M19 1975 c. 60.

- 2 The following shall be inserted at the beginning of Part IV of that Act—

“ The revaluation percentage

Duty of Secretary of State to specify revaluation percentage.

52A(1) The Secretary of State shall in each revaluation year by order specify a revaluation percentage for each revaluation period.

(2) In this section—

“revaluation period”, in relation to each order under this section, means a period—

(a) which commences—

(i) on the date of the commencement of this section; or

(ii) on an anniversary of the date of the commencement of this section falling before the making of the order; and

(b) which ends on the day before the first anniversary of the date of the commencement of this section to fall after the making of the order; and

“revaluation year” means a year beginning on the date of the commencement of this section or on an anniversary of that date.

(3) Subject to subsection (8) below, the revaluation percentage which the Secretary of State is to specify in relation to each revaluation period is the percentage which appears to him, in the light of the information available to him, to be the percentage increase in prices in Great Britain during the period which is the reference period in relation to that revaluation period.

(4) The reference period in the case of the revaluation period to which the first order under this section relates is any period of 12 months—

(a) which ends not earlier than 6 months before the date on which the order is made; and

(b) for which it appears to the Secretary of State that information is available to him sufficient to enable him to determine the percentage increase in prices in Great Britain satisfactorily.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The reference period in the case of any revaluation period to which a subsequent order relates is to be determined in accordance with subsection (6) or (7) below.
- (6) In the case of the revaluation period with the earliest commencement date the reference period is the period which—
 - (a) begins at the commencement of the reference period mentioned in subsection (4) above; and
 - (b) ends on the latest anniversary of the end of that period to fall before the making of the order.
- (7) In the case of each of the other revaluation periods the reference period is the period which—
 - (a) begins on the last anniversary of the commencement of the reference period mentioned in subsection (4) above to fall before the commencement of the revaluation period; and
 - (b) ends on the last anniversary of the end of that reference period to fall before the making of the order.
- (8) If it appears to the Secretary of State that the percentage increase in prices in Great Britain during a reference period is greater than it would have been if they had increased at a rate of 5 per cent. compound per annum, the Secretary of State shall specify as the revaluation percentage in relation to the revaluation period for which that reference period is the reference period a percentage equal to the percentage that would have been the percentage increase during that reference period if they had increased at a rate of 5 per cent. compound per annum.

Revaluation and transfer values.

- 52B Schedule 1A to this Act shall have effect in relation to the revaluation of pensions and to transfer values.

Extinguishment of liability of scheme for pensions secured by insurance policies or annuity contracts

Cases where a scheme's liability is discharged.

- 52C (1) The taking out or the transfer of the benefit of a policy of insurance or a number of such policies, or the entry into or the transfer of the benefit of an annuity contract or a number of such contracts, if it takes place after the commencement of this section, only discharges trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme from their liability, or any part of their liability, to provide—
- (a) the requisite benefits; or
 - (b) short service benefit or any alternative to short service benefit,
- for or in respect of any person in a case where and to the extent that subsection (2) below has effect.
- (2) Where at the time an earner's pensionable service terminates or at any later time—
- (a) the whole or any part—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) of the requisite benefits; or
 - (ii) of the short service benefit or of any alternative to short service benefit, provided for or in respect of him by an occupational pension scheme is appropriately secured; and
 - (b) the requirements set out in any one of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (5) below are satisfied, the trustees or managers of the scheme shall be discharged from their liability so far as what they were liable to provide is so secured.
- (3) Where before the commencement of this section—
- (a) an earner’s pensionable service terminated; and
 - (b) at the time his pensionable service terminated or at a later time the whole or any part—
 - (i) of the requisite benefits; or
 - (ii) of the short service benefit or of any alternative to short service benefit, provided for or in respect of him by an occupational pension scheme was appropriately secured,the trustees or managers of the scheme shall be deemed to have been discharged from their liability, so far as what they were liable to provide was so secured, at the time when it was first so secured.
- (4) In this section “appropriately secured” means secured by an appropriate policy of insurance or an appropriate annuity contract, or by more than one such policy or contract; and a policy of insurance or annuity contract is appropriate for the purposes of this section if—
- (a) the insurance company with which it is, or was, taken out or entered into is, or was, at the relevant time, authorised under section 3 or 4 of the Insurance Companies Act 1982 or any similar previous enactment to carry on ordinary long-term insurance business; and
 - (b) it may not be assigned or surrendered except on conditions which satisfy such requirements as may be prescribed; and
 - (c) it contains, or is endorsed with, terms whose effect is that the amount secured by it may not be commuted except on conditions which satisfy such requirements as may be prescribed; and
 - (d) it satisfies such other requirements as may be prescribed.
- (5) The requirements referred to in subsection (2)(b) above are—
- (a) that the arrangement for securing the amount by means of the policy or contract was made—
 - (i) at the written request of the earner or his widow; or
 - (ii) with his or her consent given in writing in a prescribed form;
 - (b) that—
 - (i) the case is one such as is mentioned in paragraph 13(5) of Schedule 1A to this Act; and
 - (ii) the policy or contract only secures guaranteed minimum pensions;
 - (c) that—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) the case is not one such as is mentioned in paragraph 13(5) of Schedule 1A to this Act; and
 - (ii) such conditions as may be prescribed are satisfied.
- (6) In subsection (4)(a) above, “the relevant time” means the time when the policy of insurance was taken out or the annuity contract was entered into or, as the case may be, when the benefit of the policy or contract was transferred.
- (7) In this section—
- “insurance company” and “ordinary long-term insurance business” have the meanings assigned to them by the Insurance Companies Act 1982; and
 - “pensionable service” and “short service benefit” are to be construed in accordance with Schedule 16 to the Social Security Act 1973.

Guaranteed minimum pensions under contracted-out schemes—
supplementary.

52D(1) Where—

- (a) guaranteed minimum pensions provided for a member or his widow under a contracted-out scheme have been wholly or partly secured as mentioned in section 52C above by a policy or a number of policies of insurance taken out with one or more companies or by an annuity contract or a number of annuity contracts entered into with one or more companies, or by both a policy or a number of policies and an annuity contract or a number of annuity contracts; and
 - (b) subsection (2) or (3) below applies; and
 - (c) any such company is unable to meet the liabilities under policies issued or securities given by it; and
 - (d) the combined proceeds of any policy or policies taken out as mentioned in section 52C above and of any annuity contract or annuity contracts entered into as there mentioned and of any cash sums paid or alternative arrangements made under the Policyholders Protection Act 1975 are inadequate to provide the whole of the amount secured,
- the member and his widow shall be treated for the purposes of section 29(1) above as entitled to any part of his or her guaranteed minimum pension which is provided by the proceeds mentioned in paragraph (d) above.
- (2) This subsection applies where section 52C(3) above has effect.
- (3) This subsection applies where—
- (a) section 52C(3) above does not have effect and none of the requirements specified in section 52C(5)(a) to (c) above is satisfied; and
 - (b) the scheme has been wound up.
- (4) Where a scheme has ceased by virtue of section 52C above to be liable to provide guaranteed minimum pensions for a member and his widow, the duties imposed on the Occupational Pensions Board by sections 40(2), 41 and 49 above shall cease to subsist in relation to those pensions.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Any question whether a cash sum paid or an alternative arrangement made under the Policyholders Protection Act 1975 provides the whole or any part of the guaranteed minimum pension to which an earner or his widow was entitled under a contracted-out scheme is to be determined for the purposes of this Act by the Secretary of State.
- (6) The Secretary of State may make any determination required by subsection (5) above on such basis as he considers appropriate.”.

PART II

NEW SCHEDULE

- 3 The following Schedule shall be inserted after Schedule 1 to that Act—

“SCHEDULE
1A

Section 2.

REVALUATION OF PENSIONS AND TRANSFER VALUES

PART I

REVALUATION OF PENSIONS

- 1 (1) This Part of this Schedule applies to any member of an occupational pension scheme whose pensionable service terminates after the commencement of this Schedule if—
- (a) it terminates before normal pension age; and
 - (b) on the date when it terminates—
 - (i) he has accrued rights to benefit under the scheme; or
 - (ii) he would have accrued rights to benefit under it if his relevant employment had also terminated on that date.
- (2) In this Part of this Schedule “the revaluation condition” means—
- (a) in relation to benefit payable to the member, that, subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, there are 365 days or more in the period of which the first day is the day after the date when his pensionable service terminates and the last is the day on which he attains normal pension age;
 - (b) in relation to benefit payable to any other person in respect of the member, that, subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, there are 365 days or more in the period mentioned in paragraph (a) above and the member dies after attaining normal pension age.
- (3) For the purpose of calculating the number of days in the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) above, any day which is 29th February shall be disregarded.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule “normal pension age”, “relevant employment” and, subject to paragraph 2(3) below, “pensionable service”

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details) are to be construed in accordance with Schedule 16 to the Social Security Act 1973.

- 2 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, if the revaluation condition is satisfied—

- (a) any pension or other retirement benefit payable under the scheme to the member; and
- (b) any pension or other benefit payable under it to any other person in respect of him, is to be revalued by adding the appropriate amount to the amount that would be payable but for this Schedule or regulations made under it.

- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule “the appropriate amount” is

where—

- (a) A=the revaluation percentage specified in the last period of one year beginning on the date of the commencement of this Part of this Schedule or on an anniversary of that date and ending before the date on which the member attains normal pension age as the revaluation percentage for the period which is of the same length as the number of complete years in the period mentioned in paragraph 1(2)(a) above;
 - (b) B=the length of the member’s qualifying pensionable service;
 - (c) C=the length of his pensionable service;
 - (d) D=the amount of the pension or other benefit—
 - (i) which on the date when his pensionable service terminates has accrued to him or to any other person in respect of him; or
 - (ii) which would have so accrued on that date if his relevant employment had also terminated on that date;
 - (e) E=any part of the amount mentioned in paragraph (d) above which consists of the member’s or his widow’s guaranteed minimum.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2)(b) and (c) above—
 “pensionable service” includes any notional pensionable service which is credited to the member by the scheme; and “qualifying pensionable service” means any part of the member’s pensionable service which falls on or after 1st January 1985.
- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(b) and (c) above, any notional pensionable service which is credited to a member by a scheme shall be taken to have ended immediately before the member’s actual pensionable service began.
- (5) Any rule of a scheme the effect of which is that benefit falls to be revalued by reference to any period is to be disregarded in making any calculation required by this paragraph.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- 3 (1) This paragraph applies to any benefit the rate or amount of which is calculated by reference to the member's average salary over the period of service on which that benefit is based.
 - (2) A benefit to which this paragraph applies is referred to in this Schedule as an "average salary benefit".
 - (3) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, if the revaluation condition is satisfied, any average salary benefit payable to the member or to any other person in respect of him is to be revalued—
 - (a) by revaluing his salaries during the period mentioned in paragraph 1(2)(a) above in any way in which they would have been revalued during it if he had remained in the same pensionable service; or
 - (b) by the method specified in paragraph 2 above.
 - (4) The method by which a benefit is to be revalued under this paragraph is whichever of the methods mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) above appears to the trustees or managers of the scheme to be appropriate.
 - (5) In this paragraph "salaries" means the member's salaries for the period between 1st January 1985 and the date when his pensionable service terminated, or such part of them as was relevant under the scheme to the calculation of the retirement benefits payable under the scheme to him or to any other person in respect of him; and those salaries are to be taken for the purposes of this paragraph to include—
 - (a) any amount which is attributed to them, otherwise than by virtue of this paragraph, as the result of a revaluation for which the rules of the scheme provide; and
 - (b) any amount which is for any reason credited to the member by way of salary notionally earned.
 - (6) For the purposes of the application of this paragraph to a case where a member is credited with an amount by reference to salary notionally earned over a period of time of a particular length that period shall be taken to have ended immediately before the member's actual pensionable service began.
- 4 (1) This paragraph applies to any benefit the rate or amount of which is calculated by reference solely to the member's length of service.
 - (2) A benefit to which this paragraph applies is referred to in this Schedule as a "flat rate benefit".
 - (3) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, if the revaluation condition is satisfied, any flat rate benefit payable to the member or to any other person in respect of him is to be revalued—
 - (a) by revaluing the benefits which have accrued to him during the period mentioned in paragraph 1(2)(a) above in any way in which they would have been revalued during it if he had remained in the same pensionable service; or
 - (b) by the method specified in paragraph 2 above.
 - (4) The method by which a benefit is to be revalued under this paragraph is whichever of the methods mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) above appears to the trustees or managers of the scheme to be appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)*

- 5 (1) This paragraph applies to any benefit the rate or amount of which is calculated by reference to a payment or payments made by the member, or by any other person in respect of him.
- (2) A benefit to which this paragraph applies is referred to in this Schedule as a “money purchase benefit”.
- (3) In the case of such a benefit, if the revaluation condition is satisfied, the investment yield and any bonuses arising from payments made by or on behalf of a member shall be applied, subject to sub-paragraph (4) below, towards providing any pension or other retirement benefit which is payable under the scheme to him or to any other person in respect of him in the manner in which they would have been applied if his pensionable service had not terminated.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations authorise trustees and managers of schemes to deduct from any pension or other retirement benefit provided under sub-paragraph (3) above an appropriate amount in respect of the administrative expenses incurred by them in carrying this paragraph into effect.
- 6 Nothing in paragraph 2, 3, 4 or 5 above is to be construed as requiring the revaluation of any pension or other benefit provided by virtue of paragraph 9(2)(b) of Schedule 16 to the Social Security Act 1973 by way of complete substitute for another pension or benefit.
- 7 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, this Part of this Schedule overrides any provision of a scheme to the extent that it conflicts with this Part of this Schedule.
- (2) This Part of this Schedule does not override a protected provision of a scheme.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (4) below, in sub-paragraph (2) above “protected provision” has the same meaning as it has in subsection (2) of section 41C above by virtue of subsection (3) of that section.
- (4) In its application to schemes which are not contracted-out section 41C(3) above shall have effect for the purpose of this paragraph as if—
- (a) there were omitted—
 - (i) from paragraph (a), sub-paragraph (ii) and the word “or” immediately preceding it;
 - (ii) from paragraph (b), the word “and”; and
 - (iii) from paragraph (c), the words from “authorised” to the end; and
 - (b) there were added at the end of paragraph (c) the words ”and
 - (d) any provision of a scheme whereby—
 - (i) no pension, or a pension at a reduced rate, is payable to a widow whom the earner married not more than six months before his death;
 - (ii) the whole or any part of a pension is not paid to a widow, but instead comparable benefits are provided for one or more dependants of the deceased earner; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) no pension, or a pension at a reduced rate, is payable to a widow (or, where a provision such as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (ii) above operates, to another dependant of the deceased) who was more than ten years younger than he was.”
- 8 If under a scheme—
- (a) the amount of the pension or other benefit for a member or for any other person in respect of him falls to be increased during the period mentioned in paragraph 1(2)(a) above—
- (i) by the percentages specified during that period under section 23(2) above; or
- (ii) under any arrangement which, in the opinion of the Occupational Pensions Board, maintains the value of the pension or other benefit by reference to the rise in the general level of prices in Great Britain during that period; and
- (b) the increase falls to be determined by reference to an amount from which the guaranteed minimum for a member or his widow has not been deducted,
- the fact that the scheme provides as mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) above does not in itself result in conflict with paragraph 2, 3 or 4 above.
- 9 In making any calculation for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule any commutation, forfeiture or surrender of the whole or part of a pension shall be disregarded.
- 10 The same money may not be treated as providing both the benefit required by section 41A or 41B above and the increase in benefit required by this Part of this Schedule.

PART II

TRANSFER VALUES

- 11 (1) This Part of this Schedule applies to any member of an occupational pension scheme whose pensionable service terminates after the commencement of this Part of this Schedule if—
- (a) it terminates at least one year before normal pension age; and
- (b) on the date when it terminates—
- (i) he has accrued rights to benefit under the scheme; or
- (ii) he would have accrued rights to benefit under it if his relevant employment had also terminated on that date.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule “relevant employment”, “pensionable service” and “normal pension age” are to be construed in accordance with Schedule 16 to the Social Security Act 1973.
- (3) Any reference to a member in the following provisions of this Part of this Schedule is a reference to a member of an occupational pension scheme to whom this Part of this Schedule applies.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- 12 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, a member acquires a right, when his pensionable service terminates, to the cash equivalent at the relevant date of any benefits—
- (a) which have accrued to or in respect of him under the applicable rules; or
 - (b) which would have so accrued to or in respect of him if his relevant employment had terminated on the date when his pensionable service terminates.
- (2) In this paragraph “the applicable rules” means—
- (a) the rules of the scheme, except so far as—
 - (i) section 41A or 41B above; or
 - (ii) Part I of this Schedule, overrides them; and
 - (b) any provision which the rules of the scheme do not contain but which a scheme must contain if it is to conform with the preservation requirements; and
 - (c) any provision—
 - (i) of section 41A or 41B above; or
 - (ii) of Part I of this Schedule, which overrides any of the rules of the scheme;
- “the relevant date” means the date when the member’s pensionable service terminates or the date of the relevant application, whichever is the later; and “the relevant application” means any application which the member has made under paragraph 16 below and which he has not withdrawn.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (4) below, in sub-paragraph (2) above “the preservation requirements” means the requirements set out in Part I of Schedule 16 to the Social Security Act 1973 as the requirements of Part II of that Act relating to preservation of benefit under occupational pension schemes.
- (4) Where—
- (a) a scheme provides benefits for members with less than 5 years’ qualifying service, as defined in paragraph 7 of Schedule 16 to the Social Security Act 1973; and
 - (b) on the date when the pensionable service of a member of that scheme terminates he has sufficient service to qualify for benefits under the scheme,
- paragraph 6(1)(b) of that Schedule is to be treated as if a reference to the service which the member has on the date when his pensionable service terminates were substituted for the reference to 5 years’ qualifying service.
- 13 (1) A member who acquires a right to a cash equivalent under this Part of this Schedule may only take it by exercising the option conferred by sub-paragraph (2) below.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) below, the option conferred by this sub-paragraph on any such member is that of requiring the trustees or managers

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details) of the scheme of which he is a member to use the cash equivalent to which he has acquired a right in whichever of the ways specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) below he chooses—

- (a) for acquiring transfer credits allowed under the rules of another scheme whose trustees or managers are able and willing to accept him and which satisfies prescribed requirements;
 - (b) for purchasing from one or more insurance companies such as are mentioned in section 52C(4)(a) above, chosen by the member and willing to accept payment on account of the member from the trustees or managers, one or more annuities which satisfy prescribed requirements;
 - (c) subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, for subscribing to such other type or types of pension arrangements as may be prescribed.
- (3) Except in such circumstances as may be prescribed sub-paragraph (2) above is to be construed as if paragraph (c) were omitted.
- (4) A member may exercise the option conferred by sub-paragraph (2) above in different ways in relation to different portions of his cash equivalent, but a member who exercises that option must do so in relation to the whole of his cash equivalent or, where sub-paragraph (5) below applies, in relation to the whole of the sum mentioned in sub-paragraph (6) below.
- (5) Where—
- (a) the trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme which is not a contracted-out scheme are able or willing to have transferred to it only the liability for a member's accrued rights other than his accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions; and
 - (b) the member has not required them to use the portion of his cash equivalent that represents guaranteed minimum pensions in either of the ways specified in sub-paragraph (2)(b) and (c) above,
- paragraph 12 above, this paragraph and paragraph 14 below are to be construed as conferring on the member an option only in respect of the sum mentioned in sub-paragraph (6) below.
- (6) The sum referred to in sub-paragraph (5) above is the sum equal to the balance of the cash equivalent to which the member would be entitled if sub-paragraph (5) above did not apply, after deduction of an amount sufficient for the trustees or managers of the scheme from which he is being transferred to meet their liability in respect of his and his widow's guaranteed minimum pensions.
- 14 (1) The cash equivalents mentioned in paragraph 12(1) above are to be calculated and verified in the prescribed manner.
- (2) The power to make regulations conferred by sub-paragraph (1) above includes power to provide that cash equivalents are to be calculated and verified in such manner as may be approved in particular cases—
- (a) by prescribed persons; or
 - (b) by persons with prescribed professional qualifications or experience; or
 - (c) by persons approved by the Secretary of State.
- (3) Regulations may provide—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that in calculating cash equivalents account shall be taken—
 - (i) of any surrender, commutation or forfeiture of the whole or part of a member’s pension which occurs before the trustees or managers of the scheme of which he is a member do what is needed to comply with what he requires under paragraph 16 below;
 - (ii) in a case where paragraph 13(5) above applies, of the need to deduct an appropriate amount to provide guaranteed minimum pensions; and
 - (b) that in circumstances specified in the regulations a cash equivalent shall be increased or reduced to an amount greater or less than the amount for which paragraph 12(1) above provides.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (3) above—
- (a) the circumstances that may be specified by virtue of paragraph (b) of that sub-paragraph include—
 - (i) the length of time which elapses between the termination of a member’s pensionable service and his exercise of the option conferred by this Part of this Schedule or regulations under it;
 - (ii) failure by the trustees or managers of a scheme to do what is needed to carry out what a member of the scheme requires within six months of the date on which they receive an application from him under paragraph 16 below; and
 - (iii) the state of the funding of a scheme; and
 - (b) regulations under that sub-paragraph may specify as the amount by which a cash equivalent is to be reduced such an amount that a member has no right to receive anything.
- 15 (1) A member may only exercise the option conferred by paragraph 13 above on or before the last option date.
- (2) In this paragraph “the last option date” means the date which falls—
- (a) one year before the date on which he attains normal pension age; or
 - (b) six months after the date when his pensionable service terminates, whichever is the later.
- (3) A member loses the right to any cash equivalent under this Part of this Schedule—
- (a) if his pension or benefit in lieu of a pension or any part of it becomes payable before he attains normal pension age;
 - (b) if he fails to exercise the option conferred by paragraph 13 above on or before the last option date; or
 - (c) if the scheme is wound up.
- 16 (1) A member may only exercise the option conferred by paragraph 13 above by making an application in writing to the trustees or managers of the scheme.
- (2) In any case where—
- (a) a member has exercised that option; and
 - (b) the trustees or managers of the scheme have done what is needed to carry out what the member requires,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details) the trustees or managers shall be discharged from any obligation to provide benefits to which the cash equivalent related except, in any such case as is mentioned in paragraph 13(5) above, to the extent that an obligation to provide such guaranteed minimum pensions continues to subsist.

- (3) If the trustees or managers of a scheme receive an application under this paragraph, it shall be their duty, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, to do what is needed to carry out what the member requires—
- (a) within twelve months of the date on which they receive the application; or
 - (b) by the date on which the member attains normal pension age, whichever is the earlier.
- (4) If—
- (a) disciplinary proceedings or proceedings before a court have been commenced against a member at any time before the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning with the date when his pensionable service terminates; and
 - (b) it appears to the trustees or managers of the scheme of which he is a member that the proceedings may lead to the whole or part of the pension or benefit in lieu of a pension payable to the member or his widow being forfeited, it shall be the trustees' or managers' duty, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, to do what is needed to carry out what the member requires before—

- (i) the date before which they would be obliged to do it under subparagraph (3) above; or
 - (ii) the end of the period of three months after the conclusion of the disciplinary or court proceedings (including any proceedings on appeal),
- whichever is the later.
- (5) The Occupational Pensions Board may grant an extension of the period within which the trustees or managers of a scheme are obliged to do what is needed to carry out what a member of the scheme requires—
- (a) in any case where in the opinion of the Board—
 - (i) the scheme is being wound up or is about to be wound up;
 - (ii) the scheme is ceasing to be a contracted-out scheme;
 - (iii) the interests of the members of the scheme generally will be prejudiced if the trustees or managers of the scheme do what is needed to carry out what is required within that period; or
 - (iv) the member has not taken all such steps as the trustees or managers can reasonably expect him to take in order to satisfy them of any matter which falls to be established before they can properly carry out what he requires;
 - (b) in any case where the provisions of section 49 above apply; and
 - (c) in any case where a request for an extension has been made on a ground specified in paragraph (a) or (b) above, and the Board's consideration of the request cannot be completed before the end of that period.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)*

- (6) A request under sub-paragraph (5) above may only be made by the trustees or managers.
- (7) The Board shall have power, if they are satisfied that there has been a relevant change of circumstances since they granted an extension, or that they granted an extension in ignorance of a material fact or on the basis of a mistake as to a material fact—
- (a) to direct that the extension shall end on a date earlier than that on which it would otherwise have ended; or
 - (b) to revoke the grant of the extension.
- (8) An application to the trustees or managers of a scheme under this paragraph is to be taken to have been made if it is delivered to them personally, or sent by post in a registered letter or by the recorded delivery service.
- 17 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, a member of a scheme may withdraw an application under paragraph 16 above by giving the trustees or managers of the scheme notice in writing that he no longer wishes them to do what is needed to carry out what he previously required.
- (2) Such a notice shall be of no effect if it is given to the trustees or managers at a time when, in order to comply with what the member previously required, they have already entered into an agreement with a third party to use the whole or part of the member's cash equivalent in a way specified in paragraph 13(2)(a), (b) or (c) above.
- (3) A member who withdraws an application may make another.
- (4) A notice to the trustees or managers of a scheme under this paragraph is to be taken to have been given if it is delivered to them personally, or sent by post in a registered letter or by recorded delivery service.
- 18 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, this Part of this Schedule overrides any provision of a scheme to the extent that it conflicts with this Part of this Schedule.
- (2) This Part of this Schedule does not override any provision of a scheme to the extent that it deals with priorities on a winding-up.

PART III

SUPPLEMENTARY

- 19 In making any calculation for the purposes of this Schedule—
- (a) any charge or lien on the whole or part of a pension; and
 - (b) any set-off against the whole or part of a pension,
- shall be disregarded.
- 20 (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations direct that this Schedule shall have effect, in such cases as he may specify in the regulations, subject to such modifications as he may there specify.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) above “modification” includes, without prejudice to the generality of that sub-paragraph, addition, omission and amendment.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- 21 The Occupational Pensions Board may at any time, and shall if requested by the trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme, advise on any question whether—
- (a) any provision of this Schedule (including, without prejudice to section 20(2) of the Interpretation Act 1978, any such provision as modified by regulations under paragraph 20 above) does or does not override any provision of the scheme;
 - (b) any benefit is an average salary benefit, a flat rate benefit or a money purchase benefit.
- 22 (1) On an application made to them in respect of an occupational pension scheme (other than a public service pension scheme) by persons competent to make such an application in respect of it, the Occupational Pensions Board shall issue a determination on any such question as is mentioned in paragraph 21 above.
- (2) The persons competent to make an application under this paragraph in respect of a scheme are—
- (a) the persons mentioned in section 41E(2)(a) to (d) above; and
 - (b) such other persons as regulations may specify, in relation to any category of schemes into which the scheme falls, as being proper persons to make an application for the purposes of this paragraph in respect of a scheme of that category.
- 23 It is hereby declared that nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Schedule is to be taken to preclude a scheme from being framed or managed more favourably to beneficiaries than is called for by those provisions.”

SCHEDULE 2

Section 3.

INFORMATION ABOUT AND REGISTRATION OF OCCUPATIONAL PENSION SCHEMES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C13 The text of ss. 1, 6, 8(2)(3), 14, 21, 23–25, Sch. 1, Sch. 2 and Sch. 6 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

The following shall be inserted after section 56 of the ^{M20}Social Security Pensions Act 1975—

“ Information about and registration of occupational pension schemes

56A Power to make regulations requiring disclosure of information about schemes to members etc.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations specify requirements to be complied with in the case of an occupational pension scheme with respect to keeping the persons mentioned in subsection (2) below informed of—
- (a) its constitution;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) its administration and finances;
 - (c) the rights and obligations that arise or may arise under it; and
 - (d) any other matters that appear to the Secretary of State to be relevant to occupational pension schemes in general or to occupational pension schemes of a description to which that scheme belongs.
- (2) The persons referred to in subsection (1) above are—
- (a) members and prospective members of the scheme;
 - (b) spouses of members and prospective members;
 - (c) persons within the application of the scheme and qualifying or prospectively qualifying for its benefits;
 - (d) independent trade unions recognised to any extent for the purposes of collective bargaining in relation to members and prospective members of the scheme.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of section 166(2) of the principal Act, the regulations may distinguish between—
- (a) cases in which information is to be given as of course; and
 - (b) cases in which information need only be given on request or in other prescribed circumstances.
- (4) The regulations shall make provision for referring to an industrial tribunal any question whether an organisation is such a trade union as is mentioned in subsection (2)(d) above.
- (5) Regulations under this section override any provision of an occupational pension scheme to the extent that that provision conflicts with them.
- (6) The Occupational Pensions Board may at any time, and shall if requested by the trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme, advise on any question whether any provision of regulations under this scheme does or does not override any provision of the scheme.
- (7) On an application made to them in respect of an occupational pension scheme (other than a public service pension scheme) by persons competent to make such an application in respect of it, the Occupational Pensions Board shall issue a determination on any such question as is mentioned in subsection (6) above.
- (8) The person competent to make an application under subsection (7) above in respect of a scheme are—
- (a) the persons mentioned in section 41E(2)(a) to (d) above; and
 - (b) such other persons as regulations may specify, in relation to any category of schemes into which the scheme falls, as being proper persons to make an application for the purposes of subsection (7) above in respect of a scheme of that category.
- (9) In this section “independent trade union” has the meaning assigned to it by section 153 of the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978.

56B The registrar of occupational pension schemes.

- (1) The Secretary of State may appoint a registrar of occupational pension schemes.
- (2) The registrar may be a body corporate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The Secretary of State may set up such offices and appoint such staff as he thinks necessary for the registrar.
- (4) The registrar may appoint an agent to perform functions on his behalf, other than excluded functions, and in this section “registration agent” means an agent appointed under this subsection.
- (5) In subsection (4) above “excluded functions” means—
- (a) functions under any of the following provisions of this Act—
 - (i) section 56D(5) to (7);
 - (ii) section 56G(2) and (3);
 - (iii) sections 56J to 56L;
 - (iv) section 56N;
 - (b) functions under any Northern Ireland enactment corresponding to a provision mentioned in paragraph (a) above.
- (6) An appointment under subsection (4) above shall be on such terms as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Treasury, may approve.
- (7) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit—
- (a) remove the registrar from office; and
 - (b) direct that the appointment of a registration agent be terminated.
- (8) The amount—
- (a) of any salaries for the registrar and his staff; and
 - (b) of any sums to be paid in respect of expenses incurred by the registrar in performing his functions,
- shall be fixed by the Secretary of State with the concurrence of the Treasury.
- (9) The expenses referred to in subsection (8) above include payments falling to be made to a registration agent.
- (10) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) give the registrar additional functions; and
 - (b) provide for the manner in which the registrar is to perform any of his functions.
- (11) In relation to functions of the registrar that are being performed by a registration agent, references to the registrar in this Part of this Act or in any corresponding Northern Ireland enactment are references to the registration agent.
- (12) If the registrar or a registration agent is a body corporate, this Part of this Act and any corresponding Northern Ireland enactment shall have effect in relation to that body subject to any necessary modifications.

56C Documents to be lodged with registrar.

- (1) Except in such cases or classes of cases as may be prescribed, and subject to the following provisions of this Part of this Act, it shall be the duty of the trustees of a scheme or, if there are no trustees, the duty of the managers, to lodge with the registrar—
- (a) a copy—
 - (i) of the trust deed constituting the scheme, if it is constituted by such a deed; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) of any document constituting the scheme, if it is not constituted by a trust deed;
- and, if the rules of the scheme are not set out in any trust deed or other document which falls to be lodged under sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) above, a copy of the rules;
- (b) a copy of any document referred to in a document a copy of which falls to be lodged under paragraph (a) above;
- (c) a copy of any document which amends or supplements or wholly or partly supersedes a document a copy of which falls to be lodged under paragraph (a) above or this paragraph;
- (d) a copy of any document referred to in a document a copy of which falls to be lodged under paragraph (c) above; and
- (e) a copy of an annual report on the scheme.
- (2) The duty imposed by subsection (1)(a) above is to be performed not later than—
- (a) the end of the period of six months beginning with the commencement date; or
- (b) the end of the period of six months beginning with the operative date of the scheme,
- whichever is the later.
- (3) The duties imposed by subsection (1)(b) and (d) above are duties in relation to any document only if the registrar gives notice to the trustees or managers that he requires a copy.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, if the registrar gives a notice under subsection (3) above to the trustees or managers, they shall perform the duty imposed on them by subsection (1)(b) or (d) above not later than the end of the period of one month from the date of the notice.
- (5) Trustees or managers need not perform the duty imposed on them by subsection (1)(b) or (d) above in relation to a document if the registrar gives them notice that he no longer requires them to do so.
- (6) The duty imposed by subsection (1)(c) above is to be performed not later than—
- (a) the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) above;
- (b) the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection; or
- (c) the end of the period of three months from the document's execution,
- whichever is the latest.
- (7) It shall be the duty of the trustees or managers of a scheme to supply the registrar, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, with such information as may be prescribed concerning the scheme.
- (8) Without prejudice to the generality of section 56B(10) above, regulations under that subsection may specify—
- (a) a time after the lapse of which the registrar may destroy—
- (i) a document lodged with him under this section;
- (ii) a record of information supplied to him under it; and
- (b) the circumstances in which and conditions subject to which any such destruction may take place.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) In this section and section 56D below “the commencement date” means the date of the commencement of section 3 of the Social Security Act 1985 in relation to this section and section 56D below.

56D Provisions relating to the annual report.

- (1) An annual report of which a copy is to be lodged under section 56C(1)(e) above shall contain such information as may be prescribed relating to the latest scheme year.
- (2) There is no duty to lodge a copy of an annual report relating to a scheme year beginning before the commencement date.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, the duty imposed by section 56C(1)(e) above is to be performed not later than the end of such period after the end of each scheme year as may be prescribed.
- (4) The trustees or managers of the scheme may lodge their first annual report later than the end of the period prescribed under subsection (3) above if that period ends before the end of the period of two years from the commencement date, but in that case must lodge it before the end of that period of two years.
- (5) In this section “scheme year” means, in relation to any scheme, whichever of the following periods the trustees or managers of the scheme select—
 - (a) a year specified for the purposes of the scheme—
 - (i) in any document comprising the scheme or which is included among the documents comprising it; or
 - (ii) in the rules of the scheme;
 - (b) a calendar year;
 - (c) the twelve months ending with 31st March;
 - (d) the twelve months ending with 5th April; or
 - (e) any other period which the registrar may in his discretion accept.
- (6) The trustees or managers of a scheme may only exercise the power conferred on them by subsection (5) above once, unless the registrar permits them to select a period different from the period which for the time being is the scheme year.
- (7) The registrar shall not grant such permission unless he is satisfied that to do so will not prejudice the interests of members of the scheme.

56E Additional documents for members etc. and registrar.

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred on him by subsection (1) of section 56A above, the Secretary of State may by regulations require the trustees of an occupational pension scheme or, if there are no trustees, the managers—
 - (a) to obtain at such times as may be prescribed documents to which this subsection applies;
 - (b) to make copies of them available to the persons specified in subsection (2) of that section; and
 - (c) to lodge copies with the registrar not later than the end of such period as may be prescribed.
- (2) In relation to any scheme the documents to which subsection (1) above applies are—
 - (a) its audited accounts;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) an auditor's statement about contributions under it;
 - (c) an actuarial valuation of its assets in relation to its liabilities; and
 - (d) an actuary's statement concerning such aspects of any such valuation as may be prescribed.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) prescribe the persons who may act as auditors or actuaries for the purposes of this section; or
 - (b) provide that the persons who may so act shall be—
 - (i) persons with prescribed professional qualifications or experience; or
 - (ii) persons approved by the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to the form and content of any such document as is mentioned in subsection (2) above.
- (5) Regulations under this section override any provision of an occupational pension scheme to the extent that that provision conflicts with them.
- (6) The Occupational Pensions Board may at any time, and shall if requested by the trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme, advise on any question whether any provision of regulations under this section does or does not override any provision of the scheme.
- (7) On an application made to them in respect of an occupational pension scheme (other than a public service pension scheme) by persons competent to make such an application in respect of it, the Occupational Pensions Board shall issue a determination on any such question as is mentioned in subsection (6) above.
- (8) The persons competent to make an application under subsection (7) above in respect of a scheme are—
- (a) the persons mentioned in section 41E(2)(a) to (d) above; and
 - (b) such other persons as regulations may specify, in relation to any category of schemes into which the scheme falls, as being proper persons to make the application for the purposes of subsection (7) above in respect of a scheme of that category.

56F Power of registrar to accept information on microfilm etc.

- (1) The registrar may, if he thinks fit, accept in lieu of a document falling to be lodged with him any other material which contains the information which the document required to be lodged would contain and is of a kind approved by him.
- (2) The delivery to the registrar of material accepted by him under subsection (1) above shall be a sufficient compliance with the provision requiring the document to be lodged.

56G Inspection and production of documents kept by registrar.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, so long as—
 - (a) any document lodged with the registrar under this Part of this Act; or
 - (b) the registered record of any information supplied to him under section 56C(7) above, is in the custody of the registrar, any person—
 - (i) may inspect it; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) may require a copy of or extract from it.
- (2) The registrar may refuse—
 - (a) to permit a person to inspect a document or record; or
 - (b) to supply a person with a copy or extract,if it appears to the registrar that to permit the inspection or supply the copy or extract—
 - (i) would be prejudicial to the financial interest of the scheme; or
 - (ii) would encroach on the privacy of an individual.
- (3) The registrar need not consider whether to exercise in relation to a document or record any of the powers conferred on him by subsection (2) above unless some person who appears to him to have an interest in the matter has asked him to exercise the power in relation to that document or record or in relation to documents or records forming a class which appears to the registrar to comprise that document or record.
- (4) Material accepted by the registrar under section 56F above is to be treated as a document for the purposes of this section.
- (5) If the registrar considers it appropriate in a particular case, he may treat subsection (1) (i) above as giving a right to inspect a copy of a document or record, instead of the document or record itself, or to have the contents of a document or record made available for inspection in visible and legible form by projecting them on a screen or by any other means whether electrical or mechanical.

56H Fees.

- The Secretary of State may by regulations specify—
- (a) fees which, in performing a duty imposed—
 - (i) by or by virtue of section 56C above; or
 - (ii) by virtue of section 56E(1)(c) above,the trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme are to pay to the registrar out of the resources available for the purposes of the scheme;
 - (b) fees which are to be paid to the registrar by a person exercising a right conferred by section 56G above.

56J Power of registrar to direct removal of documents to Public Record Office etc.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) below, where a scheme has been wound up, the registrar may, at any time after the expiration of 30 years from the date of the winding up, direct that any documents or other material in his custody relating to that scheme may be removed to the Public Record Office, and documents or other material in respect of which any such direction is given shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the Public Records Act 1958.
- (2) In its application to a document or other material which appears to the registrar to relate mainly or exclusively to Scotland, subsection (1) above shall have effect as if the reference to removal to the Public Record Office were a reference to transmission to the Keeper of the Records of Scotland, and the Public Records (Scotland) Act 1937 shall then apply to such documents or material as if they were records transmitted to the Keeper under section 5 of that Act, and as if the registrar were the person who transmitted them under that section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In its application to a document or other material which appears to the registrar to relate mainly or exclusively to Northern Ireland, subsection (1) above shall have effect as if the reference to the Public Record Office were a reference to the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations substitute such period as he may specify in the regulations for the period specified in subsection (1) above.

56K Penalty for default.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, if any of the requirements—
- (a) of section 56C above or regulations under that section; or
 - (b) of regulations under section 56E(1)(c) above,
- is not complied with in relation to a scheme, every person who immediately before the end of the period for compliance was a person whose duty it was to comply with it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction—
- (i) to a fine of an amount not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale; and
 - (ii) to a fine of an amount not exceeding level 3 on that scale for each day during which the default continues after the conviction.
- (2) Where a person is charged with an offence under subsection (1) above in respect of any requirement, subject to subsection (3) below, it shall be a defence for him to prove—
- (a) that the commission of the offence was due to a mistake or to reliance on information supplied to him or to the act or default of another person, an accident or some other cause beyond his control; and
 - (b) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of such an offence by himself or any person under his control.
- (3) If in any such case the defence provided by subsection (2) above involves the allegation that the commission of the offence was due to the act or default of another person or to reliance on information supplied by another person, the person charged shall not, without leave of the court, be entitled to rely on that defence unless, within a period ending seven clear days before the hearing, he has served on the prosecutor a notice in writing giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of that other person as was then in his possession.
- (4) In England and Wales proceedings in respect of an offence under this section shall not be instituted except by or with the written consent—
- (a) of the Secretary of State; or
 - (b) of the registrar; or
 - (c) of a person authorised to institute such proceedings by the Secretary of State or the registrar.
- (5) In this section “the standard scale” means the standard scale as defined in section 75 of the Criminal Justice Act 1982.
- (6) Trustees or managers may be convicted under this section whether or not an application has been made under section 56L below.

56L Further default powers.

- (1) If the trustees or managers of a scheme, having made default in complying with—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) regulations under section 56A or 56E(1)(b) or (c) above; or
 - (b) section 56C above or regulations under that section,
- fail to make good the default within 14 days after the service of a notice on them requiring them to do so, an order may be made under this subsection.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations specify forms for notices under subsection (1) above.
 - (3) An order under subsection (1) above is an order directing the trustees or managers to make good the default within such time as may be specified in the order.
 - (4) The power to make such an order shall be exercisable by the appropriate court on the application of a person to whom this subsection applies.
 - (5) Subsection (4) above applies—
 - (a) to the Secretary of State;
 - (b) to the registrar;
 - (c) to any person authorised by the Secretary of State or the registrar to make an application under this section; and
 - (d) in the case of a default in complying with regulations under section 56A or 56E(1)(b) above, to any aggrieved person.
 - (6) In this section “the appropriate court” means—
 - (a) in England and Wales, a county court; and
 - (b) in Scotland, the sheriff.
 - (7) An application to the sheriff shall be made by summary application.
 - (8) An order under this section may provide that all costs (or in Scotland, expenses) of and incidental to the application shall be borne personally by any of the trustees or managers of the scheme.
 - (9) An order may be made under this section whether or not proceedings have been instituted under section 56K above.

56M Disclosure of information by Inland Revenue and Occupational Pensions Board.

- (1) No obligation as to secrecy imposed by statute or otherwise—
 - (a) on persons employed in relation to Inland Revenue; or
 - (b) on the staff of the Occupational Pensions Board,shall prevent them from making known to the registrar—
 - (i) the fact that a particular occupational pension scheme exists or has existed;
 - (ii) whether such a scheme has been wound up, and, if such a scheme has been wound up, when the winding-up took place;
 - (iii) sufficient information to enable the registrar to get in touch with persons who are or have been trustees or managers of any such scheme or employers of members of any such scheme.
- (2) If persons such as are mentioned in subsection (1) above disclose the fact that a particular scheme exists or has existed, no such obligation as is mentioned in that subsection shall prevent them from also disclosing to the registrar sufficient details to enable him to identify the scheme.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)*

56N Registrar's reports.

- (1) The Secretary of State may direct the registrar to submit to him, in such form and at such intervals as may be specified in the direction, such statistical and other reports as the Secretary of State may require.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, a direction under that subsection may require the registrar to submit a report—
 - (a) based on information contained in documents copies of which are lodged with him or on information otherwise supplied to him under this Part of this Act or any corresponding Northern Ireland enactment; or
 - (b) concerning the general administration of the register of occupational pension schemes or any of his other functions.
- (3) The Secretary of State may determine at his discretion whether or not to publish a report submitted to him under this section.”.

Textual Amendments

F18 Sch. 3 para. 1 repealed by Social Security (Consequential Provisions) Act 1992 (c. 6)

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- 2 (1) In subsection (7) of section 35 of that Act (earner’s guaranteed minimum) for the words from “he” to “terminated”, in the second place where it occurs, there shall be substituted the words “the final relevant year shall be determined for the purposes of subsection (2) above by reference to the last order under section 21 above to come into force before the end of the tax year in which the service in question is terminated and without reference to the last such order to come into force before the end of the final relevant year”.
- (2) Any document the contents of which are in terms corresponding to those of section 35(7) of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975, as that subsection stood immediately before the passing of this Act, shall be construed as if its contents were and always had been in terms corresponding to those of that subsection as amended by sub-paragraph (1) above.
- 3 The following subsections shall be inserted after subsection (4) of section 41C of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 (provisions supplementary to sections 41A and 41B)—
- “(4A) In calculating an earner’s guaranteed minimum for the purposes of sections 41A and 41B above his earnings factor shall be taken to be that factor as increased, except as provided by subsection (4B) below, by the last order under section 21 above to come into force before the end of the tax year in which the termination of employment date falls.
- (4B) If an earner’s termination of employment date falls in the tax year in which he attains pensionable age, subsection (4A) above shall have effect in relation to him as if for the words from “tax year” onwards there were substituted the words “final relevant year”.
- (4C) In subsection (4B) above “final relevant year” has the same meaning as in section 35 above.”.
- 4 The following paragraph shall be substituted for subsection (6)(a) of section 44 of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 (state scheme premiums)—
- “(a) any relevant earnings factor shall be taken to be that factor as increased by the last order under section 21 above to come into force before those five tax years; and”.
- 5 The following paragraph shall be substituted for subsection (3)(a) of section 45 of that Act (limited revaluation premiums)—
