2 Membership of the Board.

- (1) The Board established under section 1 above (referred to in this Act as “the Board”) shall consist of not more than fifteen members appointed by the Secretary of State.
- (2) In exercising his power of appointment under subsection (1) above the Secretary of State shall have regard to the desirability of securing that, within the Board’s membership, there are reflected both the varying extent to which the Welsh language is used by those living in Wales, and the range of interests of the persons to whom the Board will offer advice.

3 Functions of the Board.

- (1) The Board shall have the function of promoting and facilitating the use of the Welsh language.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, the Board shall in carrying out the function mentioned there—
 - (a) advise the Secretary of State on matters concerning the Welsh language;
 - (b) advise persons exercising functions of a public nature on the ways in which effect may be given to the principle that, in the conduct of public business and the administration of justice in Wales, the English and Welsh languages should be treated on a basis of equality;
 - (c) advise those and other persons providing services to the public on the use of the Welsh language in their dealings with the public in Wales.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions, the Board may do anything which is incidental or conducive to the performance of its functions, and may in particular—
 - (a) make grants and loans and give guarantees;
 - (b) make charges for the provision of advice or other services;
 - (c) accept gifts of money or other property.
- (4) The Board shall not—
 - (a) make a grant or loan,
 - (b) give a guarantee, or
 - (c) acquire or dispose of any interest in land,except with the approval of the Secretary of State given with the consent of the Treasury.

4 Supplementary provisions about the Board.

- (1) The Board shall comply with any general or special directions given to it by the Secretary of State, and shall give him such information about the exercise of its functions as he may require.
- (2) Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the Board.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

PART II

WELSH LANGUAGE SCHEME

Duty to prepare schemes

5 Duty of notified public bodies to prepare schemes.

- (1) Every public body to which a notice is given under section 7 below and which—
- (a) provides services to the public in Wales, or
 - (b) exercises statutory functions in relation to the provision by other public bodies of services to the public in Wales,
- shall prepare a scheme specifying the measures which it proposes to take, for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2) below, as to the use of the Welsh language in connection with the provision of those services, or of such of them as are specified in the notice.
- (2) The purpose referred to in subsection (1) above is that of giving effect, so far as is both appropriate in the circumstances and reasonably practicable, to the principle that in the conduct of public business and the administration of justice in Wales the English and Welsh languages should be treated on a basis of equality.
- (3) In preparing a scheme under this Part of this Act a public body shall have regard to any guidelines issued by the Board under section 9 below.

6 Meaning of “public body”.

- (1) In this Part of this Act “public body” means—
- (a) a county council, district council or community council;
 - (b) a joint committee of two or more bodies within paragraph (a) above;
 - (c) a joint board of which the members are two or more bodies within paragraph (a) above;
 - (d) a police authority;
 - (e) a fire authority constituted by a combination scheme under the ^{M1}Fire Services Act 1947;

 - (i) a Community Health Council established in accordance with section 20 of the National Health Service Act 1977;
 - (j) the Further Education Funding Council for Wales;
 - (k) the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales;
 - (l) the governors of a county school, voluntary school, maintained special school or grant-maintained school (within the meaning of the Education Acts 1944 to 1992);
 - (m) a further education corporation established under section 15 or 16 of the ^{M4}Further and Higher Education Act 1992;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (n) a higher education corporation established under section 121 or 122 of the ^{M5}Education Reform Act 1988;
 - (o) any person (whether or not a body corporate or unincorporate)—
 - (i) who appears to the Secretary of State to be exercising functions of a public nature, or
 - (ii) all or substantially all of whose activities appear to the Secretary of State to be conducted under an agreement, or in accordance with arrangements, made with a public body within paragraphs (a) to (n) or sub-paragraph (i) above or a person acting as servant or agent of the Crown, and who is specified, or is of a description of persons specified, by order made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this Part of this Act.
- (2) The power to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

7 Notices to public bodies.

- (1) The Board may give a notice in writing under this section to any public body.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) above shall—
 - (a) state that the public body to which the notice is given is required to prepare a scheme in accordance with section 5 above;
 - (b) specify a date before which that body is required to submit the scheme to the Board;
 - (c) inform that body of its rights of objection under section 8(1) below.
- (3) The Board shall give a copy of the current guidelines issued under section 9 below to any public body to which it gives a notice under subsection (1) above.
- (4) Different notices may be given to a public body under this section in respect of different services.

8 Objections to time limits for submitting schemes.

- (1) A person to whom the Board has given a notice under section 7 above may by notice in writing to the Board object to the date specified in the notice under section 7 as the date before which the scheme is to be submitted to the Board.
- (2) A notice under this section shall be given within such time as may be specified by the Board in the notice given by it under section 7 above.
- (3) A notice under this section shall give the reasons for any objection to which it relates.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) On considering an objection made in accordance with this section, the Board may either dismiss it or propose an extension of the time limit concerned.
- (5) If the Board proposes an extension of the time limit and the objector agrees to the proposal, the notice under section 7 above shall have effect with the substitution of the agreed date.
- (6) If the Board dismisses the objection or the objector does not agree to a proposal made by the Board and, in either case, the objection is not withdrawn, the Board shall refer the objection to the Secretary of State.
- (7) The Board shall, on referring an objection to the Secretary of State, send him—
 - (a) a copy of the notice under section 7,
 - (b) a copy of the notice given by the objector under this section, and
 - (c) a statement of the Board's reasons for its decisions on the objection.
- (8) On a reference under this section the Secretary of State may confirm a decision of the Board to dismiss the objection, or may direct that the notice under section 7 above shall have effect with the substitution of a later date for the date referred to in subsection (1) above (and that later date may be the same as or later than any date proposed by the Board under this section).

Guidelines as to form and content of schemes

9 Duty to issue guidelines.

- (1) The Board shall issue guidelines as to the form and content of schemes to which this Part of this Act applies.
- (2) No guidelines shall be issued by the Board under this section unless a draft of them has been approved by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The Board shall arrange for any guidelines issued under this section to be published in such manner as it thinks fit.

10 Approval of guidelines.

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the commencement of this Act the Board shall prepare a draft of any guidelines that it proposes to issue under section 9 above and shall send copies of the draft to—
 - (a) such persons likely to be required to prepare schemes, and
 - (b) such organisations representative of members of the public who may be affected by the schemes,as it considers appropriate.
- (2) After considering any representations made to it about the draft guidelines and making any amendments that it considers appropriate, the Board shall send a report on the representations and a copy of the draft to the Secretary of State.
- (3) After considering the Board's report and the draft guidelines, the Secretary of State may approve the draft, either unamended or with such amendments as he thinks fit.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Secretary of State shall lay before Parliament a copy of any draft guidelines received by him from the Board, with any amendments made by him under subsection (3) above.
- (5) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution requiring the draft to be withdrawn, the Board shall prepare a draft in substitution for the one to which the resolution relates; and this section shall apply in relation to the substituted draft as it applies in relation to the original.
- (6) No resolution shall be passed by either House of Parliament under subsection (5) above after the expiration of the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft was laid before that House; but for the purposes of this subsection no account shall be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.

11 Revision of guidelines.

The Board shall at such intervals as it thinks fit revise the guidelines issued by it under section 9 above, and that section and section 10 above shall apply in relation to the revised guidelines as they apply in relation to the guidelines first issued.

Preparation and approval of schemes

12 Preparation of schemes.

- (1) A public body to which the Board has given a notice under section 7 above shall submit a scheme to the Board before the date specified in the notice.
- (2) A scheme shall include provisions specifying—
 - (a) a time-table for giving effect to the measures proposed in the scheme;
 - (b) the ways in which the public body will ensure that the scheme is publicised.

13 Consultation on preparation of schemes.

- (1) A public body preparing a scheme for submission to the Board shall carry out such consultations as may be appropriate in order to ascertain views representative of both Welsh-speaking and other members of the public who may be affected by the scheme.
- (2) A public body shall comply with any directions given to it by the Board in connection with the performance of its duty under subsection (1) above.

14 Approval or imposition of schemes.

- (1) If a scheme appears to the Board to be satisfactory, either as it is submitted to the Board or with modifications agreed between the Board and the public body submitting it, the Board shall approve the scheme.
- (2) If—
 - (a) no scheme is submitted to the Board before the date specified in the notice under section 7 above, or such later date as the Board may allow, or
 - (b) a scheme has been submitted before that date (or that later date) but has not been approved by the Board,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the Board, or in a case within paragraph (b) above either the Board or the public body submitting the scheme, may refer the matter to the Secretary of State.

- (3) On a reference under subsection (2) above, the Secretary of State may, in a case within paragraph (a) of that subsection, request the public body concerned to submit a scheme to the Board before a date specified by the Secretary of State; and if he does so, this Part of this Act shall apply as if that date were substituted for the date specified by virtue of section 7(2)(b) above.
- (4) On a reference under subsection (2) above, the Secretary of State may, in a case within paragraph (b) of that subsection, request the Board and the public body concerned to try to reach agreement on the terms of a scheme before a date specified by the Secretary of State; and if he does so he shall not exercise his powers under subsection (5) below before that date.
- (5) On a reference under subsection (2) above, the Secretary of State may in any case himself decide upon the terms of a scheme; and if he does so—
 - (a) he shall send a copy of the scheme to the Board and to the public body concerned, and
 - (b) this Part of this Act shall then apply as if the scheme had been submitted by the body and approved by the Board.

Revision etc of schemes

15 Periodic revision of schemes.

- (1) At any time after the Board has in accordance with section 11 above issued revised guidelines under section 9 above, it may by notice in writing to any public body whose scheme it has approved require that body to review the scheme and submit to the Board a statement of its conclusions.
- (2) After receiving a statement under subsection (1) above, the Board may by notice in writing require the public body to submit a revised scheme to the Board before such date as may be specified in the notice.
- (3) Sections 12 to 14 above shall with the necessary modifications apply where a notice is given under subsection (2) above as they apply where a notice is given under section 7 above.

16 Amendment of schemes.

- (1) Where a scheme prepared by a public body has been approved by the Board, either the public body or the Board may at any time by notice in writing to the other propose amendments to the scheme.
- (2) The Board shall not exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) above except where it is satisfied that amendments of the scheme are appropriate because of changes in the functions of the public body or in the circumstances in which those functions are carried out.
- (3) If the amendments proposed are agreed between the public body and the Board, either as proposed or with modifications, the scheme shall thereafter have effect subject to the amendments.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) If the amendments are not agreed, either the public body or the Board may refer the matter to the Secretary of State.
- (5) On a reference under subsection (4) above, the Secretary of State may request the Board and the public body concerned to try to reach agreement on the amendments before a date specified by the Secretary of State; and if he does so he shall not exercise his powers under subsection (6) below before that date.
- (6) On a reference under subsection (4) above, the Secretary of State may—
 - (a) determine that no amendments should be made, or
 - (b) himself decide upon the amendments to be made to the scheme (which may be the amendments proposed, either with or without modifications, or other amendments).
- (7) Where in accordance with subsection (6) above the Secretary of State decides upon the amendments to be made to a scheme—
 - (a) he shall send a copy of the amendments to the Board and to the public body concerned, and
 - (b) the scheme shall thereafter have effect subject to the amendments.

Compliance with schemes

17 Investigations.

- (1) Where it appears to the Board, whether on a complaint made to it under section 18 below or otherwise, that a public body may have failed to carry out a scheme approved by the Board, the Board may conduct an investigation in order to ascertain whether there has been a failure.
- (2) The procedure for conducting an investigation under this section shall be such as the Board considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case, and in particular an investigation may be conducted in private.
- (3) The Board may, if it considers it appropriate to do so, pay to any person who attends or provides information for the purposes of an investigation—
 - (a) sums in respect of the expenses properly incurred by him, and
 - (b) allowances by way of compensation for the loss of his time, in accordance with such scales and subject to such conditions as may be determined by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

18 Complaints of non-compliance.

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a written complaint is made to the Board by a person who claims to have been directly affected by a failure of a public body to carry out a scheme approved by the Board,
 - (b) the complaint is made within the period of twelve months beginning with the day on which the complainant first knew of the matters alleged in the complaint, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the Board is satisfied that the complainant has brought the matter complained of to the notice of the public body concerned and that that body has had a reasonable opportunity to consider it and to respond.
- (2) Where this section applies, the Board shall either investigate that complaint under section 17 above or shall send to the complainant a statement of its reasons for not doing so.

19 Reports on investigations.

- (1) Where the Board undertakes an investigation under section 17 above, it shall send a report of the results of the investigation to the public body concerned, to the Secretary of State and, where the investigation is conducted on a complaint made under section 18 above, to the complainant (whether or not the complaint is withdrawn before the investigation is completed).
- (2) Where the Board considers that it would be appropriate for a report of the results of an investigation to be published, either in the form of the report made under subsection (1) above or in some other form, the Board may arrange for publication in such manner as it thinks fit.
- (3) Where on completing an investigation the Board is satisfied that the public body concerned has failed to carry out the scheme, the Board may include in its report recommendations as to action to be taken by the public body in order to remedy the failure or to avoid future failures.

20 Directions by Secretary of State.

- (1) If at any time it appears to the Board that a public body has failed to take any action recommended in a report under section 19 above, the Board may refer the matter to the Secretary of State.
- (2) If on a reference under this section the Secretary of State is satisfied, after considering any representations made to him by the Board and by the public body concerned, that the body has failed to take any action recommended in the report, he may give such directions to the public body as he considers appropriate.
- (3) Any directions given by the Secretary of State under subsection (2) above shall be enforceable, on an application made by him, by mandamus.

The Crown

21 Persons acting on behalf of the Crown.

- (1) References in this Part of this Act to public bodies do not include references to any person acting as the servant or agent of the Crown; but the following provisions of this section shall apply where such a person has adopted or proposes to adopt a Welsh language scheme.
- (2) A person who has adopted a Welsh language scheme before the commencement of this Act shall send a copy of it to the Board.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A person preparing a Welsh language scheme after the commencement of this Act shall have regard to any guidelines issued by the Board under section 9 above, and shall before adopting it send the proposed scheme to the Board.
- (4) Where the Board suggests amendments to a scheme or proposed scheme sent by any person to the Board in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) above, that person shall, if he does not give effect to the amendments, send to the Board a written statement of the reasons for not doing so.
- (5) Sections 17 to 19 above shall apply in relation to persons to whom this section applies and to Welsh language schemes adopted by them as they apply to public bodies and schemes approved by the Board.
- (6) In this section “Welsh language scheme” means a scheme specifying measures which the person preparing the scheme proposes to take as to the use of the Welsh language in connection with the provision of services to the public in Wales by that person, or by others who are acting as servants or agents of the Crown or are public bodies.

PART III

MISCELLANEOUS

PROSPECTIVE

Welsh in legal proceedings

22 Use of Welsh in legal proceedings.

- (1) In any legal proceedings in Wales the Welsh language may be spoken by any party, witness or other person who desires to use it, subject in the case of proceedings in a court other than a magistrates’ court to such prior notice as may be required by rules of court; and any necessary provision for interpretation shall be made accordingly.
- (2) Any power to make rules of court includes power to make provision as to the use, in proceedings in or having a connection with Wales, of documents in the Welsh language.

23 Oaths and affirmations.

The Lord Chancellor may make rules prescribing a translation in the Welsh language of any form for the time being prescribed by law as the form of any oath or affirmation to be administered and taken or made by any person in any court, and an oath or affirmation administered and taken or made in any court in Wales in the translation prescribed by such rules shall, without interpretation, be of the like effect as if it had been administered and taken or made in the English language.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Welsh Language Act 1993 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

24 Provision of interpreters.

- (1) The Lord Chancellor may make rules as to the provision and employment of interpreters of the Welsh and English languages for the purposes of proceedings before courts in Wales.
- (2) The interpreters shall be paid, out of the same fund as the expenses of the court are payable, such remuneration in respect of their services as the Lord Chancellor may determine.
- (3) The Lord Chancellor's powers under this section shall be exercised with the consent of the Treasury.

Statutory names, forms etc

25 Powers to give Welsh names to statutory bodies etc.

- (1) Where a name is conferred by an Act of Parliament on any body, office or place, the appropriate Minister may by order confer on the body, office or place an alternative name in Welsh.
- (2) Where an Act of Parliament gives power, exercisable by statutory instrument, to confer a name on any body, office or place, the power shall include power to confer alternative names in English and Welsh.
- (3) This section shall not apply in relation to a name conferred on any area or local authority by the ^{M6}Local Government Act 1972, or to any power exercisable under that Act.

27 Provisions supplementary to sections 25 and 26.

- (1) Anything done in Welsh by virtue of section 26 above shall have the like effect as if done in English.
- (2) Any provision authorising—
- (a) the use of a document or words to the like effect as a document or words of which another version is prescribed by virtue of section 26 above, or
 - (b) the adaptation of a document or words of which another version is so prescribed,
- shall apply in relation to both versions.
- (3) The powers to make orders under sections 25(1) and 26(2) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument, which shall be laid before Parliament after being made.
- (4) References in sections 25 and 26 above to an Act of Parliament include references to Acts passed after this Act; and in those sections “the appropriate Minister” in relation to any Act means—
- (a) in the case of provisions for the execution of which in Wales a Minister other than the Secretary of State is responsible, that Minister, and
 - (b) in any other case, the Secretary of State.
- (5) Any question arising under paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4) above shall be determined by the Treasury; and in that subsection “Minister” includes the Treasury, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise and the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

28 Industrial and provident societies.

- (1) Section 5 of the ^{M7}Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (name of society) shall be amended as follows.

Section 4.

THE BOARD

Members

- 1 The Secretary of State shall appoint one of the members of the Board to be chairman of the Board.
- 2 (1) Subject to the following provisions, a member of the Board, and the chairman, shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.
- (2) A person may at any time resign his office as a member or as chairman of the Board by notice in writing addressed to the Secretary of State.
- (3) The Secretary of State may remove a member from office by notice in writing if—
- (a) the member has been absent from meetings of the Board for a period of three consecutive months without the Board’s consent, or
 - (b) a bankruptcy order has been made against the member, or his estate has been sequestrated, or he has made a composition or arrangement with, or granted a trust deed for, his creditors, or
 - (c) the Secretary of State is satisfied that the member is unable or unfit to discharge his functions as a member.
- (4) If the chairman ceases to be a member of the Board he shall also cease to be chairman.

Remuneration of members

- 3 (1) The Board shall pay to its members such remuneration and allowances as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (2) The Board may make such payments towards the provision of pensions to or in respect of its members as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (3) If the Secretary of State determines that there are special circumstances which make it right that a person ceasing to hold office as a member of the Board should receive compensation, he may direct the Board to make to that person a payment of such amount as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall not make any determination under this paragraph without the approval of the Treasury.

Parliamentary disqualification
