

Transport and Works Act 1992

1992 CHAPTER 42

PART II

SAFETY OF RAILWAYS ETC

CHAPTER II

OTHER SAFETY PROVISIONS

General

41 Approval of works, plant and equipment.

- (1) For the purpose of securing the safe operation of railways, tramways, trolley vehicle systems and prescribed systems of guided transport, the Secretary of State may make regulations requiring that [^{F1}the approval of a specified authority] be obtained before—
 - (a) new works, plant or equipment are first brought into use, or
 - (b) works, plant or equipment are first brought into use after alterations have been made to them.
- (2) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) shall prescribe the cases in which approval is required and the procedure for obtaining it;
 - (b) may include provision as to the time when works, plant or equipment are to be treated as first brought into use, including provision for disregarding periods of testing and other periods of use before sufficient information is available for a decision to be made on an application for approval;
 - (c) may include provision prohibiting the giving of false information to the [^{F2}specified authority] .
- (3) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different cases, and may include provision authorising the [^{F3}specified authority] —

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Transport and Works Act 1992, Chapter II. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) to dispense (conditionally or unconditionally) with compliance with regulations that would otherwise apply, or
- (b) to require compliance with regulations that would not otherwise apply, either in the case of any particular works, plant, equipment or alterations, or in the case of works, plant, equipment or alterations of such descriptions as [^{F4}it] may determine.
- (4) Regulations under this section may provide that any person who without reasonable cause contravenes any specified provision of the regulations, or does so in specified circumstances, shall be guilty of an offence under this section.
- (5) Where the commission by any person of an offence under this section is due to the act or default of some other person, that other person shall be guilty of the offence, and a person may be charged with and convicted of the offence by virtue of this subsection whether or not proceedings are taken against the first-mentioned person.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (7) In this section—
“equipment” includes vehicles;
“prescribed systems of guided transport” means systems using a mode of guided transport prescribed by regulations under this section.
[^{F5}“specified authority” means such authority as may be specified in regulations under this section .]
- (8) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

F9 45 Directions limiting speeds and loads.

- (1) The [^{F10}relevant enforcing authority] may give a direction under this section to any person carrying on an undertaking which includes the provision of transport services on a railway, tramway or system using any other mode of guided transport.
- (2) A direction under this section may impose—
 - (a) maximum speeds at which vehicles in use on the system may travel, and
 - (b) maximum weights that may be transmitted to the rails (or other structures which support vehicles in use on the system) by any one pair of wheels, or by such other parts of the vehicles as may be specified in the direction.
- (3) Directions under this section may make different provision for different vehicles, different parts of the system, or otherwise for different circumstances.
- (4) Before giving a direction under this section, the [^{F11}relevant enforcing authority] shall consult the person to whom [^{F12}that authority] proposes to give it.
- (5) If a direction under this section is contravened in the course of the provision of transport services by the person to whom the direction was given, that person shall be guilty of an offence.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- [^{F13}(7) In this section “relevant enforcing authority” means the enforcing authority responsible for the enforcement of the relevant statutory provisions in relation to the mode of transport to which the direction applies.

48 Footpaths [^{F16}, bridleways and restricted byways] over railways.

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a public right of way over a footpath [^{F17}, bridleway or restricted byway] crosses a railway or tramway otherwise than by a tunnel or bridge,
 - (b) the operator of the railway or tramway has made a closure or diversion application in respect of the crossing, and
 - (c) in the opinion of the Secretary of State the crossing constitutes a danger to members of the public using it or likely to use it.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order require the operator to provide a tunnel or a bridge, or to improve an existing tunnel or bridge, to carry the path or way over or under the railway or tramway at or reasonably near to the crossing to which the closure or diversion application relates.

- (3) An order under this section may include particulars as to the tunnel or bridge which is to be provided or as to the improvements which are to be made.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall not make an order under this section after the end of the period of two years beginning with the day on which the closure or diversion application is made, and not less than two months before making an order he shall give written notice of his proposal to make the order to the operator and to each local authority in whose area the crossing (or any proposed new crossing) is situated.
- (5) A notice given under subsection (4) above must be accompanied by a draft of the proposed order under this section; and any order eventually made may include modifications of the draft.
- (6) An operator shall not be regarded as in breach of a duty imposed by an order under this section if he has used his best endeavours to comply with the order.
- (7) Where an operator is required by an order under this section to provide or improve a bridge or tunnel, but is unable to do so because he does not have the powers or rights (including rights over land) needed for the purpose, he shall not be taken to have used his best endeavours to comply with the order unless he has used his best endeavours to obtain those powers or rights (whether by means of an order under section 1 above or otherwise).
- (8) In this section—
 - “bridleway” has the same meaning as in the Highways Act 1980;
 - “closure or diversion application” means—
 - (a) an application made under section 6 above, or
 - (b) a request made in accordance with section 120(3A)(b) of the ^{M2}Highways Act 1980,

Signs and barriers at private crossings

52 Placing of signs and barriers.

- (1) Subject to any directions under subsection (2) below, the operator of a railway or tramway which is crossed in any place by a private road or path may cause or permit crossing signs or barriers of a character—
 - (a) prescribed in regulations made by the Secretary of State, or
 - (b) otherwise authorised by him, to be placed on or near the road or path near the crossing.
- (2) The Secretary of State may give directions to the operator of a railway or tramway which is crossed in any place by a private road or path for the placing of crossing signs or barriers of a character specified in the directions on or near the road or path near the crossing.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) the size and colour of a crossing sign and whether or not it is illuminated (by lighting or the use of reflectors or reflecting material), and
 - (b) the nature of the warnings, information, requirements, restrictions or prohibitions conveyed by it, shall be regarded as part of the sign’s character.
- (4) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (5) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different cases.

53 Rights to enter land.

- (1) The operator of a railway or tramway shall not enter or do anything on any land for the purpose of exercising his powers under section 52(1) above except—
 - (a) with the consent of every owner of the land, or
 - (b) in accordance with an authorisation given by the Secretary of State under subsection (4) below.
- (2) Where the operator of a railway or tramway proposes to enter or do anything on any land for the purpose of exercising his powers under section 52(1) above but has not obtained the consent of every owner of the land to his proposals (after making

- reasonable efforts to do so), he shall serve on every owner whose consent he has not obtained a notice giving details of the proposals and stating that—
- (a) he is referring the proposals to the Secretary of State for a decision as to whether or not they should be carried out, and
 - (b) in making that decision, the Secretary of State will consider any written representations made to him by the owner within the period of forty-two days beginning with the date of the notice.
- (3) Where subsection (2) above applies, the operator shall—
- (a) submit a copy of every notice served by him under that subsection to the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) provide the Secretary of State with such further information about the proposals as he may require.
- (4) Where proposals are referred to the Secretary of State under this section, he shall after the expiry of the period of forty-two days beginning with the date of the latest notice served under subsection (2) above and after considering any representations made to him in accordance with that subsection—
- (a) authorise the operator to carry out the proposals (either without modifications or with such modifications as the Secretary of State may specify), or
 - (b) direct him not to carry out the proposals,
- and shall serve notice of his decision on every owner served with a notice under subsection (2) above.
- (5) Any authorisation under subsection (4) above may be given subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State may specify, including conditions that compensation shall be payable by the operator.
- (6) Any dispute as to the amount of any compensation payable by virtue of subsection (5) above shall be referred to and determined by the [^{F21}Upper Tribunal] or, in relation to land in Scotland, the Lands Tribunal for Scotland.
- (7) The operator of a railway or tramway may enter any land and do anything necessary on it (without the consent of the owners of the land) for the purpose of—
- (a) complying with any directions given under section 52(2) above, or
 - (b) maintaining a crossing sign or barrier lawfully placed on or near a private road or path near a place where it crosses the railway or tramway.
- (8) The Secretary of State may enter any land and do anything necessary on it (without the consent of the owners of the land) for the purpose of exercising his powers under section 54(1) below.
- (9) In this section “owner”—
- (a) in relation to any land in England and Wales, means a person, other than a mortgagee not in possession, who is for the time being entitled to dispose of the fee simple (whether in possession or reversion) and includes also a person holding, or entitled to the rents and profits of, the land under a tenancy, other than a tenancy for a month or any period less than a month;
 - (b) in relation to any land in Scotland, means a person who, under the Land Clauses Acts, would be entitled to sell and convey land to the promoters of an undertaking and includes also a person who is or would be entitled to receive the rent of the land under a tenancy, other than a tenancy for a month or any period less than a month.

54 Default powers of Secretary of State.

- (1) If the operator of a railway or tramway fails—
 - (a) to comply with a direction given under section 52(2) above, or
 - (b) to maintain a crossing sign or barrier lawfully placed on or near a private road or path near a place where it crosses the railway or tramway, the Secretary of State may himself carry out the work required by the direction or necessary to maintain the crossing sign or barrier.
- (2) Any expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in doing so shall be recoverable by him from the operator.
- (3) A direction given under section 52(2) above—
 - (a) if relating to a private road or path in England and Wales, shall be enforceable on the application of the Secretary of State by an order of mandamus;
 - (b) if relating to a private road or path in Scotland, shall be enforceable by order of the Court of Session on an application by [^{F22}the appropriate Law Officer within the meaning of section 4A of the Crown Suits (Scotland) Act 1857]under section 45 of the ^{M6} Court of Session Act 1988.
