“SCHEDULE 3A

- 1 (1) This Schedule applies to the disposal by a local authority of an interest in land as a result of which a secure tenant of the authority will become the tenant of a private sector landlord.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule the grant of an option which if exercised would result in a secure tenant of a local authority becoming the tenant of a private sector landlord shall be treated as a disposal of the interest which is the subject of the option.
- (3) Where a disposal of land by a local authority is in part a disposal to which this Schedule applies, the provisions of this Schedule apply to that part as to a separate disposal.
- (4) In this paragraph “private sector landlord” means a person other than an authority or body within section 80 (the landlord condition for secure tenancies).

Application for Secretary of State’s consent

- 2 (1) The Secretary of State shall not entertain an application for his consent to a disposal to which this Schedule applies unless the authority certify either—

- (2) Where the certificate is in the latter form, the Secretary of State shall not determine the application until the authority certify as regards the tenants not originally consulted—
  - (a) that they have vacated the dwelling-house in question, or
  - (b) that the requirements of paragraph 3 as to consultation have been complied with;and a certificate under sub-paragraph (b) shall be accompanied by a copy of the notices given by the authority in accordance with paragraph 3.

Requirements as to consultation

- 3 (1) The requirements as to consultation referred to above are as follows.
- (2) The authority shall serve notice in writing on the tenant informing him of—

  - (b) the likely consequences of the disposal for the tenant, and
  - (c) the effect of the provisions of this Schedule and of sections 171A to 171H (preservation of right to buy on disposal to private sector landlord),
- and informing him that he may, within such reasonable period as may be specified in the notice, make representations to the authority.
- (3) The authority shall consider any representations made to them within that period and shall serve a further written notice on the tenant informing him—

Power to require further consultation

- 4 The Secretary of State may require the authority to carry out such further consultation with their tenants, and to give him such information as to the results of that consultation, as he may direct.

Consent to be withheld if majority of tenants are opposed

- 5 (1) The Secretary of State shall not give his consent if it appears to him that a majority of the tenants of the dwelling-houses to which the application relates do not wish the disposal to proceed; but this does not affect his general discretion to refuse consent on grounds relating to whether a disposal has the support of the tenants or on any other ground.
- (2) In making his decision the Secretary of State may have regard to any information available to him; and the local authority shall give him such information as to the representations made to them by tenants and others, and other relevant matters, as he may require.

Protection of purchasers

- 6 The Secretary of State’s consent to a disposal is not invalidated by a failure on his part or that of the local authority to comply with the requirements of this Schedule.”

Statement to be contained in instrument effecting qualifying disposal

  - (b) lists, to the best of the disponent’s knowledge and belief, the dwelling-houses to which the disposal relates which are occupied by secure tenants.

Registration of title on qualifying disposal

- 2 (1) Where on a qualifying disposal the disponent’s title to the dwelling-house is not registered, section 123 of the <sup>M1</sup>Land Registration Act 1925 (compulsory registration of title) applies—

  - (b) whether or not, where the disposal takes the form of the grant or assignment of a lease, the lease is granted for a term of more than 21 years or, as the case may be, is a lease for a term of which more than 21 years are unexpired.
- (2) In such a case the disponent shall give the disponent a certificate stating that the disponent is entitled to effect the disposal subject only to such incumbrances, rights and interests as are stated in the instrument effecting the disposal or summarised in the certificate.
- (3) Where the disponent’s interest in the dwelling-house is a lease, the certificate shall also state particulars of the lease and, with respect to each superior title—

  - (b) where it is not registered, whether it was investigated in the usual way on the grant of the disponent’s lease.
- (4) The certificate shall be—

  - (b) signed by such officer of the disponent or such other person as may be approved by the Chief Land Registrar,
- and the Chief Registrar shall, for the purpose of registration of title, accept the certificate as sufficient evidence of the facts stated in it.
- 3 Where a qualifying disposal takes the form of the grant or assignment of a lease, sections 8 and 22 of the <sup>M2</sup>Land Registration Act 1925 (application for registration of leasehold land and registration of dispositions of leasehold) apply notwithstanding that it is a lease for a term of which not more than 21 years are unexpired or, as the case may be, a lease granted for a term not exceeding 21 years; and accordingly section 70(1)(k) of that Act (leases which are overriding interests) does not apply.

- (3) A qualifying person may apply for the entry of such a notice and restriction and section 64(1) of the Land Registration Act 1925 (production of land certificate) does not apply to the entry of a notice or restriction on such an application; but without prejudice to the power of the Chief Land Registrar to call for the production of the certificate by the landlord.
- (4) If the landlord's title is not registered, the rights of the qualifying person or persons under the provisions of this Part are registrable under the <sup>M3</sup>Land Charges Act 1972 in the same way as an estate contract and the landlord shall, and a qualifying person may, apply for such registration.
