

Public Utility Transfers and Water Charges Act 1988

1988 CHAPTER 15

An Act to confer powers on water authorities, electricity boards and the Electricity Council to act in relation to proposals for the transfer of any of the property or functions of water authorities or electricity boards to other bodies corporate; and to make provision for and in connection with the fixing of charges by water undertakers. [10th May 1988]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 The base date version of this Act is as revised to 1.12.1991 and takes into account the effects (if any) on it of consolidating legislation which came into force at that date

Public utility transfers

[^{F1}1] Power to act in relation to proposals for privatisation etc.

- (1) Where the Secretary of State is at any time proposing that any property or functions of a relevant public utility should be transferred to another body corporate, the functions of the utility and, in the case of a transfer from an electricity board in England and Wales, the functions of the Electricity Council shall include the power to do anything which in the opinion of the utility or, as the case may be, that Council is appropriate for the purpose of—
- (a) facilitating the implementation of the proposal for the transfer; or
 - (b) facilitating the implementation of, or securing a modification of, any related proposals of the Secretary of State.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Utility Transfers and Water Charges Act 1988. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The proposals which are to be treated for the purposes of this section as related to a proposal of the Secretary of State for the transfer of anything from a relevant public utility to a body corporate shall include any proposal relating to, or to any matter connected with—
- (a) any of the utility's property, rights or liabilities which would be affected by the transfer, or any such property, rights or liabilities after their proposed transfer;
 - (b) the exercise, whether before or after the transfer, of any function which it is proposed to transfer to or otherwise vest in that body corporate; or
 - (c) the establishment or formation, flotation, control, finances or employees of that body corporate or of any other body corporate which is, or in pursuance of any proposal of the Secretary of State may become, a member of the same group as that body corporate.
- (3) Any power of a relevant public utility or of the Electricity Council to do anything under this section in relation to a proposal for the transfer of any property or functions, or in relation to any related proposals, shall include power to do that thing with a view to promoting the interests of—
- (a) any body corporate to which it is proposed to transfer the property or functions; or
 - (b) any body corporate which is, or in pursuance of any proposal of the Secretary of State may become, a member of the same group as a body corporate to which it is proposed to transfer the property or functions.
- (4) The powers conferred by this section in relation to any proposal shall be exercisable whether or not Parliament has given any approval on which the implementation of the proposal depends and shall be without prejudice to any power conferred otherwise than by virtue of this section.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a body corporate is a member of the same group as another body corporate if it is a holding company or subsidiary of that other body corporate or if it is another subsidiary of that other body corporate's holding company; and in this subsection "holding company" and "subsidiary" have the same meanings as in the [^{F2}the Companies Acts (see section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006)].
- (6) References in this section to a body corporate shall include references to a body corporate which has not been established or formed but which may be established or formed in pursuance of a proposal of the Secretary of State.
- (7) In this section—
- "electricity board" means the Central Electricity Generating Board, an Area Board, within the meaning of the ^{M1} Electricity Act 1947, the North of Scotland Hydro-Electric Board or the South of Scotland Electricity Board; and
 - "relevant public utility" means a water authority in England and Wales or an electricity board;
- and, in relation to a water authority, references in this section to a proposal of the Secretary of State shall include references to a proposal of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.]

[^{F5}7 Interpretation.

(1) In this Act, except in so far as the context otherwise requires—

“the 1973 Act” means the ^{M2}Water Act 1973;

“effluent” means any liquid, including any particles of matter in suspension in the liquid;

“information” includes accounts, estimates and returns;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Utility Transfers and Water Charges Act 1988. (See end of Document for details)

“local statutory provision” and “statutory water company” have the same meanings as in the 1973 Act;

“meter” means any apparatus for measuring or showing the volume of water supplied to, or of effluent discharged from, any premises;

“modifications” includes additions, alterations and omissions, and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly;

“water undertakers” means any water authority or statutory water company.

- (2) References in this Act to the fixing of charges in relation to any premises by reference to volume are references to the fixing of those charges by reference to the volume of water supplied to those premises, to the volume of effluent discharged from those premises, to both of those factors or to one or both of those factors taken together with other factors.]
