12 Credit for input tax.

(1) In section 15 of the principal Act, for subsections (1) to (3) there shall be substituted—

“(1) The amount of input tax for which a taxable person is entitled to credit at the end of any period shall be so much of the input tax for the period (that is input tax on supplies and importations in the period) as is allowable by or under regulations as being attributable to supplies within subsection (2) below.

(2) The supplies within this subsection are the following supplies made or to be made by the taxable person in the course or furtherance of his business—

- (a) taxable supplies;
- (b) supplies outside the United Kingdom which would be taxable supplies if made in the United Kingdom;
- (c) supplies which section 35 below provides are to be disregarded for the purposes of this Act and which would otherwise be taxable supplies.

(3) The Commissioners shall make regulations for securing a fair and reasonable attribution of input tax to supplies within subsection (2) above, and any such regulations may provide for—

- (a) determining a proportion by reference to which input tax for any prescribed accounting period is to be provisionally attributed to those supplies;
- (b) adjusting, in accordance with a proportion determined in like manner for any longer period comprising two or more prescribed accounting periods or parts thereof, the provisional attribution for any of those periods; and
- (c) the making of payments in respect of input tax, by the Commissioners to a taxable person (or a person who has been a taxable person) or by a taxable person (or a person who has been a taxable person) to the Commissioners, in cases where events prove inaccurate an estimate on the basis of which an attribution was made.”.

(2) In section 6(1) of that Act, for the words “the charge to tax” there shall be substituted the words “this Act”.

(3) In section 35(1) and (2) of that Act, for the words “shall be disregarded” there shall be substituted the words “shall, except where the contrary intention appears, be disregarded”.

(4) This section shall have effect in relation to supplies and importations made on or after 1st April 1987, and shall be deemed to have come into force on 23rd March 1987.

13 Supplies abroad etc.

(1) The principal Act shall be amended as follows.

(2) In section 2(5), at the end there shall be added the words “, and a person who is registered under paragraph 11A of that Schedule is a taxable person (notwithstanding that he does not make and does not intend to make taxable supplies)”.

14 Registration.

(1) Schedule 1 to the principal Act shall be amended as follows.

(2) For paragraph 1 there shall be substituted—

“1

(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) below, a person who makes taxable supplies but is not registered is liable to be registered—

(a) after the end of any quarter, if the value of his taxable supplies—

(i) in that quarter has exceeded £7,250; or

(ii) in the four quarters then ending has exceeded £21,300; or

(b) at any time, if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the value of his taxable supplies in the period of one year then beginning will exceed £21,300.

(2) A person is not liable to be registered by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(a)(i) above after the end of any quarter if the Commissioners are satisfied that the value of his taxable supplies in that quarter and the next three quarters will not exceed £21,300.

(3) A person is not liable to be registered by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(a)(ii) above after the end of any quarter if the Commissioners are satisfied that the value of his taxable supplies in the next four quarters will not exceed £20,300.

(4) In determining the value of a person's supplies for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(a) above, supplies made at a time when he was previously registered shall be disregarded if—

(a) his registration was cancelled otherwise than under paragraph 10 below, and

(b) the Commissioners are satisfied that before his registration was cancelled he had given them all the information they needed in order to determine whether to cancel the registration.

(5) In determining the value of a person's supplies for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above, supplies of goods that are capital assets of the business in the course of furtherance of which they are supplied shall be disregarded.”

15 Supplies to groups.

(1) In the principal Act, after section 29 there shall be inserted—

“29A Supplies to groups.

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) below, subsection (4) below applies where—

- (a) a business, or part of a business, carried on by a taxable person is transferred as a going concern to a body corporate treated as a member of a group under section 29 above;
- (b) on the transfer of the business or part, chargeable assets of the business are transferred to the body corporate; and
- (c) the transfer of the assets is treated by virtue of section 3(3)(c) above as neither a supply of goods nor a supply of services.

(2) Subsection (4) below shall not apply if the representative member of the group is entitled to credit for the whole of the input tax on supplies to it and importations by it—

- (a) during the prescribed accounting period in which the assets are transferred, and
- (b) during any longer period to which regulations under section 15(3)(b) above relate and in which the assets are transferred.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1987, Part 1. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Subsection (4) below shall not apply if the Commissioners are satisfied that the assets were acquired by the taxable person transferring them more than three years before the day on which they are transferred.
 - (4) The chargeable assets shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as being, on the day on which they are transferred, both supplied to the representative member of the group for the purpose of its business and supplied by that member in the course or furtherance of its business.
 - (5) A supply treated under subsection (4) above as made by a representative member shall not be taken into account as a supply made by him when determining the allowance of input tax in his case under section 15 above.
 - (6) The value of a supply treated under subsection (4) above as made to or by a representative member shall be taken to be the open market value of the chargeable assets.
 - (7) For the purposes of this section, the open market value of any chargeable assets shall be taken to be the price that would be paid on a sale (on which no tax is payable) between a buyer and a seller who are not in such a relationship as to affect the price.
 - (8) The Commissioners may reduce the tax chargeable by virtue of subsection (4) above in a case where they are satisfied that the person by whom the chargeable assets are transferred has not received credit for the full amount of input tax arising on the acquisition by him of the chargeable assets.
 - (9) For the purposes of this section, assets are chargeable assets if their supply in the United Kingdom by a taxable person in the course or furtherance of his business would be a taxable supply (and not a zero-rated supply).”.
- (2) This section shall have effect in relation to transfers of assets made on or after 1st April 1987, and shall be deemed to have come into force on 23rd March 1987.
