

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS

Report of conclusions

- 5 (1) Where the Tribunal determine under paragraph 2 or 3 above that the Service did not have reasonable grounds for the decision or belief in question, they shall—
- (a) give notice to the complainant that they have made a determination in his favour under that paragraph; and
 - (b) make a report of their findings to the Secretary of State and to the Commissioner.
- (2) The Tribunal shall also give notice to the complainant of any determination in his favour by the Commissioner under paragraph 4 above.
- (3) Where in the case of any complaint no such determination as is mentioned in subparagraph (1) or (2) above is made by the Tribunal or the Commissioner the Tribunal shall give notice to the complainant that no determination in his favour has been made on his complaint.