

Education (Student Loans) Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 6

An Act to provide for the making to students in higher education of loans towards their maintenance. [26th April 1990]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Loans for students.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make arrangements for enabling eligible students to receive loans towards their maintenance out of money made available by him for that purpose.
- (2) For the purposes of this section eligible students are those who—
 - (a) are attending courses of higher education which are of at least one academic year's duration and either are at institutions receiving support from public funds or (being at other institutions) are designated for the purposes of this section by or under regulations made by the Secretary of State; and
 - (b) satisfy such other conditions as may be prescribed by regulations made by him.
- (3) In this section "courses of higher education" means courses of any description mentioned in Schedule 1 to this Act and "institutions receiving support from public funds" means—
 - (a) universities and other institutions receiving grants under section 131 or 132 of the ^{M1}Education Reform Act 1988, institutions maintained by local education authorities in exercise of their further and higher education functions, institutions designated by or under regulations made under section 218 of that Act as institutions substantially dependent for their maintenance on assistance from local education authorities and institutions receiving recurrent grants towards their costs under regulations made under section 100(1)(b) of the ^{M2}Education Act 1944;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Student Loans) Act 1990 (repealed 13.8.1998). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) colleges of further education (as defined in section 80(1) of the ^{M3}Self-Governing Schools etc. (Scotland) Act 1989 or which are managed by a company by virtue of section 65(1) of that Act) and grant-aided colleges within the meaning of section 77(5) of the ^{M4}Education (Scotland) Act 1980; and
 - (c) the Queen's University of Belfast, the University of Ulster, a college of education in Northern Ireland within the meaning of Article 2(2) of the ^{M5}Education and Libraries (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 and institutions providing in Northern Ireland further education as defined in Article 5(c) of that Order.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order amend Schedule 1 to this Act but before doing so shall consult any persons with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable.
- (5) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect in relation to arrangements made under this section.
- (6) The power to make orders under subsection (4) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument and no such order shall be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (7) The power to make regulations under this section or Schedule 2 to this Act shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which, subject to subsection (8) below and paragraph 1(2) of that Schedule, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament and any such regulations may make different provision for different cases.
- (8) A draft of the first regulations to be made under this section or Schedule 2 to this Act shall be laid before each House of Parliament and those regulations shall not be made unless the draft has been approved by a resolution of each House.
