

Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 27

PART II

TRAFFIC REGULATION IN SPECIAL CASES

[^{F1}15 Duration of orders and notices under s.14.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2), (3) and (5) below, an order under section 14 of this Act shall not continue in force—
 - (a) if it is in respect of a footpath, bridleway [^{F2}restricted byway,], cycle track or byway open to all traffic, for more than six months; and
 - (b) in any other case, for more than eighteen months, from the date on which it comes into force.
- (2) The time-limit of eighteen months in subsection (1) above shall not apply to an order made for the reason mentioned in section 14(1)(a) of this Act if the authority making it are satisfied, and it is stated in the order that they are satisfied, that the execution of the works in question will take longer; but in any such case the authority shall revoke the order as soon as the works are completed.
- (3) Where an order subject to the time-limit of eighteen months in subsection (1) above (in this subsection referred to as “the temporary order”) has not ceased to be in force and the [^{F3}national authority] is satisfied that—
 - (a) an order which the authority that made the temporary order proposes to make under any other provision of this Act has the sole effect of reproducing the provisions of the temporary order and continuing them in force; and
 - (b) in consequence of the procedure required to be followed in connection with the making of the proposed order [^{F4}the authority that made the temporary order] would be unable to make it so that it would come into operation before the temporary order ceases to be in force,the [^{F3}national authority] may, subject to subsection (4) below, from time to time direct that the temporary order shall continue in force for a further period not exceeding six months from the date on which it would otherwise cease to be in force.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, Section 15. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Where the [^{F5}national authority] is not ^{F6}... the authority that made the temporary order [^{F7}the national authority] shall not give a direction under subsection (3) above except at the request of [^{F8}the authority that made the temporary order].
- (5) The [^{F9}national authority] may, at the request of an authority that has made an order subject to the time-limit of six months in subsection (1) above, from time to time direct that the order shall continue in force for a further period from the date on which it would otherwise cease to be in force.
- (6) Where the [^{F9}national authority] refuses a request under subsection (5) above in respect of an order no further order to which that subsection applies shall be made in respect of any length of road to which the previous order related unless the [^{F9}national authority] has consented to the making of the further order or at least three months have expired since the date on which the previous order ceased to be in force.
- (7) A notice under section 14 of this Act shall not continue in force—
- (a) if issued for the reason mentioned in paragraph (a) or the purpose mentioned in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of that section, for more than five days from the date of the notice;
 - (b) if issued for the reason mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection, for more than twenty-one days from that date;
- but the [^{F9}national authority] may by regulations alter the number of days for the time being specified in this subsection.
- (8) Provided that no restriction or prohibition imposed under section 14 of this Act in respect of any length of road remains in force for more than the period applicable to an order in respect of the road under subsection (1) above (except by virtue of subsection (2), (3) or (5) above and subject to subsection (6) above)—
- (a) a restriction or prohibition imposed by an order under that section may be continued by a further order or further orders under that section; and
 - (b) a restriction or prohibition imposed by a notice under that section may be continued—
 - (i) by an order under that section; or
 - (ii) if the notice was issued for the reason mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of that section, by one (but not more than one) further notice under that section.
- (9) In the application of this section to England and Wales—
- (a) “footpath” does not include a highway over which the public have a right of way on foot only which is at the side of a public road;
 - (b) “cycle track” has the same meaning as in the ^{M1}Highways Act 1980; and
 - (c) “byway open to all traffic” means a highway over which the public have a right of way for vehicular and all other kinds of traffic but which is used by the public mainly for the purpose for which footpaths and bridleways are used.
- (10) In the application of this section to Scotland “footpath” and “cycle track” have the same meaning as in the ^{M2}Roads (Scotland) Act 1984.]
