An Act to provide for the vesting of the property, rights and liabilities of the British Steel Corporation in a company nominated by the Secretary of State and for the subsequent dissolution of the Corporation; and for connected purposes.

[29th July 1988]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Vesting of property etc. of British Steel Corporation in a successor company

1.—(1) On such day as the Secretary of State may by order appoint all the property, rights and liabilities to which the British Steel Corporation was entitled or subject immediately before that day shall (subject to section 2(3)) become by virtue of this section property, rights and liabilities of a company nominated for the purposes of this section by the Secretary of State; and references in this Act to the appointed day or to the successor company are references to the day so appointed or to the company so nominated respectively.

Vesting of property etc. of British Steel Corporation in a successor company.

(2) The Secretary of State may, after consulting the Corporation, by order nominate for the purposes of this section any company formed and registered under the Companies Act 1985; but on the appointed day the company in question must be a company limited by shares which is wholly owned by the Crown.

1985 c. 6.

(3) References in this Act to property, rights and liabilities of the Corporation are references to all such property, rights and liabilities, whether or not capable of being transferred or assigned by the Corporation.

(4) It is hereby declared for the avoidance of doubt that—

- (a) any reference in this Act to property of the Corporation is a reference to property of the Corporation whether situated in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and

(b) any reference in this Act to rights or liabilities of the Corporation is a reference to rights to which the Corporation is entitled, or (as the case may be) liabilities to which the Corporation is subject, whether under the law of the United Kingdom or of any part of the United Kingdom or under the law of any country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

(5) An order under this section appointing a day under subsection (1) or nominating any company for the purposes of this section may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order at any time before any property, rights or liabilities of the Corporation vest in any company by virtue of this section.

(6) Schedule 1 shall have effect for the purpose of supplementing the provisions of this section.

Reduction and subsequent extinguishment of Corporation's public dividend capital.

2.—(1) If the Secretary of State so directs at any time before the appointed day, the public dividend capital of the Corporation shall be reduced by such amount as is specified in the direction; and on the giving of any such direction any liability of the Corporation to the Secretary of State in respect of the Corporation's public dividend capital shall (subject to subsection (4)) be correspondingly reduced.

1982 c. 25.

(2) References in this Act to the public dividend capital of the Corporation are references to the capital amount for the time being outstanding in respect of payments made to the Corporation under section 18(1) of the Iron and Steel Act 1982 (public investment in the Corporation other than Government loans), including the payment treated as having been so made by virtue of section 18(3) of that Act but as reduced by virtue of section 18(7) of that Act.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), there shall be extinguished immediately before the appointed day any liability of the Corporation to the Secretary of State in respect of the Corporation's public dividend capital (as reduced, where a direction has been given under subsection (1), by virtue of that subsection).

(4) A direction under subsection (1) shall not operate to extinguish any liability of the Corporation under section 18(5) and (6) of the 1982 Act (whether accrued or otherwise) to make a payment in respect of a financial year of the Corporation ending before the date on which the direction is given; and subsection (3) shall not operate to extinguish any such liability of the Corporation to make a payment in respect of a financial year ending before the appointed day.

Provisions relating to Government holdings in the successor company

Initial Government holding in the successor company.

3.—(1) As a consequence of the vesting in the successor company by virtue of section 1 of property, rights and liabilities of the Corporation, the successor company shall issue such securities of the company as the Secretary of State may from time to time direct; and any such securities shall, as the Secretary of State may so direct—

- (a) be issued to the Treasury or the Secretary of State, or
- (b) be allotted to the Treasury or the Secretary of State and subsequently issued to the persons for the time being entitled to be issued with them (who may include the Treasury or the Secretary of State).

(2) The Secretary of State shall not give a direction under subsection (1) at a time when the successor company has ceased to be wholly owned by the Crown.

(3) Securities to be issued or allotted in pursuance of this section shall be issued or allotted at such time or times, and (subject to subsection (4)) on such terms, as the Secretary of State may direct.

(4) Any shares issued in pursuance of this section—

(a) shall be of such nominal value as the Secretary of State may direct; and

(b) shall be issued as fully paid and treated for the purposes of the Companies Act 1985 as if they had been paid up by virtue of the payment to the successor company of their nominal value in cash.

1985 c. 6.

(5) The Secretary of State may not exercise any power conferred on him by this section, or dispose of any securities issued or of any rights to securities initially allotted to him in pursuance of this section, without the consent of the Treasury.

(6) Any dividends or other sums received by the Treasury or the Secretary of State in right of, or on the disposal of, any securities or rights acquired by virtue of this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

4.—(1) Subject to section 6(5), the Treasury or, with the consent of the Treasury, the Secretary of State may at any time acquire—

(a) securities of the successor company; or

(b) rights to subscribe for any such securities.

Government investment in securities of the successor company.

(2) The Secretary of State may not dispose of any securities or rights acquired by him by virtue of this section without the consent of the Treasury.

(3) Any expenses incurred by the Treasury or the Secretary of State in consequence of the provisions of this section shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament.

(4) Any dividends or other sums received by the Treasury or the Secretary of State in right of, or on the disposal of, any securities or rights acquired by virtue of this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

5.—(1) The Treasury or, with the consent of the Treasury, the Secretary of State may, for the purposes of section 3 or 4, appoint any person to act as the nominee, or one of the nominees, of the Treasury or the Secretary of State; and—

(a) securities of the successor company may be issued or allotted in pursuance of section 3 to any nominee of the Treasury or the Secretary of State appointed for the purposes of that section and may be issued to any person entitled to be issued with the securities following their initial allotment to any such nominee, and Exercise of functions through nominees.

- (b) any such nominee appointed for the purposes of section 4 may acquire securities or rights under that section, in accordance with directions given from time to time by the Treasury or, with the consent of the Treasury, by the Secretary of State.

(2) Any person holding any securities or rights as a nominee of the Treasury or the Secretary of State by virtue of subsection (1) shall hold and deal with them (or any of them) on such terms and in such manner as the Treasury or, with the consent of the Treasury, the Secretary of State may direct.

Target investment limit for
shareholding.

6.—(1) As soon after the date when the successor company ceases to be wholly owned by the Crown as he considers expedient, and in any case not later than six months after that date, the Secretary of State shall by order fix a target investment limit in relation to the shares for the time being held in the successor company by virtue of any provision of this Act by the Treasury and their nominees and by the Secretary of State and his nominees (“the Government shareholding”).

(2) The target investment limit shall be expressed as a proportion of the voting rights which are exercisable in all circumstances at general meetings of the successor company (“the ordinary voting rights”).

(3) The first target investment limit fixed under this section shall be equal to the proportion of the ordinary voting rights which is carried by the Government shareholding at the time when the order fixing the limit is made.

(4) The Secretary of State may from time to time by order fix a new target investment limit in place of the one previously in force under this section; but—

- (a) any new limit must be lower than the one it replaces; and
- (b) an order under this section may only be revoked by an order fixing a new limit.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Treasury and of the Secretary of State so to exercise—

- (a) their powers under section 4 and any power to dispose of any shares held by virtue of any provision of this Act, and
- (b) their power to give directions to their respective nominees, as to secure that the Government shareholding does not carry a proportion of the ordinary voting rights exceeding any target investment limit for the time being in force under this section.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the Treasury or the Secretary of State may take up, or direct any of their respective nominees to take up, any rights for the time being available to them or him, or to that nominee, as an existing holder of shares or other securities of the successor company; but if, as a result, the proportion of the ordinary voting rights carried by the Government shareholding at any time exceeds the target investment limit, it shall be the duty of the Treasury or (as the case may be) the Secretary of State to comply with subsection (5) as soon after that time as is reasonably practicable.

(7) For the purposes of this section the temporary suspension of any of the ordinary voting rights shall be disregarded.

Financial provisions relating to the successor company

7.—(1) If the aggregate nominal value of the securities of the successor company issued in pursuance of section 3 is for the time being less than the amount of the Corporation's public dividend capital extinguished by virtue of section 2(3), a sum equal to the amount of the difference shall be carried by the successor company to a reserve ("the statutory reserve").

Financial structure of the successor company.

(2) The statutory reserve may only be applied by the successor company in paying up unissued shares of the company to be allotted to its members as fully paid bonus shares, except to the extent that the Secretary of State directs, with the consent of the Treasury—

- (a) that it may be applied in writing off unrealised losses of the company arising from the revaluation of any of its fixed assets, or
- (b) that it may be applied as if it were profits available for distribution within the meaning of section 263(1) of the Companies Act 1985 (distributions to be made out of profits);

1985 c. 6.

and the application of any amount in pursuance of paragraph (a) above shall be treated for the purposes of Part VIII of that Act (distribution of profits and assets) as a reduction or reorganisation of capital duly made by the successor company.

(3) No direction shall be given by the Secretary of State under subsection (2) above at a time when the successor company has ceased to be wholly owned by the Crown.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2) above, no part of the statutory reserve shall count as an undistributable reserve of the successor company for the purposes of section 264(3)(d) of the Companies Act 1985 (restriction on distribution of assets); but, for the purpose of determining under section 264 whether the successor company may make a distribution at any time, any amount for the time being standing to the credit of the statutory reserve (excluding any amount which is authorised to be, but has not yet been, applied as mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above) shall be treated for the purposes of section 264(3)(c) as if it were unrealised profits of the company.

(5) For the purposes of any statutory accounts of the successor company—

- (a) all the property, rights and liabilities to which the Corporation was entitled or subject immediately before the end of the Corporation's last financial year ending before the appointed day shall be taken to have been vested in the successor company by virtue of section 1 above, and to have been so vested immediately after the end of that year; and
- (b) the value or amount (as at the time of vesting) of any asset or liability of the Corporation taken to have been vested in the successor company by virtue of paragraph (a) shall be taken to be the value or (as the case may be) the amount assigned to that asset or liability for the purposes of the corresponding statement of accounts prepared by the Corporation in respect of the financial year referred to in paragraph (a).

(6) For the purposes of any statutory accounts of the successor company the amount to be included in respect of any item shall be determined as if anything done by the Corporation (whether by way of acquiring, revaluing or disposing of any asset or incurring, revaluing or discharging any liability, or by carrying any amount to any provision or reserve, or otherwise) had been done by the successor company.

Accordingly (but without prejudice to the generality of the preceding provision)—

- (a) the amount to be included from time to time in any reserves of the successor company as representing its accumulated realised profits shall be determined as if any profits realised and retained by the Corporation had been realised and retained by the company; and
- (b) the amount to be included in any such accounts as representing the accumulated realised losses of the successor company shall be determined as if any losses realised by the Corporation had been realised by the company.

1985 c. 6.

(7) For the purposes of Part VIII of the Companies Act 1985 any reduction in the Corporation's public dividend capital under section 2(1) above shall be treated as if it had been a reduction or reorganisation of capital duly made by the successor company in which there was written off an amount of accumulated realised losses of the successor company equal to the amount of the reduction under section 2(1).

(8) References in this section to the statutory accounts of the successor company are references to any accounts prepared by the successor company for the purposes of any provision of the Companies Act 1985 (including group accounts).

Loans by Secretary of State to successor company.

8.—(1) As from the appointed day the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, make loans to the successor company; but no loan shall be made by him under this section at a time when that company has ceased to be wholly owned by the Crown.

(2) The Treasury may issue to the Secretary of State out of the National Loans Fund any sums necessary to enable him to make loans under this section.

(3) Any loan made by the Secretary of State under this section shall be repaid to him at such times and by such methods, and interest thereon shall be paid to him at such rates and at such times, as he may, with the consent of the Treasury, from time to time direct.

(4) Any sums received by the Secretary of State under subsection (3) shall be paid into the National Loans Fund.

(5) The Secretary of State shall in respect of each financial year prepare, in such form and manner as the Treasury may direct, an account of—

- (a) sums issued to him under subsection (2),
- (b) sums received by him under subsection (3), and

(c) the disposal by him of sums so issued or received, and shall send the account to the Comptroller and Auditor General not later than the end of November in the following financial year; and the Comptroller and Auditor General shall examine, certify and report on the account and lay copies of it, together with his report, before each House of Parliament.

9.—(1) If the articles of association of the successor company confer on the Secretary of State powers exercisable with the consent of the Treasury for, or in connection with, restricting the sums of money which may during any period be borrowed or raised by the successor company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, those powers shall be exercisable in the national interest notwithstanding any rule of law and the provisions of any enactment.

Temporary restrictions on successor company's borrowings etc.

(2) For the purposes of this section any alteration of the articles of association of the successor company which—

- (a) has the effect of conferring or extending any such power as is mentioned in subsection (1), and
- (b) is made at a time when that company has ceased to be wholly owned by the Crown, shall be disregarded.

Dissolution of the Corporation

10.—(1) The Corporation shall continue in existence after the appointed day until it is dissolved in accordance with subsection (2); and the period of its continued existence after the appointed day is referred to in this Act as “the transitional period”.

Dissolution of the Corporation.

(2) Once the Secretary of State is satisfied that nothing further remains to be done by the Corporation under Schedule 3 to this Act, he may, after consulting the Corporation and the successor company, by order dissolve the Corporation on a day specified in the order.

(3) Section 400(1) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (write-off of government investment : restriction of tax losses) shall not have effect in relation to any reduction in the Corporation's public dividend capital under section 2(1) above or its extinguishment by virtue of section 2(3) above; but instead the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, direct that such amount as is specified in the direction shall be set off against the successor company's tax losses as at the end of the accounting period ending last before the date of the direction.

- (a) any reference to subsection (1) of that section were a reference to subsection (3) above; and
- (b) the reference in subsection (4) of that section to the write-off date were a reference to the date of the direction under subsection (3) above.

(6) Subsection (6) of the said section 400 shall apply in relation to any such reduction or extinguishment of the Corporation's public dividend capital as is mentioned in subsection (3) above as if the reference to the body in question were a reference to the Corporation.

(7) Where any debentures are issued in pursuance of section 3 above, any annual payment secured by those debentures shall be treated for all purposes of corporation tax as if it were a charge on income of the successor company.

(8) The vesting in the successor company by virtue of section 1 above of liability for a loan made to the Corporation shall not affect any direction given by the Treasury in respect of the loan under section 416 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1970 (borrowing in foreign currency).

Vesting of the Corporation's foreign property etc. in the successor company

2.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Corporation and of the successor company to take, as and when during the transitional period the successor company considers appropriate, all such steps as may be requisite to secure that the vesting in the successor company by virtue of section 1 of this Act or this paragraph of any foreign property, right or liability is effective under the relevant foreign law.

(2) Until the vesting in the successor company by virtue of section 1 of this Act or this paragraph of any foreign property, right or liability is effective under the relevant foreign law, it shall be the duty of the Corporation during the transitional period to hold that property or right for the benefit of, or to discharge that liability on behalf of, the successor company.

(4) The Corporation shall have all such powers as may be requisite for the performance of its duties under this paragraph, but—

- (a) it shall be the duty of the successor company during the transitional period to act on behalf of the Corporation (so far as possible) in performing the duties imposed on the Corporation by this paragraph; and
- (b) any foreign property, rights and liabilities acquired or incurred by the Corporation during that period shall immediately become property, rights and liabilities of the successor company.

(5) References in this paragraph to any foreign property, right or liability are references to any property, right or liability as respects which any issue arising in any proceedings would have been determined (in accordance with the rules of private international law) by reference to the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

(6) Any expenses incurred by the Corporation under this paragraph shall be met by the successor company.

SCH. 3

Application of enactments to certain continuing liabilities

3. Where any loan made to the Corporation under section 17 of the 1982 Act (loans by Secretary of State) is in existence immediately before the appointed day, any terms which are then applicable to the loan shall continue to apply to it after it becomes a liability of the successor company by virtue of section 1 of this Act, and section 17(4) shall continue to have effect as respects sums received by virtue of this paragraph.

4.—(1) Where, as respects any financial year of the Corporation ending before the appointed day, the Corporation has either—

- (a) failed to discharge before that day the obligation imposed by section 18(5) of the 1982 Act, or
- (b) failed to make before that day a proposal under section 18(5)(a) acceptable to the Secretary of State and the Treasury, and no direction as respects that year has been given before that day by the Secretary of State under section 18(5), then (subject to sub-paragraph (2) below) section 18(5) and (6) of that Act shall continue to apply in relation to that financial year, but as if—

- (i) references to the Corporation were references to the successor company,
- (ii) the reference in section 18(5) to each of the Corporation's financial years were a reference to that financial year, and
- (iii) in section 18(5)(a) the words from "beginning with" to "of this Act" were omitted.

(2) No direction shall be given by the Secretary of State under section 18(5) of the 1982 Act (as continued in force by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above) at a time when the successor company has ceased to be wholly owned by the Crown.

(3) Where, as respects any financial year of the Corporation ending before the appointed day—

- (a) the Corporation has before that day made a proposal under section 18(5)(a) of the 1982 Act acceptable to the Secretary of State and the Treasury, or
- (b) a direction has been given before that day by the Secretary of State under section 18(5), but (in either case) no dividend has become payable under section 18(6) of that Act, section 18(6) shall continue to apply in relation to that proposal or direction (as the case may be), but as if—

- (i) the first reference to the Corporation were a reference to the successor company, and
- (ii) the second such reference included a reference to that company.

(4) Any sums received by the Secretary of State from the successor company—

- (a) by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) or (3) above, or
- (b) in the discharge of any liability to pay a dividend under section 18(6) which accrued before the appointed day (and accordingly has become a liability of that company by virtue of section 1 of this Act), shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Treasury guarantees

5. Subsections (2) to (5) of section 21 of the 1982 Act (Treasury guarantees) shall continue to apply in relation to any guarantee given by the Treasury under that section with respect to a liability of the Corporation which becomes a liability of the successor company by virtue of section 1 of this Act, but as if the reference to the Corporation in section 21(4) were a reference to the successor company.

Final reports and accounts of the Corporation

SCH. 3

6.—(1) Notwithstanding the repeal of section 6(2) to (7) of, and Schedule 2 to, the 1982 Act (reports to the Secretary of State)—

- (a) it shall continue to be the duty of the Corporation to make a report to the Secretary of State in accordance with those provisions in respect of each financial year of the Corporation ending before the appointed day; and
- (b) the Secretary of State shall lay a copy of any such report before each House of Parliament.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of section 24 of the 1982 Act (accounts of the Corporation and audit)—

- (a) it shall continue to be the duty of the Corporation to prepare such statements of accounts as are mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c) of that section in respect of each financial year of the Corporation ending before the appointed day; and
- (b) that section shall continue to apply during the transitional period in relation to those accounts and in relation also to the auditing of accounts kept in accordance with subsection (1) of that section in respect of each such financial year.

(3) Any expenses incurred by the Corporation under this paragraph shall be met by the successor company.

Accounts of the Secretary of State

7. Notwithstanding the repeal of section 20 of the 1982 Act (accounts of the Secretary of State), that section shall continue to apply in relation to—

- (a) any financial year down to and including that in which the appointed day falls; and
- (b) any subsequent financial year in which the Secretary of State receives any sum by virtue of paragraph 3 above or any sum falling within paragraph 4(4) above.

Pensions and compensation payments

8.—(1) The repeal by this Act of Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act (pension rights of employees) shall not affect—

- (a) the continuation in force of any pension scheme subsisting immediately before the appointed day in accordance with any regulations which then had effect as if made under that Schedule, or
- (b) any person's rights or liabilities then subsisting in relation to any pension scheme by virtue of any such regulations.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1) above "pension scheme" means a pension scheme within the meaning of Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act.

9.—(1) Any provisions of the Iron and Steel (Pensions) (Dependants) Regulations 1969 having effect immediately before the appointed day as if made under Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act shall continue in force (subject to the following provisions of this paragraph) notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of that Schedule.

S.I. 1969/1052.

(2) Any reference to the Corporation in those provisions shall have effect, as respects anything falling to be done or occurring on or after the appointed day, as if it were a reference to the successor company.

SCH. 3

(3) Those provisions may be amended or revoked in like manner as if Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act had not been repealed (but the reference to the Corporation in paragraph 4(2) of that Schedule shall be construed as a reference to the successor company).

10.—(1) Where—

1953 c. 15.

(a) any regulations made under section 24 of the Iron and Steel Act 1953 (compensation to employees of certain nationalised companies or of the Iron and Steel Corporation), or

1975 c. 64.

(b) any regulations having effect as if made under paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to the Iron and Steel Act 1975 (compensation to employees of certain nationalised companies or of the Iron and Steel Board), are in force immediately before the appointed day, any such regulations shall continue in force (subject to the following provisions of this paragraph) notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of paragraphs 7 and 8 of Schedule 6 to the 1982 Act (saving for compensation regulations etc.).

(2) Any reference to the Corporation (including any reference which fell to be construed as such a reference immediately before the appointed day) in any regulations continued in force by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above shall have effect, as respects anything falling to be done or occurring on or after that day, as if it were a reference to the successor company.

(3) Any regulations continued in force by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above may be amended or revoked in like manner as if the provision mentioned in paragraph (a), or (as the case may be) paragraph (b), of that sub-paragraph had not been repealed (but any reference in that provision to the Iron and Steel Holding and Realisation Agency or to the Corporation shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to the successor company).

Savings in connection with transfers to the Corporation

11. The repeals made by this Act shall not affect—

S.I. 1970/430.

(a) any document or other thing which has effect immediately before the appointed day subject to any modifications prescribed by the Steel Companies (Vesting) Order 1970, or

(b) anything not falling within sub-paragraph (a) above (other than an enactment) which then has effect or is continuing subject to, or to modifications in consequence of, the substitution of the Corporation for any other person or body;

but, as from the appointed day, anything falling within sub-paragraph (a) or (b) above shall be further subject to such of the provisions of paragraphs 1 to 3 of Schedule 1 to this Act as are applicable.

Payment of dividend by successor company before laying or delivery of accounts

1985 c. 6.

12.—(1) Where it is proposed to declare a distribution during the accounting reference period of the successor company which includes the appointed day, or before any accounts are laid or delivered to the registrar of companies in respect of that period, sections 270 to 276 of the Companies Act 1985 (relevant accounts) shall have effect as if—

(a) such accounts as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) were accounts relevant under section 270, and

(b) references in section 273 to initial accounts included references to any such accounts, and, if any direction has been given under section 7(2)(b) of this Act which is relevant to the making of that distribution, shall accordingly have effect subject to that direction.

(2) The accounts referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a) and (b) are such accounts as, on the assumptions stated in sub-paragraph (3), would have been prepared under section 227 of the Companies Act 1985 in respect of the relevant year. SCH. 3
1985 c. 6.

(3) Those assumptions are—

- (a) that the relevant year had been a financial year of the successor company;
- (b) that the vesting effected by section 1 of this Act had been a vesting of all the property, rights and liabilities to which the Corporation was entitled or subject immediately before the beginning of the relevant year and had been effected immediately after the beginning of that year;
- (c) that the value of any asset and the amount of any liability of the Corporation vested in the successor company by virtue of that section had been the value or (as the case may be) the amount assigned to that asset or liability for the purposes of the statement of accounts prepared by the Corporation in respect of its financial year immediately preceding the relevant year;
- (d) that any reduction in the Corporation's public dividend capital under section 2(1) of this Act had been effected during the relevant year, and had constituted such a reduction or reorganisation of capital as is mentioned in section 7(7) of this Act;
- (e) that any securities of the successor company issued or allotted before the declaration of the distribution had been issued or allotted before the end of the relevant year; and
- (f) such other assumptions (if any) as may appear to the directors of the successor company to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of this paragraph.

(4) For the purposes of such accounts as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) the amount to be included in respect of any item shall be determined as if anything done by the Corporation (whether by way of acquiring, revaluing or disposing of any asset or incurring, revaluing or discharging any liability, or by carrying any amount to any provision or reserve, or otherwise) had been done by the successor company.

Accordingly (but without prejudice to the generality of the preceding provision)—

- (a) the amount to be included in any reserves of the successor company as representing its accumulated realised profits shall be determined as if any profits realised and retained by the Corporation had been realised and retained by the company; and
- (b) the amount to be included in any such accounts as representing the accumulated realised losses of the successor company shall be determined as if any losses realised by the Corporation had been realised by the company.

(5) Any such accounts shall not be regarded as statutory accounts for the purposes of section 7 of this Act.

(6) In this paragraph "the relevant year" means the last financial year of the Corporation ending before the appointed day.
