

Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982

1982 CHAPTER 29

PART I

SUPPLY OF GOODS

Contracts for the transfer of property in goods

1 The contracts concerned.

- (1) In this Act [^{F1}in its application to England and Wales and Northern Ireland]a “[^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods]” means a contract under which one person transfers or agrees to transfer to another the property in goods, other than an excepted contract[^{F3}, and other than a contract to which Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Consumer Rights Act 2015 applies.]
- (2) For the purposes of this section an excepted contract means any of the following:—
 - (a) a contract of sale of goods;
 - (b) a hire-purchase agreement;
 - (c) ^{F4}
 - (d) a transfer or agreement to transfer which is made by deed and for which there is no consideration other than the presumed consideration imported by the deed;
 - (e) a contract intended to operate by way of mortgage, pledge, charge or other security.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act [^{F1}in its application to England and Wales and Northern Ireland]a contract is a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods] whether or not services are also provided or to be provided under the contract, and (subject to subsection (2) above) whatever is the nature of the consideration for the transfer or agreement to transfer.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

2 Implied terms about title, etc.

- (1) In a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], other than one to which subsection (3) below applies, there is an implied condition on the part of the transferor that in the case of a transfer of the property in the goods he has a right to transfer the property and in the case of an agreement to transfer the property in the goods he will have such a right at the time when the property is to be transferred.
- (2) In a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], other than one to which subsection (3) below applies, there is also an implied warranty that—
 - (a) the goods are free, and will remain free until the time when the property is to be transferred, from any charge or encumbrance not disclosed or known to the transferee before the contract is made, and
 - (b) the transferee will enjoy quiet possession of the goods except so far as it may be disturbed by the owner or other person entitled to the benefit of any charge or encumbrance so disclosed or known.
- (3) This subsection applies to a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods] in the case of which there appears from the contract or is to be inferred from its circumstances an intention that the transferor should transfer only such title as he or a third person may have.
- (4) In a contract to which subsection (3) above applies there is an implied warranty that all charges or encumbrances known to the transferor and not known to the transferee have been disclosed to the transferee before the contract is made.
- (5) In a contract to which subsection (3) above applies there is also an implied warranty that none of the following will disturb the transferee's quiet possession of the goods, namely—
 - (a) the transferor;
 - (b) in a case where the parties to the contract intend that the transferor should transfer only such title as a third person may have, that person;
 - (c) anyone claiming through or under the transferor or that third person otherwise than under a charge or encumbrance disclosed or known to the transferee before the contract is made.

3 Implied terms where transfer is by description.

- (1) This section applies where, under a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], the transferor transfers or agrees to transfer the property in the goods by description.
- (2) In such a case there is an implied condition that the goods will correspond with the description.
- (3) If the transferor transfers or agrees to transfer the property in the goods by sample as well as by description it is not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.
- (4) A contract is not prevented from falling within subsection (1) above by reason only that, being exposed for supply, the goods are selected by the transferee.

4 Implied terms about quality or fitness.

- (1) Except as provided by this section and section 5 below and subject to the provisions of any other enactment, there is no implied condition or warranty about the quality or fitness for any particular purpose of goods supplied under a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods].
- [^{F5}(2) Where, under such a contract, the transferor transfers the property in goods in the course of a business, there is an implied condition that the goods supplied under the contract are of satisfactory quality.
- (2A) For the purposes of this section and section 5 below, goods are of satisfactory quality if they meet the standard that a reasonable person would regard as satisfactory, taking account of any description of the goods, the price (if relevant) and all the other relevant circumstances.
- ^{F6}(2B)
- ^{F6}(2C)
- ^{F6}(2D)
- (3) The condition implied by subsection (2) above does not extend to any matter making the quality of goods unsatisfactory—
 - (a) which is specifically drawn to the transferee’s attention before the contract is made,
 - (b) where the transferee examines the goods before the contract is made, which that examination ought to reveal, or

- (c) where the property in the goods is transferred by reference to a sample, which would have been apparent on a reasonable examination of the sample.]
- (4) Subsection (5) below applies where, under a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], the transferor transfers the property in goods in the course of a business and the transferee, expressly or by implication, makes known—
- (a) to the transferor, or
 - (b) where the consideration or part of the consideration for the transfer is a sum payable by instalments and the goods were previously sold by a credit-broker to the transferor, to that credit-broker,
- any particular purpose for which the goods are being acquired.
- (5) In that case there is (subject to subsection (6) below) an implied condition that the goods supplied under the contract are reasonably fit for that purpose, whether or not that is a purpose for which such goods are commonly supplied.
- (6) Subsection (5) above does not apply where the circumstances show that the transferee does not rely, or that it is unreasonable for him to rely, on the skill or judgment of the transferor or credit-broker.
- (7) An implied condition or warranty about quality or fitness for a particular purpose may be annexed by usage to a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods].
- (8) The preceding provisions of this section apply to a transfer by a person who in the course of a business is acting as agent for another as they apply to a transfer by a principal in the course of a business, except where that other is not transferring in the course of a business and either the transferee knows that fact or reasonable steps are taken to bring it to the transferee's notice before the contract concerned is made.

11A ^{F27} The contracts concerned.

- (1) In this Act in its application to Scotland a “ [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods] ” means a contract under which one person transfers or agrees to transfer to another the property in goods, other than an excepted contract^{F28}, and other than a contract to which Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Consumer Rights Act 2015 applies.]
- (2) For the purposes of this section an excepted contract means any of the following—
- (a) a contract of sale of goods;
 - (b) a hire-purchase agreement;
 - (c) ^{F29}
 - (d) a transfer or agreement to transfer for which there is no consideration;
 - (e) a contract intended to operate by way of mortgage, pledge, charge or other security.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act in its application to Scotland a contract is a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods] whether or not services are also provided or to be provided under the contract, and (subject to subsection (2) above) whatever is the nature of the consideration for the transfer or agreement to transfer.

11B ^{F30} Implied terms about title, etc.

- (1) In a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], other than one to which subsection (3) below applies, there is an implied term on the part of the transferor that in the case of a transfer of the property in the goods he has a right to transfer the property and in the case of an agreement to transfer the property in the goods he will have such a right at the time when the property is to be transferred.
- (2) In a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], other than one to which subsection (3) below applies, there is also an implied term that—
 - (a) the goods are free, and will remain free until the time when the property is to be transferred, from any charge or encumbrance not disclosed or known to the transferee before the contract is made, and
 - (b) the transferee will enjoy quiet possession of the goods except so far as it may be disturbed by the owner or other person entitled to the benefit of any charge or encumbrance so disclosed or known.
- (3) This subsection applies to a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods] in the case of which there appears from the contract or is to be inferred from its circumstances an intention that the transferor should transfer only such title as he or a third person may have.
- (4) In a contract to which subsection (3) above applies there is an implied term that all charges or encumbrances known to the transferor and not known to the transferee have been disclosed to the transferee before the contract is made.
- (5) In a contract to which subsection (3) above applies there is also an implied term that none of the following will disturb the transferee's quiet possession of the goods, namely—
 - (a) the transferor;
 - (b) in a case where the parties to the contract intend that the transferor should transfer only such title as a third person may have, that person;
 - (c) anyone claiming through or under the transferor or that third person otherwise than under a charge or encumbrance disclosed or known to the transferee before the contract is made.
- (6) In section 21 of the 1977 Act after subsection (3) there is inserted the following subsection—

“(3A) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, any term of a contract which purports to exclude or restrict liability for breach of the obligations arising under section 11B of the Supply of Goods and Services

- (4) The term implied by subsection (2) above does not extend to any matter making the quality of goods unsatisfactory—
- (a) which is specifically drawn to the transferee’s attention before the contract is made,
 - (b) where the transferee examines the goods before the contract is made, which that examination ought to reveal, or
 - (c) where the property in the goods is, or is to be, transferred by reference to a sample, which would have been apparent on a reasonable examination of the sample.
- (5) Subsection (6) below applies where, under a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], the transferor transfers the property in goods in the course of a business and the transferee, expressly or by implication, makes known—
- (a) to the transferor, or
 - (b) where the consideration or part of the consideration for the transfer is a sum payable by instalments and the goods were previously sold by a credit-broker to the transferor, to that credit-broker,
- any particular purpose for which the goods are being acquired.
- (6) In that case there is (subject to subsection (7) below) an implied term that the goods supplied under the contract are reasonably fit for the purpose, whether or not that is a purpose for which such goods are commonly supplied.
- (7) Subsection (6) above does not apply where the circumstances show that the transferee does not rely, or that it is unreasonable for him to rely, on the skill or judgment of the transferor or credit-broker.
- (8) An implied term about quality or fitness for a particular purpose may be annexed by usage to a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods].
- (9) The preceding provisions of this section apply to a transfer by a person who in the course of a business is acting as agent for another as they apply to a transfer by a principal in the course of a business, except where that other is not transferring in the course of a business and either the transferee knows that fact or reasonable steps are taken to bring it to the transferee’s notice before the contract concerned is made.

F55 S. 17(1) repealed (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 35, ss. 7, 8(2), Sch. 3 (with s. 8(3))

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C2 The text of s. 17 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

18 Interpretation: general.

(1) In the preceding provisions of this Act and this section—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

“bailee”, in relation to a [^{F13}relevant contract for the hire of goods] means (depending on the context) a person to whom the goods are bailed under the contract, or a person to whom they are to be so bailed, or a person to whom the rights under the contract of either of those persons have passed;

“bailor”, in relation to a [^{F13}relevant contract for the hire of goods], means (depending on the context) a person who bails the goods under the contract, or a person who agrees to do so, or a person to whom the duties under the contract of either of those persons have passed;

“business” includes profession and the activities of any government department or local or public authority;

“credit-broker” means a person acting in the course of a business of credit brokerage carried on by him;

“credit brokerage” means the effecting of introductions—

- (a) of individuals desiring to obtain credit to persons carrying on any business so far as it relates to the provision of credit; or
- (b) of individuals desiring to obtain goods on hire to persons carrying on a business which comprises or relates to the bailment [^{F56}or as regards Scotland the hire]of goods under a [^{F13}relevant contract for the hire of goods]; or
- (c) of individuals desiring to obtain credit, or to obtain goods on hire, to other credit-brokers;

“enactment” means any legislation (including subordinate legislation) of the United Kingdom or Northern Ireland;

“goods” [^{F57}includes all personal chattels, other than things in action and money, and as regards Scotland all corporeal moveables; and in particular “goods” includes] emblements, industrial growing crops, and things attached to or forming part of the land which are agreed to be severed before the transfer [^{F57}bailment or hire]concerned or under the contract concerned ^{F58}. . . ;

“hire-purchase agreement” has the same meaning as in the 1974 Act;

^{F59}

^{F60}“property”, in relation to goods, means the general property in them and not merely a special property;

^{F61}

^{F62}
...

^{F59}
...

^{F63}

“transferee”, in relation to a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], means (depending on the context) a person to whom the property in the goods is transferred under the contract, or a person to whom the property is to be so transferred, or a person to whom the rights under the contract of either of those persons have passed;

“transferor”, in relation to a [^{F2}relevant contract for the transfer of goods], means (depending on the context) a person who transfers the property in the goods under the contract, or a person who agrees to do so, or a person to whom the duties under the contract of either of those persons have passed.

- (2) In subsection (1) above, in the definitions of bailee, bailor, transferee and transferor, a reference to rights or duties passing is to their passing by assignment [^{F64}assignment], operation of law or otherwise.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- [^{F65}(3) For the purposes of this Act, the quality of goods includes their state and condition and the following (among others) are in appropriate cases aspects of the quality of goods—
- (a) fitness for all the purposes for which goods of the kind in question are commonly supplied,
 - (b) appearance and finish,
 - (c) freedom from minor defects,
 - (d) safety, and
 - (e) durability.
