(1A) The order may be made—

- (b) on the application of any creditor under a judgment obtained against the debtor; or
- (c) of the court’s own motion during the course of, or on the determination of, any enforcement or other proceedings.”

“112A Further powers of the court.

(1) Where the court is satisfied—

it may make such an order instead of making an administration order.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/08/2000. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (6) Rules of court may make provision with respect to the period for which any order restricting enforcement is to have effect and for the circumstances in which any such order may be revoked.

112B Administration orders with composition provisions.

- (1) Where the court is satisfied—
  - (a) that it has power to make an administration order with respect to the debtor concerned; and
  - (b) that the addition of a composition provision would be a more satisfactory way of dealing with the case, it may make an administration order subject to such a provision.
- (2) Where, at any time while an administration order is in force—
  - (a) the debtor has not discharged the debts to which that order relates; and
  - (b) the court considers that he is unlikely to be able to discharge them, the court may add a composition provision to that order.
- (3) A composition provision shall specify an amount to which the debtor’s total indebtedness in respect of debts owed to creditors scheduled to the administration order is to be reduced.
- (4) The amount of the debt owed to each of the creditors so scheduled shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction in his total indebtedness specified by the composition provision.

LEGAL SERVICES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C2 Pt. 2: transfer of functions (19.8.2003) by The Secretary of State for Constitutional Affairs Order 2003 \(S.I. 2003/1887\), arts. 4, 5, Sch. 1 (with arts. 6, 8)

Introductory

17 The statutory objective and the general principle.

- (1) The general objective of this Part is the development of legal services in England and Wales (and in particular the development of advocacy, litigation, conveyancing and probate services) by making provision for new or better ways of providing such services and a wider choice of persons providing them, while maintaining the proper and efficient administration of justice.
- (2) In this Act that objective is referred to as “the statutory objective”.
- (3) As a general principle the question whether a person should be granted a right of audience, or be granted a right to conduct litigation in relation to any court or proceedings, should be determined only by reference to—
  - (a) whether he is qualified in accordance with the educational and training requirements appropriate to the court or proceedings;
  - (b) whether he is a member of a professional or other body which—
    - (i) has rules of conduct (however described) governing the conduct of its members;
    - (ii) has an effective mechanism for enforcing the rules of conduct; and
    - (iii) is likely to enforce them;
  - (c) whether, in the case of a body whose members are or will be providing advocacy services, the rules of conduct make satisfactory provision in relation to the court or proceedings in question requiring any such member not to withhold those services—
    - (i) on the ground that the nature of the case is objectionable to him or to any section of the public;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/08/2000. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 January 2024. - (ii) on the ground that the conduct, opinions or beliefs of the prospective client are unacceptable to him or to any section of the public;
  - (iii) on any ground relating to the source of any financial support which may properly be given to the prospective client for the proceedings in question (for example, on the ground that such support will be available [<sup>F6</sup>as part of the Community Legal Service or Criminal Defence Service]); and
  - (d) whether the rules of conduct are, in relation to the court or proceedings, appropriate in the interests of the proper and efficient administration of justice.
- (4) In this Act that principle is referred to as “the general principle”.
- (5) Rules of conduct which allow a member of the body in question to withhold his services if there are reasonable grounds for him to consider that, having regard to—
- (a) the circumstances of the case;
  - (b) the nature of his practice; or
  - (c) his experience and standing,
- he is not being offered a proper fee, are not on that account to be taken as being incompatible with the general principle.

“PART IV

WIDOWERS’ PENSIONS

Members retiring between publication and commencement date

- 26 (1) A member who retires—
- (a) on or after the publication date; but
- (b) before the commencement date,
- may, before the end of the period of six months beginning with the commencement date, opt for her husband to be entitled to a widower’s pension on her death.
- (2) Regulations may make provision as to—
- (a) the manner and form in which an option under this paragraph is to be exercised;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/08/2000. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 January 2024. - (b) the payment, by any member exercising such an option, of a contribution towards the cost of liability for the widower’s pension; and
- (c) the annual value of a widower’s pension granted as a result of the exercise of the option given by this paragraph.

Service partly before and partly after the commencement date

- 27 (1) No widower’s pension shall be payable in respect of a member who—
- (a) holds judicial office on or before the commencement date; and
  - (b) continues to do so after that date,
- unless, before the end of the period of six months beginning with that date, she opts for her husband to be entitled to a widower’s pension on her death.
- (2) A member exercising such an option shall specify whether the annual value of the widower’s pension is to be calculated—
- (a) under sub-paragraph (3); or
  - (b) on the assumption that all her relevant service fell after the commencement date.
- (3) Where the annual value of a widower’s pension falls to be calculated under this sub-paragraph its value shall be determined by applying the formula—

$$WP1 = \frac{WP2 \times RS1}{RS2}$$

WP1 is the annual value of the widower’s pension,
WP2 is the annual value of the widower’s pension that would be payable on the assumption mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b), RS1 is the length of the member’s relevant service after the commencement date, and RS2 is the whole of her relevant service.

- (4) No period of service during which an election under section 14A is in force in respect of the member concerned shall be taken into account for the purposes of any calculation under sub-paragraph (3).
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph there shall be left out of account so much (if any) of the relevant service before the commencement date as does not add to the amount of the personal pension and accordingly this paragraph shall not apply if none of the relevant service before that date adds to the amount of the personal pension.

Pension not wholly attributable to service after 17 April 1973

- 28 (1) This paragraph applies to a member who, apart from this paragraph, would be a person to whom paragraph 15 or 16 of Part II of this Schedule applies.

- (3) For the purposes of calculating the annual value of—
- (a) the widower’s pension payable in respect of such a member; and

- 10 (1) A qualifying member may cancel the exercise of his option by giving the Treasury notice in writing that he no longer wishes it to be exercised.
- (2) No such notice shall have effect if it is given to the Treasury at a time when, in order to comply with the choice made by the qualifying member in exercising his option, the Treasury has entered into an agreement with a third party to use the whole or part of his cash equivalent in a way specified in paragraph 6(2)(a), (b), (c) or (d).
