Recovery of expenses by Health and Safety Executive

2 Recovery of expenses by Health and Safety Executive.

- (1) The following section shall be inserted after section 24 of the ^{M2} Nuclear Installations Act 1965—

“24A Recovery of expenses by Health and Safety Executive.

- (1) This section applies to any expenses incurred by the Health and Safety Executive (“the Executive”) and any expenses incurred by the Health and Safety Commission (“the Commission”) which, in either case, the Executive may determine to be incurred wholly or partly in connection with—
- (a) the carrying into effect of such of the provisions of this Act as are mentioned in Schedule 1 to the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974; or
 - (b) the carrying out of research into nuclear safety at the direction of the Commission.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of this section, the reference in that subsection to expenses incurred by the Executive includes any sums paid by it by way of remuneration, allowances or other payments to inspectors appointed under the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.
- (3) In such cases and to such extent as it may appear to the Executive appropriate to do so, the Executive shall require a person who has applied for a nuclear site licence to repay to it so much of any expenses to which this section applies as may appear to it to be attributable to dealing with the application.
- (4) In such cases and to such extent as it may appear to the Executive to be appropriate to do so, the Executive shall require a person to whom a nuclear site licence has been granted to repay to it—
- (a) so much of any expenses to which this section applies as may appear to it to be attributable to any nuclear installation in respect of which the licence has been granted; and
 - (b) so much of any expenses to which this section applies which are not otherwise recoverable under this section as it thinks fit.
- (5) A person shall comply with any requirement made of him under this section.
- (6) Any liability of a person in respect of sums payable by him under this section on account of pensions shall, if the Executive so determines, be satisfied by way of contributions calculated, at such rate as may be determined by the Treasury, by reference to remuneration.
- (7) Where the Executive anticipates that a person who has applied for or has been granted a nuclear site licence will become subject to a liability under this section, it may require him to make to it a payment or payments on account of the liability.
- (8) Where a person has made a payment under subsection (7) of this section on account of an anticipated liability, then—
- (a) if he does not become subject to the liability, the Executive shall be liable to repay the payment to him; and

- (b) if the amount of the liability to which he becomes subject is less than the amount paid under that subsection, the Executive shall be liable to repay the difference to him.”
- (2) Subject^{M3} to subsection (3) below, section 24A(3) of the Nuclear Installations Act 1965 applies to an application made, and to expenses incurred, before the commencement of this section as well as to an application made, and to expenses incurred, after the commencement of this section.
- (3) That subsection does not apply to an application disposed of before the commencement of this section.
- (4) Where an application to which that subsection applies is made before the commencement of this section and is disposed of after the commencement of this section without a licence being granted, the Health and Safety Executive (or, in Northern Ireland, the Department of Economic Development) shall repay to the applicant any payment made under that subsection in respect of expenses attributable to dealing with the application which were incurred before the commencement of this section.
- (5) Section 24A(4) of the Nuclear Installations^{M4} Act 1965 applies to expenses incurred before as well as to expenses incurred after the commencement of this section, except in the case of expenses of the description mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of that section.

Amendment of sections 18 and 19 of the Nuclear Installations Act 1965

3 Nuclear installations : cover for compensation.

In section 18(1) of the Nuclear Installations Act 1965 (availability of public funds to meet claims for compensation not met from other sources), after paragraphs (a) and (b) (which specify the other sources) there shall be inserted—

“; and

- (c) in the case of an occurrence in respect of which the Authority incurs liability, with any amounts payable under a contract of insurance or other arrangements for satisfying claims in respect of that occurrence against the Authority.”

4 Effect of grant of new nuclear site licence to existing licensee.

- (1) In section 19 of the Nuclear Installations Act 1965 (duty of licensee to provide insurance or other cover)—
- (a) in subsection (2), for the words from “subject to subsection (2A)” to the end of paragraph (c) there shall be substituted the words “, subject to the following provisions of this section, the period of the licensee’s responsibility; ”; and
- (b) the following subsection shall be inserted after subsection (2A)—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Atomic Energy Act 1989. (See end of Document for details)

“(2B) The current cover period continues to run (and no new cover period begins) on the grant of a new nuclear site licence to the same licensee in respect of a site consisting of or including the site in respect of which his existing nuclear site licence is in force.”

- (2) The amendments made by this section shall be deemed always to have had effect.

Mutual Assistance Convention

5 Mutual Assistance Convention.

- (1) The Secretary of State—
- (a) may pay out of money provided by Parliament any expenses which he incurs in connection with assistance provided under the Convention; and
 - (b) shall pay into the Consolidated Fund any sums which he receives under the Convention by way of reimbursement of any expenses which he so incurs.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, the provisions of the Convention set out in the Schedule to this Act shall have the force of law in the United Kingdom and shall for that purpose be construed as granting any privilege or immunity which they require to be afforded.
- (3) At any time when a declaration under paragraph 9 of Article 8 of the Convention is in force, the provisions mentioned in subsection (2) above shall only have the force of law in the United Kingdom to the extent that the United Kingdom considers itself bound by them in accordance with the terms of the declaration.
- (4) Her Majesty may by Order in Council certify whether Her Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom has made or withdrawn a declaration under paragraph 9 of Article 8 of the Convention.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as granting any privilege or immunity to a person who is a United Kingdom national or permanently resident in the United Kingdom or prejudice any privilege or immunity afforded pursuant to any other international agreement or rule of customary international law.
- (6) If in any proceedings any question arises whether a person is or is not entitled to any privilege or immunity by virtue of this section, a certificate issued by or under the authority of the Secretary of State stating any fact relevant to that question shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- (7) If at any time Her Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom calls for assistance under paragraph 1 of Article 2 of the Convention, the Secretary of State shall take such steps as are necessary to make public the fact that a call for assistance has been made, the nature of the assistance called for and the reasons for making the call.
- (8) In this section—
- “the Convention” means the Convention on Assistance in the Case of a Nuclear Accident or Radiological Emergency done at Vienna on 26 September 1986;
- “United Kingdom national” means an individual who is a British citizen, a British Dependent Territories citizen, a British National (Overseas) or a British Overseas citizen.
