

Town and Country Planning Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 8

PART X

HIGHWAYS

Orders by other authorities

257 Footpaths [^{F1}, bridleways and restricted byways] affected by development: orders by other authorities.

- (1) Subject to section 259, a competent authority may by order authorise the stopping up or diversion of any footpath [^{F2}, bridleway or restricted byway] if they are satisfied that it is necessary to do so in order to enable development to be carried out—
- (a) in accordance with planning permission granted under Part III [^{F3} or section 293A], or
 - (b) by a government department.

[^{F4}(1A) Subject to section 259, a competent authority may by order authorise the stopping up or diversion in England of any footpath, bridleway or restricted byway if they are satisfied that—

- (a) an application for planning permission in respect of development has been made under Part 3, and
 - (b) if the application were granted it would be necessary to authorise the stopping up or diversion in order to enable the development to be carried out.]
- (2) An order under this section may, if the competent authority are satisfied that it should do so, provide—
- (a) for the creation of an alternative highway for use as a replacement for the one authorised by the order to be stopped up or diverted, or for the improvement of an existing highway for such use;
 - (b) for authorising or requiring works to be carried out in relation to any footpath [^{F2}, bridleway or restricted byway] for whose stopping up or diversion, creation or improvement provision is made by the order;

Status: Point in time view as at 25/06/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Town and Country Planning Act 1990. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) for the preservation of any rights of statutory undertakers in respect of any apparatus of theirs which immediately before the date of the order is under, in, on, over, along or across any such footpath [^{F2}, bridleway or restricted byway];
 - (d) for requiring any person named in the order to pay, or make contributions in respect of, the cost of carrying out any such works.
- (3) An order may be made under this section authorising the stopping up or diversion of a footpath [^{F2}, bridleway or restricted byway] which is temporarily stopped up or diverted under any other enactment.
- (4) In this section “competent authority” means—
- (a) in the case of development authorised by a planning permission, the local planning authority who granted the permission or, in the case of a permission granted by the Secretary of State, who would have had power to grant it; ^{F5}...
 - (b) in the case of development carried out by a government department, the local planning authority who would have had power to grant planning permission on an application in respect of the development in question if such an application had fallen to be made.
 - [^{F6}(c) in the case of development in respect of which an application for planning permission has been made under Part 3, the local planning authority to whom the application has been made or, in the case of an application made to the Secretary of State under section 62A, the local planning authority to whom the application would otherwise have been made.]

260 Telecommunication apparatus: orders by or on application of other authorities.

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) any order is made by a local authority under section 258(1), or on the application of a local authority under section 251(1), which extinguishes a public right of way; or
- (b) any order is made by a competent authority under section 257 which authorises the stopping up or diversion of a footpath [^{F11}, bridleway or restricted byway],
- and at the time of the publication of the notice required by section 252(1) or, as the case may be, paragraph 1 of Schedule 14 any [^{F12}electronic communications apparatus] was kept installed for the purposes of [^{F13}an electronic communications code network] under, in, on, over, along or across the land over which the right of way subsisted.
- (2) In subsection (1) “competent authority” has the same meaning as in section 257 and in the following provisions of this section references to the authority are to the authority who made the order or, as the case may be, to the authority on whose application it was made.
- (3) The power of the operator of [^{F14}the electronic communications code network] to remove the apparatus—

- (a) shall, notwithstanding the making of the order, be exercisable at any time not later than the end of the period of three months from the date on which the right of way is extinguished or authorised to be stopped up or diverted; and
- (b) if before the end of that period the operator of the [F15network] has given notice to the authority of his intention to remove the apparatus or a part of it, shall be exercisable in respect of the whole or, as the case may be, that part of the apparatus after the end of that period.
- (4) The operator of the [F15network] may by notice given in that behalf to the authority not later than the end of that period abandon the [F12electronic communications apparatus] or any part of it.
- (5) Subject to subsection (4), the operator of the [F15network] shall be deemed at the end of that period to have abandoned any part of the apparatus which the operator has then neither removed nor given notice of his intention to remove.
- (6) The operator of the [F15network] shall be entitled to recover from the authority the expense of providing, in substitution for the apparatus and any other [F12electronic communications apparatus] connected with it which is rendered useless in consequence of the removal or abandonment of the first-mentioned apparatus, any [F16electronic communications apparatus] in such other place as the operator may require.
- (7) Where under the previous provisions of this section the operator of the [F15network] has abandoned the whole or any part of any [F12electronic communications apparatus] , that apparatus or that part of it shall vest in the authority and shall be deemed, with its abandonment, to cease to be kept installed for the purposes of [F13an electronic communications code network] .
- (8) As soon as reasonably practicable after the making of any such order as is mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) in circumstances in which that subsection applies in relation to the operator of [F13an electronic communications code network] , the person by whom the order was made shall give notice to the operator of the making of the order.
- (9) Subsections (5) and (6) of section 256 apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of that section.
