Unfair dismissal

2 Compensation for certain dismissals.

(1) The provisions of Schedule 1 shall have effect for the purpose of enabling the Secretary of State to make payments towards compensating individuals who in certain past cases have been dismissed for failure to conform to the requirements of a union membership agreement.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in consequence of that Schedule shall be defrayed out of money provided by Parliament.

F23 .....

Textual Amendments

F2 S. 3 (which was not reproduced in Statutes in Force) is repealed (16.10.1992) by Trade Union and Labour Relations \(Consolidation\) Act 1992 \(c. 52\), ss. 300(1), 302, Sch.1 (with Sch. 3 para. 2).

4 Basic award.

- (1) In section 73 of the 1978 Act (calculation of basic award) after subsection (4) there shall be inserted—

- “(4A) Where the dismissal is to be regarded as unfair by virtue of section 58 or 59(a), the amount of the basic award (before any reduction under the following provisions of this section) shall not be less than £2,000.

- “(4B) The Secretary of State may by order increase or further increase the minimum award provided for by sub- section (4A), but no order shall be made under this subsection unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”.

- (2) The following provisions of section 73, namely—

- (a) subsection (7) (reduction of award where complainant contributed to his own dismissal, except in cases of redundancy), and
  - (b) in subsection (7B) (reduction of award where justified by complainant’s conduct, other than conduct taken into account under subsection (7)) the words from “other” to “subsection (7)”, shall cease to have effect ; and after subsection (7B) there shall be added—

- “(7C) Subsection (7B) shall not apply where the reason or principal reason for the dismissal was that the employee was redundant unless the dismissal is to be regarded as unfair by virtue of section 59(a), and in that event shall apply only to so much of the basic award as is payable because of subsection (4A).”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C2 The text of s. 4 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

5 New special award.

- (1) In section 71(2)(b) of the 1978 Act (additional compensation to be awarded where order under section 69 not complied with unless it was not practicable for the employer to comply) for the word “unless” there shall be substituted the words “except in a case in which the dismissal is to be regarded as unfair by virtue of section 58 or 59(a) or in which”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

---

- (2) For section 72 of the 1978 Act (which provides that compensation for unfair dismissal shall consist of a basic award and a compensatory award) there shall be substituted—

“72 Compensation for unfair dismissal.

Where a tribunal makes an award of compensation for unfair dismissal under section 68(2) or 71(2)(a) the award shall consist of—

- (a) a basic award (calculated in accordance with section 73), and
- (b) a compensatory award (calculated in accordance with section 74), and
- (c) where the dismissal is to be regarded as unfair by virtue of section 58 or 59(a), a special award (calculated in accordance with section 75A); but paragraph (c) shall not apply unless the complainant requested the tribunal to make an order under section 69, and shall not in any event apply in a case within section 73(2).”.

- (3) After section 75 of the 1978 Act there shall be inserted—

“75A Calculation of special award.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the amount of the special award shall be—

- (a) one week’s pay multiplied by 104, or
- (b) £10,000,

whichever is the greater, but shall not exceed £20,000.

- (2) If the award of compensation is made under section 71(2)(a) then, unless the employer satisfies the tribunal that it was not practicable to comply with the preceding order under section 69, the amount of the special award shall be increased to—

- (a) one week’s pay multiplied by 156, or
- (b) £15,000,

whichever is the greater, but subject to the following provisions of this section.

- (3) In a case where the amount of the basic award is reduced under section 73(5), the amount of the special award shall be reduced by the same fraction.

- (4) Where the tribunal considers that any conduct of the complainant before the dismissal (or, where the dismissal was with notice, before the notice was given) was such that it would be just and equitable to reduce or further reduce the amount of the special award to any extent, the tribunal shall reduce or further reduce that amount accordingly.

- (5) Where the tribunal finds that the complainant has unreasonably—

- (a) prevented an order under section 69 from being complied with; or
- (b) refused an offer by the employer (made otherwise than in compliance with such an order) which if accepted would have the effect of reinstating the complainant in his employment in all respects as if he had not been dismissed;

the tribunal shall reduce or further reduce the amount of the special award to such extent as it considers just and equitable having regard to that finding.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

---

- (6) Where the employer has engaged a permanent replacement for the complainant, the tribunal shall not take that fact into account in determining, for the purposes of subsection (2), whether it was practicable to comply with an order under section 69 unless the employer shows that it was not practicable for him to arrange for the complainant's work to be done without engaging a permanent replacement.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order increase any of the sums of £10,000, £20,000 and £15,000 specified in subsections (1) and (2), or any of those sums as from time to time increased under this subsection, but no such order shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C3 The text of s. 5 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

6 Reduction of compensation: matters to be disregarded.

After section 72 of the 1978 Act there shall be inserted the following section—

“72A Reduction of compensation: matters to be disregarded.

- (1) This section applies in any case where a tribunal makes an award of compensation for unfair dismissal under section 68(2) or 71(2)(a) and the dismissal is to be regarded as unfair by virtue of section 58 or 59(a).
- (2) In such a case the tribunal, in considering whether it would be just and equitable to reduce, or further reduce, the amount of any part of the award, shall disregard any conduct or action of the complainant in so far as it constitutes
- (a) a breach, or proposed breach, of any requirement falling within subsection (3);
  - (b) a refusal, or proposed refusal, to comply with a requirement of a kind mentioned in section 58(13)(a) ; or
  - (c) an objection, or proposed objection, (however expressed) to the operation of a provision of a kind mentioned in section 58(13)(b).
- (3) A requirement falls within this subsection if it is imposed on the complainant in question by or under any arrangement or contract of employment or other agreement and requires him—
- (a) to be or become a member of any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions ;
  - (b) to cease to be, or refrain from becoming, a member of any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions; or
  - (c) not to take part in the activities of any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions.”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C4 The text of s. 6 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

7 Awards against third parties.

For section 76A of the 1978 Act (contribution in respect of compensation) there shall be substituted—

“76A Awards against third parties

- (1) If in proceedings before an industrial tribunal on a complaint against an employer under section 67 either the employer or the complainant claims—
- (a) that the employer was induced to dismiss the complainant by pressure which a trade union or other person exercised on the employer by calling, organising, procuring or financing a strike or other industrial action, or by threatening to do so, and
  - (b) that the pressure was exercised because the complainant was not a member of any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions,
- the employer or the complainant may request the tribunal to direct that the person who he claims exercised the pressure be joined, or in Scotland sisted, as a party to the proceedings.
- (2) A request under subsection (1) shall be granted if it is made before the hearing of the complaint begins, but may be refused if it is made after that time ; and no such request may be made after the tribunal has made an award under section 68(2) of an order under section 69.
- (3) Where a person has been joined, or in Scotland sisted, as a party to proceedings before an industrial tribunal by virtue of subsection (1) and the tribunal—
- (a) makes an award of compensation under section 68(2) or 71(2)(a) or (b), but
  - (b) finds that the claim mentioned in subsection (1) is well-founded,
- the award may be made against that person instead of against the employer, or partly against that person and partly against the employer, as the tribunal may consider just and equitable in the circumstances.”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C5 The text of s. 7 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

8 Interim relief.

- (1) For subsection (1) of section 77 of the 1978 Act (interim relief where employee alleges unfair dismissal for union membership or activities) there shall be substituted—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- “(1) An employee who presents a complaint to an industrial tribunal under section 67 alleging that the dismissal is to be regarded as unfair by virtue of section 58 may apply to the tribunal for an order under the following provisions of this section.”.
- (2) In subsection (3) of section 77 for the words from “,at least” onwards there shall be substituted “give at the appropriate time—
- (a) to the employer ; and
  - (b) in the case of a section 76A request made at least three days before the date of the hearing, to the person to whom the request relates ;
- a copy of the application and certificate (if any) together with notice of the date, time and place of the hearing.
- (3A) In subsection (3)— “appropriate time” means—
- (a) in relation to paragraph (a), not later than seven days before the date of the hearing;
  - (b) in relation to paragraph (b), as soon as reasonably practicable; and “section 76A request” means a request made under section 76A(1) for the tribunal to direct a person to be joined or sisted as a party to the proceedings.”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C6 The text of s. 8 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

9 Dismissal in connection with strike or other industrial action.

- (1) Section 62 of the 1978 Act (dismissal in connection with a lock-out, strike or other industrial action) shall be amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (4) below.
- (2) In subsection (2), for paragraph (b) there shall be substituted—
- “(b) that any such employee has, before the expiry of the period of three months beginning with that employee date of dismissal, been offered re-engagement and that the complainant has not been offered re-engagement.”.
- (3) In subsection (4)(b) for sub-paragraph (ii) there shall be substituted—
- “(ii) in relation to a strike or other industrial action, those employees at the establishment who were taking part in the action at the complainant’s date of dismissal;
- “establishment”, in sub-paragraph (ii), meaning that establishment of the employer at or from which the complainant works; and”.
- (4) In subsection (1), after the words “an employee” there shall be inserted the words “(the “complainant”)” ; and in subsections (1)(b) and (3) for the word “employee” there shall be substituted, in each case, the word “complainant”.
- (5) In section 67 of the 1978 Act (complaint to industrial tribunal) for subsection (3) there shall be substituted—
- “(3) Subsection (2) shall apply in relation to a complaint to which section 62(3) applies as if—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) for the references to three months there were substituted, in each case, a reference to six months and
- (b) as if for the reference to the effective date of termination there were substituted a reference to the complainant's date of dismissal (within the meaning of section 62(4)).”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C7 The text of s. 9 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

Action short of dismissal

10 Action relating to trade union membership.

(1) ..... <sup>F3</sup>

(3) After subsection (1) of that section there shall be inserted—

“(1A) Every employee shall also have the right not to have action (short of dismissal) taken against him for the purpose of enforcing a requirement (whether or not imposed by his contract of employment or in writing) that, in the event of his failure to become or his ceasing to remain a member of any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions, he must make one or more payments.

(1B) For the purposes of this section, any deduction made by an employer from the remuneration payable to an employee of his in respect of that employee's employment shall, if the deduction is attributable to the employee's failure to become or his ceasing to remain a member of any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions, be treated as if it were action (short of dismissal) taken against the employee for the purpose of enforcing a requirement of a kind mentioned in subsection (1A).”.

(4) In subsection (1)(c) of that section, for the words “ a trade union ” there shall be substituted the words “any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions”.

Textual Amendments

F3 S. 10(1)(2) repealed by Employment Act 1988 \(c. 19, SIF 43:5\), s. 33(2), Sch. 4

“26A Awards against third parties.

(1) Where—

- (a) a complaint is presented to an industrial tribunal under section 24 on the ground that action has been taken against the complainant by his employer for the purpose of compelling him to be or become a member of any trade union or of a particular trade union or of one of a number of particular trade unions, and
- (b) either the employer or the complainant claims in proceedings before the tribunal that the employer was induced to take the action by pressure which a trade union or other person exercised on the employer by calling, organising, procuring or financing a strike or other industrial action, or by threatening to do so,

the employer or the complainant may request the tribunal to direct that the person who he claims exercised the pressure be joined, or in Scotland sisted, as a party to the proceedings.

- (2) A request under subsection (1) shall be granted if it is made before the hearing of the complaint begins, but may be refused if it is made after that time; and no such request may be made after the tribunal has made a declaration under section 24(3).
- (3) Where a person has been joined, or in Scotland sisted, as a party to proceedings before an industrial tribunal by virtue of subsection (1), and the tribunal—
  - (a) makes an award of compensation, but
  - (b) finds that the claim mentioned in subsection (1) is well-founded,
 the award may be made against that person instead of against the employer, or partly against that person and partly against the employer, as the tribunal may consider just and equitable in the circumstances.”.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C9 The text of ss. 10(3)(4), 11, 18(1)–(6), 19 and 21(3) is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

Union membership or recognition requirements in contracts

12 Prohibition on union membership requirements.

- (1) Any term or condition of a contract for the supply of goods or services is void in so far as it purports—
  - (a) to require that the whole, or some part, of the work done for the purposes of the contract is to be done only by persons who are not members of trade unions or not members of a particular trade union; or
  - (b) to require that the whole, or some part, of such work is to be done only by persons who are members of trade unions or members of a particular trade union.
- (2) A person contravenes this subsection if, on the ground of union membership, he—

- (a) fails, in a case where he maintains (in whatever form) a list of approved suppliers of goods or services or a list of persons from whom tenders for the supply of goods or services may be invited to include the name of a particular person in that list;
  - (b) terminates a contract for the supply of goods or services; or
  - (c) does, in relation to a proposed contract for the supply of goods or services, any of the acts mentioned in subsection (3) below.
- (3) The acts are—
- (a) excluding a particular person from the group of persons from whom tenders for the supply of the goods or services are invited;
  - (b) failing to permit a particular person to submit such a tender;
  - (c) otherwise determining not to enter into a contract with a particular person for the supply of the goods or services.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a) above a person (the “first person”) fails to include the name of another person (the “supplier”) in a list, on the ground of union membership, if the ground, or one of the grounds, for failing to include his name is either—
- (a) that if the supplier were to enter into a contract with the first person for the supply of goods or services work to be done for the purposes of the contract would, or would be likely to, be done by persons who were not members of trade unions or of a particular trade union; or
  - (b) that if the supplier were to enter into such a contract work to be done for the purposes of the contract would, or would be likely to, be done by persons who were members of trade unions or of a particular trade union.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) above, a person terminates a contract on the ground of union membership if the ground, or one of the grounds, for terminating it is either—
- (a) that work done, or to be done, for the purposes of the contract has been, or is likely to be, done by persons who are not members of trade unions or of a particular trade union; or
  - (b) that work done, or to be done, for the purposes of the contract has been, or is likely to be, done by persons who are members of trade unions or of a particular trade union.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c) above, a person does an act on the ground of union membership if the ground, or one of the grounds, on which he does that act is either—
- (a) that, if the proposed contract were entered into with the person referred to in subsection (3) above, work to be done for the purposes of the contract would, or would be likely to, be done by persons who are not members of trade unions or of a particular trade union; or
  - (b) that, if the proposed contract were entered into with that person, work to be done for the purposes of the contract would, or would be likely to, be done by persons who are members of trade unions or of a particular trade union.
- (7) Subsection (2) above does not create an offence but the obligation to comply with it is a duty owed to each of the following—
- (a) in a case falling within subsection (2)(a) above, the person referred to in subsection (4) as the supplier;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) in a case falling within subsection (2)(b) above, any other party to the contract;
  - (c) in a case falling within subsection (2)(c) above, the person referred to in subsection (3) above; and
  - (d) in any case, any other person who may be adversely affected by its contravention;
- and any breach of that duty shall be actionable accordingly (subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty).

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C10 Ss. 12, 13 amended by Employment Act 1988 \(c. 19, SIF 43:5\), s. 30(2)

13 Prohibition on union recognition requirements.

- (1) Any term or condition of a contract for the supply of goods or services is void in so far as it purports to require any party to the contract—
  - (a) to recognise one or more trade unions (whether or not named in the contract) for the purpose of negotiating on behalf of workers, or any class of worker, employed by him; or
  - (b) to negotiate or consult with, or with any official of, one or more trade unions (whether or not so named).
- (2) A person contravenes this subsection if, on the ground of union exclusion, he acts in a manner falling within paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of section 12(2) of this Act.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) above, a person acts on the ground of union exclusion if the ground or one of the grounds for his action is that the person against whom it is taken does not, or is not likely to, recognise, negotiate or consult as mentioned in subsection (1) above.
- (4) Subsection (2) above does not create an offence but the obligation to comply with it is a duty owed to each of the following—
  - (a) the person against whom the action is taken; and
  - (b) any other person who may be adversely affected by the contravention,
 and any breach of that duty shall be actionable accordingly (subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty).

14 Pressure to impose union membership or recognition requirements.

- (1) Nothing in section 13 of the 1974 Act shall prevent an act being actionable in tort in any case where a person induces, or attempts to induce, another—
  - (a) to incorporate in a contract to which that other person is a party, or proposed contract to which that other person intends to be a party, any term or condition which is, or would be, void by virtue of section 12(1) or 13(1) of this Act; or
  - (b) to contravene section 12(2) or 13(2);

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

and the act constitutes, or is one of a number of acts which together constitute, the inducement or attempted inducement.

(2) Nothing in section 13 of the 1974 Act shall prevent an act which interferes with the supply (whether or not under a contract) of goods or services, or can reasonably be expected to have such an effect, being actionable in tort in any case where subsection (3) below is satisfied and one of the facts relied upon for the purpose of establishing liability is that any person has—

- (a) induced another to break a contract of employment or interfered or induced another to interfere with its performance; or
- (b) threatened that a contract of employment under which he or another is employed will be broken or its performance interfered with, or that he will induce another to break a contract of employment or to interfere with its performance.

- (a) the supplier of the goods or services is not the employer under the contract of employment mentioned in subsection (2) above; and
- (b) the reason, or one of the reasons, for which the act is done is the fact or belief that the supplier does not, or that the supplier might not, recognise, negotiate or consult as mentioned in section 13.]

15 Actions in tort against trade unions and employers' associations.

(1) Section 14 of the 1974 Act (immunity for trade unions and employers' associations from certain actions in tort) shall cease to have effect.

(2) Where proceedings in tort are brought against a trade union—

- (a) on a ground specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of section 13(1) of the 1974 Act; or
- (b) in respect of an agreement or combination by two or more persons to do or to procure the doing of an act which, if it were done without any such agreement or combination, would be actionable in tort on such a ground;

then, for the purpose of determining in those proceedings whether the union is liable in respect of the act in question, that act shall be taken to have been done by the union if, but only if, [<sup>F5</sup>it is to be taken, in accordance with the following provisions, to have been authorised or endorsed by the union].

[<sup>F6</sup>(3) An act shall be taken to have been authorised or endorsed by a trade union if it was done, or was authorised or endorsed—

- (a) by any person empowered by the rules to do, authorise or endorse acts of the kind in question, or
- (b) by the principal executive committee or the president or general secretary, or

- (c) by any other committee of the union or any other official of the union (whether employed by it or not).
- (3A) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (3)—
- (a) any group of persons constituted in accordance with the rules of the union is a committee of the union; and
  - (b) an act shall be taken to have been done, authorised or endorsed by an official if it was done, authorised or endorsed by, or by any member of, any group of persons of which he was at the material time a member, the purposes of which included organising or co-ordinating industrial action.
- (3B) The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (3) apply notwithstanding anything in the rules of the union, or in any contract or rule of law, but subject as follows.]
- [<sup>F7</sup>(4) An act shall not be taken to have been authorised or endorsed by the union by virtue only of paragraph (c) of subsection (3) if it was repudiated by the principal executive committee or the president or general secretary as soon as reasonably practicable after coming to the knowledge of any of them.]
- [<sup>F8</sup>(5) Where an act is repudiated—
- (a) written notice of the repudiation must be given to the committee or official in question, without delay, and
  - (b) the union must do its best to give individual written notice of the fact and date of repudiation, without delay—
    - (i) to every member of the union who the union has reason to believe is taking part, or might otherwise take part, in industrial action as a result of the act, and
    - (ii) to the employer of every such member.
- (5A) The notice given to members in accordance with paragraph (b)(i) of subsection (5) must contain the following statement—
- “ Your union has repudiated the call (or calls) for industrial action to which this notice relates and will give no support to unofficial industrial action taken in response to it (or them). If you are dismissed while taking unofficial industrial action, you will have no right to complain of unfair dismissal. ”
- (5B) If subsection (5) or (5A) is not complied with, the repudiation shall be treated as ineffective.]
- (6) An act shall not be treated as repudiated . . . <sup>F9</sup> if at any time after the union concerned purported to repudiate it the principal executive committee or president or general secretary has behaved in a manner which is inconsistent with the purported repudiation.
- [<sup>F10</sup>(6A) The principal executive committee, president or general secretary shall be treated as so behaving if, on a request made to any of them within three months of the purported repudiation by a person who—
- (a) is a party to a commercial contract whose performance has been or may be interfered with as a result of the act in question, and
  - (b) has not been given written notice by the union of the repudiation,
- it is not forthwith confirmed in writing that the act has been repudiated.]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

(7) In this section—

[<sup>F11</sup> “commercial contract” means any contract other than—

- (a) a contract of service or apprenticeship, or
- (b) any other contract under which a person agrees personally to do work or perform services for another;]

“general secretary” means the official of the union concerned who holds the office of general secretary or, where there is no such office, who holds the office which is equivalent, or the nearest equivalent, to that of general secretary;

“president” means the official of the union concerned who holds the office of president or, where there is no such office, who holds the office which is equivalent, or the nearest equivalent, to that of president;

“principal executive committee” means the principal committee of the union concerned exercising executive functions, by whatever name it is known;

“rules” means the written rules of the union and any other written provisions forming part of the contract between a member and the other members (or, in the case of a special register body, between a member and the body).

(8) Where, for the purpose of any proceedings, an act is by virtue of this section taken to have been done by a trade union nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any other person in those or any other proceedings in respect of that act.

[<sup>F13</sup>(9) In proceedings arising out of an act which is by virtue of this section taken to have been done by a trade union, the power of the court to grant an injunction or interdict includes power to require the union to take such steps as the court considers appropriate for ensuring—

- (a) that there is no, or no further, inducement of persons to take part or to continue to take part in industrial action, and
- (b) that no person engages in any conduct after the granting of the injunction or interdict by virtue of having been induced before it was granted to take part or to continue to take part in industrial action; and the provisions of this section apply in relation to proceedings for failure to comply with any such injunction or interdict as they apply in relation to the original proceedings.]

16 Limit on damages awarded against trade unions in actions in tort.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, in any proceedings in tort brought against a trade union the amount which may be awarded against the union by way of damages in those proceedings shall not exceed the appropriate limit.
- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply to any proceedings—
  - (a) for any of the following resulting in personal injury to any person, that is to say negligence, nuisance or breach of duty; or
  - (b) without prejudice to paragraph (a) above, for breach of duty in connection with the ownership, occupation, possession, control or use of property (whether real or personal or, in Scotland, heritable or moveable)

[<sup>F14</sup>or to any proceedings by virtue of Part I of the Consumer Protection Act 1987 (product liability).]
- (3) The appropriate limit is—
  - (a) £10,000, if the union has less than 5,000 members;
  - (b) £50,000, if it has 5,000 or more members but less than 25,000 members;
  - (c) £125,000, if it has 25,000 or more members but less than 100,000 members; and
  - (d) £250,000, if it has 100,000 or more members.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order vary any of the sums for the time being specified in subsection (3) above.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) above—
  - (a) shall be made by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament; and
  - (b) may make such transitional provision as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (6) In this section—

“duty” means a duty imposed by any rule of law or by or under any enactment; and “personal injury” includes any disease and any impairment of a person’s physical or mental condition.

- (7) For the purposes of this section, in any case where a trade union consists wholly or mainly of organisations or representatives of organisations, the members of such of those organisations as have their head or main office in Great Britain shall be treated as members of the union.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

17 Recovery of sums awarded in proceedings involving trade unions and employers' associations.

(1) Where in any proceedings an amount is awarded by way of damages, costs or expenses—

- (a) against a trade union or employers' association;
- (b) against trustees in whom property is vested in trust for a trade union or employers' association, in their capacity as such and otherwise than in respect of a breach of trust on their part; or
- (c) against members or officials of a trade union or employers' association on behalf of themselves and all of the members of the union or association;

no part of that amount shall be recoverable by enforcement against any protected property.

(2) In this section “protected property” means any property—

- (a) belonging to the trustees concerned otherwise than in their capacity as such;
- (b) belonging to any member of the union or association concerned otherwise than jointly or in common with the other members;
- (c) belonging to any official of the union or association concerned who is neither a member nor such a trustee;
- (d) comprised in a political fund of the union concerned; or
- (e) comprised in a provident benefits fund of the union concerned.

(3) In subsection (2) above—(2 & 3 Geo. 5).

“political fund” means a fund which is a political fund for the purposes of section 3 of the <sup>M1</sup>Trade Union Act 1913 and which is (and was at the time when the act in respect of which the proceedings are brought was done) subject to rules of the union which prevent property which is or has been comprised in the fund from being used for financing strikes or other industrial action;

“provident benefits” includes any payment, expressly authorised by the rules of the union, which is made to a member during sickness or incapacity from personal injury or while out of work, or to an aged member by way of superannuation, or to a member who has met with an accident or has lost his tools by fire or theft, and includes a payment in discharge or aid of funeral expenses on the death of a member or the wife of a member, or as provision for the children of a deceased member; and “provident benefits fund” means a separate fund which is maintained in accordance with the rules of the union for the purpose only of providing provident benefits.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

---

- (a) for “between employers and workers” there shall be substituted “between workers and their employer” ;
  - (b) the words “, or between workers and workers,” shall be omitted; and
  - (c) for “is connected with” there shall be substituted “relates wholly or mainly to”.
- (3) In subsection (2) (which extends the definition to certain disputes with a Minister of the Crown who does not employ the workers in question) for “employer and those workers” there shall be substituted “those workers and their employer”.
- (4) In subsection (3) (which extends the definition to disputes relating to matters occurring outside Great Britain) for “occurring outside Great Britain” there is substituted “occurring outside the United Kingdom, so long as the person or persons whose actions in the United Kingdom are said to be in contemplation or furtherance of a trade dispute relating to matters occurring outside the United Kingdom are likely to be affected in respect of one or more of the matters specified in subsection (1) of this section by the outcome of that dispute”.
- (5) Subsection (4) (which provides that a dispute with a trade union or employers’ association is necessarily to be treated as a dispute to which workers or, as the case may be, employers are a party) shall be omitted.
- (6) In subsection (6) for the definition of “worker” there is substituted—
- ““worker” , in relation to a dispute with an employer, means—
  - (a) a worker employed by that employer’, or
  - (b) a person who has ceased to be employed by that employer where—
    - (i) his employment was terminated in connection with the dispute ; or
    - (ii) the termination of his employment was one of the circumstances giving rise to the dispute.”.
- (7) The amendments made by this section do not affect the question whether an act done by a person is done by him in contemplation or furtherance of a dispute, whether he is a party to the dispute or not.

Periods of continuous employment

20 Change of basis of computation of period of continuous employment.

- (1) The amendments set out in Schedule 2 shall have effect for the following purposes—
  - (a) amending enactments which confer rights by reference to the length of an employee’s period of continuous employment so as to substitute for periods expressed in weeks or years of fifty-two weeks corresponding periods expressed in months or years of twelve months;
  - (b) modifying the computation of an employee’s period of continuous employment under Schedule 13 to the 1978 Act so as to provide for computing the length of the period in months and years of twelve months;
  - (c) making minor and consequential amendments in connection with the purposes mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (2) The amendments set out in Schedule 2 shall not apply—
  - (a) where the date by reference to which the length of an employee’s period of continuous employment falls to be ascertained (“the qualification date”) is before the commencement of this section, or
  - (b) where the result would be to deprive a person of any right or entitlement which he would have had if the qualification date had fallen immediately before the commencement of this section.
- (3) Subject to subsection (2), the amendments set out in Schedule 2 shall, so far as they relate to the computation of the length of a period of continuous employment, apply to periods before the commencement of this section as they apply to later periods.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall affect—
  - (a) any order made before the commencement of this section under section 18, 65 or 96 of the 1978 Act or any corresponding earlier enactment (exclusion of certain sections where equivalent protection afforded by collective agreement or wages order); or
  - (b) the operation of any agreement or wages order to which such an order relates or the operation of any provision of the 1978 Act in relation to such an agreement or wages order.

Supplemental

21 Interpretation, minor and consequential amendments and repeals.

- (1) In this Act—
  - “the 1974 Act” means the Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1974;

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

COMPENSATION FOR CERTAIN DISMISSALS

Power of Secretary of State to make payments

- 1 The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, pay to a person who satisfies the conditions specified in paragraph 2 an amount not exceeding that specified in paragraph 3.

Conditions of eligibility

- 2 (1) A person may apply for compensation under this Schedule where—
- (a) he was dismissed from his employment on or after 16th September 1974 (when the 1974 closed shop provisions came into force) and before 15th August 1980 (when the 1980 amendments came into force);
  - (b) he did not bring, or brought but did not succeed in, a complaint of unfair dismissal; and
  - (c) if the 1980 amendments had been in force in relation to his dismissal (the law otherwise being as it was at the time), he would have been entitled by virtue of those amendments to succeed in a complaint of unfair dismissal.

- (2) In this paragraph—

“the 1974 closed shop provisions” means paragraph 6(5) of Schedule 1 to the 1974 Act, later amended by sections 1(e) and 3(5) of the 1976 Act and consolidated in subsection (3) of section 58 of the 1978 Act; and

“the 1980 amendments” means the amendments of section 58 of the 1978 Act made by section 7 of, and paragraph 12 of Schedule 1 to, the 1980 Act, except so far as relating to the approval of union membership agreements by ballot, or, in relation to a dismissal occurring before 1st November 1978 (when section 58 came into force), corresponding amendments of paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 to the 1974 Act.

Maximum amount of compensation

- 3 The maximum amount which the Secretary of State may pay to a person in respect of his dismissal is the amount which that person would have been awarded if he had brought a successful complaint of unfair dismissal—
- (a) disregarding any question of an order for reinstatement or re-engagement;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) assuming, in relation to a dismissal occurring before 1st June 1976, that the provisions of the 1975 Act were in force relating to the basic award of compensation; and
  - (c) taking into account the actual loss sustained by him rather than such loss as might have been foreseen at the time,
- together with interest from the date of the dismissal calculated at the rate from time to time in force under section 17 of the <sup>M2</sup>Judgments Act 1838.

Marginal Citations

M2 1838 c. 110.

Construction of references to date of dismissal

- 4 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, references in paragraphs 2 and 3 to the date of a dismissal are to the effective date of termination in relation to that dismissal as defined in section 55(4) of the 1978 Act.
- (2) In ascertaining for the purposes of those paragraphs whether a dismissal occurred before the commencement of any provision of the 1975, 1978 or 1980 Acts, that is to say in ascertaining—
- (a) for the purpose of paragraph 2(1)(a) whether a person was dismissed before 15th August 1980,
  - (b) for the purpose of paragraph 2(2) whether a dismissal occurred before 1st November 1978, or
  - (c) for the purpose of paragraph 3(b) whether a dismissal occurred before 1st June 1976,
- references to the date of the dismissal shall be construed in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) in the cases where that sub-paragraph applies.
- (3) Where the notice required to be given by an employer by section 1(1) of the <sup>M3</sup>Contracts of Employment Act 1972 or section 49 of the 1978 Act (minimum period of notice) would, if duly given when notice of termination was given by the employer, or (where no notice was given) when the contract of employment was terminated by the employer, have expired on a date later than the effective date of termination as defined by section 55(4) of the 1978 Act, that later date shall be treated for the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) as the date of the dismissal.

Marginal Citations

M3 1972 c. 53.

Making an application

- 5 An application for compensation under this Schedule must be made in writing to the Secretary of State within twelve months from the passing of this Act or such further period as the Secretary of State may allow.

---

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

---

Reference of questions to appointed person

- (1) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, before deciding an application for compensation under this Schedule, refer any question arising in connection with the application for inquiry and report by a person appointed by him under this paragraph.
  - (2) In any such case the applicant shall be informed of the identity of the appointed person and of the question or questions referred and shall be given an opportunity to make representations to the appointed person including oral representations if he so wishes.
  - (3) The Secretary of State may pay to any person attending at any place for the purpose of making such representations such travelling and other allowances as would be payable in connection with attendance at an industrial tribunal.
  - (4) A person may be appointed by the Secretary of State under this paragraph either for the purposes of a particular reference or for the purpose of such references as may from time to time be made to him; and the Secretary of State may pay to a person so appointed such remuneration and such travelling and other allowances as he may determine with the approval of the Treasury.

Consideration of application

- 7
- In considering an application for compensation under this Schedule, the Secretary of State shall have regard to, but shall not be bound by—
- (a) the findings of any industrial tribunal in proceedings arising out of the dismissal in question; and
  - (b) any report made in relation to the application by a person appointed under paragraph 6.

Notification of decision

- 8
- (1) The Secretary of State shall notify the applicant in writing of his decision.
  - (2) The notification shall be accompanied by a copy of any report made in relation to the application by a person appointed under paragraph 6.

Reconsideration of decision

- 9
- (1) The Secretary of State may, of his own motion or on the request of the applicant, reconsider his decision on any application for compensation under this Schedule on the ground that the decision was made in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact.
  - (2) Where the Secretary of State decides of his own motion to reconsider a decision, he shall inform the applicant of that fact and of the grounds for reopening the case.
  - (3) A request by the applicant for reconsideration of the decision on his application must be made in writing to the Secretary of State within three months from the date on which the decision was notified to him, or such further period as the Secretary of State may allow.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The provisions of paragraphs 6 to 8 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the reconsideration of an application as they apply in relation to the original consideration of an application.

Liability to repay in certain cases

- 10 (1) Where, for the purpose of obtaining compensation under this Schedule for himself or for another, any person misrepresents or fails to disclose any material fact, whether fraudulently or otherwise, the person to whom any such payment is in consequence made shall be liable to repay so much of it as the Secretary of State may direct, unless he can show that the misrepresentation or failure occurred without his connivance or consent.
- (2) Except as provided by this paragraph, the reconsideration of a decision under paragraph 9 shall not give rise to a liability to repay.
- (3) Any sum received by the Secretary of State by virtue of this paragraph shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

False statement of an offence

- 11 (1) It is an offence for a person to make, for the purpose of obtaining compensation under this Schedule for himself or for another, a statement which is false in a material particular and which he knows to be so false.
- (2) An offence under this paragraph is punishable on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding [<sup>F15</sup>level 5 on the standard scale].

Right to guarantee payment

- 1 In section 13 of the 1978 Act (general exclusions from the right to a guarantee payment), subsections (1) and (2) shall be renumbered (3) and (4) and the following subsections shall be inserted as subsections (1) and (2)—

“(1) An employee shall not be entitled to a guarantee payment unless he has been continuously employed for a period of not less than one month ending with the day before that in respect of which the guarantee payment is claimed.

(2) An employee who is employed—

- (a) under a contract for a fixed term of three months or less, or
- (b) under a contract made in contemplation of the performance of a specific task which is not expected to last for more than three months, shall not be entitled to a guarantee payment unless he has been continuously employed for a period of more than three months ending with the day before that in respect of which the guarantee payment is claimed.”

Right to remuneration on suspension on medical grounds

- 2 In section 20 of the 1978 Act (general exclusions from the right to remuneration on suspension on medical grounds), subsections (1) and (2) shall be renumbered (3) and (4) and the following subsections shall be inserted as subsections (1) and (2)—

“(1) An employee shall not be entitled to remuneration under section 19 unless he has been continuously employed for a period of not less than one month ending with the day before that on which the suspension begins.

(2) An employee who is employed—

- (a) under a contract for a fixed term of three months or less, or
- (b) under a contract made in contemplation of the performance of a specific task which is not expected to last for more than three months, shall not be entitled to remuneration under section 19 unless he has been continuously employed for a period of more than three months ending with the day before that on which the suspension begins.”

Right to minimum period of notice

- 3 (1) In sections 49 and 50 of the 1978 Act (rights of employer and employee to a minimum period of notice) for the words “four weeks” in section 49(1), (2) and (3) and section 50(1) and (2) (which relate to the period of continuous employment necessary before either right arises) there shall be substituted “one month”.
- (2) In section 49(4) of that Act (which converts into a contract for an indefinite period a contract for a term certain of four weeks or less where the employee has been continuously employed for twelve weeks or more) for the words “twelve weeks there shall be substituted” three months “and for the words four weeks” there shall be substituted “one month”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

(3) After that subsection there shall be inserted—

“(4A) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a contract made in contemplation of the performance of a specific task which is not expected to last for more than three months unless the employee has been continuously employed for a period of more than three months.”.

Textual Amendments

F16 Sch. 2 para. 6(3) repealed by Employment Act 1989 (c. 38, SIF 43:1), s. 29(4), Sch. 7 Pt. I

Computation of period of continuous employment

- 7 (1) For section 151 of the 1978 Act (continuous employment) there shall be substituted—

“151 Computation of period of continuous employment.

- (1) References in any provision of this Act to a period of continuous employment are, except where provision is expressly made to the contrary, to a period computed in accordance with the provisions of this section and Schedule 13 ; and in any such provision which refers to a period of continuous employment expressed in months or years a month means a calendar month and a year means a year of twelve calendar months.
- (2) In computing an employee’s period of continuous employment any question arising as to—
  - (a) whether the employee’s employment is of a kind counting towards a period of continuous employment, or
  - (b) whether periods (consecutive or otherwise) are to be treated as forming a single period of continuous employment, shall be determined in accordance with Schedule 13 (that is to say, week by week), but the length of an employee’s period of employment shall be computed in months and years of twelve months in accordance with the following rules.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, an employee’s period of continuous employment for the purposes of any provision of this Act begins with the day on which he starts work and ends with the day by reference to which the length of his period of continuous employment falls to be ascertained for the purposes of the provision in question.
- (4) For the purposes of section 81 and Schedule 4 an employee’s period of continuous employment shall be treated as beginning on his eighteenth birthday if that date is later than the starting date referred to in subsection (3).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (5) If an employee's period of continuous employment includes one or more periods which, by virtue of any provision of Schedule 13, do not count in computing the length of the period but do not break continuity, the beginning of the period shall be treated as postponed by the number of days falling within that intervening period or, as the case may be, by the aggregate number of days falling within those periods.
- (6) The number of days falling within such an intervening period is—
- (a) in the case of a period to which paragraph 14(3) of Schedule 13 applies, seven days for each week within that sub-paragraph ;
  - (b) in the case of a period to which paragraph 15(2) or (4) of that Schedule applies, the number of days between the last working day before the strike or lock-out and the day on which work was resumed ;
  - (c) in the case of a period to which paragraph 16(1) of that Schedule applies, the number of days between the employee's last day of employment before service under Part I of the National Service Act 1948 and the day on which he resumed employment in accordance with Part II of that Act.”.
- (2) In Schedule 13 to that Act (computation of period of employment), for paragraphs 1 and 2 (preliminary provisions) there shall be substituted—

Preliminary

- “1 (1) Except so far as otherwise provided by the following provisions of this Schedule, a week which does not count under paragraphs 3 to 12 breaks the continuity of the period of employment.
- (2) The provisions of this Schedule apply, subject to paragraph 14, to a period of employment notwithstanding that during that period the employee was engaged in work wholly or mainly outside Great Britain, or was excluded by or under this Act from any right conferred by this Act.
- (3) A person's employment during any period shall, unless the contrary is shown, be presumed to have been continuous.”.
- (3) For paragraph 8 of that Schedule there shall be substituted—

Power to amend paragraphs 3 to 7 by order

- “8 (1) The Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) amend paragraphs 3 to 7 so as to substitute for each of the references to sixteen hours a reference to such other number of hours less than sixteen as may be specified in the order ; and
  - (b) amend paragraphs 6 and 7 so as to substitute for each of the references to eight hours a reference to such other number of hours less than eight as may be specified in the order.
- (2) No order under this paragraph shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

---

- (3) The provisions of any order under this paragraph shall apply to periods before the order takes effect as they apply to later periods.”

Minor and consequential amendments relating to sections 1 to 4 of the 1978 Act

- 8 (1) In section 1 of the 1978 Act (obligation to give written particulars of terms of employment)—
- (a) in subsection (1) (the basic obligation) for the words “the beginning of an employee’s period of employment” there shall be substituted “the beginning of an employee’s employment” ; and
  - (b) in subsection (2) (matters to be included in the statement), for paragraph (c) there shall be substituted—
    - “(c) specify the date on which the employee’s period of continuous employment began (taking into account any employment with a previous employer which counts towards that period).”
- (2) For section 2(4) of that Act (exclusion of obligation to give written statement where terms the same as those of previous employment) there shall be substituted—
- “(4) No statement need be given under section 1 where—
- (a) the employee’s terms of employment are the same as those of earlier employment with the same employer in respect of which a statement under that section and any information subsequently required under section 4 was duly given, and
  - (b) that earlier employment ended not more than six months before the beginning of the employment in question ;
- but without prejudice to the operation of subsection (1) of section 4 if there is subsequently a change in the terms of employment.”
- (3) In section 4 of that Act (duty to inform of changes in terms of employment)—
- (a) in subsection (4)(b) (change of employer to be treated as change of terms where continuity of employment is not broken) the words from “in accordance with” to “Schedule 13” shall be omitted; and
  - (b) in subsection (5) (duty in such a case to specify date from which employment is continuous) for the words “continuous period of employment” there shall be substituted “period of continuous employment”.
- (4) After section 5 of that Act there shall be inserted—

“5A Employees becoming or ceasing to be excluded from ss. 1 to 4.

- (1) Sections 1 to 4 shall apply to an employee who at any time comes or ceases to come within the exceptions from those sections provided for by section 5, 141, 144, 145 or 146(4) to (7), or under section 149, as if his employment with his employer terminated or began at that time.
- (2) Subsection (1) of section 1 shall apply to an employee who ceases to come within the exception provided by section 5 with the substitution for the words “thirteen weeks” of the words “one month”.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Act 1982 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The fact that section 1 is directed to apply to an employee as if his employment began on his ceasing to come within one of the exceptions referred to in subsection (1) shall not affect the obligation under subsection (2)(b) of that section to specify the date on which his employment actually began.”.
- (5) In section 146 of that Act (miscellaneous excluded classes of employment—
- (a) in subsection (4) (exclusion of part-time employees from rights which do not depend on a qualifying period of continuous employment), after “sections” there shall be inserted “1, 4,” ; and
  - (b) after subsection (7) there shall be added—

“(8) References in subsections (4) to (7) to weeks are to weeks within the meaning of Schedule 13.”.

Other consequential amendments

- 9 (1) In section 149 of the 1978 Act (which confers a general power to amend the Act by order)—
- (a) in subsection (1)(c) (which lists provisions whose operation may be varied or excluded), after “sections” there shall be inserted “13(2), 20(2), 49(4A),” ; and
  - (b) in subsection (2) (provisions to which the power does not extend), for “and 142(1)” there shall be substituted “, 142(1) and 151”.
- (2) In section 157(1) of that Act (reciprocal arrangements with Northern Ireland) for “sections 1 to 7” there shall be substituted “sections 1 to 6”.
