- (2) Where a person is given a notice under this section in respect of an offence under section 144A of this Act—
 - (a) no proceedings may be instituted for that offence before the end of the period of 21 days following the date of the notice, and
 - (b) he may not be convicted of that offence if he pays the fixed penalty before the end of that period.
- (3) A notice under this section must give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the offence.
- (4) A notice under this section must also state—
 - (a) the period during which, by virtue of subsection (2) above, proceedings will not be taken for the offence,
 - (b) the amount of the fixed penalty, and
 - (c) the person to whom and the address at which the fixed penalty may be paid.
- (5) Without prejudice to payment by any other method, payment of the fixed penalty may be made by pre-paying and posting a letter containing the amount of the penalty (in cash or otherwise) to the person mentioned in subsection (4)(c) above at the address so mentioned.
- (6) Where a letter is sent in accordance with subsection (5) above payment is to be regarded as having been made at the time at which that letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

147 Issue ^{F52} ... of certificates of insurance ^{F53}

(1) [^{F54}An insurer issuing a policy of insurance for the purposes of this Part of this Act must deliver] to the person by whom the policy is effected a certificate (in this Part of this Act referred to as a “certificate of insurance”) in the prescribed form and containing such particulars of any conditions subject to which the policy is issued and of any other matters as may be prescribed.

[^{F55}(1A) A certificate of insurance is to be treated for the purposes of [^{F56}subsection (1) as having been delivered] to the person by whom the policy is effected if—

- (a) it is transmitted electronically by the insurer to the person in accordance with subsection (1B) below, or
- (b) it is made available by the insurer to the person on a website in accordance with subsection (1C) below.

(1B) A certificate is transmitted electronically by an insurer to a person in accordance with this subsection if—

- (a) on effecting the policy to which the certificate relates, the person agreed to its electronic transmission for the purposes of subsection (1) above, and
- (b) the certificate is transmitted by the insurer to an electronic address specified by the person for this purpose.

(1C) A certificate is made available by an insurer to a person on a website in accordance with this subsection if—

- (a) on effecting the policy to which the certificate relates, the person agreed to its being made available on a website for the purposes of subsection (1) above,
- (b) the insurer makes the certificate available to the person by placing an electronic copy of it on a website, and 149 Avoidance of certain agreements as to liability towards passengers.

- (1) This section applies where a person uses a motor vehicle in circumstances such that under section 143 of this Act there is required to be in force in relation to his use of it such a policy of insurance ^{F77}... as complies with the requirements of this Part of this Act.
- (2) If any other person is carried in or upon the vehicle while the user is so using it, any antecedent agreement or understanding between them (whether intended to be legally binding or not) shall be of no effect so far as it purports or might be held—
 - (a) to negative or restrict any such liability of the user in respect of persons carried in or upon the vehicle as is required by section 145 of this Act to be covered by a policy of insurance, or
 - (b) to impose any conditions with respect to the enforcement of any such liability of the user.
- (3) The fact that a person so carried has willingly accepted as his the risk of negligence on the part of the user shall not be treated as negating any such liability of the user.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) references to a person being carried in or upon a vehicle include references to a person entering or getting on to, or alighting from, the vehicle, and
 - (b) the reference to an antecedent agreement is to one made at any time before the liability arose.

151 Duty of insurers^{F83} ... to satisfy judgment against persons insured^{F84}

- (1) This section applies where, after [^{F85}a policy [^{F86}is issued] for the purposes of this Part of this Act,] a judgment to which this subsection applies is obtained.
- (2) Subsection (1) above applies to judgments relating to a liability with respect to any matter where liability with respect to that matter is required to be covered by a policy of insurance under section 145 of this Act and either—
 - (a) it is a liability covered by the terms of the policy^{F87} ...^{F88} ... , and the judgment is obtained against any person who is insured by the policy^{F89} ... , or
 - (b) it is a liability, other than an excluded liability, which would be so covered if the policy insured all persons^{F90} ... and the judgment is obtained against any person other than one who is insured by the policy^{F91}
- (3) In deciding for the purposes of subsection (2) above whether a liability is or would be covered by the terms of a policy^{F92} ... , so much of the policy^{F92} ... as purports to restrict^{F93} ... the insurance of the persons insured by the policy^{F94} ... by reference to the holding by the driver of the vehicle of a licence authorising him to drive it shall be treated as of no effect.
- (4) In subsection (2)(b) above “excluded liability” means a liability in respect of the death of, or bodily injury to, or damage to the property of any person who, at the time of the use which gave rise to the liability, was allowing himself to be carried in or upon the vehicle and knew or had reason to believe that the vehicle had been stolen or unlawfully taken, not being a person who—
 - (a) did not know and had no reason to believe that the vehicle had been stolen or unlawfully taken until after the commencement of his journey, and
 - (b) could not reasonably have been expected to have alighted from the vehicle.

In this subsection the reference to a person being carried in or upon a vehicle includes a reference to a person entering or getting on to, or alighting from, the vehicle.

- (5) Notwithstanding that the insurer may be entitled to avoid or cancel, or may have avoided or cancelled, the policy^{F95} ... , he must, subject to the provisions of this section, pay to the persons entitled to the benefit of the judgment—
 - (a) as regards liability in respect of death or bodily injury, any sum payable under the judgment in respect of the liability, together with any sum which, by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments, is payable in respect of interest on that sum,
 - (b) as regards liability in respect of damage to property, any sum required to be paid under subsection (6) below, and
 - (c) any amount payable in respect of costs.
- (6) This subsection requires—
 - (a) where the total of any amounts paid, payable or likely to be payable under the policy^{F96} ... in respect of damage to property caused by, or arising out of, the accident in question does not exceed [^{F97}£1,200,000], the payment of any sum payable under the judgment in respect of the liability, together with any sum which, by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments, is payable in respect of interest on that sum,
 - (b) where that total exceeds [^{F97}£1,200,000], the payment of either—
 - (i) such proportion of any sum payable under the judgment in respect of the liability as [^{F97}£1,200,000] bears to that total, together with the same proportion of any sum which, by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments, is payable in respect of interest on that sum, or

- (ii) the difference between the total of any amounts already paid under the policy ^{F96}... in respect of such damage and [^{F97}£1,200,000], together with such proportion of any sum which, by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments, is payable in respect of interest on any sum payable under the judgment in respect of the liability as the difference bears to that sum, whichever is the less, unless not less than [^{F97}£1,200,000] has already been paid under the policy ^{F96}... in respect of such damage (in which case nothing is payable).

- (7) Where an insurer becomes liable under this section to pay an amount in respect of a liability of a person who is insured by a policy ^{F98}... , he is entitled to recover from that person—
- (a) that amount, in a case where he became liable to pay it by virtue only of subsection (3) above, or
 - (b) in a case where that amount exceeds the amount for which he would, apart from the provisions of this section, be liable under the policy ^{F99}... in respect of that liability, the excess.
- (8) Where an insurer becomes liable under this section to pay an amount in respect of a liability of a person who is not insured by a policy ^{F100}... , he is entitled to recover the amount from that person or from any person who—
- (a) is insured by the policy ^{F101}... by the terms of which the liability would be covered if the policy insured all persons ^{F102}... , and
 - (b) caused or permitted the use of the vehicle which gave rise to the liability.
- (9) In this section—
- ^{F103}(a)
 - ^{F104}(b)
 - (c) “term-liability-covered-by-the-terms-of-the-policy-or-securityliability covered by the terms of the policy ^{F105}...” means a liability which is covered by the policy ^{F105}... or which would be so covered but for the fact that the insurer is entitled to avoid or cancel, or has avoided or cancelled, the policy ^{F105}... .
- (10) In the application of this section to Scotland, the words “by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments” in subsections (5) and (6) (in each place where they appear) shall be omitted.

160 Regulations.

(1) The Secretary of State may make regulations for any purpose for which regulations may be made under this Part of this Act and for prescribing anything which may be prescribed under this Part of this Act and generally for the purpose of carrying this Part of this Act into effect.

In this Part of this Act “regulations” means regulations under this section and “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations.

(2) In particular, but without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, the regulations may make provision—

- (a) as to forms to be used for the purposes of this Part of this Act,
- (b) as to applications for and the issue of certificates of insurance ^{F147}... and any other documents which may be prescribed, and as to the keeping of records ^{F148} . . . and the providing of particulars of them or the giving of information with respect to them to the Secretary of State or a chief officer of police,
- (c) as to the issue of copies of any such certificates or other documents which are lost or destroyed,
- (d) as to the custody, production, cancellation and surrender of any such certificates or other documents, ^{F149} . . .

[^{F150}(da) for or in connection with the transmission or making available of certificates of insurance as described in section 147(1A)(a) or (b) of this Act, and]

- (e) for providing that any provisions of this Part of this Act shall, in relation to vehicles brought into Great Britain by persons making only a temporary stay in Great Britain, have effect subject to such modifications and adaptations as may be prescribed.
