SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Section 7 etc.

PROFIT-RELATED PAY SCHEMES: CONDITIONS FOR REGISTRATION

Form.

1 The terms of the scheme must be set out in writing.

Employer and employment unit.

- 2 The scheme must identify the scheme employer.
- 3 If the scheme employer does not pay the emoluments of all the employees to whom the scheme relates, the scheme must identify each of the persons who pays the emoluments of any of those employees.
- 4 (1) The scheme must identify the undertaking to which the scheme relates, and that undertaking must be one which is carried on with a view to profit.
- (2) The references in sub-paragraph (1) above to an undertaking include references to part of an undertaking; and the provisions of a scheme identifying part of an undertaking must do so in such a way as to distinguish it, otherwise than by name only, from other parts of the undertaking.

Employees.

- 5 The scheme must contain provisions by reference to which the employees to whom the scheme relates may be identified.
- 6 The scheme must contain provisions ensuring that no payments are made under it by reference to a profit period if the employees to whom the scheme relates constitute less than 80 per cent. of all the employees in the employment unit at the beginning of that profit period; but for this purpose any person who is at that time within paragraph 7 or 8 below shall not be counted.
- 7 (1) The scheme must contain provisions ensuring that no payments are made under it to any person who is employed in the employment unit by a company and who has, or is an associate of a person who has, a material interest in the company.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph a person shall be treated as having a material interest in a company—
- (a) if he, either on his own or with any one or more of his associates, or if any associate of his with or without such other associates, is the beneficial owner of, or able (directly or through the medium of other companies or by any other indirect means) to control, more than 25 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of the company, or
- (b) if, in the case of a close company, on an amount equal to the whole distributable income of the company falling to be apportioned under Chapter

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

III of Part XI of the Taxes Act for the purpose of computing total income, more than 25 per cent. of that amount could be apportioned to him together with his associates (if any), or to any associate of his, or to any such associates taken together.

- (3) In this paragraph “associate” has the same meaning as in section 303(3) of the Taxes Act and “control” has the meaning given by section 534 of that Act; and the definition of “control” in section 534 applies (with the necessary modifications) in relation to a company which is an unincorporated association as it applies in relation to one that is not.
- 8 (1) The persons within this paragraph are any of the following employees who are excluded by the scheme from receiving any payment of profit-related pay—
- (a) those who are not required, under the terms of their employment, to work in the employment unit for twenty hours or more a week;
 - (b) those who have not been employed by a relevant employer for a minimum period (of not more than three years) specified in the scheme;
- and for this purpose “relevant employer” means the scheme employer or any person who pays the emoluments of any of the employees to whom the scheme relates.

Profit periods.

- 9 The scheme must identify the accounting period or periods by reference to which any profit-related pay is to be calculated.
- 10 (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) below, any such accounting period must be a period of twelve months.
- (2) If the scheme is a replacement scheme, the first of two profit periods may be a period of less than twelve months, but the scheme may not provide for more than two profit periods.
- (3) The scheme may make provision for a profit period to be abbreviated where registration of the scheme is cancelled with effect from a day after the beginning of the period; and a scheme making such provision may exclude the operation of all or any of the provisions of paragraph 13(4) and (5) or (as the case may be) paragraph 14(3)(b), (4) and (5) below in relation to the determination of the distributable pool for an abbreviated period.
- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph, a scheme is a replacement scheme if—
- (a) it succeeds another scheme (or two or more other schemes) registration of which was cancelled under section 10(1)(a) of this Act on the ground of a change in the employment unit or in the circumstances relating to the scheme, and
 - (b) that change occurred not more than three months before the beginning of the first (or only) profit period of the new scheme, and the Board are satisfied that it was not brought about with a view to the registration of the new scheme or in circumstances satisfying the conditions in section 9(1)(a), (b) and (c) of this Act, and
 - (c) not less than one half of the employees to whom the new scheme relates were employees to whom the previous scheme (or any of the previous schemes) related at the time of that change.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Distributable pool.

- 11 The scheme must contain provisions by reference to which the aggregate sum that may be paid to employees in respect of a profit period (“the distributable pool”) may be determined.
- 12 Except where the scheme is a replacement scheme (within the meaning of paragraph 10 above), the provisions for the determination of the distributable pool must employ either the method specified in paragraph 13 below (“method A”) or the method specified in paragraph 14 below (“method B”).
- 13 (1) Method A is that the distributable pool is equal to a fixed percentage of the profits of the employment unit in the profit period.
- (2) That percentage must be such that, on the assumption as to profits mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) below, it will produce a distributable pool equal to not less than 5 per cent. of the standard pay of the employment unit.
- (3) The assumption referred to in sub-paragraph (2) above is that the profits in the profit period are the same as those in a base year specified in the scheme; and that base year must be a period of twelve months ending at a time within the period of two years immediately preceding the profit period, or the first of the profit periods, to which the scheme relates.
- (4) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (1) above, a scheme employing method A may include provision for disregarding profits in the profit period so far as they exceed 160 per cent. (or such greater percentage as may be specified in the scheme) of—
- (a) if the profit period is the first or only period to which the scheme relates, the profits for the base year referred to in sub-paragraph (3) above;
- (b) in any other case, the profits for the previous profit period.
- (5) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (1) above, a scheme employing method A may include provision to the effect that there shall be no distributable pool if the profits in the profit period are less than an amount specified in, or ascertainable by reference to, the scheme; but that amount must be less than the amount which would produce a distributable pool of 5 per cent. of the standard pay of the employment unit.
- (6) The references in this paragraph to the standard pay of the employment unit are references to the amount which the scheme employer, at the time when he applies for registration of the scheme, reasonably estimates will be the annual equivalent of the pay, at the beginning of the profit period or first profit period, of the employees to whom the scheme will then relate; and for this purpose an estimate shall (in the absence of evidence to the contrary) be taken to be a reasonable one if it is based on the most recent information available to the employer as to the monthly or annual pay of the relevant employees.
- 14 (1) Method B is that the distributable pool is—
- (a) if the profit period is the first or only profit period to which the scheme relates, a percentage of a notional pool of an amount specified in the scheme;
- (b) in any other case, a percentage of the distributable pool for the previous profit period.
- (2) The amount of the notional pool referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above must not be less than 5 per cent. of the standard pay of the employment unit.
- (3) The percentage referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above must be either—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) that arrived at by expressing the profits in the profit period as a percentage of the profits in the preceding period of twelve months, or
- (b) the percentage mentioned in paragraph (a) above reduced (if it is more than 100) or increased (if it is less than 100) by a specified fraction of the difference between it and 100; and the reference in paragraph (b) above to a specified fraction is a reference to a fraction of not more than one half specified in the scheme.

- (4) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (1) above, a scheme employing method B may include provision for disregarding profits in the profit period so far as they exceed 160 per cent. (or such greater percentage as may be specified in the scheme) of the profits in the preceding period of twelve months.
 - (5) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (1) above, a scheme employing method B may include provision to the effect that there shall be no distributable pool if the profits in the profit period are less than an amount specified in, or ascertainable by reference to, the scheme; but that amount must be less than the amount which would produce a distributable pool of 5 per cent. of the standard pay of the employment unit.
 - (6) Where by virtue of a provision of the kind described in sub-paragraph (5) above there is no distributable pool for a profit period, any comparison required in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(b) to be made with the distributable pool for that period shall be made with what would have been the pool but for sub-paragraph (5).
 - (7) In this paragraph “standard pay of the employment unit” has the same meaning as it has in paragraph 13 above.
- 15 If the scheme is a replacement scheme (within the meaning of paragraph 10 above), it must provide for the distributable pool for a profit period to be equal to a specified percentage of the profits for the period.

Payments from distributable pool, etc.

- 16 The scheme must provide for the whole of the distributable pool to be paid to employees in the employment unit.
- 17 The scheme must make provision as to when payments will be made to employees.
- 18 (1) The provisions of the scheme must be such that employees participate in the scheme on similar terms.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above, the fact that the payments to employees vary according to the levels of their remuneration, the length of their service or similar factors shall not be regarded as meaning that they do not participate on similar terms.

Ascertainment of profits.

- 19 (1) The scheme must provide for the preparation of a profit and loss account in respect of—
- (a) each profit period of the employment unit, and
 - (b) any other period the profits for which must be ascertained for the purposes of this Chapter.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The profit and loss account must give a true and fair view of the profit or loss of the employment unit for the period to which it relates.
 - (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) above, the requirements of Schedule 4 to the Companies Act 1985 shall apply (with any necessary modifications) to a profit and loss account prepared for the purposes of the scheme as they apply to a profit and loss account of a company for a financial year.
 - (4) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, a profit and loss account prepared for the purposes of the scheme must not make any deduction, in arriving at the profits or losses of the employment unit, for the remuneration of any person excluded from the scheme by virtue of paragraph 7 above.
 - (5) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, if the scheme so provides in relation to any of the items listed in sub-paragraph (6) below, a profit and loss account prepared for the purposes of the scheme may, in arriving at the profits or losses of the employment unit,—
 - (a) leave the item out of account notwithstanding that Schedule 4 to the Companies Act 1985 requires it to be taken into account, or
 - (b) take the item into account notwithstanding that Schedule 4 to the Companies Act 1985 requires it to be left out of account.
 - (6) The items referred to in sub-paragraph (5) above are—
 - (a) interest receivable and similar income;
 - (b) interest payable and similar charges;
 - (c) goodwill;
 - (d) tax on profit or loss on ordinary activities (but not any penalty under the Taxes Acts);
 - (e) research and development costs;
 - (f) profit-related pay payable under the scheme;
 - (g) extraordinary income;
 - (h) extraordinary charges;
 - (i) extraordinary profit or loss;
 - (j) tax on extraordinary profit or loss.
 - (7) References in this paragraph to Schedule 4 to the Companies Act 1985 shall be construed, in relation to Northern Ireland, as references to Schedule 4 to the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986.
- 20 (1) The scheme must provide that, in preparing a profit and loss account for the purposes of this Schedule, no changes may be made from the accounting policies used in preparing accounts for any earlier period relevant for those purposes, or in the methods of applying those policies, if the effect of the changes (either singly or taken together) would be that the amount of profits (or losses) differed by more than 5 per cent. from what would be that amount if no changes were made.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above has effect subject to paragraph 19(2) above.

Preliminary.

- 18 (1) This Part of this Schedule shall be deemed to have come into force on 17th March 1987 and, subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) below, applies in relation to any retirement benefits scheme approved by the Board before the passing of this Act.
- (2) The Board may by regulations provide that this Part of this Schedule, or any provision of it, shall not apply in relation to a scheme or to an employee—
- (a) in circumstances prescribed in the regulations;
 - (b) in any case where in the opinion of the Board the facts are such that it would be appropriate for this Part of this Schedule, or the provision in question, not to apply;
- and regulations under this sub-paragraph shall be made by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.
- (3) This Part of this Schedule shall not apply to a retirement benefits scheme if, before the end of 1987, the administrator of the scheme gives written notice to the Board that it is not to apply.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) Where a notice is given to the Board under sub-paragraph (3) above, the scheme shall, with effect from 17th March 1987 or (if later) the date with effect from which it was approved, cease to be approved.

Accelerated accrual.

- 19 (1) This paragraph applies where an employee becomes a member of the scheme on or after 17th March 1987.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the rules of the scheme, they shall have effect as if they did not allow the provision for the employee of a pension exceeding one-thirtieth of his relevant annual remuneration for each year of service up to a maximum of 20.
- 20 (1) This paragraph applies where an employee becomes a member of the scheme on or after 17th March 1987 and the scheme allows him to commute his pension or part of it for a lump sum or sums.
- (2) If the employee's full pension (that is, the pension before any commutation) is equal to or less than a basic rate commutable pension, the rules of the scheme shall have effect (notwithstanding anything in them to the contrary) as if they did not allow him to obtain by way of commutation a lump sum or sums exceeding in all a basic rate lump sum.
- (3) If the employee's full pension is greater than a basic rate commutable pension but less than a maximum rate commutable pension, the rules of the scheme shall have effect (notwithstanding anything in them to the contrary) as if they did not allow him to obtain by way of commutation a lump sum or sums exceeding in all the aggregate of—
- (a) a basic rate lump sum, and
 - (b) an amount equal to the relevant percentage of the difference between a basic rate lump sum and a maximum rate lump sum.
- (4) In this paragraph, as it applies in relation to an employee—

 - (d) a “maximum rate lump sum” means a lump sum of such amount as may be determined by or under regulations made by the Board for the purposes of this paragraph and paragraph 21 below;
 - (e) “the relevant percentage” means the difference between a basic rate commutable pension and the employee's full pension expressed as a percentage of the difference between a basic rate commutable pension and a maximum rate commutable pension.
- (5) Regulations under this paragraph shall be made by statutory instrument.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- 21 (1) This paragraph applies where an employee becomes a member of the scheme on or after 17th March 1987 and the scheme provides a lump sum or sums for him otherwise than by commutation of his pension or part of it.
- (2) If the employee's pension is equal to or less than a basic rate non-commutable pension, the rules of the scheme shall have effect (notwithstanding anything in them to the contrary) as if they did not allow the payment to him, otherwise than by way of commutation, of a lump sum or sums exceeding in all a basic rate lump sum.
- (3) If the employee's pension is greater than a basic rate non-commutable pension but less than a maximum rate non-commutable pension the rules of the scheme shall have effect (notwithstanding anything in them to the contrary) as if they did not allow the payment to him, otherwise than by way of commutation, of a lump sum or sums exceeding in all the aggregate of—
- (a) a basic rate lump sum, and
 - (b) an amount equal to the relevant percentage of the difference between a basic rate lump sum and a maximum rate lump sum.
- (4) In this paragraph, as it applies in relation to an employee—
- (a) a “basic rate non-commutable pension” means a pension of one-eightieth of his relevant annual remuneration for each year of service up to a maximum of 40;
 - (b) a “maximum rate non-commutable pension” means a pension of one-fortieth of his relevant annual remuneration for each year of service up to a maximum of 20;
 - (c) “basic rate lump sum” and “maximum rate lump sum” have the same meanings as in paragraph 20 above; and
 - (d) “the relevant percentage” means the difference between a basic rate non-commutable pension and the employee's actual pension expressed as a percentage of the difference between a basic rate non-commutable pension and a maximum rate non-commutable pension.

Final remuneration.

- 22 (1) This paragraph applies where an employee who is a member of the scheme retires on or after 17th March 1987.
- (2) The rules of the scheme shall have effect as if they provided that in determining the employee's relevant annual remuneration for the purpose of calculating benefits, no account should be taken of anything excluded from the definition of “remuneration” in section 26(1) of the Finance Act 1970.
- (3) In the case of an employee—
- (a) whose employer is a company and who at any time in the last ten years of his service is a controlling director of the company, or
 - (b) whose relevant annual remuneration for the purpose of calculating benefits, so far as the remuneration is ascertained by reference to years beginning on or after 6th April 1987, would (apart from this Schedule) exceed the permitted maximum,
- the rules of the scheme shall have effect as if they provided that his relevant annual remuneration must not exceed his highest average annual remuneration for any period of three or more years ending within the period of ten years which ends with the date on which his service ends.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) In the case of an employee within paragraph (b) of sub-paragraph (3) above who retires before 6th April 1991, the rules of the scheme shall have effect as if they provided that his relevant annual remuneration must not exceed the higher of—
- (a) the average annual remuneration referred to in that sub-paragraph, and
 - (b) his remuneration (within the meaning given in section 26(1) of the Finance Act 1970) assessable to income tax under Schedule E for the year of assessment 1986–87.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph a person is a controlling director of a company if—
- (a) he is a director as defined in section 26 of the Finance Act 1970, and
 - (b) he is within paragraph (c) of section 303(5) of the Taxes Act,
- in relation to the company.

Lump sums.

- 23 (1) This paragraph applies where an employee becomes a member of the scheme on or after 17th March 1987.
- (2) If the rules of the scheme allow the employee to obtain (by commutation of his pension or otherwise) a lump sum or sums calculated by reference to his relevant annual remuneration, they shall have effect as if they included a rule that in calculating a lump sum any excess of that remuneration over the permitted maximum should be disregarded.

Additional voluntary contributions.

- 24 (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) the rules of the scheme make provision for the payment by employees of voluntary contributions, and
 - (b) on or after 8th April 1987 an employee enters into arrangements to pay such contributions.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in the rules of the scheme, they shall have effect as if they did not allow the payment to the employee of a lump sum in commutation of a pension if or to the extent that the pension is secured by the voluntary contributions.
- 25 (1) This paragraph applies where an employee who is a member of the scheme (“the main scheme”) is also a member of an approved scheme (“the voluntary scheme”) which provides additional benefits to supplement those provided by the main scheme and to which no contributions are made by any employer of his.
- (2) Any rules of the main scheme imposing a limit on the amount of a benefit provided for the employee shall have effect (notwithstanding anything in them to the contrary) as if they provided for the limit to be reduced by the amount of any like benefit provided for the employee by the voluntary scheme.

Supplementary.

- 26 (1) In this Part of this Schedule “relevant annual remuneration” means final remuneration or, if the scheme provides for benefits to be calculated by reference to some other annual remuneration, that other annual remuneration.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) Expressions used in this Part of this Schedule and in Chapter II of Part II of the Finance Act 1970 have the same meanings in this Part as they have in that Chapter.

 - (c) “dual resident investing company” has the same meaning as in the principal section.
- (3) It shall be assumed for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) of the principal section, the enactments relating to group relief and Part II of this Schedule,—
- (a) that an accounting period of the company ends on 31st March 1987; and
 - (b) that a new accounting period begins on 1st April 1987, the new accounting period to end with the end of the straddling period.
- (4) In this Part of this Schedule “the component accounting periods” means the two accounting periods referred to in sub-paragraph (3) above.
- 2 Subject to paragraph 5 below, for the purposes referred to in paragraph 1(3) above, the losses and other amounts of the straddling period of a dual resident investing company, excluding any such excess of charges on income as is referred to in section 259(6) of the Taxes Act, shall be apportioned to the component accounting periods on a time basis according to their lengths.
- 3 If, in the straddling period of a dual resident investing company, the company has paid any amount by way of charges on income, then, for the purposes referred to in paragraph 1(3) above, the excess of that amount referred to in section 259(6) of the Taxes Act shall be apportioned to the component accounting periods—
- (a) according to the dates on which, subject to paragraph 6 below, the interest or other payments giving rise to those charges were paid (or were treated as paid for the purposes of section 248 of that Act); and
 - (b) in proportion to the amounts of interest or other payments paid (or treated as paid) on those dates.

PART II

Early payment of interest etc.

- 5 (1) If the conditions in sub-paragraph (2) or sub-paragraph (3) below are fulfilled and if the Board so direct, this paragraph applies in relation to a 1986 accounting period of a dual resident investing company.
- (2) The conditions in this sub-paragraph are applicable only if the company is carrying on a trade in the 1986 accounting period, and those conditions are—
- (a) that in that accounting period the company has incurred a loss, computed as for the purposes of section 177(2) of the Taxes Act, in carrying on that trade; and
 - (b) that in that period the company has made a payment falling within subsection (6)(a)(iii) of the principal section; and
 - (c) that the payment referred to in paragraph (b) above either did not fall due in that period or would not have fallen due in that period but for the making, on or after 5th December 1986, of arrangements varying the due date for payment.
- (3) The conditions in this sub-paragraph are applicable only if the company is an investment company in the 1986 accounting period, and those conditions are—
- (a) that for that accounting period the company has (apart from this paragraph) such an excess as is referred to in section 259(3) of the Taxes Act (excess of management expenses over profits); and
 - (b) that one or more of the sums which for that accounting period may be deducted as expenses of management under section 304(1) of the Taxes Act either did not fall due in that period or would not have fallen due in that period but for the making, on or after 5th December 1986, of arrangements varying the due date for payment.
- (4) The Board shall not give a direction under this paragraph with respect to a 1986 accounting period of a dual resident investing company unless it appears to the Board that the sole or main benefit that might be expected to accrue from the early payment or, as the case may be, from the arrangements was that (apart from this paragraph) the company would, for that period, have an amount or, as the case may be, a larger amount available for surrender by way of group relief.
- (5) If this paragraph applies in relation to a 1986 accounting period of a dual resident investing company which is carrying on a trade then, for the purposes of the

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

enactments relating to group relief and, where appropriate, any apportionment under paragraph 2 above,—

- (a) the loss (if any) of the company for that period shall be computed (as mentioned in section 259(1) of the Taxes Act) as if any payment falling within sub-paragraph (2)(b) above had not been made in that period; and
 - (b) the loss (if any) of the company for its first post-1986 accounting period shall be computed as if any such payment were made in that period.
- (6) If this paragraph applies in relation to a 1986 accounting period of a dual resident investing company which is an investment company, then, for the purposes referred to in sub-paragraph (5) above,—
- (a) the amount which may be deducted as expenses of management for that period, as mentioned in section 259(3) of the Taxes Act, shall be computed as if any sum falling within sub-paragraph (3)(b) above had not been disbursed; and
 - (b) the amount which may be so deducted as expenses of management for the first of the company's post-1986 accounting periods shall be computed as if any such sum were disbursed in that period.

- 6 (1) If, in the case of a dual resident investing company, either of the following conditions is fulfilled,—
- (a) that any interest or other payment which is, or is treated as, a charge on income falls due in a post-1986 accounting period but is paid (or treated for the purposes of section 248 of the Taxes Act as paid) in a 1986 accounting period, or
 - (b) that, on or after 5th December 1986, arrangements have been made such that any such interest or other payment which, but for the arrangements, would have fallen due in a post-1986 accounting period, fell due in a 1986 accounting period, the interest or other payment shall, if the Board so direct, be treated for the purposes of the enactments relating to group relief and, where appropriate, paragraph 3 above as paid in the post-1986 accounting period referred to in paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, paragraph (b) above.

- (2) The Board shall not give a direction under this paragraph unless it appears to them that the sole or main benefit that might be expected to accrue from the early payment or, as the case may be, from the arrangements was that (apart from the direction) the interest or other payment would be attributed or apportioned to a 1986 accounting period rather than a post-1986 accounting period, so that, for the 1986 accounting period, the dual resident investing company would have an amount or, as the case may be, a larger amount available for surrender by way of group relief.

Appeals.

- 7 Notice of the giving of a direction under paragraph 5 or paragraph 6 above shall be given to the dual resident investing company concerned; and any company to which such a notice is given may, by giving notice of appeal in writing to the Board within sixty days of the date of the notice given to the company, appeal to the Special Commissioners against the direction on either or both of the following grounds,—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) that the conditions applicable to the company under sub-paragraph (2) or sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 5 above are not fulfilled or, as the case may be, that neither of the conditions in paragraph 6(1) above is fulfilled;
- (b) that the sole or main benefit that might be expected to accrue from the early payment or, as the case may be, the arrangements was not that stated in paragraph 5(4) or, as the case may be, paragraph 6(2) above.

General.

- 8 The preceding provisions of this Schedule have effect in priority to section 262 of the Taxes Act (companies joining or leaving group or consortium) and, accordingly, each of the component accounting periods resulting from the operation of Part I of this Schedule shall be regarded as true accounting periods for the purposes of that section.

SCHEDULE 5

Sections 74 to 76.

COMPANIES' CHARGEABLE GAINS: TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

PART I

GENERAL RULES

Interpretation.

- 1 In this Part of this Schedule—
- (a) a “straddling period” means an accounting period of a company which begins before and ends on or after the 1987 date;
 - (b) “the principal section” means section 74 of this Act;
 - (c) “the 1987 date” means 17th March 1987;
 - (d) references to “section 85”, “section 93” and “section 95” are references to those sections of the Finance Act 1972.

Chargeable gains comprised in profits.

- 2 (1) It shall be assumed for the purposes of this paragraph that the straddling period of the company consists of two separate accounting periods—
- (a) the first beginning at the beginning of the straddling period and ending immediately before the 1987 date; and
 - (b) the second beginning on the 1987 date and ending at the end of the straddling period.
- (2) In this Part of this Schedule those two notional accounting periods are referred to as “component periods”.
- (3) A separate computation shall be made under section 265 of the Taxes Act (computation of company’s chargeable gains) for each of the component periods and, by virtue of subsection (3) of the principal section, only the amount (if any) computed for the first component period shall be reduced under section 93.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) If, in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) above,—
- (a) a positive amount is computed for the first component period, and
 - (b) the amount computed for the second component period is nil,
- any excess for the second component period of allowable losses over chargeable gains shall be treated for the purposes of this paragraph as an allowable loss of the first component period and the amount originally computed for that period shall be recalculated accordingly.
- (5) The amount which is to be included in respect of chargeable gains in the company's total profits for the straddling period—
- (a) shall be the sum of the amounts computed as mentioned above for the two component periods; and
 - (b) shall not itself be subject to any reduction under section 93.
- (6) The preceding provisions of this paragraph have effect in place of any provision of section 93 under which the amount to be included in respect of chargeable gains in the company's total profits for the straddling period would fall to be apportioned between different parts of that period.

Advance corporation tax and liability of small companies.

- 3 (1) This paragraph has effect to determine for the purposes of section 85 the income of the company charged to corporation tax for the straddling period and, accordingly (by virtue of subsection (8) of section 95), the income of the company for that period for the purposes of section 95.
- (2) For the straddling period, subsection (6) of section 85 (meaning of the income of the company charged to tax for any period) shall have effect as if—
- (a) the reference to the part of the profits attributable to chargeable gains were a reference only to the part of the profits attributable to chargeable gains of the first component period; and
 - (b) the reference to the amount brought into the company's profits for that period for the purposes of corporation tax in respect of chargeable gains were a reference to the amount computed for the first component period under paragraph 2(3) above.
- (3) As it applies to the straddling period, the reference in subsection (8) of section 95 to subsection (6) of section 85 shall be construed as a reference to that subsection as it has effect by virtue of sub-paragraph (2) above.

Other references to the income of a company charged to corporation tax.

- 4 For the straddling period, any reference in any enactment, other than sections 85 and 95, to subsection (6) of section 85 shall be construed as a reference to that subsection as it has effect by virtue of paragraph 3(2) above.

PART II

SPECIAL CASES

Interpretation.

- 5 In this Part of this Schedule “straddling period” has the meaning assigned to it by paragraph 1(a) above and sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph 2 above apply for the purposes of this Part.

Life assurance companies.

- 6 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, where an accounting period of an insurance company carrying on life assurance business is a straddling period, section 26 of the Finance Act 1974 (life assurance gains etc.) shall apply separately in relation to each of the component periods and—
- (a) for the first component period, section 26 shall have effect without regard to subsections (2) and (3) of section 75 of this Act; and
 - (b) for the second component period, section 26 shall have effect as amended by those subsections.
- (2) For the purposes of the separate application of section 26 in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) above, the relevant reliefs (within the meaning of that section) of the straddling period shall be apportioned to the two component periods on a time basis according to their lengths.
- (3) If, on a computation under section 26 in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above,—
- (a) the policy holders' share of the life assurance gains for one of the component periods exceeds the relevant reliefs apportioned to that period, and
 - (b) the relevant reliefs apportioned to the other component period exceed the policy holders' share of the life assurance gains of that period,
- the excess for the component period referred to in paragraph (a) above shall be treated for the purposes of this paragraph as reduced or, as the case may be, extinguished by deducting from that excess so much of the excess referred to in paragraph (b) above as does not exceed it.
- (4) Section 26 of the Finance Act 1974 shall not apply to the straddling period taken as a whole.
- 7 (1) For a straddling period of an insurance company carrying on life assurance business, sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 2 of Schedule 18 to the Finance Act 1972 shall have effect as if the amount of the reduction provided for by that sub-paragraph were increased by the policy holders' share of the life assurance gains of the second component period (determined under section 26 of the Finance Act 1974, as applied to that period by paragraph 6 above).
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above is without prejudice to the operation of paragraph 4 above in relation to the said sub-paragraph (4).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Companies carrying on oil extraction activities etc.

- 8 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, a separate computation shall be made under subsections (3) and (7) of section 79 of the Finance Act 1984 (gains on certain disposals related to oil fields) for each of the component periods.
- (2) If, by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (7) of section 79 of the Finance Act 1984, a loss which accrues on a material disposal to a connected person is excluded from those which are taken into account in the computation under subsection (3) of that section for the second component period, then—
- (a) for the purposes of the application of section 62 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979, as modified by paragraph (b) of the said subsection (7), in relation to that loss, the first component period shall be treated as if it were subsequent to the second (so as to permit the loss to be set against an appropriate chargeable gain of the first component period); and
 - (b) paragraph (c) of subsection (7) of the said section 79 shall apply accordingly in relation to the gains which are taken into account in the computation under subsection (3) of that section for the first component period.
- (3) If, on the initial computation in accordance with sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above, there would be an aggregate gain for one of the component periods and an aggregate loss for the other, then, for the purposes of this paragraph, that aggregate loss shall be set against that aggregate gain so as to produce—
- (a) for one of the component periods neither an aggregate gain nor an aggregate loss; and
 - (b) for the other component period either an aggregate gain or an aggregate loss (according as the original aggregate gain was greater or smaller than the original aggregate loss);
- or, if the original aggregate gain was equal to the original aggregate loss, neither an aggregate gain nor an aggregate loss for either component period.
