SCHEDULE 4

Section 33.

THE COMMISSION: AMENDMENTS

Historic Buildings and Ancient Monuments Act 1953 (c. 49)

1 In the Historic Buildings and Ancient Monuments Act 1953 (“the 1953 Act”) at the end of section 2 (Historic Buildings Council for Scotland) there shall be inserted—

“(4) The said Council shall consist of a chairman appointed by the Secretary of State and such number of other members so appointed as the Secretary of State may from time to time determine, and the chairman and other members of the Council shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of their appointments.

(5) The Secretary of State may out of moneys provided by Parliament pay to the chairman of the said Council such remuneration and allowances as the Secretary of State may with the approval of the Treasury determine.

No person shall be disqualified from being elected to, or sitting and voting as, a member of the House of Commons by reason of his being the chairman of the said Council; but, in relation to a chairman of the Council who is a Member of the House of Commons, this subsection shall have effect with the substitution, for the words “remuneration and allowances”, of the words “allowances in respect of travelling and subsistence expenses, and in respect of other expenses (if any) necessarily incurred by him for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties as chairman,”.

(6) The Secretary of State may out of moneys provided by Parliament pay to the other members of the said Council such allowances as he may with the approval of the Treasury determine in respect of travelling and subsistence expenses and in respect of other expenses (if any) necessarily incurred by them for the purpose of enabling them to perform their duties as members of the Council.

(7) Subject to any directions of the Secretary of State as to quorum or other matters, the procedure of the said Council shall be such as the Council may determine.

(8) The said Council shall, before such date in every year as the Secretary of State may fix, send to the Secretary of State a report in respect of the matters on which they have advised the Secretary of State during the previous year, and the Secretary of State shall lay a copy of the report before each House of Parliament.

(9) Without prejudice to the last preceding subsection, if at any time it appears to the said Council that there is need for action to be taken by the Secretary of State under this Part of this Act, they shall forthwith make to the

- (d) any garden or other land which is situated in England and which appears to the Commission to be of outstanding historic interest but which is not contiguous or adjacent to a building which appears to the Commission to be of outstanding historic or architectural interest.
- (2) The Commission shall have power to purchase by agreement, or to accept a gift of, any objects which it would (within the meaning of subsection (5) of this section) be historically appropriate to keep in—
- (a) a building which, or any interest in which, is vested in the Commission, or a building which is under their management or in their custody, being in either case a building appearing to the Commission to be of outstanding historic or architectural interest; or
 - (b) a building of which the Commission are guardian under the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979; or
 - (c) a building situated in England which, or any interest in which, is vested in the National Trust for Places of Historic Interest or Natural Beauty.
- (3) The Commission may make such arrangements as they may think fit as to the management or custody of any property acquired or accepted by them under this section, and as to the use of any such property, and may dispose of or otherwise deal with any such property as they may from time to time determine.
- (4) The Commission shall not acquire or accept any property under subsection (1) of this section without the consent of the Secretary of State, which may be given subject to such conditions as he thinks fit.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, an object is one which it would be historically appropriate to keep in a building if—
- (a) it is or has been ordinarily kept in the building; or
 - (b) it is historically associated with the building or connected with a person or event historically associated with the building; or
 - (c) objects of its kind were produced or used in a period falling within the lifetime of the building; or
 - (d) the Commission are of opinion that it would for some other reason be historically appropriate to keep it in the building.

5B Grants to local authorities and National Trust for acquisition of historic buildings.

- (1) The Commission may make grants for the purpose of defraying in whole or in part any expenses incurred by a local authority in England in the acquisition of property situated in England under section 114 or 119(1)(b) or (c) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 (under which buildings of special architectural or historic interest may in certain cases be acquired by a local authority).
- (2) The Commission may also make grants to the National Trust for Places of Historic Interest or Natural Beauty for the purpose of defraying in whole or in part any expenses incurred by them in the acquisition of—

- (a) any building which is situated in England and which appears to the Commission to be of outstanding historic or architectural interest;
- (b) any land which is situated in England and which comprises, or is contiguous or adjacent to, any such building; or
- (c) any garden or other land which is situated in England and which appears to the Commission to be of outstanding historic interest but which is not contiguous or adjacent to a building which appears to the Commission to be of outstanding historic or architectural interest.”

8 At the end of section 6 of the 1953 Act (grants for acquisition of historic buildings) there shall be inserted—

“(4) This section applies only where the property or buildings are not situated in England.”

9 At the end of section 8 of the 1953 Act (endowments of historic buildings) there shall be inserted—

“(7) Where the Commission are requested in pursuance of subsection (3) of this section to manage any property the income from which is applicable for or towards the upkeep of property situated in England, they may undertake the management.”

10 After section 8 of the 1953 Act there shall be inserted—

“8A Power of Commission to accept endowments.

(1) Where any instrument coming into operation after the establishment of the Commission contains a provision purporting to be a gift of property to the Commission upon trust to use the income thereof (either for a limited time or in perpetuity) for or towards the upkeep of—

- (a) a building acquired or accepted by the Commission under section 5A of this Act, or a building which the Commission propose so to acquire or accept, or
- (b) a building which at the coming into operation of the trust instrument is or will shortly be vested in or under the management or in the custody of the Commission, being a building which is situated in England and which appears to them to be one of outstanding historic or architectural interest, or
- (c) a building of which at that time the Commission are or will shortly be guardian under the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

or for or towards the upkeep of any such building together with other property situated in England, the Commission may accept the gift, and if they do so, and the provision does not constitute a charitable trust, the following provisions of this section shall have effect.

(2) The validity of the gift and of the trust to use the income as aforesaid (hereinafter referred to as “the endowment trust”) shall be deemed not to be, or ever to have been, affected by any rule of law or equity which would not have affected their validity if the trust had been charitable.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: National Heritage Act 1983, SCHEDULE 4 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 August 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In relation to the property (of whatsoever nature) comprised in the gift and any property for the time being representing that property (hereinafter collectively referred to as “the trust fund”) the Commission shall during the continuance of the endowment trust have the like powers of management, disposition and investment as, in the case of land held on trust for sale, are conferred by law on the trustees for sale in relation to the land and to the proceeds of sale thereof; but this subsection shall have effect without prejudice to any additional or larger powers conferred on the Commission by the trust instrument.
- (4) If while the endowment trust continues an event happens such that immediately thereafter the Commission are neither entitled to any interest in the building to which the trust relates, nor have the building under their management or in their custody, nor are guardian of the building under the said Act of 1979, and apart from this subsection the endowment trust would not then be determined or be deemed to have failed, then on the happening of that event the endowment trust shall cease by virtue of this subsection and the trust fund shall devolve accordingly as on a failure of the trust.
- (5) If the trust instrument contains a provision whereby on the failure or determination of the endowment trust the trust fund purports to be given, or to be directed to be held, on charitable trusts, the validity of that gift or direction shall be deemed not to be, or ever to have been, affected by any rule of law or equity relating to perpetuities.

8B Endowment of gardens.

- (1) Where any instrument coming into operation after the establishment of the Commission contains a provision purporting to be a gift of property to the Commission upon trust to use the income thereof (either for a limited time or in perpetuity) for or towards the upkeep of a garden or other land acquired or accepted by the Commission under section 5A(1)(d) of this Act, or a garden or other land which the Commission propose so to acquire or accept, or for or towards the upkeep of any such garden or other land together with other property situated in England, the Commission may accept the gift, and if they do so, and the provision does not constitute a charitable trust, the following provisions of this section shall have effect.
- (2) The validity of the gift and of the trust to use the income as aforesaid (hereinafter referred to as “the endowment trust”) shall be deemed not to be, or ever to have been, affected by any rule of law or equity which would not have affected their validity if the trust had been charitable.
- (3) In relation to the property (of whatsoever nature) comprised in the gift and any property for the time being representing that property (hereinafter collectively referred to as “the trust fund”) the Commission shall during the continuance of the endowment trust have the like powers of management, disposition and investment as, in the case of land held on trust for sale, are conferred by law on the trustees for sale in relation to the land and to the proceeds of sale thereof; but this subsection shall have effect without prejudice to any additional or larger powers conferred on the Commission by the trust instrument.

Changes to legislation: National Heritage Act 1983, SCHEDULE 4 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 August 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) If while the endowment trust continues an event happens such that immediately thereafter the Commission are not entitled to any interest in the garden or other land to which the trust relates, and apart from this subsection the endowment trust would not then be determined or be deemed to have failed, then on the happening of that event the endowment trust shall cease by virtue of this subsection and the trust fund shall devolve accordingly as on a failure of the trust.
- (5) If the trust instrument contains a provision whereby on the failure or determination of the endowment trust the trust fund purports to be given, or to be directed to be held, on charitable trusts, the validity of that gift or direction shall be deemed not to be, or ever to have been, affected by any rule of law or equity relating to perpetuities.

8C Register of Gardens.

- (1) This section applies where the Commission compile a register of gardens and other land situated in England and appearing to them to be of special historic interest.
- (2) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after including in the register an entry relating to any garden or land, notify the persons mentioned in subsection (3) of this section of the inclusion and send to them a copy of the entry.
- (3) The persons are—
- (a) the owner and (if the owner is not the occupier) the occupier of the garden or land,
 - (b) any county planning authority, and any district planning authority, in whose area the garden or land (or any part of the garden or land) is situated, and
 - (c) the Secretary of State.”
- 11 (1) In section 9(1) of the 1953 Act (meaning of “appropriate Council”) after “appropriate” there shall be inserted “Commission or”, in paragraph (a) for “Historic Buildings Council for England” there shall be substituted “Commission” and after paragraph (c) there shall be inserted “and the expression “the appropriate Council under this Act’ shall be construed in accordance with paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection”.
- (2) After section 9(1) of the 1953 Act there shall be inserted—
- “(1A) In this Part of this Act “the Commission’ means the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England.”

Pastoral Measure 1968 (No. 1)

- 12 (1) Section 66 of the Pastoral Measure 1968 (transfer of redundant churches) shall be amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1) after paragraph (b) there shall be inserted—
- “(c) where a redundant building or any part thereof is situated in England and is vested in the Diocesan Board of Finance, whether in pursuance of a pastoral scheme or a redundancy scheme or “(6) Where a redundant building (or part) situated in England has been acquired for its preservation by the Minister under subsection (1) of this section either with or without any other land so situated, the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England may by agreement with the Minister undertake on his behalf the management and preservation of the building (or part) together with the other land (if any).

(7) Where the Minister has under subsection (4) of this section acquired land situated in England for its maintenance with a building (or part), the Commission may undertake, in any agreement made under subsection (6) of this section in relation to the building (or part), the maintenance of the land on behalf of the Minister.

(8) Where the Minister has under subsection (5) of this section acquired for their preservation the contents of a redundant building (or part), the Commission may undertake, in any agreement made under subsection (6) of this section in relation to the building (or part), the preservation of the contents on behalf of the Minister.”

Redundant Churches and Other Religious Buildings Act 1969 (c. 22)

13 (1) In the Redundant Churches and Other Religious Buildings Act 1969 (“the 1969 Act”) section 4 (power of court to authorise transfer of certain redundant places of religious worship) shall be amended as follows.

(2) After subsection (1) there shall be inserted—

“(1A) Subsection (1B) below shall apply where—

- (a) a building is situated in England, is a place of public religious worship, is held by or in trust for a charity, but is not a church subject to the provisions of the Pastoral Measure 1968, and
- (b) the court is satisfied that the building, or a part of it, is no longer required for use as a place of public religious worship and that the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England are willing to enter into an agreement for the Commission’s acquisition, under section 5A of the Historic Buildings and Ancient Monuments Act 1953, of the building or part by way of gift or for a consideration other than a full consideration, but that it is not within the powers of the persons in whom the building is vested to carry out the agreement except by virtue of this section.

(1B) In that case, the court may, under its jurisdiction with respect to charities, establish a scheme for the making and carrying out of the agreement and, if it appears to the court proper to do so, the scheme may provide for the Commission’s acquisition under the said section 5A, whether or not by way of gift or for such a consideration, of other land, if any, which is situated in England, which is held by or in trust for the charity and which comprises or is contiguous or adjacent to the building, and of objects, if any, which are or have been ordinarily kept in the building.”

(3) In subsection (2) for “this section” there shall be substituted “subsection (1) above”.

(4) After subsection (2) there shall be inserted—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“(2A) A scheme under subsection (1B) above may provide for conferring on the Commission such rights of way over any land situated in England and held by or in trust for the charity as appear to the court to be necessary for the purpose of the performance of the Commission’s functions in relation to the building or any land acquired by them under the scheme or for giving to the public reasonable access to the building or land and, so far as so necessary, such rights of way, if any, as are before the making of the scheme enjoyed by persons attending services at the building.”

(5) After subsection (3) there shall be inserted—

“(3A) Subsection (3) above shall apply in relation to a scheme made under subsection (1B) above as it applies in relation to a scheme made under subsection (1) above, as if references to subsection (1) were to subsection (1B), references to the Minister were to the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England, and as if subsection (3) were otherwise construed accordingly.”

(6) In subsection (4) after “subsection (1)” there shall be inserted “or (1B)”.

14 (1) Section 5 of the 1969 Act (trusts for repair etc. of certain buildings) shall be amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (1) after “Minister” there shall be inserted “or the Commission” and after “him” there shall be inserted “or them”.

(3) In subsection (2) after “Minister” (in both places) there shall be inserted “or the Commission” and after “him” there shall be inserted “or them”.
