PART III

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Miscellaneous

68 Technology academies.

- (1) The Secretary of State may enter into an agreement with any person under which—
 - (a) that person undertakes to establish and maintain, and to carry on, or provide for the carrying on of, an independent school, to be known as a “technology academy”, having such characteristics as are specified in the agreement and in subsection (2) below; and
 - (b) the Secretary of State agrees to make payments to that person in consideration of those undertakings.
- (2) The characteristics mentioned above are that the school—
 - (a) provides secondary education; and
 - (b) has a broad curriculum with an emphasis on science and technology.
- (3) An agreement under this section shall make any payments by the Secretary of State dependent on the fulfilment of—
 - (a) conditions and requirements imposed for the purpose of securing that no fees are payable in respect of school education provided at the school; and

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Self-Governing Schools etc. (Scotland) Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) such other conditions and requirements with respect to the school as are specified in the agreement.
- (4) Payments under an agreement under this section may be in respect of capital or current expenditure and, in so far as they relate to the latter, the agreement shall provide for their continuance, subject to the fulfilment of the conditions and requirements mentioned in subsection (3) above, for a period of not less than seven years or for an indefinite period terminable by the Secretary of State by not less than seven years written notice.
- (5) Where such payments relate to capital expenditure, the agreement shall provide for the repayment to the Secretary of State, in the event at any time of the school being discontinued or ceasing to have the characteristics specified in the agreement and in subsection (2) above, of sums determined by reference to—
 - (a) the value at that time of the school premises and other assets held for the purposes of the school; and
 - (b) the extent to which expenditure incurred in providing those assets was met by payments under the agreement.
- (6) Without prejudice to subsection (4) above, an agreement under this section may provide for indemnifying a person, in the event of the agreement being terminated by the Secretary of State, for expenditure—
 - (a) incurred by that person in carrying out the undertaking mentioned in subsection (1) above; or
 - (b) incurred by that person (otherwise than by virtue of subsection (5) above) in consequence of the termination of the agreement.
- (7) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that a person intends to enter into an agreement with him under this section as respects a technology academy he may, in advance of such agreement, and subject to such conditions and requirements as he considers appropriate, make payments to that or any other person in respect of expenditure incurred, or to be incurred, in establishing the academy.

69 Testing in primary schools.

- (1) At the end of section 2 of the 1980 Act (power of Secretary of State to prescribe standards etc. for education authorities) there shall be added the words “and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such regulations may include provision as to the testing of pupils in primary schools.”.

 - [^{F18}(d) the boards of management of colleges of further education within the meaning of Part I of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992,]
 (in this section referred to as the “employers”) to secure that the performance of members of their teaching staff in carrying out their duties is regularly appraised in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed.
- (2) Regulations under this section may require the employers to make schemes for the appraisal of the performance of such members of their teaching staff as may be prescribed; and different schemes may be required to be made in respect of different classes of teachers or of teachers in different establishments.
 - (3) Subject to regulations made under this section, an employer may at any time vary or replace a scheme made in accordance with those regulations and, if such regulations so require, he shall—
 - (a) before making, varying or replacing any such scheme, consult any body representing teaching staff who are to be affected by the scheme as proposed to be made, varied or replaced;
 - (b) before proceeding with appraisal under any such scheme as so made, varied or replaced, submit it to the Secretary of State.
 - (4) When a scheme is submitted to him under subsection (3) above, the Secretary of State may—
 - (a) approve it; or
 - (b) after consulting the employer concerned, amend it; or
 - (c) reject it, and require the employer to prepare and submit a fresh scheme.
 - (5) Before making regulations under this section the Secretary of State shall consult—
 - (a) such bodies representing education authorities or teaching staff as appear to him to be concerned; and
 - (b) any other persons with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable.
 - (6) With effect from such date as may be prescribed—
 - (a) there shall be deemed to be incorporated into the contract of employment of each member of the employers’ teaching staff a provision requiring such a member to participate in any arrangements for the appraisal of staff made in accordance with regulations made under this section; and
 - (b) that contract shall have effect only in so far as consistent with that provision.

71 Placing of recorded and other children and young persons in schools outwith Scotland etc.

(1) In section 28A of the 1980 Act, as substituted by Schedule A2 to that Act (placing requests in respect of recorded children and young persons)—

(a) in subsection (1)—

(i) the words “a special school the managers of which are willing to admit the child” shall be paragraph (a) of the subsection; and

(ii) after that paragraph there shall be inserted the following paragraph—

“(b) a school in England and Wales or in Northern Ireland, the managers of which are willing to admit the child and which is a school making provision wholly or mainly for children (or as the case may be young persons) with pronounced, specific or complex special educational needs;”;

(b) in subsection (2)—

(i) for the words “special schools (other than public schools)” there shall be substituted the words “schools mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) above”; and

(ii) for the words “subsection (1) above” there shall be substituted the words “that subsection”; and

(c) in subsection (3)—

(i) in paragraph (d), for the words “special school” there shall be substituted the words “school mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) above”; and

(ii) in paragraph (f), for sub-paragraph (ii) there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraphs—

“(ii) the authority are able to make provision for the special educational needs of the child in a school under their management;

(iia) it is not reasonable, having regard both to the respective suitability and to the respective cost (including necessary incidental expenses) of the provision for the special educational needs of the child in the specified school and in the school under the authority’s management, to place the child in the specified school; and”;

(iii) for the words “to (f)” there shall be substituted the words “to (e)”.

(2) In Part II of the 1980 Act, the following section shall be inserted after section 65F—

“65G Attendance of certain children and young persons with special educational needs at establishments outwith United Kingdom.

(1) Without prejudice to sections 49 (power of educational authorities to assist persons to take advantage of educational facilities) and 50 (education of pupils in exceptional circumstances) of this Act, an education authority shall have power to make such arrangements as they think fit to enable a child or young person to whom subsection (2) below applies to attend an establishment (whether or not a school) outwith the United Kingdom if that establishment makes provision wholly or mainly for persons with pronounced, specific or complex special educational needs.

- (2) This subsection applies to a child or young person if he has such needs as are mentioned in subsection (1) above whether or not a record of those needs is kept in respect of him under section 60 of this Act.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, the arrangements mentioned in that subsection may include defraying, whether wholly or partly—
 - (a) the fees payable for the child’s or young person’s attendance and his travelling, maintenance and other expenses in respect of that attendance; and
 - (b) where in the opinion of the authority it would be to the advantage of the child or young person were one (or both) of his parents, or some other person, to be present with him at the establishment during the period of the attendance, such expenses of, as the case may be, the parent, parents or other person.”.

72 Further amendment of 1980 Act in respect of recorded children.

- (1) In section 60(2) of the 1980 Act (powers and duties of education authority as regards children and young persons with special educational needs)—
 - (a) in paragraph (a)(i), after the word “age” there shall be added the words “ and are not children in respect of whom the authority is under a duty by virtue of sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) below ”;
 - (b) in paragraph (b), the words “are of school age” shall be sub-paragraph (i) and after that sub-paragraph there shall be added the word “ ; or ” and the following sub-paragraph—
 - “(ii) have not attained school age but, being at least two years of age, have come to the attention of the authority as having, or appearing to have, special educational needs.”.
- (2) In section 61(1) of that Act (examination and assessment of children and young persons), in paragraph (b), for the words “who is of school age” there shall be substituted the words “ in respect of whom the authority is under a duty under section 60(2) of this Act ”.
- (3) In section 62(3) of that Act (duty to ensure provision made for recorded special educational needs), at the end there shall be added the words “ ; and they shall in any event, as regards each such child belonging to their area as is mentioned in section 60(2)(b)(ii) of this Act, make provision for any special educational needs recorded in respect of the child which are not being met by other suitable arrangements ”.

73 Educational services: extension of power of Secretary of State to make grants.

In section 73(d) of the 1980 Act (power of Secretary of State to make grants to persons providing education or educational services other than education authorities, universities and managers of educational establishments)—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Self-Governing Schools etc. (Scotland) Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the word “for” shall be inserted before the words “ providing education or educational services ” and shall with those words constitute sub-paragraph (i); and
- (b) after that sub-paragraph there shall be inserted the word “ or ” and the following sub-paragraph—
 - “(ii) in respect of expenditure incurred or to be incurred by them for the purposes of, or in connection with the provision (or proposed provision) of, education or educational services.”.

74 Appointment of teachers.

After section 87 of the 1980 Act there shall be inserted the following sections—

“87A Appointment of principal teachers.

Where an education authority intend to fill a post, other than on an acting basis, of a principal teacher in a school, they shall advertise the post in such publications circulating throughout Scotland as they consider appropriate.

87B Selection of teachers.

Without prejudice to section 7 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (which provides for the appointment of staff of local authorities to be made on merit) and to any requirement in any other enactment as to the considerations to which they may or may not have regard in making appointments, an education authority who are considering an appointment of a teacher shall not exclude any person from consideration for such an appointment on the ground that—

- (a) he is not employed by that education authority; or
- (b) he is or is not employed by a particular employer or class of employer; or
- (c) he is not currently employed as a teacher.”.

75 Dismissal of teachers.

Section 88 of the 1980 Act (which makes provision as to the procedure to be carried out by an education authority in dismissing certain registered teachers) shall cease to have effect.

^{F19}76 Remuneration of certain persons employed in providing school education.
