

Deer Act 1991

1991 CHAPTER 54

Offences relating to deer

3 Taking or killing of deer at night.

Subject to sections 6 and 8 below, if any person takes or intentionally kills any deer between the expiry of the first hour after sunset and the beginning of the last hour before sunrise, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Deer Act 1991, Section 3.