CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1 Orders to which Part I applies. E+W+N.I.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, in this Part “[<sup>F1</sup>Part I order]” means—
- [<sup>F2</sup>(a) a section 8 order made by a court in England and Wales under the Children Act 1989, other than an order varying or discharging such an order]
  - (b) an order made by a court of civil jurisdiction in Scotland under any enactment or rule of law with respect to the [<sup>F3</sup>residence, custody, care or control of a child, contact with or], access to a child or the education or upbringing of a child, excluding—
    - (i) an order committing the care of a child to a local authority or placing a child under the supervision of a local authority;
    - (ii) an adoption order as defined in section 12(1) of the <sup>M1</sup>Adoption (Scotland) Act 1978;
    - (iii) an order freeing a child for adoption made under section 18 of the said Act of 1978;
    - (iv) an order [<sup>F4</sup>giving parental responsibilities and parental rights in relation to] a child made in the course of proceedings for the adoption of the child (other than an order made following the making of a direction under section 53(1) of the Children Act 1975);
    - (v) an order made under the <sup>M2</sup>Education (Scotland) Act 1980;
    - (vi) an order made under Part II or III of the <sup>M3</sup>Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968;
    - (vii) an order made under the <sup>M4</sup>Child Abduction and Custody Act 1985;
    - (viii) an order for the delivery of a child or other order for the enforcement of a [<sup>F1</sup>Part I order];
    - (ix) an order relating to the tutory or curatory of a child;
  - [<sup>F5</sup>(c) an Article 8 order made by a court in Northern Ireland under the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, other than an order varying or discharging such an order;]
  - [<sup>F6</sup>(d) an order made by a court in England and Wales in the exercise of the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court with respect to children—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2001.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (i) so far as it gives care of a child to any person or provides for contact with, or the education of, a child; but
  - (ii) excluding an order varying or revoking such an order;]
- [<sup>F7</sup>(e) an order made by the High Court in Northern Ireland in the exercise of its inherent jurisdiction with respect to children—
- (i) so far as it gives care of a child to any person or provides for contact with, or the education of, a child; but
  - (ii) excluding an order varying or discharging such an order;]
- (2) In this Part “[<sup>F1</sup>Part I order]” does not include—
- <sup>F8</sup>(a) .....
  - <sup>F9</sup>(b) .....
  - <sup>F10</sup>(c) .....
- [<sup>F11</sup>(3) In this Part, “Part I order”—
- (a) includes any order which would have been a custody order by virtue of this section in any form in which it was in force at any time before its amendment by the Children Act 1989 [<sup>F12</sup>or the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, as the case may be]; and
  - (b) (subject to section 32 and 40 of this Act) excludes any order which would have been excluded from being a custody order by virtue of this section in any such form.]
- (6) Provision may be made by act of sederunt prescribing, in relation to orders within subsection (1)(b) above, what constitutes an application for the purposes of this Part.

CHAPTER II

JURISDICTION OF COURTS IN ENGLAND AND WALES

- (1) A court in England and Wales shall not have jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(a) order with respect to a child in or in connection with matrimonial proceedings in England and Wales unless
  - (a) [<sup>F14</sup> the child concerned is a child of both parties to the matrimonial proceedings and the court has jurisdiction to entertain those proceedings by virtue of the Council Regulation, or]
  - (b) the condition in section 2A of this Act is satisfied
- (2) A court in England and Wales shall not have jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(a) order in a non-matrimonial case (that is to say, where the condition in section 2A of this Act is not satisfied) unless the condition in section 3 of this Act is satisfied.
- (3) A court in England and Wales shall not have jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(d) order unless—
  - (a) the condition in section 3 of this Act is satisfied, or
  - (b) the child concerned is present in England and Wales on the relevant date and the court considers that the immediate exercise of its powers is necessary for his protection.]

Textual Amendments

- F13 S. 2 substituted (14.10.1991) by Children Act 1989 \(c. 41, SIF 20\), s. 108, Sch. 13 para. 64 (with Sch. 14 para. 1\(1\)); S.I. 1991/828, art. 3(2)
- F14 S. 2(1)(a) and the following “(b)” inserted (1.3.2001) by S.I. 2001/310, reg. 6

[<sup>F15</sup>2A] Jurisdiction in or in connection with matrimonial proceedings.

- (1) The condition referred to in section 2(1) of this Act is that the matrimonial proceedings are proceedings in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned and—
  - (a) the proceedings—
    - (i) are proceedings for divorce or nullity of marriage, and
    - (ii) are continuing;
  - (b) the proceedings—
    - (i) are proceedings for judicial separation,
    - (ii) are continuing,
 and the jurisdiction of the court is not excluded by subsection (2) below; or
  - (c) the proceedings have been dismissed after the beginning of the trial but—
    - (i) the section 1(1)(a) order is being made forthwith, or
    - (ii) the application for the order was made on or before the dismissal.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) above, the jurisdiction of the court is excluded if, after the grant of a decree of judicial separation, on the relevant date, proceedings for divorce or nullity in respect of the marriage are continuing in Scotland or Northern Ireland.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2001.

Changes to legislation: Family Law Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Subsection (2) above shall not apply if the court in which the other proceedings there referred to are continuing has made—
- (a) an order under section 13(6) or [F1619A(4)] of this Act (not being an order made by virtue of section 13(6)(a)(i)), or
  - (b) an order under section 14(2) or 22(2) of this Act which is recorded as being made for the purpose of enabling Part I proceedings to be taken in England and Wales with respect to the child concerned.
- (4) Where a court—
- (a) has jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(a) order in or in connection with matrimonial proceedings, but
  - (b) considers that it would be more appropriate for Part I matters relating to the child to be determined outside England and Wales,
- the court may by order direct that, while the order under this subsection is in force, no section 1(1)(a) order shall be made by any court in or in connection with those proceedings.]

Textual Amendments

- F15 S. 2A substituted (14.10.1991) by Children Act 1989 \(c. 41, SIF 20\), s. 108, Sch. 13 para. 64 (with Sch. 14 para. 1\(1\)); S.I. 1991/828, art. 3\(2\)

3 Habitual residence or presence of child.

- (1) The condition referred to in [F17section 2(2)] of this Act is that on the relevant date the child concerned—
- (a) is habitually resident in England and Wales, or
  - (b) is present in England and Wales and is not habitually resident in any part of the United Kingdom,
- and, in either case, the jurisdiction of the court is not excluded by subsection (2) below.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above, the jurisdiction of the court is excluded if, on the relevant date, [F18matrimonial proceedings] are continuing in a court in Scotland or Northern Ireland in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned.
- (3) Subsection (2) above shall not apply if the court in which the other proceedings there referred to are continuing has made—
- (a) an order under section 13(6) or [F1919A(4)] of this Act (not being an order made by virtue of section 13(6)(a)(i)), or
  - (b) an order under section 14(2) or 22(2) of this Act which is recorded as made for the purpose of enabling [F20Part I proceedings with respect to] the child concerned to be taken in England and Wales,
- and that order is in force.

5 Power of court to refuse application or stay proceedings.

- (1) A court in England and Wales which has jurisdiction to make a [<sup>F23</sup>Part I order] may refuse an application for the order in any case where the matter in question has already been determined in proceedings outside England and Wales.
- (2) Where, at any stage of the proceedings on an application made to a court in England and Wales for a [<sup>F23</sup>Part I order], or for the variation of a [<sup>F23</sup>Part I order], [<sup>F24</sup>other than proceedings governed by the Council Regulation,] it appears to the court—
  - (a) that proceedings with respect to the matters to which the application relates are continuing outside England and Wales, or
  - (b) that it would be more appropriate for those matters to be determined in proceedings to be taken outside England and Wales, the court may stay the proceedings on the application.
- (3) The court may remove a stay granted in accordance with subsection (2) above if it appears to the court that there has been unreasonable delay in the taking or prosecution of the other proceedings referred to in that subsection, or that those proceedings are stayed, sisted or concluded.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall affect any power exercisable apart from this section to refuse an application or to grant or remove a stay.

6 Duration and variation of custody orders.

- (1) [<sup>F25</sup>Part I order] made by a court in Scotland or Northern Ireland (or a variation of such an order) comes into force with respect to a child at a time when a [<sup>F25</sup>Part I order] made by a court in England and Wales has effect with respect to him, the latter order shall cease to have effect so far as it makes provision for any matter for which the same or different provision is made by (or by the variation of) the order made by the court in Scotland or Northern Ireland.
- (2) Where by virtue of subsection (1) above a [<sup>F25</sup>Part I order] has ceased to have effect so far as it makes provision for any matter, a court in England or Wales shall not have jurisdiction to vary that order so as to make provision for that matter.
- [<sup>F26</sup>(3) A court in England and Wales shall not have jurisdiction to vary a Part I order if, on the relevant date, matrimonial proceedings are continuing in Scotland or Northern Ireland in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned.
  - (3A) Subsection (3) above shall not apply if—
    - (a) the Part I order was made in or in connection with proceedings for divorce or nullity in England and Wales in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned; and
    - (b) those proceedings are continuing.
  - (3B) Subsection (3) above shall not apply if—
    - (a) the Part I order was made in or in connection with proceedings for judicial separation in England and Wales;
    - (b) those proceedings are continuing; and
    - (c) the decree of judicial separation has not yet been granted.]
  - (4) Subsection (3) above shall not apply if the court in which the proceedings there referred to are continuing has made—
    - (a) an order under section 13(6) or [<sup>F27</sup>19A(4)] of this Act (not being an order made by virtue of section 13(6)(a)(i)), or
    - (b) an order under section 14(2) or 22(2) of this Act which is recorded as made for the purpose of enabling [<sup>F28</sup>Part I proceedings with respect to] the child concerned to be taken in England and Wales,
and that order is in force.
  - (5) Subsection (3) above shall not apply in the case of a [<sup>F29</sup>variation of a section 1(1)(d) order if the child concerned] is present in England and Wales on the relevant date and the court considers that the immediate exercise of its powers is necessary for his protection.
  - [<sup>F30</sup>(6) Subsection (7) below applies where a Part I order which is—
    - (a) a residence order (within the meaning of the Children Act 1989) in favour of a person with respect to a child,

13 Jurisdiction ancillary to matrimonial proceedings.

- (1) The jurisdiction of a court in Scotland to entertain an application for a [F40Part I order] in matrimonial proceedings shall be modified by the following provisions of this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2001.

Changes to legislation: Family Law Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A court in Scotland shall not have jurisdiction, after the dismissal of matrimonial proceedings or after decree of absolvitor is granted therein, to entertain an application for a <sup>F40</sup>Part I order<sup>F41</sup> in those proceedings unless the application therefor was made on or before such dismissal or the granting of the decree of absolvitor.
- (3) Where, after a decree of separation has been granted, an application is made in the separation process for a <sup>F40</sup>Part I order, a court in Scotland shall not have jurisdiction to entertain that application if, on the date of the application, proceedings for divorce or nullity of marriage in respect of the marriage concerned are continuing in another court in the United Kingdom.
- (4) A court in Scotland shall not have jurisdiction to entertain an application for the variation of a <sup>F40</sup>Part I order made <sup>F42</sup>in matrimonial proceedings where the court has refused to grant the principal remedy sought in the proceedings if, on the date of the application, matrimonial proceedings in respect of the marriage concerned are continuing in another court in the United Kingdom.
- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) above shall not apply if the court in which the other proceedings there referred to are continuing has made—
  - (a) an order under section <sup>F43</sup>2A(4) or <sup>F44</sup>19A(4) of this Act or under subsection (6) below (not being an order made by virtue of paragraph (a)(ii) of that subsection), or
  - (b) an order under section 5(2), 14(2) or 22(2) of this Act which is recorded as made for the purpose of enabling <sup>F45</sup>Part I proceedings with respect to the child concerned to be taken in Scotland or, as the case may be, in another court in Scotland,and that order is in force.
- (6) A court in Scotland which has jurisdiction in matrimonial proceedings to entertain an application for a <sup>F40</sup>Part I order with respect to a child may make an order declining such jurisdiction if—
  - (a) it appears to the court with respect to that child that—
    - (i) but for section 11(1) of this Act, another court in Scotland would have jurisdiction to entertain an application for a <sup>F40</sup>Part I order, or
    - (ii) but for section 3(2), 6(3), 20(2) or 23(3) of this Act, a court in another part of the United Kingdom would have jurisdiction to make a <sup>F40</sup>Part I order or an order varying a <sup>F40</sup>Part I order; and
  - (b) the court considers that it would be more appropriate for <sup>F46</sup>Part I matters relating to that child to be determined in that other court or part.
- (7) The court may recall an order made under subsection (6) above.

14 Power of court to refuse application or sist proceedings.

- (1) A court in Scotland which has jurisdiction to entertain an application for a [F47Part I order] may refuse the application in any case where the matter in question has already been determined in other proceedings.
- (2) Where, at any stage of the proceedings on an application made to a court in Scotland for a [F47Part I order], it appears to the court—
  - (a) that proceedings with respect to the matters to which the application relates are continuing outside Scotland or in another court in Scotland; or
  - (b) that it would be more appropriate for those matters to be determined in proceedings outside Scotland or in another court in Scotland and that such proceedings are likely to be taken there, the court may sist the proceedings on that application.

15 Duration, variation and recall of orders.

- (1) Where, after the making by a court in Scotland of a [F48Part I order] (“the existing order”) with respect to a child,—
  - (a) a [F48Part I order], or an order varying a [F48Part I order], competently made by another court in any part of the United Kingdom with respect to that child; or
  - (b) an order [F49relating to the parental responsibilities or parental rights in relation to] that child which is made outside the United Kingdom and recognised in Scotland by virtue of section 26 of this Act [F50or by virtue of the Council Regulation], comes into force, the existing order shall cease to have effect so far as it makes provision for any matter for which the same or different provision is made by the order of the other court in the United Kingdom or, as the case may be, the order so recognised.
- (2) Subject to sections 11(1) and 13(3) and (4) of this Act, a court in Scotland which has made a [F48Part I order] (“the original order”) may, notwithstanding that it would no longer have jurisdiction to make the original order, make an order varying or recalling the original order; but if the original order has by virtue of subsection (1) above ceased to have effect so far as it makes provision for any matter, the court shall not have power to vary that order under this subsection so as to make provision for that matter.
- (3) In subsection (2) above, an order varying an original order means any [F48Part I order] made with respect to the same child as the original order was made.

CHAPTER IV

JURISDICTION OF COURTS IN NORTHERN IRELAND

- (1) A court in Northern Ireland shall not have jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(c) order with respect to a child in or in connection with matrimonial proceedings in Northern Ireland unless
  - [<sup>F63</sup>(a) the child concerned is a child of both parties to the matrimonial proceedings and the court has jurisdiction to entertain those proceedings by virtue of the Council Regulation, or
  - (b)] the condition in section 19A of the Act is satisfied.
- (2) A court in Northern Ireland shall not have jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(c) order in a non-matrimonial case (that is to say, where the condition in section 19A is not satisfied) unless the condition in section 20 of this Act is satisfied.
- (3) A court in Northern Ireland shall not have jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(e) order unless—
  - (a) the condition in section 20 of this Act is satisfied, or
  - (b) the child concerned is present in Northern Ireland on the relevant date and the court considers that the immediate exercise of its powers is necessary for his protection.]

- (1) The condition referred to in section 19(1) of this Act is that the matrimonial proceedings are proceedings in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned and—
  - (a) the proceedings—
    - (i) are proceedings for divorce or nullity of marriage, and
    - (ii) are continuing;
  - (b) the proceedings—
    - (i) are proceedings for judicial separation,
    - (ii) are continuing,and the jurisdiction of the court is not excluded by subsection (2) below; or
  - (c) the proceedings have been dismissed after the beginning of the trial but—
    - (i) the section 1(1)(c) order is being made forthwith, or
    - (ii) the application for the order was made on or before the dismissal.

For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) above, the jurisdiction of the court is excluded if, after the grant of a decree of judicial separation, on the relevant date, proceedings for divorce or nullity in respect of the marriage are continuing in England and Wales or Scotland.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2001.

Changes to legislation: Family Law Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Subsection (2) above shall not apply if the court in which the other proceedings there referred to are continuing has made—
  - (a) an order under section 2A(4) or 13(6) of this Act (not being an order made by virtue of section 13(6)(a)(i)), or
  - (b) an order under section 5(2) or 14(2) of this Act which is recorded as being made for the purpose of enabling Part I proceedings to be taken in Northern Ireland with respect to the child concerned.
- (4) Where a court—
  - (a) has jurisdiction to make a section 1(1)(c) order in or in connection with matrimonial proceedings, but
  - (b) considers that it would be more appropriate for Part I matters relating to the child to be determined outside Northern Ireland, the court may by order direct that, while the order under this subsection is in force, no section 1(1)(c) order shall be made by any court in or in connection with those proceedings.

20 Habitual residence or presence of child.

- (1) The condition referred to in [<sup>F65</sup>section 19(2)] of this Act is that on the relevant date the child concerned—
  - (a) is habitually resident in Northern Ireland, or
  - (b) is present in Northern Ireland and is not habitually resident in any part of the United Kingdom, and, in either case, the jurisdiction of the court is not excluded by subsection (2) below.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above. the jurisdiction of the court is excluded if, on the relevant date, [<sup>F66</sup>matrimonial proceedings] are continuing in a court in England and Wales or Scotland in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned.
- (3) Subsection (2) above shall not apply if the court in which the other proceedings there referred to are continuing has made—
  - (a) an order under section [<sup>F67</sup>2A(4)] or 13(6) of this Act (not being an order made by virtue of section 13(6)(a)(i)), or
  - (b) an order under section 5(2) or 14(2) of this Act which is recorded as made for the purpose of enabling [<sup>F68</sup>Part I proceedings with respect to] the child concerned to be taken in Northern Ireland,
 and that order is in force.

23 Duration and variation of custody orders.

- (1) If a [<sup>F73</sup>Part I order] made by a court in England and Wales or Scotland (or a variation of such an order) comes into force with respect to a child at a time when a [<sup>F73</sup>Part I order] made by a court in Northern Ireland has effect with respect to him, the latter order shall cease to have effect so far as it makes provision for any matter for which the same or different provision is made by (or by the variation of) the order made by the court in England and Wales or Scotland.
- (2) Where by virtue of subsection (1) above a [<sup>F73</sup>Part I order] has ceased to have effect so far as it makes provision for any matter, a court in Northern Ireland shall not have jurisdiction to vary that order so as to make provision for that matter.
- <sup>F74</sup>(3) A court in Northern Ireland shall not have jurisdiction to vary a Part I order if, on the relevant date, matrimonial proceedings are continuing in England and Wales or Scotland in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned.
  - (3A) Subsection (3) above shall not apply if—
    - (a) the Part I order was made in or in connection with proceedings for divorce or nullity in Northern Ireland in respect of the marriage of the parents of the child concerned; and
    - (b) those proceedings are continuing.
  - (3B) Subsection (3) above shall not apply if—
    - (a) the Part I order was made in or in connection with proceedings for judicial separation in Northern Ireland;
    - (b) those proceedings are continuing; and
    - (c) the decree of judicial separation has not yet been granted.]
- (4) Subsection (3) above shall not apply if the court in which the proceedings there referred to are continuing has made—
  - (a) an order under section [<sup>F75</sup>2A(4)] or 13(6) of this Act (not being an order made by virtue of section 13(6)(a)(i)), or
  - (b) an order under section 5(2) or 14(2) of this Act which is recorded as made for the purpose of enabling [<sup>F76</sup>Part I proceedings with respect to] the child concerned to be taken in Northern Ireland,
 and that order is in force.
- (5) Subsection (3) above shall not apply in the case of a [<sup>F77</sup>variation of a section 1(1) (e) order if the child concerned] is present in Northern Ireland on the relevant date and the court considers that the immediate exercise of its powers is necessary for his protection.
- <sup>F78</sup>(6) Subsection (7) below applies where a Part I order which is—
  - (a) a residence order (within the meaning of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995) in favour of a person with respect to a child,
  - (b) an order made in the exercise of the High Court's inherent jurisdiction with respect to children by virtue of which a person has care of a child, or
  - (c) an order—
    - (i) of a kind mentioned in section 1(3)(a) of this Act,
    - (ii) under which a person is entitled to the actual possession of a child,

28 Cancellation and variation of registration.

- (1) A court which revokes, recalls or varies an order registered under section 27 of this Act shall cause notice of the revocation, recall or variation to be given in the prescribed manner to the prescribed officer of the court in which it is registered and, on receiving the notice, the prescribed officer—
  - (a) in the case of the revocation or recall of the order, shall cancel the registration, and
  - (b) in the case of the variation of the order, shall cause particulars of the variation to be registered in the prescribed manner.
- (2) Where—
  - (a) an order registered under section 27 of this Act ceases (in whole or in part) to have effect in the part of the United Kingdom in which it was made, otherwise than because of its revocation, recall or variation, or
  - (b) an order registered under section 27 of this Act in Scotland ceases (in whole or in part) to have effect there as a result of the making of an order in proceedings outside the United Kingdom, the court in which the order is registered may, of its own motion or on the application of any person who appears to the court to have an interest in the matter, cancel the registration (or, if the order has ceased to have effect in part, cancel the registration so far as it relates to the provisions which have ceased to have effect).

30 Staying or sisting of enforcement proceedings.

- (1) Where in accordance with section 29 of this Act proceedings are taken in any court for the enforcement of an order registered in that court, any person who appears to the court to have an interest in the matter may apply for the proceedings to be stayed or sisted on the ground that he has taken or intends to take other proceedings (in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) as a result of which the order may cease to have effect, or may have a different effect, in the part of the United Kingdom in which it is registered.
- (2) If after considering an application under subsection (1) above the court considers that the proceedings for enforcement should be stayed or sisted in order that other proceedings may be taken or concluded, it shall stay or sist the proceedings for enforcement accordingly.
- (3) The court may remove a stay or recall a sist granted in accordance with subsection (2) above if it appears to the court—
  - (a) that there has been unreasonable delay in the taking or prosecution of the other proceedings referred to in that subsection, or
  - (b) that those other proceedings are concluded and that the registered order, or a relevant part of it, is still in force.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall affect any power exercisable apart from this section to grant, remove or recall a stay or sist.

- (3) If, after considering an application under subsection (1) or (2) above, the court is satisfied that the registered order has ceased to have effect, it shall dismiss the proceedings for enforcement (or, if it is satisfied that the order has ceased to have effect in part, it shall dismiss the proceedings so far as they relate to the enforcement of provisions which have ceased to have effect).

32 Interpretation of Chapter V.

- (1) In this Chapter—

“the appropriate court”, in relation to England and Wales or Northern Ireland, means the High Court and, in relation to Scotland, means the Court of Session;

“<sup>F86</sup>Part I order” includes (except where the context otherwise requires) any order within section 1(3) of this Act which, on the assumptions mentioned in subsection (3) below—

- (a) could have been made notwithstanding the provisions of this Part;
- (b) would have been a <sup>F86</sup>Part I order for the purposes of this Part; and
- (c) would not have ceased to have effect by virtue of section 6, 15 or 23 of this Act.

- (2) In the application of this Chapter to Scotland, “<sup>F86</sup>Part I order” also includes (except where the context otherwise requires) any order within section 1(3) of this Act which, on the assumptions mentioned in subsection (3) below—

- (a) would have been a <sup>F86</sup>Part I order for the purposes of this Part; and
- (b) would not have ceased to have effect by virtue of section 6 or 23 of this Act, and which, but for the provisions of this Part, would be recognised in Scotland under any rule of law.

- (3) The said assumptions are—

- (a) that this Part had been in force at all material times; and
- (b) that any reference in section 1 of this Act to any enactment included a reference to any corresponding enactment previously in force.

CHAPTER VI

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTAL

33 Power to order disclosure of child’s whereabouts.

- (1) Where in proceedings for or relating to a [<sup>F87</sup>Part I order] in respect of a child there is not available to the court adequate information as to where the child is, the court may order any person who it has reason to believe may have relevant information to disclose it to the court.
- (2) A person shall not be excused from complying with an order under subsection (1) above by reason that to do so may incriminate him or his spouse of an offence; but a statement or admission made in compliance with such an order shall not be admissible in evidence against either of them in proceedings for any offence other than perjury.
- (3) A court in Scotland before which proceedings are pending for the enforcement of an order [<sup>F88</sup>relating to parental responsibilities or parental rights in relation to] a child made outside the United Kingdom which is recognised in Scotland shall have the same powers as it would have under subsection (1) above if the order were its own.

34 Power to order recovery of child.

- (1) Where—
  - (a) a person is required by a [<sup>F89</sup>Part I order], or an order for the enforcement of a [<sup>F89</sup>Part I order], to give up a child to another person (“the person concerned”), and
  - (b) the court which made the order imposing the requirement is satisfied that the child has not been given up in accordance with the order, the court may make an order authorising an officer of the court or a constable to take charge of the child and deliver him to the person concerned.
- (2) The authority conferred by subsection (1) above includes authority—
  - (a) to enter and search any premises where the person acting in pursuance of the order has reason to believe the child may be found, and
  - (b) to use such force as may be necessary to give effect to the purpose of the order.
- (3) Where by virtue of—
  - [<sup>F90</sup>(a) section 14 of the Children Act 1989]
  - [<sup>F91</sup>(b) Article 14 (enforcement of residence orders) of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995,] a [<sup>F89</sup>Part I order] (or a provision of a [<sup>F89</sup>Part I order]) may be enforced as if it were an order requiring a person to give up a child to another person, subsection (1) above shall apply as if the [<sup>F89</sup>Part I order] had included such a requirement.

35 Powers to restrict removal of child from jurisdiction.

(3) A court in Scotland—

- (a) at any time after the commencement of proceedings in connection with which the court would have jurisdiction to make a [<sup>F94</sup>Part I order], or
- (b) in any proceedings in which it would be competent for the court to grant an interdict prohibiting the removal of a child from its jurisdiction, may, on an application by any of the persons mentioned in subsection (4) below, grant interdict or interim interdict prohibiting the removal of the child from the United Kingdom or any part of the United Kingdom, or out of the control of the person in [<sup>F95</sup>whose care] the child is.

(4) The said persons are—

- (a) any party to the proceedings,
- (b) the [<sup>F96</sup>guardian] of the child concerned, and
- (c) any other person who has or wishes to obtain the <sup>F97</sup> . . . care of the child.

(5) In subsection (3) above “the court” means the Court of Session or the sheriff; and for the purposes of subsection (3)(a) above, proceedings shall be held to commence—

- (a) in the Court of Session, when a summons is signeted or a petition is presented;
- (b) in the sheriff court, when the warrant of citation is signed.

36 Effect of orders restricting removal.

- (1) This section applies to any order made by a court in the United Kingdom prohibiting the removal of a child from the United Kingdom or from any specified part of it.
- (2) An order to which this section applies shall have effect in each part of the United Kingdom other than the part in which it was made—
  - (a) as if it had been made by the appropriate court in that other part, and
  - (b) in the case of an order which has the effect of prohibiting the child's removal to that other part, as if it had included a prohibition on his further removal to any place except one to which he could be removed consistently with the order.
- (3) The references in subsections (1) and (2) above to prohibitions on a child's removal include references to prohibitions subject to exceptions; and in a case where removal is prohibited except with the consent of the court, nothing in subsection (2) above shall be construed as affecting the identity of the court whose consent is required.
- (4) In this section "child" means a person who has not attained the age of sixteen; and this section shall cease to apply to an order relating to a child when he attains the age of sixteen.

37 Surrender of passports.

- (1) Where there is in force an order prohibiting or otherwise restricting the removal of a child from the United Kingdom or from any specified part of it, the court by which the order was in fact made, or by which it is treated under section 36 of this Act as having been made, may require any person to surrender any United Kingdom passport which has been issued to, or contains particulars of, the child.
- (2) In this section "United Kingdom passport" means a current passport issued by the Government of the United Kingdom.

38 Automatic restriction on removal of wards of court.

- (1) The rule of law which (without any order of the court) restricts the removal of a ward of court from the jurisdiction of the court shall, in a case to which this section applies, have effect subject to the modifications in subsection (3) below.
- (2) This section applies in relation to a ward of court if—
  - (a) proceedings for divorce, nullity or judicial separation in respect of the marriage of his parents are continuing in a court in another part of the United Kingdom (that is to say, in a part of the United Kingdom outside the jurisdiction of the court of which he is a ward), or
  - (b) he is habitually resident in another part of the United Kingdom,except where that other part is Scotland and he has attained the age of sixteen.
- (3) Where this section applies, the rule referred to in subsection (1) above shall not prevent—
  - (a) the removal of the ward of court, without the consent of any court, to the other part of the United Kingdom mentioned in subsection (2) above, or
  - (b) his removal to any other place with the consent of either the appropriate court in that other part of the United Kingdom or the court mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above.

40 Interpretation of Chapter VI.

- (1) In this Chapter—
  - “the appropriate court” has the same meaning as in Chapter V;
  - “[<sup>F99</sup>Part I order]” includes (except where the context otherwise requires) any such order as is mentioned in section 32(1) of this Act.
- (2) In the application of this Chapter to Scotland, “[<sup>F99</sup>Part I order]” also includes (except where the context otherwise requires) any such order as is mentioned in section 32(2) of this Act.

41 Habitual residence after removal without consent, etc.

- (1) Where a child who—
  - (a) has not attained the age of sixteen, and
  - (b) is habitually resident in a part of the United Kingdom,becomes habitually resident outside that part of the United Kingdom in consequence of circumstances of the kind specified in subsection (2) below, he shall be treated for the purposes of this Part as continuing to be habitually resident in that part of the United Kingdom for the period of one year beginning with the date on which those circumstances arise.
- (2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1) above exist where the child is removed from or retained outside, or himself leaves or remains outside, the part of the United Kingdom in which he was habitually resident before his change of residence—
  - (a) without the agreement of the person or all the persons having, under the law of that part of the United Kingdom, the right to determine where he is to reside, or
  - (b) in contravention of an order made by a court in any part of the United Kingdom.
- (3) A child shall cease to be treated by virtue of subsection (1) above as habitually resident in a part of the United Kingdom if, during the period there mentioned—

- (b) he becomes habitually resident outside that part of the United Kingdom with the agreement of the person or persons mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above and not in contravention of an order made by a court in any part of the United Kingdom.

42 General interpretation of Part I.

- (1) In this Part—

“certified copy”, in relation to an order of any court, means a copy certified by the prescribed officer of the court to be a true copy of the order or of the official record of the order;

[<sup>F100</sup>“parental responsibilities” and “parental rights” have the meanings respectively given by sections 1(3) and 2(4) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995;]

“part of the United Kingdom” means England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland; “prescribed” means prescribed by rules of court or act of sederunt.

[<sup>F101</sup>“the Council Regulation” means Council Regulation (EC) No. 1347/2000 of 29th May 2000 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in matrimonial matters and in matters of parental responsibility for children of both spouses.]

- (2) For the purposes of this Part proceedings in England and Wales or in Northern Ireland for divorce, nullity or judicial separation in respect of the marriage of the parents of a child shall, unless they have been dismissed, be treated as continuing until the child concerned attains the age of eighteen (whether or not a decree has been granted and whether or not, in the case of a decree of divorce or nullity of marriage, that decree has been made absolute).
- (3) For the purposes of this Part, matrimonial proceedings in a court in Scotland which has jurisdiction in those proceedings to make a [<sup>F102</sup>Part I order] with respect to a child shall, unless they have been dismissed or decree of absolvitor has been granted therein, be treated as continuing until the child concerned attains the age of sixteen.
- (4) Any reference in this Part to proceedings in respect of the marriage of the parents of a child shall, in relation to a child who, although not a child of both parties to the marriage, is a child of the family of those parties, be construed as a reference to proceedings in respect of that marriage; and for this purpose “child of the family”—
- (a) if the proceedings are in England and Wales, means any child who has been treated by both parties as a child of their family, except a child who [<sup>F103</sup>is placed with those parties as foster parents] by a local authority or a voluntary organisation;
  - (b) if the proceedings are in Scotland, means any child [<sup>F104</sup>who has been treated by both parties as a child of their family, except a child who has been placed with those parties as foster parents by a local authority or a voluntary organisation;]
  - (c) if the proceedings are in Northern Ireland, means any child who has been treated by both parties as a child of their family, except a child who [<sup>F105</sup>is placed with those parties as foster parents by an authority within the meaning of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995] or a voluntary organisation.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (5) References in this Part to custody orders include (except where the context otherwise requires) references to custody orders as varied.
- (6) For the purposes of this Part each of the following orders shall be treated as varying the [F102Part I order] to which it relates—
- (a) an order which provides for a person [F106to be allowed contact with or] to be given access to a child who is the subject of a [F102Part I order], or which makes provision for the education of such a child,
- F107(b) .....
- [F108(7) In this Part—
- (a) references to Part I proceedings in respect of a child are references to any proceedings for a Part I order or an order corresponding to a Part I order and include, in relation to proceedings outside the United Kingdom, references to proceedings before a tribunal or other authority having power under the law having effect there to determine Part I matters; and
- (b) references to Part I matters are references to matters that might be determined by a Part I order or an order corresponding to a Part I order.]

PART II

RECOGNITION OF DIVORCES, ANNULMENTS AND LEGAL SEPARATIONS

Divorces, annulments and judicial separations granted in the British Islands

44 Recognition in United Kingdom of divorces, annulments and judicial separations granted in the British Islands.

- (1) Subject to section 52(4) and (5)(a) of this Act, no divorce or annulment obtained in any part of the British Islands shall be regarded as effective in any part of the United Kingdom unless granted by a court of civil jurisdiction.
- (2) Subject to section 51 of this Act, the validity of any divorce, annulment or judicial separation granted by a court of civil jurisdiction in any part of the British Islands shall be recognised throughout the United Kingdom.

Overseas divorces, annulments and legal separations

45 Recognition in the United Kingdom of overseas divorces, annulments and legal separations.

- [<sup>F109</sup>(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section and] to sections 51 and 52 of this Act, the validity of a divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained in a country outside the British Islands (in this Part referred to as an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation) shall be recognised in the United Kingdom if, and only if, it is entitled to recognition—
  - (a) by virtue of sections 46 to 49 of this Act, or
  - (b) by virtue of any enactment other than this Part.
- [<sup>F110</sup>(2) Subsection (1) and the following provisions of this Part do not apply to an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation as regards which provision as to recognition is made by Articles 14 to 20 of the Council Regulation.]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2001.

46 Grounds for recognition.

- (1) The validity of an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained by means of proceedings shall be recognised if—
  - (a) the divorce, annulment or legal separation is effective under the law of the country in which it was obtained; and
  - (b) at the relevant date either party to the marriage—
    - (i) was habitually resident in the country in which the divorce, annulment or legal separation was obtained; or
    - (ii) was domiciled in that country; or
    - (iii) was a national of that country.
- (2) The validity of an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained otherwise than by means of proceedings shall be recognised if—
  - (a) the divorce, annulment or legal separation is effective under the law of the country in which it was obtained;
  - (b) at the relevant date—
    - (i) each party to the marriage was domiciled in that country; or
    - (ii) either party to the marriage was domiciled in that country and the other party was domiciled in a country under whose law the divorce, annulment or legal separation is recognised as valid; and
  - (c) neither party to the marriage was habitually resident in the United Kingdom throughout the period of one year immediately preceding that date.
- (3) In this section “the relevant date” means—
  - (a) in the case of an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained by means of proceedings, the date of the commencement of the proceedings;
  - (b) in the case of an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained otherwise than by means of proceedings, the date on which it was obtained.
- (4) Where in the case of an overseas annulment, the relevant date fell after the death of either party to the marriage, any reference in subsection (1) or (2) above to that date shall be construed in relation to that party as a reference to the date of death.
- (5) For the purpose of this section, a party to a marriage shall be treated as domiciled in a country if he was domiciled in that country either according to the law of that country in family matters or according to the law of the part of the United Kingdom in which the question of recognition arises.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2001.

Changes to legislation: Family Law Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

47 Cross-proceedings and divorces following legal separations.

- (1) Where there have been cross-proceedings, the validity of an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained either in the original proceedings or in the cross-proceedings shall be recognised if—
  - (a) the requirements of section 46(1)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii) of this Act are satisfied in relation to the date of the commencement either of the original proceedings or of the cross-proceedings, and
  - (b) the validity of the divorce, annulment or legal separation is otherwise entitled to recognition by virtue of the provisions of this Part.
- (2) Where a legal separation, the validity of which is entitled to recognition by virtue of the provisions of section 46 of this Act or of subsection (1) above is converted, in the country in which it was obtained, into a divorce which is effective under the law of that country, the validity of the divorce shall be recognised whether or not it would itself be entitled to recognition by virtue of those provisions.

48 Proof of facts relevant to recognition.

- (1) For the purpose of deciding whether an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained by means of proceedings is entitled to recognition by virtue of section 46 and 47 of this Act, any finding of fact made (whether expressly or by implication) in the proceedings and on the basis of which jurisdiction was assumed in the proceedings shall—
  - (a) if both parties to the marriage took part in the proceedings, be conclusive evidence of the fact found; and
  - (b) in any other case, be sufficient proof of that fact unless the contrary is shown.
- (2) In this section “finding of fact” includes a finding that either party to the marriage—
  - (a) was habitually resident in the country in which the divorce, annulment or legal separation was obtained; or
  - (b) was under the law of that country domiciled there; or
  - (c) was a national of that country.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) above, a party to the marriage who has appeared in judicial proceedings shall be treated as having taken part in them.

Supplemental

49 Modifications of Part II in relation to countries comprising territories having different systems of law.

- (1) In relation to a country comprising territories in which different systems of law are in force in matters of divorce, annulment or legal separation, the provisions of this Part mentioned in subsections (2) to (5) below shall have effect subject to the modifications there specified.
- (2) In the case of a divorce, annulment or legal separation the recognition of the validity of which depends on whether the requirements of subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii) of section 46 of this Act are satisfied, that section and, in the case of a legal separation, section 47(2) of this Act shall have effect as if each territory were a separate country.

- (3) In the case of a divorce, annulment or legal separation the recognition of the validity of which depends on whether the requirements of subsection (1)(b)(iii) of section 46 of this Act are satisfied—
- (a) that section shall have effect as if for paragraph (a) of subsection (1) there were substituted the following paragraph—
- “(a) the divorce, annulment or legal separation is effective throughout the country in which it was obtained;” and
- (b) in the case of a legal separation, section 47(2) of this Act shall have effect as if for the words “is effective under the law of that country” there were substituted the words “is effective throughout that country”.
- (4) In the case of a divorce, annulment or legal separation the recognition of the validity of which depends on whether the requirements of subsection (2)(b) of section 46 of this Act are satisfied, that section and section 52(3) and (4) of this Act and, in the case of a legal separation, section 47(2) of this Act shall have effect as if each territory were a separate country.
- (5) Paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 48(2) of this Act shall each have effect as if each territory were a separate country.

50 Non-recognition of divorce or annulment in another jurisdiction no bar to remarriage.

Where, in any part of the United Kingdom—

- (a) a divorce or annulment has been granted by a court of civil jurisdiction, or
- (b) the validity of a divorce or annulment is recognised by virtue of this Part,
- the fact that the divorce or annulment would not be recognised elsewhere shall not preclude either party to the marriage from re-marrying in that part of the United Kingdom or cause the re-marriage of either party (wherever the re-marriage takes place) to be treated as invalid in that part.

51 Refusal of recognition.

- (1) Subject to section 52 of this Act, recognition of the validity of—
- (a) a divorce, annulment or judicial separation granted by a court of civil jurisdiction in any part of the British Islands, or
- (b) an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation,
- may be refused in any part of the United Kingdom if the divorce, annulment or separation was granted or obtained at a time when it was irreconcilable with a decision determining the question of the subsistence or validity of the marriage of the parties previously given (whether before or after the commencement of this Part) by a court of civil jurisdiction in that part of the United Kingdom or by a court elsewhere and recognised or entitled to be recognised in that part of the United Kingdom.
- (2) Subject to section 52 of this Act, recognition of the validity of—
- (a) a divorce or judicial separation granted by a court of civil jurisdiction in any part of the British Islands, or
- (b) an overseas divorce or legal separation,
- may be refused in any part of the United Kingdom if the divorce or separation was granted or obtained at a time when, according to the law of that part of the United Kingdom (including its rules of private international law and the provisions of this Part), there was no subsisting marriage between the parties.

(3) Subject to section 52 of this Act, recognition by virtue of section 45 of this Act of the validity of an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation may be refused if—

- (a) in the case of a divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained by means of proceedings, it was obtained—
  - (i) without such steps having been taken for giving notice of the proceedings to a party to the marriage as, having regard to the nature of the proceedings and all the circumstances, should reasonably have been taken; or
  - (ii) without a party to the marriage having been given (for any reason other than lack of notice) such opportunity to take part in the proceedings as, having regard to those matters, he should reasonably have been given; or
- (b) in the case of a divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained otherwise than by means of proceedings—
  - (i) there is no official document certifying that the divorce, annulment or legal separation is effective under the law of the country in which it was obtained; or
  - (ii) where either party to the marriage was domiciled in another country at the relevant date, there is no official document certifying that the divorce, annulment or legal separation is recognised as valid under the law of that other country; or
- (c) in either case, recognition of the divorce, annulment or legal separation would be manifestly contrary to public policy.

(4) In this section—

“official”, in relation to a document certifying that a divorce, annulment or legal separation is effective, or is recognised as valid, under the law of any country, means issued by a person or body appointed or recognised for the purpose under that law;

“the relevant date” has the same meaning as in section 46 of this Act; and subsection (5) of that section shall apply for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.

(5) Nothing in this Part shall be construed as requiring the recognition of any finding of fault made in any proceedings for divorce, annulment or separation or of any maintenance, custody or other ancillary order made in any such proceedings.

52 Provisions as to divorces, annulments etc. obtained before commencement of Part II.

(1) The provisions of this Part shall apply—

- (a) to a divorce, annulment or judicial separation granted by a court of civil jurisdiction in the British Islands before the date of the commencement of this Part, and
- (b) to an overseas divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained before that date, as well as to one granted or obtained on or after that date.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (2) In the case of such a divorce, annulment or separation as is mentioned in subsection (1) (a) or (b) above, the provisions of this Part shall require or, as the case may be, preclude the recognition of its validity in relation to any time before that date as well as in relation to any subsequent time, but those provisions shall not—
- (a) affect any property to which any person became entitled before that date, or
  - (b) affect the recognition of the validity of the divorce, annulment or separation if that matter has been decided by any competent court in the British Islands before that date.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) above shall apply in relation to any divorce or judicial separation granted by a court of civil jurisdiction in the British Islands before the date of the commencement of this Part whether granted before or after the commencement of section 1 of the <sup>M5</sup>Recognition of Divorces and Legal Separations Act 1971.
- (4) The validity of any divorce, annulment or legal separation mentioned in subsection (5) below shall be recognised in the United Kingdom whether or not it is entitled to recognition by virtue of any of the foregoing provisions of this Part.
- (5) The divorces, annulments and legal separations referred to in subsection (4) above are—
- (a) a divorce which was obtained in the British Islands before 1st January 1974 and was recognised as valid under rules of law applicable before that date;
  - (b) an overseas divorce which was recognised as valid under the Recognition of Divorces and Legal Separations Act 1971 and was not affected by section 16(2) of the Domicile and <sup>M6</sup>Matrimonial Proceedings Act 1973 (proceedings otherwise than in a court of law where both parties resident in United Kingdom);
  - (c) a divorce of which the decree was registered under section 1 of the <sup>M7</sup>Indian and Colonial Divorce Jurisdiction Act 1926;
  - (d) a divorce or annulment which was recognised as valid under section 4 of the <sup>M8</sup>Matrimonial Causes (War Marriages) Act 1944; and
