2 Transfer of assets, liabilities etc. from trustees to the Board. U.K.

- (1) On the appointed day there are hereby transferred to and vested in the Board, as trustee under the trust instrument as amended by this Act,—
 - (a) all the property and rights which, immediately before that day, are held by any of the Chevening trustees on the trusts contained in the trust instrument; and
 - (b) any liability or obligation to which, immediately before that day, any of the Chevening trustees are subject in their capacity as trustees under that instrument.
- (2) In this section “the Chevening trustees” means the persons who, immediately before the appointed day, are “the Bank” or “the Administrative Trustees” for the purposes of the trust instrument.
- (3) References in this section to property, rights, liabilities or obligations are references to any property, rights, liabilities or obligations whether or not capable of being transferred or assigned.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, any legal proceedings or applications to any authority pending immediately before the appointed day by or against any of the Chevening trustees in their capacity as trustees under the trust instrument shall be continued by or against the Board.
- (5) Anything done before the appointed day in the exercise or performance of any power or duty conferred or imposed by the trust instrument shall, in so far as it relates or is capable of relating to any time on or after that day, have effect as if it had been done in the exercise or performance of the corresponding power or duty conferred or imposed by that instrument as amended by this Act.

3 Amendments of trust instrument. U.K.

- (1) The trust instrument shall have effect on and after the appointed day subject to the amendments specified in Schedule 2 to this Act.
- (2) Any reference to the trust instrument—
 - (a) in the ^{M2}Chevening Estate Act 1959 or any other enactment, or
 - (b) in any instrument or other document, shall, in relation to any time on or after the appointed day, be construed as a reference to the trust instrument as so amended.

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1 U.K.

Section 1(4).

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE CHEVENING ESTATE

Status

- 1 (1) The Board shall not be regarded as the servant or agent of the Crown or as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown.
- (2) The members of the Board and any secretary or other staff employed by the Board shall not be regarded as civil servants and any property of the Board shall not be regarded as property of, or held on behalf of, the Crown.

Membership

- 2 (1) The Board shall consist of the following members—
 - (a) the Lord Privy Seal;
 - (b) two persons appointed by the Prime Minister;
 - (c) a person appointed by the Secretary of State;
 - (d) the Director of the Victoria and Albert Museum; and
 - (e) such other persons as are from time to time appointed by the members holding office under paragraphs (a) to (d) above.
- (2) At least one of the persons for the time being appointed under sub-paragraph (1)(b) above shall be a person experienced in estate management and forestry.
- (3) The appointment of a member under sub-paragraph (1)(b) or (c) above shall be by an instrument signed by the Minister responsible.
- (4) A member appointed under sub-paragraph (1)(b) or (c) above shall hold office for life unless—
 - (a) he is given written notice, signed by the Minister responsible, terminating his appointment; or
 - (b) he resigns his office by giving written notice to the Minister responsible.
- (5) Any member appointed under sub-paragraph (1)(e) above shall hold office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.
- (6) Any appointment or election of a person as an Administrative Trustee under—
 - (a) head (ii) or (iii) of paragraph (c) of clause 1 of the trust instrument, or
 - (b) the provision of that paragraph following head (iv), which is in force immediately before the appointed day shall have effect on and after that day as an appointment under paragraph (b), (c) or (e), as the case may be, of sub-paragraph (1) above.
- (7) In this paragraph “the Minister responsible” means—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Chevening Estate Act 1987. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the Prime Minister, in relation to an appointment under paragraph (b) of sub-paragraph (1) above; and
- (b) the Secretary of State, in relation to an appointment under paragraph (c) of that sub-paragraph.

Proceedings

- (1) The Lord Privy Seal shall be the chairman of the Board, but if he is absent from any meeting the members present may choose one of their number to be the chairman for the purposes of that meeting.
 - (2) Subject to sub-paragraphs (1) above and (4) below, the Board may regulate its own procedure.
 - (3) In doing so, the Board may make arrangements for any of its functions, other than the power to acquire or dispose of land, to be discharged by committees consisting of at least three members of the Board; and, if the arrangements so provide, anything done under them by a committee shall have effect as if done by the Board.
 - (4) The quorum for meetings of the Board or any committee shall be not less than three but neither the Board nor any committee shall reach a decision by correspondence unless all the members of the Board or, as the case may be, the committee have agreed in the correspondence to that decision.
 - (5) The validity of any proceedings shall not be affected by any vacancy among the members of the Board or by any defect in the appointment of a member.

Payments to members

- Members of the Board shall be entitled to be paid out of the trust property—
- (a) such expenses as they would be entitled to be so paid if they (and not the Board) were the trustees of the trusts contained in the trust instrument as amended by this Act; and
 - (b) in the case of members who are solicitors or engaged in any other profession or business, such professional or other charges as are for the time being authorised by that instrument.

Instruments

- (1) The fixing of the seal of the Board shall be authenticated by the signature of a member of the Board or the secretary to the Board.
 - (2) A document purporting to be duly executed under the seal of the Board, or to be signed on the Board's behalf, shall be received in evidence and, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be so executed or signed.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Chevening Estate Act 1987. (See end of Document for details)

 - (d) in clause 38 (construction of references to Chevening Estate) for the words “Clauses 4, 5, 6 and 7” there shall be substituted the words “ Clauses 4 to 7 ”.

Disposal and management: outlying parts of the specified land

- 3 In the Second Schedule (which describes those parts of the estate referred to as “the Specified Land”, whose disposal the trust instrument prohibits) there shall be added at the end the words “ except so much thereof as lies to the south of Ovenden Road or to the south or east of Sundridge Road ”.

Power to grant leases of and easements over the specified land

- 4 (1) For clause 12 (which provides that the powers to sell, lease, exchange or mortgage shall not apply to the specified land or Chevening House and shall not be exercisable in respect of any other part of the estate without the approval of the Prime Minister) there shall be substituted the following clause—
 - “12 (1) The powers to sell, lease or exchange land or to raise money on the security of land (to the extent that their exercise is not prohibited by sub-paragraph (2) hereof) shall not be exercised in relation to any land comprised in the Chevening Estate unless the transaction has previously been approved by the person who, on the date of the contract of sale or other contract in question, is the Prime Minister.
 - (2) The prohibitions referred to in sub-paragraph (1) hereof are that—
 - (a) the powers to lease land and grant easements shall not be exercisable in relation to Chevening House or so much of the Specified Land as consists of the pleasure gardens (for the purposes of this Clause being the land described in the Third Schedule hereto) and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Chevening Estate Act 1987. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the other powers to sell and exchange land and raise money on the security of land shall not be exercisable in relation to Chevening House or any of the Specified Land.”
- (2) In clause 32 (matters to be considered when exercising certain powers, including leasing) for the words “(other than Chevening House and the Specified Land)” there shall be substituted the words “ (being land in relation to which the power is exercisable) ”.
- (3) After the Second Schedule there shall be added the following Schedule—

“THE THIRD
SCHEDULE U.K.”

The lands tenements and hereditaments situate at Chevening aforesaid and shown edged red on the plan marked with the designation “Chevening House and Pleasure Gardens” and prepared in triplicate one copy of which has been deposited in each of the following offices—

- (a) the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments
- (b) the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons and
- (c) the Chevening Estate Office.”

Delegation of trustee investment functions

- 5 (1) In clause 23 (application to the Chevening Trust Fund of the provisions of the Settled Land Act 1925 relating to capital money) for the words “subject to the last preceding Clause” there shall be substituted the words “ subject to Clauses 22 and 23A hereof ”.
- (2) After clause 23 there shall be inserted the following clause—
 - “23A(1) The Board may arrange for its powers, duties and discretions relating to the investment of capital money comprised in the Chevening Trust Fund (and to the retention, transposition and disposal of investments) to be exercised or performed, without any requirement of consultation with the Board, by agents appointed by the Board at such remuneration and upon such other terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit.
 - (2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (1) hereof, the Board may permit any investments for the time being subject to the trusts hereof to stand in the names of agents appointed under that sub-paragraph or in the names of any other nominees or trustees in any part of the world.
 - (3) Nothing in this Clause shall be taken to prejudice the generality of Clauses 19 and 29 hereof.”

Omission of spent provisions and amendments in consequence

- 6 (1) The following provisions (being covenants performed, interests determined, conditions satisfied and matters connected with the Settlor’s death) shall be omitted—
 - (a) clause 2 and the heading immediately preceding it (Settlor’s covenant to deliver Contents to the Bank);

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Chevening Estate Act 1987. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) clause 3 and the heading immediately preceding it (Settlor’s covenant to transfer investments to the Bank);
 - (c) clause 4(i) (Settlor’s life interest, determined by his death on 15th August 1967);
 - (d) clause 18 (power of Settlor to make gifts or bequests of certain chattels comprised in the Contents);
 - (e) clause 20 (income of trust fund to be paid to Settlor during his life).
- (2) In consequence of the omission of clause 4(i) the words “after the death of the Settlor” shall be substituted for the words from “after the determination” to “Clause 4(i) hereof”—
- (a) in both places where such words occur in clause 5 (trusts in favour of the Canadian High Commissioner);
 - (b) in clause 9 (persons who may exercise the powers conferred by section 29 of the Settled Land Act 1925); and
 - (c) in clause 10 (person in whom land to be vested).
