Textual Amendments

F2 S. 2 repealed (31.10.1994) by 1994 c. 21, ss. 7, 67(8), 68(2)(e), Sch. 11 Pt. II (with ss. 40(7), 66); S.I. 1994/2553, art. 2

3 Grants for workforce redeployment and reduction, etc.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make grants to the Corporation out of money provided by Parliament towards any eligible expenditure of the Corporation or any of their wholly-owned subsidiaries which is expenditure which relates to costs falling to be charged to any consolidated profit and loss account of the Corporation and any of their subsidiaries prepared in accordance with a direction given under section 8(1) of the Coal Industry Act 1971 in respect of a relevant financial year of the Corporation.
- (2) Expenditure is eligible expenditure for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) if it is of a kind specified in relation to the relevant financial year in question in an order made by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury; and
 - (b) to the extent that it does not exceed the amount of the costs mentioned in subsection (1) above to which it relates or such larger amount as the Secretary of State and the Corporation may with the approval of the Treasury agree.
- (3) An order under subsection (2)(a) above—
 - (a) may only specify expenditure of a kind which falls within one or more of the descriptions of expenditure mentioned in Schedule 2 to this Act;
 - (b) shall restrict the amount which may be paid under this section by way of grant in respect of the relevant financial year in question in such manner as the Secretary of State considers appropriate; and
 - (c) may impose different such restrictions in relation to different kinds of expenditure.
- (4) In this section “relevant financial year” means a financial year—
 - (a) which is the financial year ending in March 1988 or March 1989 or any financial year ending not later than [F3March 1996] which is specified for the purposes of this subsection by an order made by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury; and
 - (b) in which the Corporation are redeploying and reducing the number of their employees with a view to—
 - (i) adjusting the future supply of coal or a particular kind of coal produced by the Corporation or any of their wholly-owned subsidiaries to meet the likely demand for it; or
 - (ii) reducing the Corporation’s costs in producing coal or a particular kind of coal.
- (5) Not more than one financial year may be specified in any order made under subsection (4)(a) above.

Status: Point in time view as at 22/07/2004.

Changes to legislation: Coal Industry Act 1987 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 August 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The aggregate of the grants made under subsection (1) above shall not exceed [^{F4}£2,500 million], but the Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Treasury, by order increase or further increase that amount to an amount not exceeding [^{F4}£3,000 million].
- (7) Grants may be made under subsection (1) above towards eligible expenditure of the Corporation in advance of the preparation of such an account as is mentioned in that subsection if it appears to the Secretary of State that the expenditure—
 - (a) relates to any costs falling to be charged to that account; and
 - (b) does not exceed the amount which should properly be entered in that account in respect of those costs or such larger amount as he and the Corporation may with the approval of the Treasury agree.
- (8) The Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Treasury, give directions to the Corporation as to the manner in which the amount of any expenditure is to be determined for the purposes of this section.
- (9) References in this section and in Schedule 2 to this Act to expenditure include references to costs incurred by providing goods or services.
- (10) The power to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument and no such order shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons.

Participation by representative organisations

5 Coal industry trusts.

- (1) If, on application to the Charity Commissioners by an employee organisation, it appears to them—
- (a) that the members of the organisation or the members and their dependants constitute a substantial proportion of those who may benefit under a trust to which this section applies; and
 - (b) that neither the organisation nor its members are entitled to appoint any of the trustees of the trust,
- the Charity Commissioners may by order make a scheme making such amendments of the provisions regulating the trust as they consider appropriate for the purpose of securing fair representation amongst the trustees of those persons employed in the coal industry who may benefit under the trust.
- (2) A scheme under subsection (1) above in respect of a trust may—
- (a) make such provision as to the manner in which the trustees are to be appointed as the Charity Commissioners consider appropriate;
 - (b) restrict or remove any person’s right to appoint a trustee;
 - (c) remove any trustee; and
 - (d) make such further amendments of the provisions regulating the trust (whether or not for the purpose mentioned in subsection (1) above) as the Charity Commissioners consider appropriate.
- (3) This section applies to any trust for purposes which are exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales—
- (a) which is a trust of property wholly or partly representing an application of money from the miners’ welfare fund constituted under section 20 of the ^{M3}Mining Industry Act 1920 or the body known as the Coal Industry Social Welfare Organisation;
 - (b) which is a trust expressed to be for the benefit of—
 - (i) persons currently or formerly employed in the coal industry or any class of such persons or their dependants; or

- (ii) members of the mining community in general or of the mining community of a particular area, whether or not any other persons are also beneficiaries; or
 - (c) under the terms of which all or a majority of the trustees are appointed by the body mentioned in paragraph (a) above or are appointed by the Corporation and an employee organisation.
- [^{F5}(4) In this section “an employee organisation” means any organisation appearing to the Charity Commissioners to represent in respect of their employment a substantial number of persons whose employers are licensed operators within the meaning of the Coal Industry Act 1994, or who are all employed by the same licensed operator.]
- (5) References in this section to the trustees of a trust include references to the members of any body a function of which is to hold property subject to the trust or to perform any administrative functions in relation to the trust and, in relation to the members of such a body, references in this section to the appointment of trustees shall be construed as references to any corresponding procedure under the provisions relating to the constitution of the body.
 - (6) Where any functions relating to a trust are exercisable by more than one body of trustees, for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) above the Charity Commissioners may disregard or have regard only to the members of one of those bodies.
 - (7) The Charity Commissioners shall not exercise their powers under this section in any case which they consider, by reason of any special question of law or of fact which it may involve, more fit to be adjudicated on by the court (within the meaning of the ^{M4}Charities Act 1960).
- [^{F6} Sections 16(3), (9), (11) to (14), 17(1) to (5) and (7) and 20 of the Charities Act 1993
- ^{F7}(8) shall apply in relation to the powers of the Charity Commissioners and the making of schemes under this section as they apply in relation to their powers and the making of schemes under that Act and sections 89, 91 and 92 of that Act shall apply to orders and decisions under this section as they apply to orders and decisions under that Act.]
- (8A) The Commissioners shall not proceed under [^{F8}section 17] of that Act (as applied by subsection (8) above) without the like application, and the like notice to the trustees of the trust in question, as would be required if they were proceeding under subsection (1) above; but on any application made with a view to a scheme under subsection (1) above the Commissioners may proceed under that subsection or under section 19 of that Act (as so applied) as appears to them appropriate.]
 - (9) Nothing in this section shall affect any other powers exercisable by the Charity Commissioners or the High Court in relation to any trust to which this section applies.
 - (10) In the application of this section to Scotland—
 - (a) for the reference in subsection (3) to purposes which are exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales there shall be substituted a reference to purposes which are charitable, benevolent or philanthropic (whether or not they are charitable within the meaning of any rule of law);
 - (b) references to the Charity Commissioners shall be construed as references to the Court of Session; and
 - (c) subsections (7) and (8) above shall be omitted.

- (b) without prejudice to paragraph (a) above, such amendments of any provisions in the scheme relating to the quorum necessary for the making of decisions relating to the scheme, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (7) The fact that a provision of a scheme has been added or amended by an order under this section shall not preclude its subsequent alteration or deletion in accordance with the scheme.
- (8) The power to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument and an instrument containing such an order shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (9) The power to make an order under this section may only be exercised once as respects any scheme unless it is exercised—
- (a) before an order previously made under this section has come into force; and
 - (b) so as to amend or revoke that order;
- but for the purposes of this subsection the making of an order which is annulled under subsection (8) above or quashed under section 8 below shall be disregarded.]
