

Horses (Protective Headgear for Young Riders) Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 25

An Act to secure the wearing of protective headgear by children while horse riding; to prescribe offences and penalties; and for connected purposes. [13th July 1990]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Causing or permitting child under 14 to ride on road without protective headgear.

- (1) Except as provided by regulations, it is an offence for any person to whom this subsection applies to cause or permit a child under the age of 14 years to ride a horse on a road unless the child is wearing protective headgear, of such description as may be specified in regulations, in such manner as may be so specified.
- (2) Subsection (1) above applies to the following persons—
 - (a) any person who—
 - (i) for the purposes of Part I of the ^{M1}Children and Young Persons Act 1933, has responsibility for the child; or
 - (ii) for the purposes of Part II of the ^{M2}Children and Young Persons (Scotland) Act 1937, has [^{F1}parental responsibilities (within the meaning given by section 1(3) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995) in relation to, or has], charge or care of the child;
 - (b) any owner of the horse;
 - (c) any person other than its owner who has custody of or is in possession of the horse immediately before the child rides it; and
 - (d) where the child is employed, his employer and any other person to whose orders the child is subject in the course of his employment.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Horses (Protective Headgear for Young Riders) Act 1990. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) above is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale.
- (4) Until the coming into force of paragraph 5 of Schedule 13 to the ^{M3}Children Act 1989, subsection (2)(a)(i) above shall have effect as if for “responsibility for the child” there were substituted “custody, charge or care of the child”.

3 Interpretation.

- (1) In this Act—
- “horse” includes pony, mule, donkey or other equine animal;
- “regulations” means regulations under section 2 of this Act; and
- “road” does not include a footpath or bridleway but, subject to that, has—
- in England and Wales the meaning given by section 192(1) of the ^{M4}Road Traffic Act 1988; and

- (b) in Scotland the meaning given by section 151(1) of the ^{M5}Roads (Scotland) Act 1984.
- (2) For the purposes of the definition of “road” in subsection (1) above—
- (a) “footpath” means a way—
- (i) over which the public have a right of way or, in Scotland, of passage on foot only; and
- (ii) which is not associated with a carriageway; and
- (b) “bridleway” means a way over which the public have the following, but no other, rights of way: a right of way on foot and a right of way on horseback or leading a horse, with or without a right to drive animals of any description along the way.
