PART I

ABOLITION OF DOMESTIC RATES: RATING AND VALUATION

1 Abolition of domestic rates.

With effect from 1st April 1989 domestic rates shall be abolished.

2 Valuation roll not to include domestic subjects.

- (1) Domestic subjects shall not be entered in the valuation roll in respect of the financial year 1989–90 or any subsequent financial year.
- (2) Domestic subjects in respect of which there is an entry in the valuation roll immediately before 1st April 1989 shall be deleted from the roll with effect from that date.

[^{F2}(2A) Where, after 1st April 1989 by virtue of regulations made under subsection (4) below, any lands and heritages or any parts of lands and heritages—

- (a) cease to be domestic subjects, they shall be entered in the valuation roll;
- (b) become domestic subjects, any entry in the valuation roll in respect of such lands and heritages shall be deleted, with effect from such date as may be prescribed by such regulations.]

- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, for the purposes of the Valuation Acts “domestic subjects” means—

- (a) any lands and heritages consisting of one or more dwelling houses with any garden, yard, garage, outhouse or pertinent belonging to and occupied along with such dwelling house or dwelling houses; [^{F3} but does not include a caravan which is not a person’s sole or main residence.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

In this subsection, “caravan” has the same meaning as it has in Part I of the ^{M1}Caravan Sites and Control of Development Act 1960.]

(b) ^{F4}

[^{F5}(4) The Secretary of State may vary the definition of domestic subjects in subsection (3) above by including or excluding such lands and heritages or parts thereof or class or classes of lands and heritages or parts thereof as may be prescribed.]

(5) Where a part of any lands and heritages falls within a class . . . ^{F6}prescribed under subsection . . . ^{F6}(4) above—

(a) the part so affected and the remainder shall be treated for the purposes of the Valuation Acts as separate lands and heritages, and

(b) the part of those lands and heritages which does not constitute domestic subjects shall be entered in the valuation roll accordingly.

(6) Any proprietor, tenant or occupier of any lands and heritages may appeal to the valuation appeal committee for the area in which the lands and heritages are situated against any decision of the assessor—

(a) to alter the valuation roll with effect from 1st April 1989 by deleting those lands and heritages on the ground that they constitute domestic subjects; or

(b) not so to alter the roll.

(7) Parts I and II of Schedule 1 to this Act have effect in relation to the provisions of this Part of this Act.

5 Statutory and other references to rateable values etc.

- (1) Where—

- (a) in any deed relating to heritable property executed before 1st April 1989 there is any provision which apportions any liability according to the assessed rental or, as the case may be, the gross annual, net annual or rateable value of any properties; and
- (b) all the properties involved in the apportionment appear in the valuation roll in force immediately before 1st April 1989; and

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (c) one or more of the properties constitute domestic subjects, then, with effect from 1st April 1989, any reference to the assessed rental or, as the case may be, to any of those values in any such deed shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to the net annual value or, as the case may be, to the gross annual, net annual or rateable value which appears in relation to any of those properties in the valuation roll in force immediately before that date.
- (2) Where in any document executed before 1st April 1989 there is a reference to the assessed rental or, as the case may be, to the gross annual, net annual or rateable value of any property which—
- (a) constitutes domestic subjects; and
 - (b) appears in the valuation roll in force immediately before 1st April 1989,
- then, with effect from that date that reference shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to the net annual value or, as the case may be, to the gross annual, net annual or rateable value which appears in relation to that property in the valuation roll in force immediately before that date.
- (3) [^{F11}Subject to subsection (3A) below, where in any enactment (including an enactment contained in a subordinate instrument)] there is a reference to the gross annual value, net annual value or rateable value of any property which constitutes domestic subjects, then, with effect from 1st April 1989, that reference shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to the gross annual value, net annual value or rateable value—
- (a) subject to subsection (4) below, which appears in relation to that property in the valuation roll in force immediately before that date; or
 - (b) subject to subsection (5) below, in the case of such property which does not come into existence or occupancy as domestic subjects until after that date, which would have appeared in the roll in respect of it had it been in existence or occupancy as such immediately before that date.
- [^{F12}(3A) Where in any enactment (including an enactment contained in a subordinate instrument or an enactment which falls to be construed in accordance with subsection (3) above) there is a reference to a rate or rateable value or to any factor connected with rating, or valuation for rating, the Secretary of State may make regulations providing that the reference shall instead be such as is prescribed.
- (3B) Regulations may provide as mentioned in subsection (3A) above—
- (a) as regards such enactment, or enactments of such description, as may be prescribed;
 - (b) in such way as the Secretary of State thinks fit (whether by amending enactments or otherwise).]

(4) Where, before or after 1st April 1989, there is a material change of circumstances, within the meaning of section 37(1) of the 1975 Act—

 - (a) in relation to any such property as is mentioned in subsection (3)(a) above; and
 - (b) in respect of which no alteration has been made to the valuation roll in force immediately before that date, references in that subsection to the gross annual, net annual or rateable value of that property which appears in the roll in force immediately before that date shall be construed as references to the gross annual, net annual or rateable value which would have so appeared had that roll been altered to take account of that material change of circumstances.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Where there is a material change of circumstances, within the meaning of section 37(1) of the 1975 Act, in relation to any such property as is mentioned in subsection (3) (b) above, references in that subsection to the gross annual, net annual or rateable value of that property which would have appeared in respect of it in the roll in force immediately before 1st April 1989 shall be construed as references to the gross annual, net annual or rateable value which would have so appeared had that material change of circumstances been taken into account.
- (6) The assessor shall, at the request of any person and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, certify—
- (a) what would have appeared in the valuation roll in force immediately before 1st April 1989 as the gross annual value, net annual value or rateable value of any such property as is mentioned in subsection (3)(b) above; or
 - (b) what would have appeared in that roll as the gross annual value, net annual value or rateable value of any such property as is mentioned in subsection (3) above had that roll been altered to take account of any material change of circumstances, within the meaning of section 37(1) of the 1975 Act, occurring before or after that date.
- (7) An appeal shall lie—
- (a) against any certificate issued by the assessor under subsection (6) above; or
 - (b) against any refusal by the assessor to issue a certificate under that subsection, and the provisions of the Valuation Acts in regard to appeals and complaints shall apply, subject to such modifications and adaptations as may be prescribed, for the purposes of this subsection.
- (8) Without prejudice to section 35 of the ^{M3}Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act 1854 (which relates to the preservation of valuation rolls by the Keeper of the Records of Scotland), the assessor for each valuation area shall retain a copy of the valuation roll in force immediately before 1st April 1989 for the purposes of this Act; and the copy so retained shall be made available for public inspection at the assessor's offices during ordinary business hours.
- (9) Where the net annual value of any property does not appear, or would not have appeared, in the valuation roll in force immediately before 1st April 1989, references in this section to the appearance in that roll of the net annual value of that property shall be taken as references to the appearance of its rateable value.
- (10) For the purposes of this section “gross annual value”, “net annual value” and “rateable value” shall continue to be construed in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of the 1956 ^{M4}Act as those provisions have effect immediately before 1st April 1989.

6 Minor and consequential amendments.

The enactments specified in Part III of Schedule I to this Act shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in that Part, being minor amendments and amendments consequential upon the provisions of this Part of this Act.

PART II

COMMUNITY CHARGES

General

7 Creation and purpose of community charges.

- (1) Each local authority shall impose, in accordance with this Part of this Act, three community charges, to be known respectively as the personal community charge, the standard community charge and the collective community charge.
- (2) The expenses of a local authority in discharging functions under any public general Act, so far as not met otherwise or so far as not otherwise provided for in any such Act, shall be met out of the community charges due to the local authority under this Act.

Personal Community Charge

8 Liability for personal community charge.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, any person ^[F13]who is, at any time in a financial year—
 - (a) aged 18 or over;
 - (b) solely or mainly resident in the area of a local authority; and
 - (c) not exempt from liability under subsection (8) below, shall be liable to pay, in respect of that time,] the personal community charge determined by that authority in respect of that year.
- ^F14 Notwithstanding subsection (1) above, and subsection (8) below, a person's liability to pay the personal community charge in respect of any time in a financial year shall subsist until the date on which the deletion of the entry in the register in respect of such liability takes effect.]
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a person undertaking a full-time course of education shall be regarded as being solely or mainly resident in the area of the local authority in which he is resident during term time for the purpose of undertaking the course, until he ceases to undertake the course.
- (5) A person undertaking a full-time course of education shall, in respect of the period beginning when he undertakes the course and ending when he ceases to do so, be liable for only such percentage as may be prescribed of the amount of the personal community charge for which he would otherwise be liable.
- ^F15 The Secretary of State may, by regulations made under this subsection—
 - (a) require such educational establishments as may be prescribed to supply, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, to every person

- (b) require such educational establishments as may be prescribed to supply to the registration officer within such period (being not less than 21 days) as may be prescribed such information as the registration officer may reasonably require for the purposes of the exercise of his functions under this Act, being information which is in the possession or control of the establishment.]
- (6) The—
- (a) meanings of [^{F16}“educational establishment”,]“full-time course of education”, “person undertaking a full-time course of education”, “term time” and “ceases to undertake the course”; and
- (b) manner in which the registration officer shall determine when a person ceases to undertake such a full-time course of education,
- shall be such as may be prescribed.
- [^{F17}(6A) Subsections (4) and (5) above shall not apply to persons undertaking a full-time course of nursing education, but such a person shall, in respect of the period beginning when he undertakes the course and ending when he ceases to do so, be liable for only such percentage as may be prescribed of the amount of the personal community charge for which he would otherwise be liable.
- (6B) The Secretary of State may, by regulations made under this subsection—
- (a) require such bodies as may be prescribed to supply, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, to every person undertaking or about to undertake a full time course of nursing education a certificate containing such particulars as may be prescribed; and
- (b) require such bodies as may be prescribed to supply to the registration officer within such period (being not less than 21 days) as may be prescribed such information as the registration officer may reasonably require for the purposes of the exercise of his functions under this Act, being information which is in the possession or control of the body.
- (6C) References in subsections (6A) and (6B) above to a full-time course of nursing education, a person undertaking such a course and to ceasing to undertake such a course shall be construed in such manner as may be prescribed.]
- (7) Persons who—
- (a) are married to each other and live together; or
- (b) being a man and a woman, live together as if they were husband and wife,
- shall [^{F18}, notwithstanding that they are not otherwise liable under this Act for a personal community charge,] be jointly and severally liable for the personal community charges, relating to the period during which they live together, for which [^{F19}either] of them is liable.
- [^{F20}(8) A person is exempt from liability to pay the personal community charge in respect of any time in a financial year if he is, at that time, a person such as is described in Schedule 1A to this Act.]

9 Determination of amount of personal community charge.

- (1) Every local authority shall, in respect of the financial year 1989–90 and of each subsequent financial year, determine, before such date as may be prescribed in relation to each of those years, the amount of the personal community charge to be imposed by them in respect of that year.
- (2) The amount determined under subsection (1) above shall be such as will provide (account having been taken of the moneys to be produced by the standard and collective community charges) sufficient moneys to meet such part of the total estimated expenses to be incurred by the local authority during the financial year in respect of which the personal community charge is to be levied as falls to be met out of their community charges, together with such additional sum as is, in their opinion, required—
 - (i) to cover expenses previously incurred;
 - (ii) to meet contingencies;
 - (iii) to meet any expenses which may fall to be met before the moneys to be received in respect of their community charges for the next following financial year will become available.
- (3) In calculating, for the purposes of subsection (2) above, such part of the total estimated expenses to be incurred by a local authority as falls to be met out of community charges, account shall be taken of any means by which those expenses may otherwise be met or provided for.

[^{F21}9A Reduced liability for personal community charge

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations as regards any case where—
 - (a) a person is or was liable to pay, in respect of any time in such financial year as is prescribed, the personal community charge determined by a local authority in respect of that year; and
 - (b) prescribed conditions are fulfilled.
- (2) Regulations under this section may provide that the amount of a person's liability in respect of personal community charge shall not be such amount as it would be apart from the regulations or, as the case may be, such amount as it was, but instead such smaller amount as is arrived at in accordance with prescribed rules.
- (3) The conditions mentioned in subsection (1) above may be prescribed by reference to such factors as the Secretary of State sees fit; and in particular such factors may include all or any of the following—
 - (a) rates for a period before 1 April 1989;
 - (b) the circumstances of or other matters relating to the person concerned;
 - (c) an amount relating to the local authority concerned and specified, or to be specified, for the purposes of the regulations in a report laid, or to be laid, before the House of Commons;
 - (d) such other amounts as may be prescribed or arrived at in a prescribed manner;
 - (e) the making of an application by the person concerned.
- (4) The rules mentioned in subsection (2) above may be prescribed by reference to such factors as the Secretary of State sees fit; and in particular such factors may include all or any of the factors mentioned in subsection (3)(a) to (d) above.
- (5) Without prejudice to the generality of section 31(2) of this Act, regulations under this section may include—
 - (a) provision requiring the Secretary of State to specify in a report, for the purposes of the regulations, an amount in relation to each local authority;
 - (b) provision requiring him to lay the report before the House of Commons;
 - (c) provision for the review of any prescribed decision of a local authority relating to the application or operation of the regulations.
- (6) To the extent that he would not have power to do so apart from this subsection, the Secretary of State may—
 - (a) include in regulations under this section such amendments of any social security instrument as he thinks expedient in consequence of the regulations under this section;
 - (b) include in any social security instrument such provision as he thinks expedient in consequence of regulations under this section.and any such amendments or provision may be deemed by the regulations or, as the case may be, instrument to have come into effect prior to the date of coming into force of the regulations or instrument.
- (7) In subsection (6) above “social security instrument” means an order or regulations made, or falling to be made, by the Secretary of State under the Social Security Act 1986.]

Standard Community Charge

10 Liability for and calculation of standard community charge.

- (1) The standard community charge shall be payable in respect of premises to which this section applies.
- (2) This section applies to premises which—
 - (a) are a dwelling house with any garden, yard, garage, outhouse or pertinent belonging to and occupied along with such dwelling house;
 - (b) are not subject to non-domestic rates; and
 - (c) are not the sole or main residence of any person, but not to such class or classes of those premises as may be prescribed.
- (3) The prescribing of a class or classes of premises under subsection (2) above may be by reference to such factors [^{F22}(including factors relating to persons of prescribed descriptions)] as may be prescribed.
- (4) The person liable to pay the standard community charge in respect of any premises shall be—
 - (a) subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) below, the owner of the premises;
 - (b) subject to paragraph (c) below, if the premises are let for a period of 12 months or more, the tenant; or
 - (c) if the premises are sub-let for such a period, the sub-tenant,
 [^{F23}and where at any time two or more people are liable to pay the standard community charge under this subsection they shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the charge.]
- (5) The standard community charge shall be due to—
 - (a) each local authority; or
 - (b) (in the case of an islands council) the local authority in the area of which the premises in respect of which it is payable are situated.
- [^{F24}(6) The standard community charge due to a local authority in respect of any premises in respect of any financial year shall be the product of the personal community charge determined in respect of that year by the local authority and—
 - (a) where the premises are in a specified class, the standard community charge multiplier determined in respect of that class by the authority; or
 - (b) where the premises are not in a specified class, the standard community charge multiplier determined by the authority in relation to such premises, in respect of that year.
- (7) A specified class is one which has been prescribed under this subsection or determined under regulations made under subsection (7F) below.
- (7A) A local authority shall determine their standard community charge multiplier or multipliers before such date in each year as is prescribed.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (7B) A standard community charge multiplier must be one of the following, $0\frac{1}{2}$, 1, $1\frac{1}{2}$, 2.
- (7C) A local authority may resolve that different standard community charge multipliers shall apply in relation to different classes of premises prescribed under subsection (7) above.
- (7D) A standard community charge multiplier relating to a class of premises prescribed under subsection (7) above shall not exceed such maximum multiplier as may be prescribed in relation to that class.
- (7E) In prescribing classes under subsection (7) above, the Secretary of State may classify premises by reference to such factors as he thinks fit, including, without prejudice to that generality—
- (a) the physical characteristics of premises or any part of them;
 - (b) the fact that premises are, or any part of them is, unoccupied;
 - (c) the fact that premises are, or any part of them is, occupied for prescribed purposes;
 - (d) the fact that premises are, or any part of them is, occupied by persons of prescribed descriptions;
 - (e) the circumstances of persons liable to pay the standard community charge.
- (7F) The Secretary of State may, by regulations, make provision—
- (a) enabling local authorities or local authorities of such class or classes as he may specify in the regulations—
 - (i) to determine, in relation to their areas, classes of premises additional to those prescribed under subsection (7) above;
 - (ii) to determine different such classes of premises in relation to different parts of their areas; and
 - (iii) to resolve that different standard community charge multipliers shall apply in relation to different classes of premises determined under the regulations, and
 - (b) requiring them, when determining a class or classes under the regulations, to classify premises only by reference to one or more prescribed factors being such factors as the Secretary of State thinks fit.
- (7G) Regulations under subsection (7F) above may make provision enabling the district council to resolve that different standard community charge multipliers shall apply in relation to such different classes of premises as have, in relation to the district, been determined under the regulations by the council of the region in which the district is situated.
- (7H) A regional council may resolve that different standard community charge multipliers shall apply in relation to the same specified class of premises in different districts within the region.]
- [^{F25}(8) Subject to subsections (8B) and (9) below, the standard community charge shall not be payable in respect of relevant premises in respect of whichever is the shorter of—
- (a) the period for which the premises are unoccupied and unfurnished;
 - (b) a period of three months or such longer period as the levying authority may determine;
- and the levying authority may determine that different periods shall have effect for different premises or different classes of premises.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (8A) For the purposes of subsection (8) above “relevant premises” are premises to which this section applies, being premises—
- (a) which are unoccupied and unfurnished; and
 - (b) as regards which notice is given to the levying authority by a person liable to pay the standard community charge in respect of the premises that they are unoccupied and unfurnished.
- (8B) Subsection (8) above shall have effect in respect of any relevant premises only once during any period (whether it falls in one or more than one financial year) in respect of which the standard community charge is, or would but for that subsection be, payable in respect of the premises.
- (8C) Before making a determination under paragraph (b) of subsection (8) above a levying authority which is a regional council shall consult the district council for the district in which the premises are situated.]
- (9) Any period for which the standard community charge is, under subsection (8) above, not payable shall not begin earlier than one month before the receipt of notification under paragraph (b) of [^{F26}subsection (8A) above].
- (10) The person liable to pay the standard community charge in respect of any premises in respect of a financial year shall be entitled to recover from any person to whom he lets or sub-lets the premises or whom he permits to occupy them an amount equal to the product of—
- (a) the number of days in that year for which the premises are let or sub-let to or, as the case may be, permitted to be occupied by that other person (excluding any which fall within a period in respect of which the standard community charge is, under subsections (8) and (9) above, not payable); and
 - (b) the amount of the standard community charge [^{F27}which would, if the premises were for the whole of that financial year premises to which this section applies and were not, at any time in that year, relevant premises for the purposes of subsection (8) above, be] payable in respect of the premises in respect of that year divided by the number of days in that year
- (and such an amount is referred to in this section as a “standard community charge contribution”).
- [^{F28}(10A) Where at any time premises are let, sub-let or permitted to be occupied as mentioned in subsection (10) above to more than one person, only one standard community charge contribution in respect of the standard community charge payable in respect of any financial year shall be recovered in respect of the period of such lease, sub-lease or permission to occupy and such persons shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the contribution.]
- (11) A standard community charge contribution recovered from a person—
- (a) shall be in addition to any obligation of his to make other payments (whether by way of rent or otherwise) in respect of the premises in respect of which that contribution is made;
 - (b) is not affected by any enactment relating to the control or restriction of any such other payment, and shall not, for the purposes of any such enactment, be regarded as such a payment or part thereof.

Collective Community Charge

11 Liability for and calculation of collective community charge.

- (1) The collective community charge shall be payable in respect of premises to which this section applies.
- (2) This section applies to—
- (a) premises which are not subject to non-domestic rates and either are designated by the registration officer under subsection (3) below or fall within such class or classes of premises as may be prescribed;
 - (b) premises which are part residential subjects and either are so designated or fall within such class or classes of premises as may be prescribed.
- (3) [^{F29}Subject to subsection (3A) below,] premises may be designated under this subsection if, in the opinion of the registration officer—
- (a) in the case of premises not subject to non-domestic rates, they are used, or
 - (b) in the case of part residential subjects, the residential use made of them is , wholly or mainly as the sole or main residence of persons most or all of whom reside there only for short periods.
- [^{F30}(3A) The registration officer shall not designate premises—
- (a) which are of a description prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
 - (b) which are or form part of land designated by the Secretary of State under paragraph 11 of Schedule 1A to this Act.]
- (4) In determining whether to designate any premises under subsection (3) above, the registration officer shall have regard to such factors as may be prescribed.
- [^{F31}(4A) A designation made by the registration officer under subsection (3) above shall be revoked by him—
- (a) where, in his opinion, the premises have ceased to be premises which may be designated under that subsection;

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) if the premises become premises which are of a description prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (3A) above;
 - (c) if the premises become premises which are designated by the Secretary of State under paragraph 11 of Schedule 1A to this Act.]
- (5) The person liable to pay the collective community charge in respect of any premises shall be—
 - (a) subject to paragraphs (b) and (c) below, the owner of the premises;
 - (b) subject to paragraph (c) below, if the premises are let for a period of 12 months or more, the tenant; or
 - (c) if the premises are sub-let for such a period, the sub-tenant,

[^{F32}and where at any time two or more people are liable to pay the collective community charge under this subsection they shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the charge.]
- (6) The collective community charge shall be due to—
 - (a) each local authority; or
 - (b) (in the case of an islands council) the local authority in the area of which the premises in respect of which it is payable are situated.

- (7) Subject to subsection (8) below, the collective community charge due to a local authority in respect of any premises in respect of any financial year shall be [^{F33}the amount which is] the product of—
 - (a) the personal community charge determined by them in respect of that year; and
 - (b) the collective community charge multiplier specified in the register as having an effect in relation to the premises

[^{F34}less the relevant proportion, being 5 per cent. or such other proportion as may be prescribed].
- (8) If, in the course of a financial year, the collective community charge multiplier specified in the register as having effect in relation to any premises is changed, it shall be assumed, for the purposes of subsection (7) above, that the new multiplier shall remain in effect in relation to those premises from the date when it takes effect until the end of that year.
- (9) In this Act, “the collective community charge multiplier” means, in respect of any premises, such number as the registration officer for the registration area in which the premises are situated determines in respect of the premises.
- (10) In determining the collective community charge multiplier in respect of any premises, the registration officer shall have regard to—
 - (a) the number of persons who are solely or mainly resident in the premises and would, but for [^{F35}paragraph 12 of Schedule 1A to] this Act, be liable to pay a personal community charge; and
 - (b) such factors as may be prescribed.
- (11) A person [^{F36}who, at any time in a financial year]—
 - (a) [^{F37}is] solely or mainly resident in premises in respect of which the collective community charge is payable; and
 - (b) ^{F38}... is not liable to pay it; and

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (c) ^{F38} . . . would, but for [^{F39} paragraph 12 of Schedule 1A to] this Act, be liable ^{F40} . . . to pay a personal community charge shall, for each day of his residence in the premises, pay to the person liable under this section for that collective community charge an amount equal to the amount mentioned in paragraph (i) below divided by the number in paragraph (ii) below—

- (i) the amount in this paragraph is—

- (A) the sum of the personal community charges determined in respect of that year by each local authority; or
(B) (in the case of an islands council) the amount of the personal community charge determined in respect of that year by the local authority in the area of which the premises are situated;

- (ii) the number of days in that year,

(and such a payment is referred to in this section as a “collective community charge contribution”).

- (12) A collective community charge contribution made by a person—

- (a) shall be in addition to any obligation of his to make other payments (whether by way of rent or otherwise) in respect of his residence in the premises in respect of which that contribution is made;
(b) is not affected by any enactment relating to the control or restriction of any such other payment, and shall not, for the purposes of any such enactment, be regarded as such a payment or part thereof.

- (13) The person to whom a collective community charge contribution is made shall issue a receipt therefore showing the amount paid and the day or days to which the contribution relates.

- (14) The person liable under this section to pay a collective community charge in respect of any premises shall keep, or cause to be kept, a record of all persons who are or have been solely or mainly resident there showing the periods for which they were so resident and the amounts paid to him by them by way of collective community charge contributions.

- (15) A person who, but for this subsection, would be liable under this section to pay a collective community charge contribution to another in respect of any premises—

- (a) shall not be so liable until; and
(b) shall have no such liability in respect of any days before, that other person has given him notification of the amount he is liable to pay by way of such contribution for each day of his residence in the premises.

- (16) Without prejudice to any rule of law, where a person—

- (a) in respect of his residence in any premises, pays, by way of collective community charge contribution, any sum which (for whatever reason) is not due; and the person so liable shall reimburse the other in that sum.
(b) within 3 months of that payment, claims reimbursement of the sum from the person who, at the time of the payment, was liable to pay the collective community charge in respect of the premises.

11A Apportionment, etc.

- (1) Where a person is liable to pay a community charge in respect only of part of a financial year, the amount for which he is liable shall be calculated by apportionment on a daily basis, and the period in respect of which he is liable shall be calculated by apportionment on a daily basis, and the period in respect of which he is liable shall be referred to in this section as the apportioned period.
- (2) Subsections (3) to (5) below shall have effect for the purposes of determining—
 - (a) where a person is liable to pay a community charge in respect only of part of a financial year, the first or, as the case may be, last day of an apportioned period; and
 - (b) as regards the standard or collective community charge contribution, the day on which the requirement to pay such a contribution commences, or as the case may be, ends.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) As regards any community charge imposed by a local authority—
 - (a) the day on which a person becomes liable to pay that charge shall be the first day of an apportioned period; and
 - (b) the day on which a person ceases to be liable to pay that charge shall not be included in an apportioned period; and
 - (c) in respect of the personal community charge imposed by the authority, as regards any day on which a person both becomes and ceases to be liable to pay that charge, paragraph (b) above shall apply and paragraph (a) shall not.
- (4) As regards the standard community charge contribution—
 - (a) any day on which a person starts to lease or sub-lease or is first permitted to occupy any premises to which section 10 of this Act applies is a day on which the person is required to pay a contribution; and
 - (b) any day on which a person ceases to lease or sub-lease or ceases to be permitted to occupy such premises is a day on which he is not so required.
- (5) As regards the collective community charge contribution—
 - (a) any day on which a person becomes solely or mainly resident in premises to which section 11 of this Act applies is a day on which he is required to pay the contribution; and
 - (b) any day on which he ceases to be so resident is a day on which he is not so required.]

Estimates

11B Estimate of amount produced in districts.

- (1) In relation to each financial year a regional council shall estimate the amount produced by each of the district community charges for that year in each district in their region as that amount falls to be ascertained in pursuance of regulations made under paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to this Act.
- (2) For the purposes of making the estimate mentioned in subsection (1) above, it shall be assumed that in respect of the financial year concerned both the regional council and the district council determine—
 - (a) a personal community charge of £1, or such other amount as may be prescribed; and
 - (b) a standard community charge multiplier of 2, or such other number as may be prescribed.
- (3) The regional council shall, before such date as may be prescribed in relation to each financial year, notify the council of each district in their region of the estimate made under subsection (1) above in relation to that district for that financial year.
- (4) In this section “district community charges” has the same meaning as in paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to this Act.

15 Amendment of register.

- (1) As from the date of coming into force of the register, it may be amended by the registration officer at any time and amendments may be made with retrospective, immediate or prospective effect, except that—
 - (a) the maximum period for which an amendment can be made with retrospective effect is two years; and
 - (b) no amendment of the collective community charge multiplier in respect of any premises shall be made or take effect until three months, or such other period as may be prescribed, after the date when the current entry is made or takes effect, whichever is later.
- (2) The registration officer may at any time alter the register to correct any clerical or typographical error in any entry and subsection (1)(b) above and subsections (3) and (5) below shall not apply to any such alteration.
- (3) The registration officer shall before amending an entry in the register ensure that a record (which need not be in documentary form) is made of the entry [^{F48}including a note of the date upon which the record is made] and shall retain this record for two years from [^{F49}that date].
- [^{F50}(4) The provisions of section 20 of this Act relating to the inspection of the register and the obtaining of copies of entries in the register (including such provisions as are prescribed under that section) shall apply, subject to such modifications as may be prescribed, to the inspection or obtaining of copies of a record made under subsection (3) above as they apply to the inspection of or obtaining copies of entries in the register.]
- (5) The registration officer shall not be obliged to consult the person registered or to be registered before making [^{F51}or amending any entry in the register which might affect that person, but, except in the case of an amendment such as is mentioned in subsection (6) below,] he shall, within such period and in such manner as may be prescribed, send to the person who is or was registered—
 - [^{F52}(a) a copy of the entry or (as the case may be) the entry as amended; or
 - (b) where the amendment consists of the deletion of an entry, notification of such deletion] together with a notice in such form as may be prescribed informing him of—
 - [^{F53}(i) the effect of the entry or (as the case may be) of the amendment to the entry in the register;]
 - (ii) the rights of appeal under section 16 of this Act;
 - (iii) the requirement imposed by section 18(2) of this Act to notify the registration officer of any changes to be made to the entry;
 - [^{F54}(iv) in the case of a new entry, or an amendment of an entry which consists in whole or in part in a change of the address of the sole or main residence of the registered person, his right to apply to the registration officer under section 20A(3) of this Act for a determination that the entry relating to him be a special entry within the meaning of that section].
- [^{F55}(6) Where an amendment requires to be made to an entry in the register in consequence of the death of a registered person, the registration officer shall send to the executors of the deceased notice of the fact that he has, with effect from the date of the deceased's death, deleted the entry in the register relating to the deceased.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Except where the context otherwise requires, any reference in this Act to the amendment of the register or of any entry in the register shall include a reference to the deletion of such an entry.]

16 Registration appeals.

- (1) [^{F56}A registered person] may appeal—
- (a) against any entry or amendment of an entry in the register [^{F57}in relation to him], in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, to the registration officer, who shall determine that appeal in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed; and
 - (b) against such a determination by the registration officer of an appeal by that person, to [^{F58}the] sheriff of any sheriffdom which wholly or partly falls within the registration area.
- (2) Where a person requests the registration officer to make or to amend an entry in the register relating to him and—
- (a) the registration officer refuses to do so, the person may appeal to the sheriff against that refusal; or
 - (b) the registration officer fails to notify the person of the determination of the request within such period as may be prescribed, he shall be deemed to have refused the request and the person may appeal to the sheriff against the deemed refusal.
- (3) In any case where a question arises as to which one of two or more registers for different registration areas a person is or should be registered in as being liable to pay the personal community charge the person may appeal to the sheriff of any sheriffdom which wholly or partly falls within any of the registration areas.
- (4) If the sheriff upholds an appeal under subsection (1) or (2) above, the registration officer shall amend the register to give effect to the decision with effect from such date (which may be retrospective, immediate or prospective) as the sheriff may determine.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In an appeal to which subsection (3) above applies, the registration officer of any registration area to which the appeal relates shall be given the opportunity to become a party to the appeal, and all the entries in the registers in which the person is entered as being liable to pay the personal community charge shall be made subject to the appeal proceedings.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7) below, where an entry in the register shows that a person is liable to pay any of the community charges, that person shall pay the community charge notwithstanding that he has appealed against the entry, pending the determination of the appeal.
- (7) Where a person is registered as being liable to pay the personal community charge in two or more registers and he has appealed against one or more registration, he shall be required to pay only the personal community charge relating to the first registration made, pending the determination of the appeal.
- (8) In Schedule 8 of the ^{M6}Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982 (rules as to jurisdiction in Scotland) in paragraph 4(1)(c) after the word “proceedings” there shall be inserted the words “(other than proceedings under section 16 of the ^{M7}Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. Duties in relation to registration

- (1) The general duty of the registration officer under section 12(4) of this Act shall include the duty to take all reasonable steps to obtain such information as is reasonably required by him.
- (2) The registration officer shall for the purpose of discharging his functions under this Act have access to and the use of any information which the assessor or electoral registration officer for the area which comprises or includes the registration area of the registration officer may have acquired in connection with any of his functions.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, the registration officer may require—
 - (a) the registration officer of any other registration area;
 - (b) the regional or islands council, any district council, or any housing body in his registration area, to supply him with such information as he may reasonably require in connection with his functions, being information which the other registration officer has in connection with his functions or, as the case may be, the local authority or housing body have in connection with any of their functions; and the registration officer, regional, islands or district council or housing body shall comply with such a requirement.

- (4) A local authority, housing body, or other registration officer shall not be required under subsection (3) above to supply to the registration officer such information as may be prescribed, and such prescription may be by reference to classes of functions of a local authority or housing body or to classes of information.
- (5) The registration officer shall, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed, require any responsible person to give him such information^{F59}. . . in such form and within such period as may be prescribed.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “responsible person”^{F60} in relation to any premises] means, subject to subsections (7) to (9) below—
- (a) where the premises are occupied by the owner or by a tenant, the occupier of the premises;
 - (b) where the premises are not occupied by the owner or by a tenant, the owner or, if there is a tenant whose lease is for a period of 12 months or more, the tenant;
 - (c) in any case, such other person as the registration officer considers it appropriate to designate from time to time as the responsible person.
- (7) Where, in the case of premises occupied by the owner or by a tenant as referred to in subsection (6)(a) above, there is more than one occupying owner or tenant, both or, as the case may be, all of them shall be responsible persons.
- (8) Where there is more than one responsible person and both or, as the case may be, all of them agree with the registration officer that one of them is to be the responsible person, then that one alone shall be the responsible person.
- (9) Where, under subsection (6) above, the registration officer designates a person to be the responsible person in relation to any premises, he shall notify that person that he has been so designated and the person so designated may appeal—
- (a) against his designation, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed, to the registration officer who shall determine that appeal in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed; and
 - (b) against such a determination by the registration officer of an appeal by that person, to the sheriff of any sheriffdom which wholly or partly falls within the registration area.
- (10) Where the registration officer is satisfied that a responsible person—
- (a) has failed to comply with the duty to provide the information required within the prescribed period; or
 - (b) has given false information,
- he shall, unless satisfied that the responsible person has a reasonable excuse, impose upon the responsible person a civil penalty of £50 or such other sum as may, in substitution, be prescribed, which shall be a debt due to the regional or islands council, recoverable by them as such as if it were arrears of community charges.
- (11) Where—
- (a) a civil penalty has been imposed upon a responsible person under subsection (10) above; and
 - (b) the registration officer has repeated his requirement under sub-section (5) above; but

- (c) the registration officer is satisfied that the responsible person has failed to comply with the duty to provide the information required within the prescribed period or has given false information, the registration officer shall, unless satisfied that the responsible person has a reasonable excuse, impose upon him a civil penalty of £200 or such other sum as may, in substitution, be prescribed, which shall be a debt due to the regional or islands council, recoverable by them as such as if it were arrears of community charges; and the provisions of this subsection shall apply to any subsequent failures to provide information within the prescribed period or to any subsequent provision of false information.

[^{F61}(11A) If, after the imposition of a civil penalty under subsection (10) or (11) above but before the making of any appeal under subsection (12) below against that imposition, the registration officer, in the light of information which he did not consider when imposing the penalty—

- (a) is no longer satisfied as to the matter as to which he was satisfied under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (10) above or paragraph (c) of subsection (11) above before imposing the penalty; or
- (b) is satisfied that the responsible person upon whom the penalty was imposed did have a reasonable excuse, he may revoke the imposition of the penalty; and on such revocation any money paid to the regional or islands council by the responsible person by way of that penalty shall be repaid by them to him.]

- (12) The responsible person may appeal to the sheriff against the imposition of a civil penalty under this section.

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Sections 2 and 6.

VALUATION AND RATING

PART I

PART RESIDENTIAL SUBJECTS

Apportionment notes

- 1 Subject to paragraph 2 below, the assessor for each valuation area shall, by such date before 1st April 1989 as may be prescribed, apportion the net annual value and the rateable value of those lands and heritages entered in the valuation roll which are part residential subjects as between the residential and non-residential use made of them.
- 2 The assessor shall, by such date before 1st April 1989 as may be prescribed, alter the valuation roll by adding to the entry of lands and heritages which are part residential subjects a note (an “apportionment note”) showing, separately from their net annual value and their rateable value, the parts of each of those values which relate respectively to the residential and non-residential use of the lands and heritages.

Addition, deletion or amendment of apportionment notes

- 3 Where, on or after the date prescribed under paragraph 2 above, the assessor alters the valuation roll by entering therein lands and heritages which are part residential subjects, he shall apportion the net annual value and the rateable value of those lands and heritages as between the residential and non-residential use made of them and shall include in the entry an apportionment note.
- 4 Subject to paragraph 9 below, where, on or after the date prescribed under paragraph 2 above—
 - (a) lands and heritages included in the valuation roll become or cease to be part residential subjects; or
 - (b) there is such a change as between the residential and non-residential use of the lands and heritages that the apportionments of the net annual value and the rateable value shown in the valuation roll are incorrect,

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

the assessor shall apportion or, as the case may be, re-apportion the net annual value and the rateable value of those lands and heritages as between the residential and non-residential use made of them, and shall alter the roll by adding an apportionment note to the entry in respect of those lands and heritages or, as the case may be, by deleting or amending the existing note.

- 5 Subject to paragraph 9 below, where, under any of the provisions of section 2(1) of the ^{M26}1975 Act (which provides for the alteration of the valuation roll in certain circumstances), the assessor alters the net annual value and the rateable value of any lands and heritages which are part residential subjects, he shall apportion the new net annual value and the new rateable value as between the residential and the non-residential use of the subjects, and shall amend the apportionment note accordingly.

Date of coming into effect of addition, deletion or amendment of apportionment note

- 6 Where the valuation roll is altered under paragraph 2 above by the addition of an apportionment note to any entry relating to lands and heritages in the valuation roll, the alteration shall take effect from 1st April 1989.
- 7 Where an apportionment note is included under paragraph 3 above as part of an entry relating to any lands and heritages in the valuation roll, the note shall take effect—
- (a) where the entry is made before that date, from 1st April 1989, and
 - (b) where the entry is made on or after 1st April 1989, from—
 - (i) the date when the lands and heritages to which the entry relates come into existence or occupancy, or
 - (ii) the beginning of the financial year in which the entry is made,whichever is the later.
- 8 Subject to paragraph 9 below, where the valuation roll is altered by the addition or deletion of, or by an amendment to, an apportionment note under paragraph 4 above, or by an amendment to an apportionment note under paragraph 5 above, the alteration shall take effect from—
- (a) the date of the event by reason of which the addition, deletion or amendment is made, or
 - (b) the beginning of the financial year in which the addition, deletion or amendment is made,
- whichever is the later.
- 9 No alteration to the valuation roll consisting of an amendment to an apportionment note shall be made or take effect until three months, or such other period as may

M27 1975 c. 30.

General

- 11 For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule the extent to which subjects are used residentially shall be determined by reference to the use made of the subjects as the sole or main residence of any person, and criteria may be prescribed by reference to which any apportionment or re-apportionment of net annual values and rateable values under this Part of this Schedule is to be carried out.
- 12 No rates shall be leviable in respect of such part of their rateable value as relates to the residential use of any lands and heritages which are part residential subjects.

GENERAL

Noting of date on which alterations take effect

- 13 Where the assessor has altered the entry in the valuation roll relating to any lands and heritages by adding, deleting or amending an apportionment note, he shall also alter the entry by adding thereto a note of the date on which the alteration takes effect.

Notification of addition, deletion or alteration of appointment notes

- 14 Section 3 of the ^{M28}1975 Act (which requires the assessor to notify the rating authority and other persons affected of any alterations in the roll, and provides for a right of appeal against any such alterations) shall apply to any addition, deletion or

(5) In sub-paragraph (4) above—

“standard monthly amount of the personal community charge” means, in relation to the personal community charge determined in respect of any financial year by a local authority, an amount equal to that of each (except the first) of the monthly instalments by which each personal community charge due to the authority in respect of that year is payable in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) above; and “standard monthly amount of the standard community charge” has the corresponding meaning.

(6) The levying authority may round off the amount of the instalments payable under sub-paragraph (1) above (except the first) to the nearest 5p (or such other sum as may, in substitution, be prescribed) and adjust the amount of the first instalment accordingly.

(7) Where an amount due [^{F105}in respect of any community charge (including any amount due in respect of the corresponding community water charge)] in respect of a financial year or part thereof or any instalment of such an amount is, after taking account of any [^{F106}reduction in that amount or instalment in consequence of any rebate or community charge benefit in pursuance of Part II of the Social Security Act 1986], less than the minimum amount or, as the case may be, the minimum instalment (these minima being such as may be prescribed), that amount shall not be payable in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) to (4) above but shall be payable in accordance with whichever of the following ways the levying authority may determine (whether generally or in relation to any case or cases or class or classes of case)—

(a) in full on such day as the levying authority may determine of the month next following that in which the demand notice relating to the amount due is issued;

(b) in such instalments (each of which being equal to or greater than the sum prescribed under this sub-paragraph as the minimum instalment) and on such day of such months as the levying authority may determine.

(8) Where an amount is due in respect of any period before a demand notice relating to that amount or to an amount including it is issued, then the amount due shall be payable in full on the first day of the month next following that in which the notice was issued [^{F107}or on such other day in that month as the levying authority may determine].

(9) Where—

(a) a community charge is payable by a person in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) to (8) above;

(b) any three instalments thereof are due but unpaid; and

(c) the levying authority give the person notice in writing of the effect of this sub-paragraph, then, if these instalments have not been paid within seven days of the sending of that notice, the whole amount of that charge for the financial year in respect of which it was imposed shall, so far as not paid, thereupon become payable by him.

(10) A community charge (or any outstanding balance thereof) shall not be payable in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) to (9) above if—

(a) the person liable to pay it has agreed in writing with the levying authority that he will pay it otherwise than in accordance with those sub-paragraphs; or

SCHEDULE 3

Section 22.

REDUCTION OF COMMUNITY CHARGES

Parliamentary proceedings for reduction of personal community charges

- 1
 - (1) If the Secretary of State is satisfied that the total estimated expenses mentioned in section 9(2) of this Act of a local authority in respect of any financial year are excessive and unreasonable, he may make and cause to be laid before the Commons House of Parliament a report proposing a reduction in the amount of the personal community charge determined by the authority in respect of that year and stating—
 - (a) the amount of the reduction so proposed; and
 - (b) his reasons for proposing that reduction.
 - (2) A report under sub-paragraph (1) above shall set out any representations made by the local authority to which it relates with respect to the matters referred to in the report or a summary of these representations.
 - (3) In determining, for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above, whether, in relation to any financial year, the total estimated expenses of a local authority are excessive and unreasonable, the Secretary of State—
 - (a) shall have regard to the financial and other relevant circumstances of the area of the authority;
 - (b) may take into account the transfer of any sum between the local authority's general fund and any special fund or account maintained by them under any enactment;
 - (c) may have regard—
 - (i) to the expenditure or estimated expenses, in that or any preceding year, of other local authorities which the Secretary of State is satisfied are comparable with the local authority concerned;
 - (ii) to general economic conditions; and
 - (iii) to such other financial, economic, demographic, geographical and like criteria as he considers appropriate; and
 - (d) may leave out of account such categories of estimated expenses as he thinks fit.
 - (4) In determining what amount to state under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above, the Secretary of State may have regard to any balances in the general fund of the local authority.

Procedure prior to Parliamentary proceedings

The Secretary of State shall not make and cause to be laid a report under paragraph 1 above without having afforded to the local authority to which the report relates an opportunity of making representations on—

 - (a) whether the total estimated expenses of the authority are excessive and unreasonable;
 - (b) the amount of the reduction proposed in the personal community charge; and
 - (c) his reasons for proposing that reduction,

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

but need not afford them such an opportunity where he has, in proposing the reduction, taken account of representations made by the authority in relation to a reduction previously proposed by him in that personal community charge.

Effect of approval of report

- (1) If a report under paragraph 1 above is approved by the Commons House of Parliament, the local authority to which it relates shall forthwith determine under this sub-paragraph a new personal community charge less, by the amount of the reduction proposed in the report or by such smaller amount as the Secretary of State may agree, than the personal community charge determined by them under section 9(2) of this Act.
 - (2) Where, for any reason whatsoever, by the twenty-eighth day after the Commons House of Parliament approve a report, the local authority to whom the report relates have not made a determination required by sub-paragraph (1) above, the authority shall be deemed to have determined on that day a personal community charge under sub-paragraph (1) above such that the reduction proposed in the report is effected.
 - (3) If a local authority determine, or are deemed to have determined, a personal community charge under sub-paragraph (1) above—
 - (a) the amount of that personal community charge and not the amount determined by them under section 9 of this Act shall be the amount of their personal community charge;
 - (b) the amounts of their standard and collective community charges shall be recalculated accordingly and these amounts, as so recalculated, and not the amounts calculated respectively under sections 10 and 11 of this Act shall be the respective amounts of their standard and collective community charges; and
 - (c) their community charges shall be levied (and the rights and liabilities of persons liable to those charges shall be construed) accordingly.

Provisions supplementary to paragraphs 1 to 3

- (1) A report under paragraph 1 above may relate to more than one local authority and, if a report so relating is approved by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament, paragraph 3 above shall apply in relation to each of the authorities to which the report relates.
 - (2) Any reference in this Act (except in paragraph 3 above and paragraphs 6 and 7 below) and in any other enactment, whether passed before or after the passing of this Act, to such community charge as is determined under section 9 or calculated under section 10 or 11 of this Act shall be construed as respectively including a reference to such community charge as has been determined, or is deemed to have been determined, under sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 3 above or has been recalculated under sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph.
 - (3) Paragraph 6 of Schedule 4 to this Act shall apply for the purposes of the Secretary of State's functions under this Schedule as it applies under that paragraph for the purposes of his functions in relation to revenue support grants.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Redetermination of personal community charge

- 5 (1) Where a local authority have, in respect of any financial year, determined a personal community charge under section 9 of this Act but the Secretary of State, under paragraph 1 above, makes and causes to be laid before the Commons House of Parliament, a report as regards them or they have reason to believe that such report may be so laid, they may, at any time before such report is approved by the Commons House of Parliament, reassess the total estimated expenses mentioned in subsection (2) of that section and, subject to that subsection, determine under this paragraph in respect of the financial year such personal community charge, lower than that determined under that subsection, as the Secretary of State may agree.
- (2) If a local authority determine a personal community charge under sub-paragraph (1) above—
- (a) the amount of that personal community charge and not the amount determined by them under section 9 of this Act shall be the amount of their personal community charge;
 - (b) the amounts of their standard and collective community charges shall be recalculated accordingly and these amounts, as so recalculated, and not the amounts calculated respectively under sections 10 and 11 of this Act shall be the respective amounts of their standard and collective community charges; and
 - (c) their community charges shall be levied (and the rights and liabilities of persons liable to those charges shall be construed) accordingly.
- (3) Any reference in this Act (except in this paragraph and paragraphs 6 and 7 below) and in any other enactment to such community charge as is determined under section 9 or calculated under section 10 or 11 of this Act shall be construed as including a reference to such community charge as is determined under sub-paragraph (1) above or recalculated under sub-paragraph (2) above.

Supplementary

- 6 Where a local authority have determined or are deemed to have determined their personal community charge under paragraph 3(1) above or determine their personal community charge under paragraph 5(1) above, they shall, to such extent and in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed—
- (a) repay sums paid by way of any community charge for which any person was liable while their personal community charge remained as determined by them under section 9 of this Act or for which he would have been liable had it so remained; and
 - (b) pay the cost of levying and collecting the community charges levied in consequence of the determination or deemed determination of their personal community charge under paragraph 3(1) or 5(1) above.

Prohibition of using loans fund to offset reduced personal community charge

- 7 (1) A local authority who, in respect of any financial year—

- (a) determine or are deemed to have determined, or anticipate that they will be required to determine, a personal community charge under paragraph 3(1) of this Schedule; or
- (b) determine a personal community charge under paragraph 5(1) of this Schedule, shall neither wholly nor partially offset the difference between—

- (i) the amount produced by their community charges in respect of that year; and
- (ii) the amount which would have been so produced had their personal community charge been determined by them under section 9 of this Act, with sums advanced from their loans fund:

Provided that such offsetting may nevertheless be permitted by the Secretary of State in any case on such terms and conditions as he considers appropriate.

- (2) if the Secretary of State is of the opinion that sub-paragraph (1) above, or any term or condition imposed under the proviso thereto, has been contravened, the local authority shall, on such opinion being intimated to them, reimburse their loans fund forthwith or within such time as the Secretary of State may allow.
- (3) In this paragraph “loans fund” means the loans fund established under Schedule 3 to the Local ^{M56}Government (Scotland) Act 1975.

- (3) An order under paragraph 1 above together with a report of the considerations which led to its provisions shall be laid before the Commons House of Parliament but shall have no effect until approved by a resolution of that House.

Payment of revenue support grant

- 4 Revenue support grant shall be paid to a local authority in such instalments and at such times as the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, determine.
- 5 The Secretary of State may determine that the amount of revenue support grant which has been paid to a local authority in respect of a financial year shall be final and, where he does so, he shall have no power to redetermine that amount.

Secretary of State’s power on local authority’s failure to provide information

- 6 Where under section 199 of the ^{M57}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (which provides for reports and returns being made by local authorities and others) the Secretary of State requires a local authority to give information for the purposes of his functions in relation to revenue support grants payable for the financial year 1989-90 or for any financial year thereafter, but that information is not given timeously, he may make an estimate as regards any element of the required information; and, without prejudice to section 211 of that Act (which makes general provision concerning failure by a local authority to do what is required of them), for the said purposes such estimate shall be deemed information given by the local authority.

Estimation and apportionment of expenditure

- 2 In respect of the financial year 1989-90 and each subsequent financial year, each local authority shall, before such date as may be prescribed in relation to each of those years—
 - (a) subject to paragraph 3 below, estimate the amount of the expenditure mentioned in paragraph 1 above which they will incur in respect of that year; and
 - (b) subject to paragraph 4 below, determine what proportion of that expenditure is to be met from each of the sources mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) to (c) of the said paragraph 1.
- 3 In estimating the expenditure mentioned in paragraph 1 above which they will incur in respect of any financial year a local authority shall take into account—
 - (a) such additional sum as is in their opinion required—
 - (i) to cover expenses previously incurred,
 - (ii) to meet contingencies, and
 - (iii) to meet any expenses which may fall to be met before the moneys to be received from the sources mentioned in paragraph 1 above in respect of the next following financial year will become available; and
 - (b) any means by which any part of that expenditure may otherwise be met or provided for.
- 4 A local authority may apportion their estimated expenditure under paragraph 2 above on whatever basis they consider appropriate, but they shall ensure that the apportionment is not such as to show undue preference to, or discriminate unduly against, any class or classes of person liable to pay—
 - (a) the direct charges;
 - (b) the community water charges; or
 - (c) the non-domestic water rate,respectively.

Direct charges

- 5 After a local authority have, under paragraph 2 above, determined what proportion of their estimated expenditure in respect of a particular financial year is to be met out of direct charges, they shall, before such date as may be prescribed in relation to that year, determine such rate or rates of direct charges in respect of that year as will, when calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 49 of the 1980 Act (which relates to the payment for water supplied by meter), produce sufficient moneys to meet the said proportion, and different rates of direct charges may be determined for different circumstances.

Community water charges

- 6 There shall be imposed, in accordance with the provisions of this Part of this Schedule, three community water charges, to be known respectively as the personal community water charge, the standard community water charge and the collective community water charge.

Liability to pay community water charges

- 7 Where in respect of any financial year or any part of a financial year the qualifying conditions mentioned in paragraph 8 below are met, any person who is liable to pay any of the community charges mentioned in section 7 of this Act (that is, the personal community charge, the standard community charge or the collective community charge) shall also be liable to pay the corresponding community water charge (that is, the personal community water charge, the standard community water charge or the collective community water charge).
- 8 the qualifying conditions for the purposes of paragraph 7 above are—
- (a) that the water authority provides a supply of water for domestic purposes within the meaning of section 7 of the 1980 Act (which defines that term) to premises—
 - (i) in which that person has his sole or main residence, or
 - (ii) in respect of which he is liable to pay the standard community charge or, as the case may be, the collective community charge; and
 - (b) that the water is not wholly supplied to those premises by meter [^{F125}and]
 - [^{F126}(c) that the supply of water provided is not one which the water authority were, immediately before 16 May 1949, and continue to be under an obligation to provide free of charge.]

PART IV

AMENDMENTS TO THE WATER (SCOTLAND) ACT 1980 (C.45)

- 27 In section 9(6) (which relates to the supply of water for non-domestic purposes), for the word “rates” substitute “non-domestic rates”.
- 28 In section 9A (which relates to the exemption from charges of water for fire fighting), for the words “domestic water rate” substitute “the non-domestic water rate or the community water charges”.
- 29 For section 40 (which provides for liability to the domestic water rate) substitute—

“40 Non-domestic water rate.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, each council of a region or an islands area shall, in respect of the financial year 1989-90 and each subsequent financial year, determine a non-domestic water rate, which shall be levied in respect of those lands and heritages described in subsection (2) below—

(a) which are subjects (other than part residential subjects) in respect of which there is an entry in the valuation roll, according to their net annual value; or

(b) which are part residential subjects, according to that part of their net annual value which is shown in the apportionment note as relating to the non-residential use of those subjects.
- (2) The lands and heritages mentioned in subsection (1) above are lands and heritages—

(a) in respect of which the water authority is supplying water, whether for domestic or for non-domestic purposes; and

(b) which are not being—

(i) wholly supplied with water by meter, or

(ii) occupied by a water authority for the purposes of a water undertaking or by a water development board.

(3) The person who is liable to pay the non-domestic water rate in respect of any lands and heritages shall be the person who is liable to pay non-domestic rates in respect of those lands and heritages.

(4) Each council of a region or islands area shall, in respect of the financial year 1989-90 and each subsequent financial year, determine, before such date as may be prescribed in relation to each of those years, such amount of the non-domestic water rate as will provide sufficient moneys to meet the proportion of their estimated expenditure for that year which they have determined under paragraph 2 of Schedule 5 to the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987 is to be met out of that rate.

- (5) The non-domestic water rate shall not be leviable in respect of any premises, being lands and heritages situated within the region or area of a council of a region or islands area, unless a supply of water provided by a water authority is used for any purposes for or in connection with which the premises are used or by or for persons employed or otherwise engaged on or about the premises in connection with such purpose.
- (6) Where premises are for the first time provided with a supply of water otherwise than on the first day of a financial year, the person who is liable to pay the non-domestic water rate shall be liable to pay in respect of that year such part only of that rate which would be leviable if a supply had been provided throughout that year as is proportionate to the part of that year which had not elapsed when the supply was provided.
- (7) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the non-domestic water rate shall not be leviable in respect of—
 - (a) the lands and heritages specified in paragraphs 2(1)(c), 3, 4 and 5 (rail, gas, electricity and postal undertakings) of Schedule 1 to the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1975; and
 - (b) any such lands and heritages specified in paragraph 8 (dock and harbour undertakings) of Schedule 1 to the said Act of 1975 as have their rateable values determined under any order made under sections 6 and 35(3) of that Act.”

30 In section 41 (which relates to the levying of domestic water rates on business and commercial premises)—

- (a) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) for “domestic water rate” substitute “non-domestic water rate”; and
 - (ii) after the words “net annual value” insert “or, in respect of part residential subjects, one half of the part which is shown in the apportionment note as relating to the non-residential use of those subjects”.
- (b) in subsection (2), at the beginning insert “Subject to subsection (2A) below,”; and
- (c) at the end of subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) Where the Secretary of State considers that the amount of the net annual value determined by a water authority under subsection (2) above is too high, he may determine an amount of net annual value in place of that determined by the authority, and sub-section (2) shall thereafter have effect accordingly.”

31 For sections 42 and 43 substitute—

“42 Levy of non-domestic water rate on certain subjects.

Where the non-domestic water rate is leviable in respect of premises being lands and heritages occupied as waterworks or sewage works, or as a mine or a quarry, or as a public park or recreation ground, it shall be levied according to one quarter of the net annual value or, in respect of part residential subjects, one quarter of the part which is shown in the apportionment note as relating to the non-residential use of those subjects.

43 Levy of non-domestic water rate on shootings and fishings.

Where the non-domestic water rate is leviable in respect of premises being lands and heritages occupied as shootings or as fishings it shall be levied according to one eighth of the net annual value thereof.”

32 In section 46(2), for the words “or otherwise”, where they first appear, substitute “, community water charge or the non-domestic water rate”.

33 In section 47(1) (which relates to the domestic water rate in certain cases), for the words “domestic water rate” substitute “non-domestic water rate”.

34 In section 47(2) (which relates to the domestic water rate in certain cases)—

- (a) for the words “domestic water rate” where they occur for the third time substitute “non-domestic water rate”;
- (b) after the words “local enactment” where they occur for the fourth time insert “in relation to the domestic water rate”; and
- (c) after the words “so specified” where they occur for the second time insert “in relation to the domestic water rate”.

35 For the proviso to the said section 47(2) substitute—

“Provided that if in any financial year during the said period the non-domestic water rate levied generally within the region or islands area is lower than the non-domestic water rate falling to be levied for that financial year in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the non-domestic water rate to be levied in such area as aforesaid shall not exceed the amount of that rate levied generally within the region or islands area.”.

36 In section 47(3), for the words “no domestic water rate shall be payable” substitute “non-domestic water rate shall not be payable”.

37 In section 47(7), for the words “domestic water rate” substitute “non-domestic water rate”.

- 39 In section 48(2), for the words “domestic water rate” substitute “non-domestic water rate”.
- 40 In section 48(3), after the word “rates” insert “or charges”.
- 41 In section 49 (which relates to payment for water supplied by meter), after subsection (1) insert—“(1A) Charges payable under this section shall be payable by the occupier of the premises in respect of which they are due.”.
- 42 In section 49(2), for the words “rates levied by the regional or islands council” substitute “non-domestic rates”.
- 43 In section 54(1) (which provides for the register of the meter to be evidence), for the words “prima facie” substitute “sufficient”.
- 44 In section 54(3)(b), for the words “rates levied by the regional or islands council” substitute “non-domestic rates”.
- 45 In section 55(4) (which relates to charges for water supplied by meter), for the words “all ratepayers within the limits of supply of the authority” substitute “the public”.
- 46 In section 58(3) (which relates to the termination of the right to the supply of water on special terms), for the words “the amount of the rate or charge or of the rate and charge” substitute “the amount of any charge under section 49, community water charge or non-domestic water rate”.
- 47 For subsections (1) to (4) of section 61 (which relates to the calculation of the amount to be requisitioned by water authorities) substitute—
“(1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the amount of the requisition made by a requisitioning authority on any contributing authority shall be calculated by—
(a) estimating the cost to the requisitioning authority of supplying the volume of water which is to be supplied to the contributing authority in the financial year; and
(b) deducting therefrom the estimated income which will be received by the requisitioning authority in that financial year by way of charges or other sources (not being community water charges or the non-domestic water rate) from the parts of the contributing authority’s area supplied.

- (2) In respect of any financial year, the sum of the requisition made on any contributing authority and the estimated income mentioned in subsection (1) (b) above shall bear the same relationship to the expenditure incurred by the requisitioning authority in the exercise of all its water supply functions as the estimated volume of water to be supplied to that contributing authority bears to the total volume of water to be supplied by the requisitioning authority, whether for consumption inside its own area or elsewhere.
- (3) For the purposes of this section “requisitioning authority” means a water authority such as is mentioned in section 60(1) above.”.

48 In section 61(5) for the words “subsections (2) and (3)” substitute “subsections (1) and 2)”.

- 49 In section 109(1) (which defines terms used in the Act)—
- (a) after the definition of “agricultural lands and heritages” insert—
 ““apportionment note” has the meaning assigned to it in paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987;”;
 - (b) after the definition of “communication pipe” insert—
 ““community water charges” shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 6 of Schedule 5 to the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987;”;
 - (c) after the definition of “owner” insert—
 ““part residential subjects” has the meaning assigned to it in section 26 (interpretation) of the Abolition of Domestic Rates Etc. (Scotland) Act 1987;”.
