[<sup>F35</sup>68 Duty of managers of hospitals to refer cases to tribunal.

- (1) This section applies in respect of the following patients—
  - (a) a patient who is admitted to a hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for assessment;
  - (b) a patient who is admitted to a hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment;
  - (c) a community patient;
  - (d) a patient whose community treatment order is revoked under section 17F above;
  - (e) a patient who is transferred from guardianship to a hospital in pursuance of regulations made under section 19 above.
- (2) On expiry of the period of six months beginning with the applicable day, the managers of the hospital shall refer the patient's case to [<sup>F36</sup>the appropriate tribunal].
- (3) But they shall not do so if during that period—
  - (a) any right has been exercised by or in respect of the patient by virtue of any of paragraphs (b), (ca), (cb), (e), (g) and (h) of section 66(1) above;

(See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes*

- (b) a reference has been made in respect of the patient under section 67(1) above, not being a reference made while the patient is or was liable to be detained in pursuance of an application for admission for assessment; or
  - (c) a reference has been made in respect of the patient under subsection (7) below.
- (4) A person who applies to a tribunal but subsequently withdraws his application shall be treated for these purposes as not having exercised his right to apply, and if he withdraws his application on a date after expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (2) above, the managers shall refer the patient's case as soon as possible after that date.
- (5) In subsection (2) above, “the applicable day” means—
  - (a) in the case of a patient who is admitted to a hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for assessment, the day on which the patient was so admitted;
  - (b) in the case of a patient who is admitted to a hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment—
    - (i) the day on which the patient was so admitted; or
    - (ii) if, when he was so admitted, he was already liable to be detained in pursuance of an application for admission for assessment, the day on which he was originally admitted in pursuance of the application for admission for assessment;
  - (c) in the case of a community patient or a patient whose community treatment order is revoked under section 17F above, the day mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii), as the case may be, of paragraph (b) above;
  - (d) in the case of a patient who is transferred from guardianship to a hospital, the day on which he was so transferred.
- (6) The managers of the hospital shall also refer the patient's case to [F37the appropriate tribunal] if a period of more than three years (or, if the patient has not attained the age of 18 years, one year) has elapsed since his case was last considered by such a tribunal, whether on his own application or otherwise.
- (7) If, in the case of a community patient, the community treatment order is revoked under section 17F above, the managers of the hospital shall also refer the patient's case to [F38the appropriate tribunal] as soon as possible after the order is revoked.
- (8) For the purposes of furnishing information for the purposes of a reference under this section, a registered medical practitioner or approved clinician authorised by or on behalf of the patient may at any reasonable time—
  - (a) visit and examine the patient in private; and
  - (b) require the production of and inspect any records relating to the detention or treatment of the patient in any hospital or any after-care services provided for him under section 117 below.
- (9) Reference in this section to the managers of the hospital—
  - (a) in relation to a community patient, is to the managers of the responsible hospital;
  - (b) in relation to any other patient, is to the managers of the hospital in which he is liable to be detained.]

[<sup>F39</sup>68A Power to reduce periods under section 68

- (1) The appropriate national authority may from time to time by order amend subsection (2) or (6) of section 68 above so as to substitute for a period mentioned there such shorter period as is specified in the order.
- (2) The order may include such transitional, consequential, incidental or supplemental provision as the appropriate national authority thinks fit.
- (3) The order may, in particular, make provision for a case where—
  - (a) a patient in respect of whom subsection (1) of section 68 above applies is, or is about to be, transferred from England to Wales or from Wales to England; and
  - (b) the period by reference to which subsection (2) or (6) of that section operates for the purposes of the patient's case is not the same in one territory as it is in the other.
- (4) A patient is transferred from one territory to the other if—
  - (a) he is transferred from a hospital, or from guardianship, in one territory to a hospital in the other in pursuance of regulations made under section 19 above;
  - (b) he is removed under subsection (3) of that section from a hospital or accommodation in one territory to a hospital or accommodation in the other;
  - (c) he is a community patient responsibility for whom is assigned from a hospital in one territory to a hospital in the other in pursuance of regulations made under section 19A above; [<sup>F40</sup>or]
  - (d) on the revocation of a community treatment order in respect of him under section 17F above he is detained in a hospital in the territory other than the one in which the responsible hospital was situated; <sup>F41</sup>...
  - <sup>F42</sup>(e) .....
- (5) Provision made by virtue of subsection (3) above may require or authorise the managers of a hospital determined in accordance with the order to refer the patient's case to [<sup>F43</sup>the appropriate tribunal].
- (6) In so far as making provision by virtue of subsection (3) above, the order—
  - (a) may make different provision for different cases;
  - (b) may make provision which applies subject to specified exceptions.
- (7) Where the appropriate national authority for one territory makes an order under subsection (1) above, the appropriate national authority for the other territory may by order make such provision in consequence of the order as it thinks fit.

Applications and references concerning Part III patients

69 Applications to tribunals concerning patients subject to hospital and guardianship orders.

- (1) Without prejudice to any provision of section 66(1) above as applied by section 40(4) above, an application to [<sup>F44</sup>the appropriate tribunal] may also be made—
- [<sup>F45</sup>(a) in respect of a patient liable to be detained in pursuance of a hospital order or a community patient who was so liable immediately before he became a community patient, by the nearest relative of the patient in any period in which an application may be made by the patient under any such provision as so applied;]
  - (b) in respect of a patient placed under guardianship by a guardianship order—
    - (i) by the patient, within the period of six months beginning with the date of the order;
    - (ii) by the nearest relative of the patient, within the period of 12 months beginning with the date of the order and in any subsequent period of 12 months.
- (2) Where a person detained in a hospital—
- (a) is treated as subject to a hospital order [<sup>F46</sup>, hospital direction] or transfer direction by virtue of section 41(5) above [<sup>F47</sup>or section 80B(2), 82(2) or 85(2) below.] ; or
  - (b) is subject to a direction having the same effect as a hospital order by virtue of section <sup>F48</sup>... 47(3) or 48(3) above, then, without prejudice to any provision of Part II of this Act as applied by section 40 above, that person may make an application to [<sup>F49</sup>the appropriate tribunal] in the period of six months beginning with the date of the order or direction mentioned in paragraph (a) above or, as the case may be, the date of the direction mentioned in paragraph (b) above.

75 Applications and references concerning conditionally discharged restricted patients.

- (1) Where a restricted patient has been conditionally discharged under section 42(2), 73 or 74 above and is subsequently recalled to hospital—
  - (a) the Secretary of State shall, within one month of the day on which the patient returns or is returned to hospital, refer his case to [<sup>F95</sup>the appropriate tribunal]; and
  - (b) section 70 above shall apply to the patient as if the relevant hospital order [<sup>F96</sup>, hospital direction] or transfer direction had been made on that day.
- (2) Where a restricted patient has been conditionally discharged as aforesaid but has not been recalled to hospital he may apply to [<sup>F97</sup>the appropriate tribunal]—
  - (a) in the period between the expiration of 12 months and the expiration of two years beginning with the date on which he was conditionally discharged; and
  - (b) in any subsequent period of two years.
- (3) Sections 73 and 74 above shall not apply to an application under subsection (2) above but on any such application the tribunal may—
  - (a) vary any condition to which the patient is subject in connection with his discharge or impose any condition which might have been imposed in connection therewith; or
  - (b) direct that the restriction order [<sup>F98</sup>, limitation direction] or restriction direction to which he is subject shall cease to have effect; and if the tribunal [<sup>F99</sup>gives] a direction under paragraph (b) above the patient shall cease to be liable to be detained by virtue of the relevant hospital order [<sup>F100</sup>, hospital direction] or transfer direction.
