

Licensing (Low Alcohol Drinks) Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 21

2 Corresponding provision for Scotland

In the definition of “alcoholic liquor” in section 139(1) of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1976 (which contains the same exclusion) for the words from “on analysis of” to the words “1.2%” there shall be substituted the words “is of a strength not exceeding 0.5%”.
