall be controlled premises; and regulations under this subsection—

- (a) may contain such transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient; and
 - (b) shall have effect for such period not exceeding five years as may be prescribed.
- (2B) in determining for the purposes of subsection (2A) above how many beds relevant hospital premises will provide, the Secretary of State shall not take into account the proposed execution of any works unless—
- (a) an authorisation for the execution of those works has been granted; or
 - (b) a contract for the execution of those works has been entered into.
- (2C) The Secretary of State shall not exercise the power conferred by subsection (2A) above unless, having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (3)(a) of section 13 below, he considers that the execution of works which, if the power were exercised, would be controlled works would be likely to interfere as mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of that section.”.]

- (2) After subsection (3) of that section there shall be inserted the following subsections—
 - “(4) Subsection (1) above does not apply in the case of works for the construction of a controlled extension of controlled premises if —
 - (a) the premises are situated elsewhere than in an area designated by the Secretary of State under subsection (2A) above; and
 - (b) the premises were constructed as controlled premises, or were converted into controlled premises, whether before or after the coming into force of this Part of this Act; and
 - (c) where the works will enable additional beds to be provided, the aggregate number of additional beds which will have then been provided at the premises since the beginning of the current three year period (or, if later, the time when the premises were constructed or converted) will not exceed the permitted number.
- (5) In subsection (4) above— “permitted number”, in relation to a three year period, means one fifth of the number of beds provided at the premises in question at the beginning of that period or, if later, the time when the premises were constructed or converted; “three year period” means the period of three years beginning with the passing of the Health Services Act 1980 and each successive period of three years.”.]
