42 Home loans: restriction of relief

(1) The following sections shall be inserted after section 356 of the Taxes Act 1988—

“356A Limit on relief for home loans: residence basis

- (1) Where all the qualifying interest payable for any period in relation to a residence is payable by one person, it shall be eligible for relief only to the extent that the amount on which it is payable does not exceed the qualifying maximum during the period.
- (2) Where qualifying interest is payable for any period in relation to a residence by more than one person, the interest paid by each of them shall be eligible for relief only to the extent that the amount on which it is payable by him does not exceed the sharer’s limit for the period in his case.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section and section 356B, in this section and section 356B “the sharer’s limit”, in relation to a person by whom qualifying interest is payable for a period in relation to a residence, means the amount arrived at by dividing the amount of the qualifying maximum during the period by the number of persons by whom qualifying interest is payable for the period in relation to the residence.
- (4) Subsection (5) below applies where—
 - (a) in the case of any person by whom qualifying interest is payable for any period in relation to a residence the sharer’s limit for the period exceeds the amount on which the interest is payable by him, and
 - (b) the amount which (apart from that subsection) would be the sharer’s limit for the period in the case of any other person by whom qualifying interest is payable for the period in relation to the residence falls short of the amount on which qualifying interest is so payable by him.
- (5) Where this subsection applies—
 - (a) the sharer’s limit for the period in the case of the person mentioned in subsection (4)(a) above shall be reduced by the amount of the excess, and
 - (b) the sharer’s limit for the period in the case of any person such as is mentioned in subsection (4)(b) above shall be increased in accordance with subsections (6) to (8) below.
- (6) Where there is only one other person by whom qualifying interest is payable for the period in relation to the residence, the sharer’s limit in his case shall be increased by the amount of the excess.
- (7) Where there is more than one other person by whom qualifying interest is payable for the period in relation to the residence, the sharer’s limit in the case of each of them shall be increased by such part of the excess as bears to the whole of it the same proportion as any shortfall in his case bears to the aggregate of any shortfalls in the case of each of them.
- (8) In subsection (7) above “shortfall” means the amount by which what would be the sharer’s limit in the case of a person (apart from subsection (5) above) falls short of the amount on which qualifying interest is payable by him.

 - (a) qualifying interest is payable, or treated by subsection (1) above as payable, for a period in relation to a residence by a married man who is not separated from his wife, and
 - (b) qualifying interest is also payable for the period in relation to the residence by one or more persons other than the man and his wife,then for the purposes of section 356A(2) and (3) qualifying interest shall be treated as payable by the wife for the period in relation to the residence (whether or not it actually is).
- (3) The application of subsection (2) above in the case of a husband and wife shall not give rise to a separate sharer's limit for the period in question in the case of the wife; but the limit arrived at under subsection (3) of section 356A for the period in the case of the husband shall be increased by the amount which (apart from this subsection) would be the limit arrived at under that subsection in the case of the wife.
- (4) Where an application under section 283 or an election under section 287 is in force in relation to a husband and wife for a year of assessment, subsections (1) to (3) above shall not apply in relation to them for the year but they may jointly elect—
 - (a) that qualifying interest payable or paid by one of them for the year (or a period within the year), or such part of that interest as may be specified in the election, shall be treated for the purposes of sections 353 to 356A and 369 to 379 (and section 287(7)) as payable or paid by the other, and
 - (b) that the sharer's limit under section 356A for the year (or period) in the case of one of them shall be reduced by such amount as may be specified in the election and the sharer's limit under that section for the year (or period) in the case of the other shall be correspondingly increased.
- (5) An election under subsection (4) above—
 - (a) shall be made before the end of the period of twelve months beginning with the end of the first year of assessment for which it is made or such longer period as the Board may in any particular case allow,

Oil licences

62 Disposals of oil licences relating to undeveloped areas

- (1) If, at the time of the material disposal of a licence, the licence relates to an undeveloped area, then, to the extent that the consideration for the disposal consists of—
 - (a) another licence which at that time relates to an undeveloped area or an interest in another such licence, or
 - (b) an obligation to undertake exploration work or appraisal work in an area which is or forms part of the licensed area in relation to the licence disposed of, the value of that consideration shall be treated as nil for the purposes of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (in this section referred to as “the 1979 Act”) and the appropriate legislation relating to capital allowances.
- (2) For the purposes of this section a “material disposal” is a disposal (which includes a part disposal) which occurred or occurs before or after the passing of this Act, other than,—
 - (a) so far as concerns the 1979 Act, a disposal which is made otherwise than by way of a bargain at arm's length; and
 - (b) so far as concerns the appropriate legislation relating to capital allowances, a disposal in relation to which Schedule 7 to the Capital Allowances Act 1968 (sales between connected persons etc.) has effect.
- (3) If a material disposal of a licence which, at the time of the disposal, relates to an undeveloped area is part of a larger transaction under which one party makes to another material disposals of two or more licences, each of which at the time of the disposal relates to an undeveloped area, the reference in subsection (1)(b) above to the licensed area in relation to the licence disposed of shall be construed as a reference to the totality of the licensed areas in relation to those two or more licences.

- (4) Where a claim is made under section 68(5)(b) of the Finance Act 1985 (claims to substitute, for indexation purposes, a 1982 market value for cost on certain disposals between 1st April 1985 and 5th April 1988) for the purpose of computing the indexation allowance on a material disposal of a licence which, at the time of the disposal, relates to an undeveloped area and, accordingly, it is assumed for that purpose that, on 31st March 1982, the licence concerned was sold and immediately reacquired, then, for that purpose, section 34 of the 1979 Act (effect of capital allowances on allowable expenditure) shall apply in relation to any capital allowance—

(a) made in respect of the expenditure actually incurred in providing the licence, and

(b) so made for an accounting period ending on or after 1st April 1982, as if the allowance (or, if the accounting period begins before that date, a time-apportioned part of the allowance) were made in respect of expenditure which, on that assumption, was incurred in reacquiring the asset on 31st March 1982.

- (5) In relation to a material disposal of a licence which at the time of the disposal relates to an undeveloped area, being a disposal—

(a) which is a part disposal of the licence in question, and

(b) part but not the whole of the consideration for which falls within paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) above, section 35 of the 1979 Act (apportionment of expenditure etc. on part disposals) shall not apply unless the amount or value of the part of the consideration which does not fall within one of those paragraphs is less than the aggregate of the amounts which, if the material disposal were a disposal of the whole of the licence rather than a part disposal, would be—

(i) the relevant allowable expenditure, as defined in section 86 of the Finance Act 1982 (indexation allowance on certain disposals); and

(ii) the indexation allowance on the disposal.

- (6) Where section 35 of the 1979 Act has effect in relation to such a disposal as is referred to in subsection (5) above, it shall have effect as if, for subsection (2) thereof, there were substituted the following subsection—

“(2) The apportionment shall be made by reference to—

(a) the amount or value of the consideration for the disposal on the one hand (call that amount or value A), and

(b) the aggregate referred to in subsection (5) of section 62 of the Finance Act 1988 on the other hand (call that aggregate C), and the fraction of the said sums allowable as a deduction in computing the amount of the gain (if any) accruing on the disposal shall be—

and the remainder shall be attributed to the part of the property which remains undisposed of.”

- (7) In the case of a material disposal—

(a) which falls within subsection (5) above, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) in respect of which a claim is made under section 68(5)(b) of the Finance Act 1985, the claim shall be treated also as having effect for the purpose of determining the indexation allowance referred to in sub-paragraph (ii) of subsection (5) above on the notional material disposal of the whole of the licence referred to in that subsection.

63 Allowance of certain drilling expenditure etc. in determining chargeable gains

- (1) On the disposal of a licence, whether occurring before or after the passing of this Act, relevant qualifying expenditure incurred by the person making the disposal—

- (a) in searching for oil anywhere in the licensed area, or
- (b) in ascertaining the extent or characteristics of any oil-bearing area the whole or part of which lies in the licensed area or what the reserves of oil of any such oil-bearing area are, shall be treated as expenditure falling within section 32(1)(b) of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (enhancement expenditure reflected in the state or nature of the asset at the time of disposal).

- (2) Expenditure incurred as mentioned in subsection (1) above is relevant expenditure if, and only if,—

- (a) it is expenditure of a capital nature on scientific research; and
- (b) either it was allowed or allowable under section 91 of the Capital Allowances Act 1968 (capital expenditure on scientific research) for a chargeable period which, or the basis year for which, began before the date of the disposal or it would have been so allowable if the trading condition had been fulfilled; and
- (c) the disposal is an occasion by virtue of which section 92 of that Act (termination of user of assets representing scientific research expenditure of a capital nature) applies in relation to the expenditure or would apply if the trading condition had been fulfilled and the expenditure had been allowed accordingly.

- (3) In subsection (2) above and subsection (4) below, the expression “if the trading condition had been fulfilled” means, in relation to expenditure of a capital nature on scientific research, if, after the expenditure was incurred but before the disposal concerned was made, the person incurring the expenditure had set up and commenced a trade connected with that research; and in subsection (2)(b) above—

- (a) “chargeable period” has the same meaning as in section 91 of the Capital Allowances Act 1968; and
- (b) “basis year” has the same meaning as in subsection (3)(c) of that section.

- (4) Relevant expenditure is qualifying expenditure only to the extent that it does not exceed the trading receipt which, by reason of the disposal,—

- (a) is treated as accruing under section 92(2) of the Capital Allowances Act 1968; or
- (b) would be treated as so accruing if the trading condition had been fulfilled and the expenditure had been allowed accordingly.

- (5) On the disposal of a licence, sections 31 and 34 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (which include provisions under which set off is given for balancing charges) shall apply in relation to any such trading receipt as is mentioned in subsection (4)(a) above as if it were a balancing charge falling to be made by reference to the disposal.

- (6) Where, on the disposal of a licence, subsection (1) above has effect in relation to any relevant qualifying expenditure which had not in fact been allowed or become allowable as mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above,—
- (a) no allowance shall be made in respect of that expenditure under section 91 of the Capital Allowances Act 1968; and
 - (b) no deduction shall be allowed in respect of it under section 92(3) of that Act.
- (7) Where, on the disposal of a licence which is a part disposal, subsection (1) above has effect in relation to any relevant qualifying expenditure, then, for the purposes of section 35 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (part disposals), that expenditure shall be treated as wholly attributable to what is disposed of (and, accordingly, shall not be apportioned as mentioned in that section).

64 Interpretation of sections 62 and 63

- (1) For the purposes of section 62 above, a licence relates to an undeveloped area at any time if—
- (a) for no part of the licensed area has consent for development been granted to the licensee by the Secretary of State on or before that time; and
 - (b) for no part of the licensed area has a programme of development been served on the licensee or approved by the Secretary of State on or before that time.

- (5) In sections 62 and 63 above and the preceding provisions of this section “oil”, “licence”, “licensee” and, subject to subsection (4) above, “licensed area” have the meaning assigned by section 12(1) of the Oil Taxation Act 1975.
- (6) In section 62 above—
- (a) “exploration work”, in relation to any area, means work carried out for the purpose of searching for oil anywhere in that area;
 - (b) “appraisal work”, in relation to any area, means work carried out for the purpose of ascertaining the extent or characteristics of any oil-bearing area the whole or part of which lies in the area concerned or what the reserves of oil of any such oil-bearing area are;
 - (c) “the appropriate legislation relating to capital allowances” means—
 - (i) Chapter III of Part I and Part II of the Capital Allowances Act 1968; and
 - (ii) section 55 of and Schedules 13 and 14 to the Finance Act 1986 (new code of allowances for capital expenditure on mineral extraction); and

- (a) the 1st September next following the end of the closing year for the year of assessment; and
 - (b) the end of the period of three months beginning on the day following that on which the notice was served.
- (3) If the agent, having been required by a notice under sub-paragraph (1) above to deliver a return, fails to deliver the return on or before the final day for its delivery, he shall be liable to a penalty equal to the prescribed amount multiplied by the number of days on which the failure continues; and in this sub-paragraph “the prescribed amount” means £10 for each fifty members of the syndicate (counting any number of members left over as fifty).
- (4) If the agent fraudulently or negligently delivers an incorrect return under sub-paragraph (1) above, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding the prescribed amount multiplied by the number of members of the syndicate; and in this sub-paragraph “the prescribed amount” means £500 in the case of fraud and £250 in the case of negligence.

- 3 (1) In the case of a syndicate profit for a year of assessment, the agent shall, on or before the 1st January next following the end of the closing year for that year—
- (a) pay to the collector, on account of the liabilities to tax of the members of the syndicate, the amount stated in his return for that year under paragraph 2(1)(c) above; and
 - (b) deliver to the inspector a return apportioning, between those members, the amount so paid.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) Where an amount is paid to the collector under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above for a year of assessment, the following provisions shall apply as between each member of the syndicate and the agent—
 - (a) where the member's proportion of the amount so paid exceeds the amount deducted by the agent in accounting to the member for his share of the syndicate profit for that year, the amount of the excess shall be paid by the member to the agent; and
 - (b) where the amount so deducted exceeds that proportion, the amount of the excess shall be paid by the agent to the member.
- (3) Where an amount is paid to the collector under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above for a year of assessment, the following provisions shall apply as respects the liability to tax for that year of each member of the syndicate—
 - (a) where the amount in which the member is charged to tax exceeds his proportion of the amount so paid, the amount of the excess shall be the amount of tax due and payable; and
 - (b) where that proportion exceeds the amount in which the member is so charged, the amount of the excess shall be treated as tax overpaid.
- (4) Any amount which is payable under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above shall carry interest at the prescribed rate from the date when it becomes payable until payment, whether or not that date is a non-business day within the meaning of the Bills of Exchange Act 1882; and—
 - (a) section 89 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (the prescribed rate of interest); and
 - (b) section 90 of that Act (disallowance of relief for interest on tax), shall apply for the purposes of this sub-paragraph as they apply for the purposes of any provision of Part IX of that Act.

Determinations by inspector

- 4 (1) If the inspector is satisfied that a return under paragraph 2(1) above affords correct and complete information concerning the syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment, he shall determine that profit or loss accordingly.
- (2) If for a year of assessment the inspector is dissatisfied with a return under paragraph 2(1) above, or there is no such return, the inspector shall determine the syndicate profit or loss for that year to the best of his judgment.
- (3) If the inspector discovers that a determination under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) above—
 - (a) understates the syndicate profits for the year of assessment; or
 - (b) overstates the syndicate losses for that year, he may, by a determination under this sub-paragraph, vary the first-mentioned determination accordingly.
- (4) Notice of a determination under this paragraph shall be served on the agent and shall state the time within which any appeal against the determination may be made under paragraph 5 below.
- (5) After notice of a determination under this paragraph has been served on the agent, the determination shall not be altered except in accordance with the express provisions of the Taxes Acts.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Appeals

- 5 (1) The agent may appeal against a determination under paragraph 4 above by a notice of appeal in writing given to the inspector within thirty days after the date of the notice of determination.
- (2) An appeal under this paragraph shall be to the General Commissioners, except that the agent may elect (in accordance with section 46(1) of the Taxes Management Act 1970) to bring the appeal before the Special Commissioners instead of the General Commissioners; and subsections (5) to (5E) of section 31 of that Act shall apply for the purposes of an election under this sub-paragraph as they apply for the purposes of an election under subsection (4) of that section.

Modification of determinations pending appeal

- 6 (1) Where the agent appeals against a determination under paragraph 4 above, then, for the purpose of establishing, in the event of a member of the syndicate appealing against an assessment made on him, the amount of tax the payment of which should, pending the determination of that appeal, be postponed under section 55 of the Taxes Management Act 1970, that section shall apply to the first-mentioned appeal with the modifications specified in sub-paragraph (2) below.
- (2) The modifications are as follows—
- (a) any reference to the notice of assessment shall be construed as a reference to the notice of determination;
 - (b) any reference to the appellant believing that he is overcharged to tax by the assessment shall be construed as a reference to him believing that the determination overstates the syndicate profits, or understates the syndicate losses, for the year of assessment, and any reference to the appellant having grounds for so believing, or there being reasonable grounds for so believing, shall be construed accordingly;
 - (c) any reference to a determination of the amount of tax the payment of which should be postponed pending the determination of the appeal shall be construed as a reference to a direction that the determination shall, pending the determination of the appeal, have effect for the purpose stated in sub-paragraph (1) above as if the syndicate profits there stated were reduced, or the syndicate losses there stated were increased, by such amount as may be specified in the direction, and any reference to an amount of tax so determined, or to the amount of tax which should be so postponed, shall be construed accordingly; and
 - (d) subsections (2) and (9) and, in subsection (6), paragraphs (a) and (b) and the word “and” immediately preceding paragraph (a) shall be omitted.

Apportionments of syndicate profit or loss

- 7 (1) Where a determination of a syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment is made, varied or modified (whether under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule or on appeal), the inspector may, by notice in writing to the agent, require him to make to the inspector, within the specified period, a return apportioning, between the members of the syndicate, the syndicate profit or loss as stated in the determination as so made, varied or modified.
- (2) If the agent, having been required by a notice under sub-paragraph (1) above to deliver a return within the specified period, fails to deliver the return within that period, he shall be liable to a penalty equal to the prescribed amount multiplied by the number of days on which the failure continues; and in this sub-paragraph “the prescribed amount” means £5 for each fifty members of the syndicate (counting any number of members left over as fifty).

- (3) In this paragraph “the specified period” means such period, not being less than thirty days and beginning with the day following the date of the notice under sub-paragraph (1) above, as may be specified in that notice.

Individual members: effect of determinations

- 8 (1) A determination of a syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment (whether as originally made or as varied or modified) shall, for the purpose of determining the liability to tax of each member of the syndicate, be conclusive against that member that the syndicate profit or loss for that year is as there stated.
- (2) Where a determination of a syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment is varied or modified at any time after the issue of a notice of assessment assessing any member of the syndicate to tax—
- (a) section 31 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (right of appeal) and section 55 of that Act (postponement of tax) shall have effect, in relation to that member, as if any reference to the date of the notice of assessment, or the date of the issue of the notice of assessment, were a reference to the date of the variation or modification; and
 - (b) in the case of a variation, an assessment which gives effect to the determination as varied shall not be out of time if it is made within one year of the date of the variation.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2)(b) above shall not apply in the case of a variation under paragraph 4(3) above which is made later than six years after the end of the closing year.

Assessment of individual members: time limits

- 9 For the purposes of sections 36, 37, 40 and 41 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (extension of time in cases of fraud, wilful default or neglect), anything done or omitted to be done by the agent shall be deemed to have been done or omitted to be done by each member of the syndicate.

Supplemental: penalties

- 10 (1) If it appears to an inspector or the Board that the agent is liable to a penalty under paragraph 2(3) or 7(2) above, the amount appearing to be due may be assessed by the inspector or the Board as if it were tax for the year of assessment in which the failure to make the return occurred; and, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the provisions of the Taxes Management Act 1970 relating to the assessment and collection of tax shall apply accordingly.
- (2) An amount assessed by way of penalty under paragraph 2(3) or 7(2) above shall be due at the end of the period of thirty days beginning with the date of the issue of the notice of assessment.
- (3) On an appeal against an assessment of an amount by way of penalty under sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 2 or sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 7 above, subsections (6) to (8) of section 50 of that Act shall not apply but the Commissioners—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) may confirm the amount of the assessment or, if it appears to them that the amount assessed is greater or smaller than the penalty provided for under that sub-paragraph, may reduce it or increase it to such an amount as is appropriate having regard to the provisions of that sub-paragraph; and
 - (b) if it appears to them that no penalty has been incurred, may set the assessment aside.
- (4) Where an amount has been assessed by way of penalty under sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 2 or sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 7 above and either no appeal has been brought against that assessment or the amount assessed has been confirmed or varied on appeal—
 - (a) a certificate of an inspector or other officer of the Board that an amount is due by way of penalty under that sub-paragraph; and
 - (b) a certificate of a collector that payment of that amount has not been made to him or, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to any other collector, or to a person acting on his behalf or on behalf of another collector,shall be sufficient evidence that the amount mentioned in the certificates is unpaid and is due to the Crown; and any document purporting to be such a certificate as is mentioned in this sub-paragraph shall be deemed to be such a certificate unless the contrary is proved.
- (5) Section 100 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (procedure for recovery of penalties) shall not apply to a penalty under paragraph 2(3) or 7(2) above.

Supplemental: interest

- 11 (1) Interest charged under paragraph 3(4) above shall be treated for the purposes of the enactments mentioned in section 69 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (interest on tax) as if it were tax charged and due and payable under an assessment.
- (2) References to section 86 of that Act in sections 70(2) and 92 of that Act (evidence, and remission of interest in certain cases) shall include a reference to paragraph 3(4) above.

- (2) Where this sub-paragraph applies—
- (a) an election under subsection (5) of section 96 of this Act by the person making the disposal shall not cover the disposal, but
 - (b) the making of such an election by the person from whom the asset was acquired shall cause the disposal to fall outside subsection (3) of that section (so that subsection (2) of that section is not excluded by it) whether or not the person making the disposal makes such an election.
- (3) Where the person from whom the asset was acquired by the person making the disposal himself acquired it on or after 6th April 1988 in circumstances in which either of the relevant enactments applied, an election made by him shall not have the effect described in sub-paragraph (2)(b) above but an election made by—
- (a) the last person by whom the asset was acquired after 5th April 1988 otherwise than in such circumstances, or
 - (b) if there is no such person, the person who held the asset on 5th April 1988, shall have that effect.

Part disposals

- 4 Where, in relation to a disposal to which section 96(2) of this Act applies, section 35 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 has effect by reason of an earlier disposal made after 31st March 1982 and before 6th April 1988, the sums to be apportioned under section 35 shall for the purposes of the later disposal be ascertained on the assumption stated in section 96(2) of this Act.

Assets derived from other assets

- 5 Section 96 of this Act shall have effect with the necessary modifications in relation to a disposal of an asset which on 31st March 1982 was not itself held by the person making the disposal, if its value is derived from another asset of which account is to be taken in relation to the disposal under section 36 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- 6 In relation to disposals to which section 96(2) of this Act applies, section 280 of the Taxes Act 1970 (depreciatory transactions effected on or after 6th April 1965) shall have effect with the substitution in subsections (1) and (5) of the words “31st March 1982” for the words “6th April 1965”.

- 8 In relation to disposals on or after 6th April 1988, section 102(4) of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (reduced relief where house is not principal residence throughout ownership since 6th April 1965) shall have effect with the substitution of the words “31st March 1982” for the words “6th April 1965”.

Replacement of business assets

- 9 In relation to disposals on or after 6th April 1988, section 115 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (under which relief is reduced where assets are used for differing purposes during the period of ownership) shall have effect with the insertion after subsection (7) of the following subsection—

Apportionment of pre-1965 gains and losses

- 10 In a case where because of paragraph 11 of Schedule 5 to the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (which apportions gains and losses partly attributable to ownership before 6th April 1965) only part of a gain or loss is a chargeable gain or allowable loss, subsection (3)(a) and (b) of section 96 of this Act shall have effect as if the amount of the gain or loss that would accrue if subsection (2) did not apply were equal to that part.

Indexation allowance

- 11 In relation to disposals on or after 6th April 1988, section 68 of the Finance Act 1985 shall have effect with the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection—

- (3) Where the person making the disposal acquired the asset on a no gain/no loss disposal, the references in sub-paragraph (2) above to that person are references to the person making the disposal, the person who last acquired the asset otherwise than on a no gain/no loss disposal or any person who subsequently acquired the asset on such a disposal.

- (a) during that period the company makes a disposal to which section 96 of this Act applies, and
 - (b) the period during which an election under subsection (5) of that section could be made expires without such an election having been made.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (2) above shall apply in relation to a company notwithstanding that the company ceases to be a member of the group at any time after the relevant time except where—
- (a) the company is an outgoing company in relation to the group, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) the election relating to the group is made after the company ceases to be a member of the group.

 - (b) after making any deductions provided for by section 4(1) of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 in respect of disposals of the settled property there remains an amount on which the trustees would, disregarding section 5 (annual exemption) of that Act (and apart from this Schedule), be chargeable to tax for the year in respect of those gains, and
 - (c) at any time during the year the settlor has an interest in the settlement.
- (2) Where this paragraph applies, the trustees shall not be chargeable to tax in respect of the gains concerned but instead chargeable gains of an amount equal to that referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(b) above shall be treated as accruing to the settlor in the year.

sub-paragraphs (4) and (5) below shall have effect for ascertaining for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above the amount of tax chargeable for the year in respect of gains treated as accruing by virtue of paragraph 1 above.

- (4) Those gains shall be regarded as having been taxed at a rate equivalent to the higher rate of income tax so far as their amount does not exceed the amount (or the aggregate of the amounts) on which tax was charged as mentioned in sub-paragraph (3)(c) above, and otherwise as having been taxed at a rate equivalent to the basic rate of income tax.

- (5) In a case where—

- (a) section 99(3) applies, and
- (b) the chargeable amounts of both husband and wife include gains treated as accruing by virtue of paragraph 1 above, the extent to which the gains treated as accruing to the husband and the gains treated as accruing to the wife are regarded as having been taxed at a rate equivalent to the higher rate of income tax shall be proportionate to the amounts of those gains.

- there shall be no indexation allowance on the disposal.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, where—
- (a) there is a disposal by a company of a debt on a security owed by another company which is not a linked company debt on a security, and
 - (b) the two companies are linked companies immediately before the disposal,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

(3) Where—

- (a) there is a disposal by a company of a debt on a security owed by another company,
- (b) the debt constituted or formed part of the new holding received by the company making the disposal on a reorganisation, and
- (c) sub-paragraph (1) or (2) above would apply in relation to the disposal but for this sub-paragraph, neither of those sub-paragraphs shall apply in relation to the disposal, but any indexation allowance which, apart from this sub-paragraph, would be due on the disposal shall be reduced by such amount as appears to the inspector, or on appeal the Commissioners concerned, to be just and reasonable.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph a debt on a security owed by a company is a linked company debt on a security where immediately after its acquisition by the company making the disposal the two companies were linked companies.

if the two companies are linked companies immediately before the disposal.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) Where this paragraph applies, any indexation allowance which, apart from this paragraph, would be due on the disposal shall be reduced by such amount as appears to the inspector, or on appeal the Commissioners concerned, to be just and reasonable.

SCHEDULE 12

Section 145.

BUILDING SOCIETIES: CHANGE OF STATUS

Introductory

- 1 Paragraphs 2 to 7 below apply where there is a transfer of the whole of a building society's business to a company ("the successor company") in accordance with section 97 and the other applicable provisions of the Building Societies Act 1986.

Gilt-edged securities and other financial trading stock

- 2 (1) For the purposes of section 100(1) of the Taxes Act 1988 (valuation of trading stock on discontinuance of trade) the society's financial trading stock shall be valued at an amount equal to its cost to the society.
- (2) In computing for any corporation tax purpose the profits or gains of a trade carried on by the successor company, such of the assets comprised in the transfer as constituted the society's financial trading stock shall be regarded as acquired by the company at their cost to the society.
- (3) In this paragraph "financial trading stock", in relation to a building society, means such of the assets held by the society by virtue of regulations under section 21(7) of the Building Societies Act 1986 (liquid assets etc.) as constitute trading stock for the purposes of section 100 of the Taxes Act 1988.

Capital allowances

- 3 (1) For the purposes of the allowances and charges provided for by the Capital Allowances Act 1968 and by Part III of the Finance Act 1971 (capital allowances) the trade of the society shall not be treated as permanently discontinued and the trade of the successor company shall not be treated as a new trade set up and commenced by the successor company.
- (2) There shall be made to or on the successor company in accordance with those Acts all such allowances and charges as would, if the society had continued to carry on the trade, have fallen to be made to or on it, and the amount of any such allowance or charge shall be computed as if the successor company had been carrying on the trade since the society began to do so and as if everything done to or by the society had been done to or by the successor company.
- (3) No transfer of assets from the society to the successor company effected by section 97 of the Building Societies Act 1986 shall be treated as giving rise to any such allowance or charge.

Capital gains: assets acquired from society, etc.

- 4 (1) Where the society and the successor company are not members of the same group at the time of the transfer—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) they shall be treated for the purposes of corporation tax on capital gains as if any asset disposed of as part of the transfer were acquired by the successor company for a consideration of such amount as would secure that on the disposal neither a gain nor a loss would accrue to the society, and
 - (b) if because of the transfer any company ceases to be a member of the same group as the society, that event shall not cause section 278 of the Taxes Act 1970 (which treats a company ceasing to be a member of a group as having sold and reacquired at the time of acquisition assets acquired from another member of the group) to have effect as respects any asset acquired by the company from the society or any other member of the same group.
- (2) Where the society and the successor company are members of the same group at the time of the transfer but later cease to be so, that later event shall not cause section 278 to have effect as respects—
 - (a) any asset acquired by the successor company on or before the transfer from the society or any other member of the same group, or
 - (b) any asset acquired from the society or any other member of the same group by any company other than the successor company which is a member of the same group at the time of the transfer.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (5) below, where a company which is a member of the same group as the society at the time of the transfer—
 - (a) ceases to be a member of that group and becomes a member of the same group as the successor company, and
 - (b) subsequently ceases to be a member of that group,section 278 shall have effect on that later event as respects any relevant asset acquired by the company otherwise than from the successor company as if it had been acquired from the successor company.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3) above “relevant asset” means any asset acquired by the company—
 - (a) from the society, or
 - (b) from any other company which is a member of the same group at the time of the transfer,when the company and the society, or the company, the society and the other company, were members of the same group.
- (5) Sub-paragraph (3) above shall not apply if the company which acquired the asset and the company from which it was acquired (one being a 75 per cent. subsidiary of the other) cease simultaneously to be members of the same group as the successor company but continue to be members of the same group as one another.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph “group” shall be construed in accordance with section 272 of the Taxes Act 1970.

Capital gains: shares, and rights to shares, in successor company

- 5 (1) Where, in connection with the transfer, there are conferred on members of the society—
- (a) any rights to acquire shares in the successor company in priority to other persons, or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) any rights to acquire shares in that company for consideration of an amount or value lower than the market value of the shares, or
 - (c) any rights to free shares in that company, any such right so conferred on a member shall be regarded for the purposes of capital gains tax as an option (within the meaning of section 137 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979) granted to, and acquired by, him for no consideration and having no value at the time of that grant and acquisition.

- (2) Where, in connection with the transfer, shares in the successor company are issued by that company, or disposed of by the society, to a member of the society, those shares shall be regarded for the purposes of capital gains tax—
 - (a) as acquired by the member for a consideration of an amount or value equal to the amount or value of any new consideration given by him for the shares (or, if no new consideration is given, as acquired for no consideration); and
 - (b) as having, at the time of their acquisition by the member, a value equal to the amount or value of the new consideration so given (or, if no new consideration is given, as having no value);

but this sub-paragraph is without prejudice to the operation of sub-paragraph (1) above, where applicable.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (4) below applies in any case where—
 - (a) in connection with the transfer, shares in the successor company are issued by that company, or disposed of by the society, to trustees on terms which provide for the transfer of those shares to members of the society for no new consideration; and
 - (b) the circumstances are such that in the hands of the trustees the shares constitute settled property, within the meaning of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979.
- (4) Where this sub-paragraph applies, then, for the purposes of capital gains tax—
 - (a) the shares shall be regarded as acquired by the trustees for no consideration;
 - (b) the interest of any member in the settled property constituted by the shares shall be regarded as acquired by him for no consideration and as having no value at the time of its acquisition;
 - (c) where a member becomes absolutely entitled as against the trustees to any of the settled property, both the trustees and the member shall be treated as if, on his becoming so entitled, the shares in question had been disposed of and immediately reacquired by the trustees, in their capacity as trustees within section 46(1) of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979, for a consideration of such an amount as would secure that on the disposal neither a gain nor a loss would accrue to the trustees (and accordingly section 54 of that Act shall not apply in relation to that occasion); and
 - (d) on the disposal by a member of an interest in the settled property, other than the disposal treated as occurring for the purposes of paragraph (c) above, any gain accruing shall be a chargeable gain (and accordingly section 58(1) of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 shall not apply in relation to the disposal).
- (5) Where, in connection with the transfer, the society disposes of any shares in the successor company, then, for the purposes of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979, any gains arising on the disposal shall not be chargeable gains.
- (6) In this paragraph—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

“free shares”, in relation to a member of the society, means any shares issued by the successor company, or disposed of by the society, to that member in connection with the transfer but for no new consideration;

“member”, in relation to the society, means a person who is or has been a member of it, in that capacity, and any reference to a member includes a reference to a member of any particular class or description;

“new consideration” means consideration other than—

- (a) consideration provided directly or indirectly out of the assets of the society; or
- (b) consideration derived from a member’s shares or other rights in the society.

- (7) References in this paragraph to the case where a member becomes absolutely entitled to settled property as against the trustees shall be taken to include references to the case where he would become so entitled but for being an infant or otherwise under disability.

Distributions

- 6 (1) Where, in connection with the transfer, qualifying benefits are conferred by the society or the successor company on members of the society, the conferring of those benefits shall not be regarded as either—
- (a) the making of a distribution, within the meaning of the Corporation Tax Acts; or
 - (b) the payment or crediting of a dividend for the purposes of section 476 of the Taxes Act 1988 or any regulations under that section (building society interest etc.).
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above does not preclude any qualifying benefit (and, in particular, any qualifying benefit which in the hands of the recipient would, apart from that sub-paragraph, constitute income for the purposes of income tax) from being a capital distribution for the purposes of section 72 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979, and in that section “distribution” shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) In this paragraph “qualifying benefits” means—
- (a) any such rights as are mentioned in paragraph 5(1)(a), (b) or (c) above, and any property obtained by the exercise of those rights;
 - (b) any shares issued or disposed of as mentioned in paragraph 5(2) above;
 - (c) any shares issued or disposed of, or to which a member becomes entitled, as mentioned in paragraph 5(3) or (4) above, and any interest in the settled property constituted by those shares;
 - (d) any payment in lieu of a qualifying benefit falling within paragraphs (a) to (c) above;
 - (e) any distribution made in pursuance of section 100(2)(b) of the Building Societies Act 1986.
- (4) “Member” has the same meaning in this paragraph as in paragraph 5 above.

Contractual savings schemes

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) section 326 of the Taxes Act 1988 (certain sums to be disregarded for income tax purposes), and
- (b) section 149B(4) of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 (corresponding provision for capital gains tax purposes), shall have effect in relation to any terminal bonus, or interest or other sum, payable after the transfer under a savings scheme which immediately before the transfer was a certified contractual savings scheme (within the meaning of section 326) in relation to the society notwithstanding that it ceased to be such a scheme by reason of the transfer.

Stamp duty

- 8 Section 109 of the Building Societies Act 1986 (exemption from stamp duty) shall be renumbered as subsection (1) of that section and after that provision as so renumbered there shall be inserted—

“(2) No transfer effected by subsection (6) or (7) of section 97 shall give rise to any liability to stamp duty.”
