PART I

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREAS IN WALES

The new areas and their councils

1 The local government areas.

(1) For section 20 of the ^{M1}Local Government Act 1972 (“the 1972 Act”) substitute—

“20 New principal local government areas in Wales.

(1) For the administration of local government on and after 1st April 1996, the local government areas in Wales shall be—

- (a) the new principal areas; and
- (b) the communities.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The new principal areas (determined by reference to areas which, immediately before the passing of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994, are local government areas) are set out in Parts I and II of Schedule 4 to this Act.
 - (3) Each of the new principal areas shall have the name given to it in Schedule 4.
 - (4) The new principal areas set out in Part I of Schedule 4 shall be counties and those set out in Part II of that Schedule shall be county boroughs.
 - (5) In this Act “principal area”, in relation to Wales, means a county or county borough.
 - (6) The counties which were created by this Act, as originally enacted, as counties in Wales, and the districts within them, shall cease to exist on 1st April 1996 except that the preserved counties shall continue in existence (with, in some cases, modified boundaries) for certain purposes.
 - (7) The councils of the counties and districts mentioned in subsection (6) above shall cease to exist on 1st April 1996.
 - (8) The areas of the preserved counties are set out in Part III of Schedule 4 and are determined by reference to local government areas in existence immediately before the passing of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994.
 - (9) The Secretary of State may by order change the name by which any of the preserved counties is for the time being known.
 - (10) Any such order shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
 - (11) The Welsh name of each of the new principal areas is shown in Schedule 4 immediately after its English name.”
- (2) Schedule 1 substitutes new Parts I, II and III in Schedule 4 to the 1972 Act.
 - (3) Schedule 2 provides for the application of certain enactments in relation to the preserved counties.
 - (4) Section 270(1) of the 1972 Act (definitions) is amended as follows.
 - (5) In the definition of “local authority” for “or community council” substitute “ council but, in relation to Wales, means a county council, county borough council or community council; ”.
 - (6) In the definition of “local government area”, for paragraph (b), substitute—
“in relation to Wales, a county, county borough or community;”.
 - (7) After the definition of “prescribed” insert—
““preserved county” means any county created by this Act as a county in Wales, as it stood immediately before the passing of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 but subject to any provision of the Act of 1994, or any provision made under this Act, redrawing its boundaries;”.
 - (8) In the definition of “principal area” insert at the end “ but, in relation to Wales, means a county or county borough. ”

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (b) the Secretary of State to make an order under section 58 above giving effect to the proposals of the Commission under subsection (1) above (whether as submitted to him or with modifications).”

7 Rules to be observed in considering electoral arrangements.

- (1) Schedule 11 to the 1972 Act (rules to be observed in considering electoral arrangements) shall be amended as follows.
- (2) In paragraph 1 (rules for counties)—
 - (a) in sub-paragraph (1), at the end add “ but does not apply in relation to any county in Wales ”; and
 - (b) in sub-paragraph (2)(c) and (d), omit “or community”, in each place.
- (3) After paragraph 1 insert—

“1A Welsh counties and county boroughs

- (1) This paragraph applies to the consideration by the Secretary of State or the Welsh Commission of the electoral arrangements for elections of councillors for principal areas in Wales.
- (2) Subject to any direction under sub-paragraph (3) below, the Welsh Commission shall, when considering the arrangements for elections of councillors for any principal area in Wales, provide for there to be a single member for each electoral division.
- (3) The Secretary of State may give a direction to the Welsh Commission requiring it to consider the desirability of providing for multi-member electoral divisions for the area to which the direction relates (which may be the whole or a specified part of a principal area in Wales).
- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph, an electoral division is a multi-member division if the arrangements made for the elections of councillors provide for a specified number of councillors (greater than one) to be elected for that division.
- (5) Having regard to any change in the number or distribution of the local government electors of the principal area likely to take place within the period of five years immediately following the consideration—
 - (a) subject to paragraph (b), the number of local government electors shall be, as nearly as may be, the same in every electoral division in the principal area;
 - (b) where there are one or more multi-member divisions, the ratio of the number of local government electors to the number of councillors to be elected shall be, as nearly as may be, the same in every electoral division in the principal area (including any that are not multi-member divisions);
 - (c) every ward of a community having a community council (whether separate or common) shall lie wholly within a single electoral division; and
 - (d) every community which is not divided into community wards shall lie wholly within a single electoral division.

General

General provision for transfer of functions.

(1) This section has effect for the purpose of adapting relevant legislative provisions and in particular for the purpose of providing for the exercise of functions conferred by such provisions.

(2) A provision is a “relevant legislative provision” for the purposes of this section if it is a provision of—

(a) any public general Act passed before, or during the same Session as, this Act; or

(b) an instrument which—

(i) was made before the passing of this Act, under a public general Act; and

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) is of a legislative character but is not in the nature of a local enactment.
- (3) This section has effect subject to any provision made by, or by any instrument under, this Act and is not to be taken as affecting any provision so made.
- (4) In any relevant legislative provision—
 - (a) any reference to an area which is the area of a county council or the area of a district council, and
 - (b) any reference which is to be construed as a reference to such an area, shall be construed, in relation to Wales, as a reference to a new principal area.
- (5) In any relevant legislative provision—
 - (a) any reference to the council of a county or district, and
 - (b) any reference which is to be construed as such, shall be construed, in relation to Wales, as a reference to the council of a new principal area.
- (6) Where, in relation to any relevant legislative provision, any question arises as to which new principal area is the appropriate new principal area for the purposes of that provision, that question shall be determined by order made by the Secretary of State.
- (7) Where any relevant legislative provision is by virtue of this section to be construed in accordance with subsection (4) or (5)—
 - (a) it shall be so construed subject to any modifications necessary to give full effect to the provision; and
 - (b) the Secretary of State may by order make such amendments or other modifications of the provision as he considers necessary or expedient in consequence of any provision made by or under this Act.

19 Joint and special planning boards in Wales.

- (1) In section 2 of the planning Act (joint planning boards), after subsection (1) insert—
 - “(1A) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to Wales.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(1B) If it appears to the Secretary of State that it is expedient that a joint board should be established as the local planning authority for two or more areas, each of which is the whole or part of a Welsh county or county borough, he may by order—

- (a) constitute those areas or parts as a united district for the purposes of this Act; and
- (b) constitute a joint board as the local planning authority for that united district.

(1C) A joint board constituted under subsection (1) or (1B) shall be known as a “joint planning board”.

(2) In Schedule 17 to the 1972 Act (National Parks), after paragraph 3 insert—

“3A (1) Where a National Park is wholly comprised in one planning area in Wales, the Secretary of State may by order constitute a special planning board to discharge, as respects the area of the Park, the functions to which this Part of this Schedule applies.

(2) Any enactment relating to joint planning boards constituted by an order under section 2 of the ^{M8}Town and Country Planning Act 1990 shall apply in relation to a special planning board constituted under this paragraph as it applies in relation to a joint planning board constituted under subsection (1B) of that section, but as if—

- (a) the area of the National Park were a united district; and
- (b) any reference (however expressed) to the constituent councils of the joint board (or which is to be construed as such a reference) were a reference to the council of the principal area in question.

3B A board reconstituted under paragraph 3 above or constituted under paragraph 3A above shall be known as “a special planning board”.

(3) Section 2(2) of the planning Act (local inquiry to be held in the absence of consent of councils concerned) shall not apply to the making of any order—

- (a) under section 2(1B) of that Act, where the united district constituted by the order comprises or includes the whole or any part of the area of a National Park; or
- (b) under paragraph 3A of Schedule 17 to the 1972 Act, if the board constituted by the order is to come into existence before 31st March 1997.

(4) In section 2 of the planning Act—

- (a) in subsection (1), omit the words “(in this Act referred to as a “joint planning board”)”;
- (b) in subsection (2), for the words “such an order” substitute “an order under subsection (1) or (1B)”;
- (c) in subsection (3), after “county” insert “or county borough” (in both places); and
- (d) in subsection (4), after “(1)” insert “or (1B)”.

 - (ii) Part I of the ^{M13}Local Government Act 1988 (local authorities to undertake certain activities only if they can do so competitively).
- (4) The power conferred by subsection (1) shall be exercisable subject to such regulations (if any) as the Secretary of State sees fit to make for the purposes of this section.
- (5) Any such regulations may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) excluding prescribed matters from those which may be the subject of a service agency agreement;
 - (b) restricting (whether by reference to one or more areas or otherwise) the councils with which a principal council may make a service agency agreement;
 - (c) restricting the area or areas with respect to which the supplying council may provide services under a service agency agreement.
- (6) As respects the exercise of any of their other statutory powers, anything which falls to be done by the supplying council under a service agency agreement shall be treated as one of their statutory functions.
- (7) The provisions of the ^{M14}Local Authorities (Goods and Services) Act 1970 (supply of goods and services by local authorities) do not affect, and are not affected by, the powers conferred on new principal councils by this section.
- (8) In section 1(4) of that Act (authorities to which Act applies), for “any county” substitute “any county, county borough”.
- (9) For the purposes of this section the Residuary Body shall be treated as a new principal council.

PART III

DECENTRALISATION AND JOINT WORKING

Decentralisation schemes

27 Decentralisation schemes: preparation.

- (1) If the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) are satisfied, the Secretary of State may give a direction to a new principal council requiring them to prepare and submit to him a decentralisation scheme for such area falling within the area of the council as the Secretary of State sees fit to specify in the direction.
- (2) The conditions are that—
 - (a) an application relating to the council has been made to the Secretary of State under this section by ten or more of their members;
 - (b) the application is expressed to be made in relation to a specified area falling within the area of the council; and

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) at least ten of those persons making the application are members of the council who are connected with the area specified in the application.
- (3) In this section—
 - “decentralisation scheme”, in relation to a council, means a scheme which provides for the exercise of specified functions of the council to be discharged by a committee of the council established for the purposes of the scheme; and
 - “direction” means a direction under subsection (1).
- (4) Any council to whom a direction has been given shall submit the required decentralisation scheme to the Secretary of State in accordance with the direction.
- (5) A direction may require a decentralisation scheme to be submitted before a specified date.
- (6) A committee established for the purposes of a decentralisation scheme is referred to in this Act as an area committee.
- (7) No application under subsection (2) may be made after 1st January 1996 and no direction may be given after 1st July 1996.
- (8) The Secretary of State shall not give a direction unless he is satisfied that a decentralisation scheme is likely to be appropriate for the area in question.
- (9) In considering whether a decentralisation scheme is likely to be appropriate for any area (“the local area”), the Secretary of State shall have regard to—
 - (a) the desirability of providing for the efficient administration of local government functions both in relation to the area of the principal council as a whole and in relation to the local area; and
 - (b) the particular circumstances of the local area including its geographical, historical, cultural and demographic circumstances.
- (10) A direction may specify any area to which it relates by reference to specific boundaries or by a general description.
- (11) The Secretary of State may from time to time issue guidance with respect to the preparation and content of decentralisation schemes.
- (12) Any such guidance may be—
 - (a) general, relating to all decentralisation schemes or all schemes of a specified description; or
 - (b) specific to a particular scheme.
- (13) In specifying any area in a direction, the Secretary of State shall have regard to, but not be bound by, the terms of the application in response to which it is given.
- (14) For the purposes of subsection (2), a member of a council is connected with a specified area if he is a member for an electoral division which, or any part of which, falls within that area.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. 28 Decentralisation schemes: approval and implementation.

- (1) Where a council have submitted a decentralisation scheme to the Secretary of State under section 27 he shall, before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which the scheme was submitted to him—
 - (a) approve the scheme as submitted;
 - (b) approve the scheme subject to such modifications as he considers appropriate; or
 - (c) reject the scheme.
- (2) Where he proposes not to approve the scheme as submitted, the Secretary of State shall notify the council concerned, before the end of that six month period, of the modifications which he proposes to make to the scheme, or (as the case may be) that he proposes to reject the scheme.
- (3) Before he approves a scheme subject to modifications, or rejects a scheme, the Secretary of State shall have regard to any representations which have been made to him by the council concerned.
- (4) Where the Secretary of State approves a decentralisation scheme, it shall be the duty of the council concerned to implement and maintain the scheme.
- (5) The Secretary of State's decision under subsection (1) shall be given in writing.
- (6) Where the Secretary of State approves a decentralisation scheme, he may give a direction to the council concerned as to the date by which the scheme is to be implemented.
- (7) Where the Secretary of State has rejected a decentralisation scheme, he may at any time before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which he rejected the scheme, direct the council concerned to prepare and submit to him a revised scheme under section 27.
- (8) Nothing in section 27(7) shall be taken to prevent the giving of a direction under subsection (7).
- (9) A direction under subsection (7) may require the revised scheme to be submitted to the Secretary of State before a specified date.

29 Area committees: safeguards.

- (1) Where an area committee has been established by a council in accordance with an approved decentralisation scheme—
 - (a) the council shall not, except with the agreement of the committee, abolish the committee or alter any arrangements in force with respect to the committee which were made in accordance with the scheme as originally approved or which have subsequently been agreed with the committee; and
 - (b) nothing in section 101(4) of the 1972 Act (power of local authority to exercise functions otherwise discharged by committee) shall be taken to authorise the council to exercise any functions which are to be discharged by the committee, except as provided for by the scheme.
- (2) Every decentralisation scheme shall include provision, to be given effect to by the standing orders of the council concerned, for the majority required in order for any suspending resolution to be passed to be such majority greater than a simple majority as may be specified by the scheme.

- (3) In subsection (2) “suspending resolution”, in relation to a decentralisation scheme, means a resolution to suspend any of the arrangements in force with respect to an area committee established in accordance with the scheme.

30 Area committees: membership etc.

- (1) This section applies where an area committee has been established by a council in accordance with an approved decentralisation scheme.
- (2) The provisions of the 1972 Act with respect to arrangements for the discharge of functions by committees of local authorities and sub-committees, and the appointment of such committees and sub-committees, shall be subject to this section and section 31.
- (3) Every person who is a member of the council for an electoral division which falls within the area for which the committee is established shall be entitled to be appointed to the committee at his request.
- (4) The committee may appoint additional persons, including members of the council who are not entitled to membership of the committee under subsection (3), as members of the committee.
- (5) No other persons shall be eligible for appointment to the committee.
- (6) In this section, in relation to an area committee, “co-opted member” means any member appointed by the committee under subsection (4).
- (7) Where the Secretary of State has given a direction under section 297 of the ^{M15}Education Act 1993 (power to direct appointment of members of certain committees) which applies to the committee and can only be complied with by the appointment of one or more additional members to the committee, it shall be the duty of the committee to exercise its powers of appointment to secure compliance with the direction.
- (8) A co-opted member of an area committee shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the committee on any question which falls to be decided at that meeting.
- (9) Nothing in subsection (8) shall prevent the appointment of a person, in compliance with a direction under section 297 of the Act of 1993, as a voting member of an area committee.
- (10) In the application of section 101 of the 1972 Act (arrangement for discharge of functions by local authorities) in relation to the committee—
 - (a) subsection (1) shall have effect as if it gave power to the committee, if authorised to do so by the decentralisation scheme, to arrange for the discharge of any of its functions by a local authority other than the authority who made the scheme;
 - (b) subsection (2) shall have effect with the omission of the words “unless the local authority otherwise direct” and (in the second place where they occur) the words “the local authority or”.
- (11) Sections 102(3) of the 1972 Act (power to include persons who are not members of the local authority concerned) and 15 of the ^{M16}Local Government and Housing Act

31 Sub-committees of area committees.

- (1) In this section “sub-committee” means a sub-committee of an area committee.
- (2) The members of a sub-committee shall be appointed by the area committee from among persons who are—
 - (a) members of the area committee appointed under subsection (3) of section 30; or
 - (b) entitled to be members of the area committee by virtue of that subsection.
- (3) Subject to subsection (10), a sub-committee may appoint additional persons, including persons who are not members of the area committee concerned, as members of the sub-committee.
- (4) No other persons shall be eligible for appointment to a sub-committee.
- (5) In this section, in relation to a sub-committee, “co-opted member” means any member of the sub-committee appointed under subsection (3).
- (6) Where the Secretary of State has given a direction under section 297 of the ^{M17}Education Act 1993 (power to direct appointment of members of certain committees) which applies to a sub-committee, it shall be the duty of the area committee concerned and the sub-committee to secure compliance with the direction.
- (7) A co-opted member of a sub-committee shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the sub-committee on any question which falls to be decided at that meeting.
- (8) Nothing in subsection (7) shall prevent the appointment of a person in compliance with a direction under section 297 of the Act of 1993 as a voting member of a sub-committee.
- (9) Sections 102(3) of the 1972 Act (power to include persons who are not members of the local authority concerned) and 15 of the ^{M18}Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (political balance on committees) shall not apply in relation to membership of a sub-committee.

Joint working

32 Provision of information to Secretary of State.

- (1) The Secretary of State may at any time before 31st March 1999 direct any new principal council to give to him—
 - (a) details of the arrangements which they have made, or propose to make, for the performance of specified functions of theirs; and
 - (b) information of a specified kind or description as to the performance of specified functions of theirs.
- (2) In subsection (1) “specified”, in relation to a direction, means specified in the direction.
- (3) Nothing in this section is to be taken as affecting the operation of any other provision under which a local authority may be required to provide information of any kind to the Secretary of State or to any other person.

33 Joint working arrangements.

- (1) Where it appears to the Secretary of State—
 - (a) that particular functions of a new principal council should be discharged in accordance with arrangements entered into by that council and one or more other such councils in relation to the exercise of those functions, but
 - (b) that satisfactory arrangements for the exercise of those functions will not be, or are unlikely to be, in force on or after 1st April 1996, he may, at any time before 31st March 1999, give a direction to the councils concerned requiring them to make specified arrangements in relation to the exercise of specified functions.
- (2) The arrangements specified may, in particular, be, or include, arrangements for the joint exercise of functions.
- (3) In this section “specified”, in relation to a direction, means specified in the direction.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In considering whether to give a direction under subsection (1), the Secretary of State shall have regard, in particular, to the desirability of the functions in question being discharged effectively and in a financially efficient manner.
- (5) A direction under subsection (1) shall remain in force—
 - (a) until it is withdrawn by a notice in writing given by the Secretary of State to the councils concerned; or
 - (b) where a period is specified in the direction during which the direction is to have effect, and the direction has not been withdrawn by the Secretary of State, until the end of that period.
- (6) A direction under subsection (1) may at any time while it is in force be varied by the Secretary of State.
- (7) Nothing in subsection (5) or (6) shall be taken to affect the power of the Secretary of State to give a further direction under subsection (1).

34 Joint authorities.

- (1) Where a direction has been given by the Secretary of State under section 33 but it appears to him that—
 - (a) it has proved impracticable to implement the arrangements required by the direction,
 - (b) the required arrangements have been implemented but are not working satisfactorily, or
 - (c) the required arrangements are, or have been, working satisfactorily but are unlikely to continue to work satisfactorily,he may by order establish a body to act for the areas of the councils to which the direction relates.
- (2) A body established under subsection (1) shall be known as a joint authority and may be established as a body corporate.
- (3) A joint authority shall consist of such number of members as may be determined by the order establishing it.
- (4) Those members shall be appointed by the councils to which the order relates, from among their members, each council being entitled to appoint such number of members as may be specified in the order.
- (5) Where at any time the number of members of a joint authority is less than the required number, the Secretary of State may, if he is satisfied that the councils concerned have had a reasonable opportunity to make the necessary appointment or appointments—
 - (a) give such direction to the councils concerned or to any of them as he considers appropriate; and
 - (b) appoint such members (from among such persons as he considers appropriate) as may be required to complete the membership of the authority.
- (6) The joint authority shall discharge the functions to which the direction relates, from a date specified in the order establishing the authority until such alternative arrangements for the exercise of the functions as appear to the Secretary of State to be satisfactory are brought into force.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (7) The power conferred on the Secretary of State by subsection (1) may not be exercised after 31st March 1999 but an order under subsection (1) which is made before that date shall continue in force until revoked by the Secretary of State.
- (8) An order under this section may—
- (a) provide for the joint authority concerned to be treated, for all purposes or only for the purposes of such enactments as may be prescribed, as a new principal council;
 - (b) provide for such enactments relating to new principal councils as may be prescribed (either generally or by reference to specified enactments) to have effect in relation to the joint authority concerned subject to such modifications as may be prescribed;
 - (c) make provision enabling the Secretary of State to require the joint authority concerned to submit to him a scheme for winding itself up and for the transfer to any of the councils for whose areas the joint authority is established of any of the joint authority's property, rights and liabilities or of any functions which it carries out.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by order provide—
- (a) for excluding any functions, or any functions in any area, from those falling to be carried out by a joint authority; and
 - (b) for giving effect (with or without modifications) to any scheme submitted to him under a provision made by virtue of subsection (8) for the dissolution of a joint authority.
- (10) The power to make an order under this section includes, in particular, power to make provision for the transfer of property, rights and liabilities.

36 Valuation lists for Welsh billing authorities.

After section 22 of the ^{M21}Local Government Finance Act 1992, insert—

“22A Amalgamated valuation lists for Welsh billing authorities.

- Every new listing officer shall, on 1st April 1996, compile a list (“the amalgamated list”) for the new billing authority for which he is appointed, based on the information provided for him under this section.
- The amalgamated list shall contain the information which was included in the valuation lists compiled on 1st April 1993 for the old billing authorities (“the current lists”) so far as that information is relevant.
- The amalgamated list shall also include the information which was included in any current list by way of an alteration, so far as that information is relevant.
- A new listing officer’s amalgamated list shall be treated, for the purposes of this Act, as the valuation list for his new billing authority and shall be deemed to have come into force on 1st April 1993.
- Where an amalgamated list contains information which is derived from any alteration made to any valuation list or lists from which it is derived, the amalgamated list shall be treated as having been varied on the date on which the alteration was made.

- (6) Subsections (2) to (8) of section 22 above shall not apply in relation to an amalgamated list.
- (7) Every listing officer shall—
 - (a) on or before 15th November 1995, provide the appropriate new listing officer with the information recorded in his valuation list as at 31st October 1995 so far as it is relevant; and
 - (b) on 31st March 1996, provide the appropriate new listing officer with the information recorded in his valuation list as at that date, so far as it is relevant.
- (8) A new listing officer receiving any information under subsection (7)(a) above shall send a copy of it to his new billing authority as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (9) As soon as is reasonably practicable after compiling the amalgamated list, a new listing officer shall send a copy of it to his new billing authority.
- (10) A new billing authority receiving a copy of an amalgamated list under subsection (9) above shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, deposit it at its principal office.
- (11) In this section—
 - “old authority” has the same meaning as in the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994;
 - “old billing authority” means a billing authority which is an old authority;
 - “new billing authority” means a billing authority which is a new principal council;
 - “listing officer” means a listing officer for an old billing authority;
 - “new listing officer” means a listing officer for a new billing authority; and
 - “new principal council” has the same meaning as in the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994.
- (12) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) references to a listing officer’s valuation list are references to the valuation list maintained by him under this Act;
 - (b) a new listing officer’s area is the area of the new billing authority for which he is appointed;
 - (c) the appropriate new listing officer, in relation to any information which relates to a dwelling is the new listing officer for the new billing authority in whose area the dwelling is situated; and
 - (d) information is relevant in relation to a new listing officer, or his area, if it relates to a dwelling which is in his area.”

37 Local non-domestic rating lists for Welsh billing authorities.

After section 41 of the ^{M22}Local Government Finance Act 1988, insert—

“41A Local non-domestic rating lists for Welsh billing authorities.

- (1) Every new valuation officer shall, on 1st April 1996, compile a list (“the amalgamated list”) for the new billing authority for which he is appointed, based on the information provided for him under this section.
- (2) The amalgamated list shall contain the information which was included in the local non-domestic rating lists compiled on 1st April 1995 for the old billing authorities (“the current lists”) so far as that information is relevant.
- (3) The amalgamated list shall also include the information which was included in any current list by way of an alteration, so far as that information is relevant.
- (4) A new valuation officer’s amalgamated list shall be treated, for the purposes of this Act, as the local non-domestic rating list for his new billing authority and shall be deemed to have come into force on 1st April 1995.
- (5) Where an amalgamated list contains information which is derived from any alteration made to any list or lists from which it is derived, the amalgamated list shall be treated as having been varied on the date on which the alteration was made.
- (6) Subsections (2) to (6B) of section 41 above shall not apply in relation to an amalgamated list.
- (7) Every valuation officer shall—
 - (a) on or before 15th October 1995, provide the appropriate new valuation officer with the information recorded in his local non-domestic rating list as at 30th September 1995, so far as it is relevant; and
 - (b) on 31st March 1996, provide the appropriate new valuation officer with the information recorded in his local non-domestic rating list as at that date, so far as it is relevant.
- (8) A new valuation officer receiving any information under subsection (7)(a) above shall send a copy of it to his new billing authority as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (9) As soon as is reasonably practicable after compiling an amalgamated list, a new valuation officer shall send a copy of it to his new billing authority.
- (10) A new billing authority receiving a copy of an amalgamated list under subsection (9) above shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, deposit it at its principal office.
- (11) In this section—

- (7) Any account kept only in respect of the general expenses of a new principal council shall be known as their general account and any account kept only in respect of any class of their special expenses shall be known as a special account.
- (8) The Secretary of State may make regulations—
- (a) requiring assets of a prescribed description which fall within a council fund to be held in a separate fund within the council fund;
 - (b) requiring any fund (other than a trust fund) of a prescribed description which is established by a new principal council to be maintained as a separate fund within their council fund.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision with respect to the liability of new principal councils to make payments from their council funds in respect of precepts issued under Chapter IV of Part I of the ^{M23}Local Government Finance Act 1992.
- (10) The regulations may, in particular, include provision—
- (a) that anything falling to be paid must be paid—
 - (i) within a prescribed period; and
 - (ii) in instalments of such amounts, and at such times, as are determined by the billing authority in accordance with prescribed rules;
 - (b) that the billing authority must inform any precepting authorities when instalments will be paid and how they are to be calculated;
 - (c) that if an instalment is not paid to a precepting authority in accordance with the regulations, it is to be entitled to interest on the amount of the instalment;
 - (d) as to the circumstances in which the billing authority is to be treated as having discharged the liability mentioned in subsection (9);
 - (e) as to the recovery (by deduction or otherwise) of any excess amount paid by the billing authority to any precepting authority in purported discharge of the liability mentioned in subsection (9).
- (11) Schedule 12 makes minor and consequential amendments with respect to funds.

RESIDUARY MATTERS AND STAFF

39 The Residuary Body for Wales or Corff Gweddilliol Cymru.

- (1) On 31st March 1996 or on such earlier day as the Secretary of State may by order appoint, there shall be a body corporate to be known as the Residuary Body for Wales or Corff Gweddilliol Cymru (but in this Act referred to as the Residuary Body).
- (2) Schedule 13 shall have effect with respect to the Residuary Body.

40 The Staff Commission for Wales or Comisiwn Staff Cymru.

- (1) There shall be a body corporate to be known as the Staff Commission for Wales or Comisiwn Staff Cymru (but in this Act referred to as the Commission).
- (2) The Commission shall—
 - (a) advise the Secretary of State on the steps necessary to safeguard the interests of staff employed by—
 - (i) the old authorities;
 - (ii) the new principal councils; or
 - (iii) the Residuary Body;
 - (b) consider and keep under review—
 - (i) arrangements for the recruitment of the staff of any of those bodies; and
 - (ii) the organisation, management and remuneration of the staff of the new principal councils;
 - (c) consider and keep under review the arrangements for the transfer of staff from any of the old authorities in consequence of any provision made by or under this Act; and
 - (d) consider such staffing problems and other staffing matters as may be referred to it by the Secretary of State as arising out of any provision made by or under this Act.
- (3) The Secretary of State may give directions to the Commission as to its procedure and to any of the new principal councils or old authorities, or the Residuary Body, with respect to—
 - (a) the supply of any information requested, and the implementation of any advice given, by the Commission; and
 - (b) the payment by such a council or authority, or by the Residuary Body, of any expenses incurred by the Commission in doing anything requested by that council or authority or by the Residuary Body.
- (4) Schedule 14 makes provision with respect to the constitution of the Commission and related matters.

41 Continuity of employment in certain cases of voluntary transfer.

- (1) This section applies to a person (“the employee”) who at any time ceases to be employed by an old authority if—
 - (a) the termination of his employment is attributable to any provision made by or under this Act;
 - (b) he is subsequently employed by another person; and
 - (c) by virtue of section 84 of the ^{M24}Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978 (renewal or re-engagement) that subsequent employment precludes his receiving any redundancy payment under Part VI of that Act with respect to his terminated employment.
- (2) Schedule 13 to the Act of 1978 (computation of period of employment for the purposes of that Act) shall have effect as if it provided—
 - (a) for the period of the employee’s employment by the old authority to count as a period of employment with his new employer; and
 - (b) for the change of employer not to break the continuity of the period of his employment.
- (3) For the purposes of any provision of the employee’s contract of employment with his new employer which depends on his length of service with that employer, the period of his employment with the old authority shall count as a period of employment with his new employer.

- (3) Such an order may specify as the new employer a new principal council or the Residuary Body.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (2)—
 - (a) all the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the abolished body under, or in connection with, the contract shall by virtue of this section be transferred on 1st April 1996 to the new employer; and
 - (b) anything done before 1st April 1996 by or in relation to the abolished body in respect of the contract or the designated employee shall be deemed from that date to have been done by or in relation to the new employer.
- (5) Nothing in this section affects any right of a designated employee to terminate his contract of employment if a substantial change is made in his working conditions, to his detriment, but no such right shall arise by reason only of the change of employer effected by this section.
- (6) A class or description of person may be specified by an order under subsection (1) by reference to such list or other document or documents as may be identified in accordance with the order.
- (7) In this section “abolished body” means an old authority or any joint board which ceases to exist as a result of section 59.

43 Compensation for loss of office or diminution of emoluments.

- (1) Where any person—
 - (a) is, at any time after the passing of this Act, in the service of an old authority, a new principal council or the Residuary Body, and
 - (b) suffers loss of employment or diminution of emoluments which is attributable to any provision made by or under this Act, compensation in respect of any such loss or diminution suffered by him shall be paid only in accordance with regulations made under section 24 of the ^{M25}Superannuation Act 1972.
- (2) Accordingly, none of the bodies mentioned in subsection (1) shall pay any such compensation under any other statutory provision, by virtue of any provision in a contract or otherwise.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not preclude the making of any payment to which a person is entitled by virtue of contractual rights acquired by him before 1st December 1993.
- (4) No compensation shall be payable under regulations made under the ^{M26}Superannuation Act 1972, to or in respect of a person to whom subsection (1) applies, in respect of any loss or diminution attributable to the termination of a late contract on or before 1st April 1996.
- (5) In subsection (4)—

“late contract” means a contract which is made after 30th November 1993 and provides for the employment of the person concerned for a fixed term extending beyond 31st March 1996; and “loss or diminution” means loss or diminution of a kind mentioned in subsection (1).

(6) For the purpose of determining under section 82(5) or (6) or 84(3) of the ^{M27}Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978—

(a) whether the provisions of a new contract offered to a person employed by any such body as is mentioned in subsection (1) differ from the corresponding provisions of his previous contract, and

(b) whether employment under the new contract is suitable in relation to that person, there shall be treated as forming part of the remuneration payable under the new contract any compensation to which that person is or, if he accepted the offer, would be entitled in accordance with this section.

(7) Subject to subsection (6), nothing in this section shall be taken to affect any entitlement to a redundancy payment under Part VI of the Act of 1978 or to any payment by virtue of any provision of the ^{M28}Superannuation Act 1972 other than section 24 of that Act.

PART VI

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

46 Committees of existing councils for consideration of certain matters.

- (1) The councils of each of the old authorities whose areas will be wholly or partly included in the area of a new principal council shall, as soon as is practicable after the passing of this Act, establish a joint committee (“a transition committee”) to consider and advise on transitional matters.
- (2) Each transition committee shall consist of such number of representatives of the authorities by whom it is established as may be agreed between them or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by the Secretary of State.
- (3) In making any determination under subsection (2), the Secretary of State shall secure that the number of persons who represent county councils is equal to the number who represent district councils.
- (4) A transition committee may co-opt additional persons to serve as members of the committee.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a matter is a transitional matter in relation to a new principal council if, in the opinion of the transition committee for that council, it is one which it is expedient for the committee to consider in order to ensure that the council will be able to function effectively as from 1st April 1996.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The Secretary of State may give a direction requiring—
 - (a) a particular transition committee,
 - (b) every transition committee falling within a class specified in the direction, or
 - (c) every transition committee,to consider any such matter as may be specified in the direction.
- (7) Any expenses incurred by a committee established under this section shall be defrayed by the authorities by whom the committee was established in such proportions as may be agreed between them or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by the Secretary of State.

47 Old and new principal areas with the same name.

- (1) Where a local government area established by this Act (“the new area”) has the same name as a local government area (“the old area”) in existence at any time before the commencement of section 1(1), references in any enactment passed before this Act to the old area by name are not to be read as references to the new area.
- (2) This section is subject to any provision to the contrary made by or under this Act.

48 Groups of communities.

- (1) Where, as a result of the creation of new principal areas by this Act, the communities within an existing group of communities will not all be within the same new principal area, the district council concerned shall, before 1st April 1996 make an order—
 - (a) dissolving the group; or
 - (b) separating one or more of the communities from the group in order to secure that the remaining members of the group will all be within the same new principal area.
- (2) Any order under subsection (1) shall make such provision as appears to the district council necessary for the election, in accordance with the 1972 Act and Part I of the Representation of the^{M31} People Act 1983, of a community council for any community which, as a result of the order, is no longer a member of the group.
- (3) Section 31 of the 1972 Act (provisions supplementary to sections 27 to 29 of that Act), applies in relation to an order made under this section as it applies to one made under section 29 of that Act.

- (2) Where, immediately before the commencement of this section, any power with respect to a charity was vested in the proper officer of an old authority or in the holder of any other office of an old authority that power shall vest in the corresponding officer of the appropriate council.
- (3) Where, immediately before the commencement of this section, an old authority or any officer of an old authority is included among the charity trustees of a charity, those trustees shall include instead the appropriate council or (as the case may be) the corresponding officer of that council.
- (4) Where subsection (1) applies and the property in question is held for the benefit of—
 - (a) a specified area,
 - (b) the inhabitants of a specified area, or
 - (c) any particular class or body of persons in a specified area, the appropriate council is the new principal council whose area comprises the whole, or the greater part, of the specified area.
- (5) In any other case falling within this section, the appropriate council is the new principal council whose area comprises the whole, or the greater part, of the area of the old authority in question.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by order make provision with respect to any of the matters dealt with by this section, either in substitution for the provision made by this section or by way of supplementing or modifying that provision, and either generally or in relation to prescribed cases or classes of case.
- (7) Nothing in this section—
 - (a) affects any power of Her Majesty, the court or any other person to alter the trusts of any charity; or
 - (b) applies in a case to which section 50 applies.
- (8) In this section “charity”, “charitable purposes”, “charity trustees”, “court” and “trusts” have the same meaning as in the ^{M32}Charities Act 1993.

be vested in such designated new principal council as the Secretary of State may by order specify.

- (3) Where, by virtue of this section, property is vested in a designated council whose designated area does not comprise the whole of the area of the old authority in question, the designated council shall transfer an apportioned part of the property to any other designated council whose designated area includes part of the area of the old authority.
- (4) The terms of any apportionment made for the purposes of subsection (3)—
 - (a) shall be agreed between the designated councils concerned, or
 - (b) if they fail to agree, shall be determined by arbitration before a single arbitrator appointed—
 - (i) by agreement between those councils, or
 - (ii) if they fail to agree, by the Secretary of State.
- (5) The vesting or transfer of any property by virtue of this section shall not affect—
 - (a) the application of the property in accordance with the scheme which is applicable to it immediately before the commencement of this section, or
 - (b) the amendment or revocation of any scheme by a further scheme.
- (6) In this section—

“designated” means designated by order under subsection (1); and “scheme” means a scheme under section 19 of the ^{M33}Welsh Church Act 1914 (application of Welsh Church funds for charitable or eleemosynary purposes).

51 Control of disposals and contracts.

- (1) On and after the operative date no old authority may, without the appropriate consent—
 - (a) dispose of any land or building if the consideration for the disposal exceeds £100,000;
 - (b) enter into any contract, other than a capital contract, in respect of which the consideration exceeds £100,000 where—
 - (i) the period of the contract extends beyond 31st March 1996; or
 - (ii) under the terms of the contract, that period may be extended beyond that date; or
 - (c) enter into any capital contract in respect of which the consideration exceeds £1,000,000.
- (2) In this section—

“appropriate consent” means the written consent of the successor to the old authority or, where there is more than one successor, the written consent of each successor;

“capital contract” means a contract in respect of which the consideration payable by the old authority concerned is expenditure for capital purposes;

“expenditure for capital purposes” has the same meaning as it has for the purposes of Part IV of the^{M34} Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (revenue accounts and capital finance of local authorities), by virtue of section 40 of that Act, and includes any expenditure which the authority concerned may (by virtue of a direction given under subsection (6) of that section) treat as expenditure for capital purposes;

“operative date” means the date fixed by order of the Secretary of State under paragraph 1 of Schedule 5 to the 1972 Act (as substituted by this Act); and “successor”, in relation to an old authority, means any new authority whose area includes the whole, or any part, of the area of the old authority.

- (3) Any disposal made in contravention of this section shall be void.
- (4) No contract entered into in contravention of this section shall be enforceable against a successor.
- (5) Any consent for the purposes of this section may be given—
 - (a) in respect of a particular disposal or contract, or in respect of disposals or contracts of any class or description; and
 - (b) unconditionally or subject to conditions.
- (6) The provisions of section 123 of the 1972 Act (power to dispose of land), and of any other enactment relating to the disposal of land by local authorities, shall have effect subject to this section.
- (7) The consent required by this section is in addition to any consent required by any of those provisions.
- (8) In this section references to disposing of land include references to—
 - (a) granting or disposing of any interest in land;
 - (b) entering into a contract to dispose of land or to grant or dispose of any such interest; and
 - (c) granting an option to acquire any land or any such interest.
- (9) For the purpose of determining whether a limit specified in subsection (1) is exceeded in any case, there shall be taken into account the consideration—
 - (a) with respect to any other disposal of land or any building effected by the old authority after 30th November 1993, or
 - (b) under any other contract entered into by the old authority after that date, so far as the disposal or contract relates to the same or a similar description of matter as that to which the case under consideration relates.
- (10) Where the consideration or any of the consideration under a contract is not in money, the limits specified in subsection (1) shall apply to the value of the consideration.

52 Application of Part I of the Local Government Act 1988 during transitional period.

- (1) Sections 9 to 16 of the ^{M35}Local Government Act 1988 (accounts, reports and other information in relation to defined activities) shall apply in relation to work—
- (a) carried out by a Welsh authority in the transitional period (whether or not before the passing of this Act), and
 - (b) falling within an exempt activity,
- even though (as a result of its falling within that activity) sections 4 to 8 of that Act (restrictions in relation to works contracts and functional work) do not apply.
- (2) An activity is an exempt activity if—
- (a) on 31st March 1994, it was a defined activity for the purposes of the Act of 1988 and not the subject of an order under section 2(9) of the Act of 1988; and
 - (b) it is treated, by an exempting order having effect in relation to a period beginning after that date, as not being a defined activity.
- (3) In this section—
- “exempting order” means an order under section 2(9) of the Act of 1988 which specifies, as the period during which an activity is to be treated as not being a defined activity, a period ending on a date earlier than 1st April 1997;
 - “transitional period”, in relation to an exempt activity, means the period specified in the exempting order; and
 - “Welsh authority” means a county or district council, a new principal council or a combined fire authority for an area in Wales.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order (an “extension order”) provide that, in relation to a particular order under section 2(9) of the Act of 1988, subsection (3) is to have effect as if the date mentioned in the definition of “exempting order” were such date later than 1st April 1997 as may be specified in the extension order.
- (5) Where sections 9 to 16 of the Act of 1988 apply by virtue of this section they shall be read with the following omissions—
- (a) in section 9 (keeping of accounts), subsection (4), and the references to subsection (4) in subsections (5) and (6);
 - (b) in section 11 (reporting for financial year), subsections (2)(c) and (e);
 - (c) in section 12 (providing information), subsections (1) and (2); and 53 Continuity of exercise of functions.

- (1) The abolition of the old authorities shall not affect the validity of anything done by any of those authorities before their abolition.
- (2) Anything which at 1st April 1996 is in the process of being done by or in relation to an old authority in the exercise of, or in connection with, any relevant functions may be continued by or in relation to the authority (“the successor authority”) by which those functions become exercisable or, as the case may be, become exercisable in respect of the area in question.
- (3) Where immediately before 1st April 1996 any relevant functions exercisable by an old authority are exercisable concurrently by another such authority, or by other such authorities in respect of their respective areas, subsection (2) shall have effect as if those functions had by virtue of this Act become functions of that other authority or of those other authorities in respect of their respective areas.
- (4) Anything done by or in relation to an old authority before 1st April 1996 in the exercise of or in connection with any relevant functions shall, so far as is required for continuing its effect on and after that date, have effect as if done by or in relation to the successor authority.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies in particular to—
 - (a) any decision, determination, declaration, designation, agreement or instrument made by an old authority;
 - (b) any regulations or byelaws made by an old authority;
 - (c) any licence, permission, consent, approval, authorisation, exemption, dispensation or relaxation granted by or to an old authority;
 - (d) any notice, direction or certificate given by or to an old authority;
 - (e) any application, request, proposal or objection made by or to an old authority;
 - (f) any condition or requirement imposed by or on an old authority;
 - (g) any fee paid by or to an old authority;

57 Local Acts and instruments.

- (1) Any local statutory provision to which this section applies and which is not continued in force by any other provision of this Act shall continue to apply on and after 1st April 1996 to the area, things or persons to which or to whom it applies before that date, but subject to the modifications made by subsections (3) to (5) and to any other necessary modifications.
- (2) The continuation by subsection (1) of an instrument made under any enactment shall not be taken to affect any power to vary or revoke the instrument which is exercisable apart from that subsection.
- (3) Subsection (1) has effect subject to the provisions of—
 - (a) this Act;
 - (b) any Act passed after this Act but before 1st April 1996; and
 - (c) any order made under section 54 or 55 or this section.
- (4) Any local statutory provision to which this section applies and which relates to functions exercisable by an old authority of any description, by virtue of any public general enactment, shall have effect as if for any reference to the authority by whom the functions are exercisable immediately before 1st April 1996 or to their area there were substituted a reference to—
 - (a) the authority by whom those functions are exercisable on and after that date; or
 - (b) (as the case may be) to so much of the area of the latter authority as comprises the area of the former authority or any part of that area.
- (5) In any local statutory provision to which this section applies but which does not fall within subsection (4), for any reference to the area of an old authority or to an old authority there shall be substituted a reference to so much of the new principal area as comprises the area of the old authority or any part thereof or, as the case may be, the council of that new principal area.
- (6) Subsections (4) and (5) have effect subject to any provision to the contrary made by, or by any instrument made under, this Act.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order provide for the exercise of functions conferred by any local statutory provision to which this section applies and exclude the operation of any provision of this section where it would otherwise conflict with any provision of the order.

59 Existing joint boards and committees and port health districts.

- (1) Where an existing joint board was constituted by or under any enactment for exercising functions for any area (including any united district), the board shall continue in existence on and after 1st April 1996 and to exercise for that area the same functions as before that date (to the exclusion of new principal councils).
- (2) In subsection (1)—
 - “joint board” means a joint board every constituent member of which is a local authority in Wales; and
 - “area” does not include a port health district.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a joint board constituted for an area which on 1st April 1996 will be wholly within the area of a single new principal council if the board was constituted for the purpose of exercising functions which on and after that date would (apart from the existence of the board) be exercisable by that council.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies whether or not the board has additional functions which, apart from this section, would not be exercisable by the new principal council.
- (5) In a case to which subsection (3) applies—
 - (a) the functions of the board shall on 1st April 1996 become functions of the new principal council; and
 - (b) the joint board shall cease to exist on that date.
- (6) This subsection applies where—
 - (a) a port health district was constituted by an order under any enactment relating to public health; and
 - (b) a local authority or joint board, every constituent member of which is a local authority, is the port health authority for that district.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (7) Where subsection (6) applies, the district shall continue to exist as a port health district on and after 1st April 1996.
- (8) Where, on 1st April 1996, a single new principal council will become the riparian authority in relation to a port health district continued in existence by subsection (7)
 - (a) that authority shall, on that date, become the port health authority for that district; and
 - (b) any existing joint board constituted for that district shall cease to exist.
- (9) Where, on 1st April 1996, two or more new principal councils will become riparian authorities in relation to a port health district continued in existence by subsection (7), the port health authority for the district shall be—
 - (a) the existing port health authority, if that authority is a joint board; and
 - (b) the new principal council whose area comprises or abuts on the greater part of the district, in any other case.
- (10) Any question as to which new principal council's area comprises or abuts on the greater part of a port health district shall be determined by the Secretary of State.
- (11) This subsection applies to any existing joint committee constituted under any enactment for the purpose of exercising functions for an area which on 1st April 1996 will lie within the areas of two or more new principal councils by whom those functions would apart from this subsection become exercisable on that date.
- (12) A joint committee to which subsection (11) applies—
 - (a) shall continue to exist on and after 1st April 1996 as if duly appointed by or in connection with those new principal councils; and
 - (b) shall exercise those functions for the area for which the committee exercised them before that date.
- (13) Nothing in subsection (12) is to be taken as preventing new principal councils from making different arrangements for the discharge of functions.
- (14) The continuation in existence of any area or body by this section does not prejudice any power conferred by any enactment to amend or revoke the order constituting the area or body or the power to make provision with respect to the body conferred by section 54.
- (15) Subsections (1) and (3) do not apply to a joint planning board for a National Park in Wales.
- (16) The following provisions shall have effect for the construction of references to a local statutory provision to which section 57 applies—
 - (a) any reference to an existing joint board which ceases to exist by virtue of this section, or any reference which is to be construed as such a reference, shall be construed as a reference to the new principal council by whom the functions of that board will become exercisable by virtue of this section;
 - (b) any reference to a united district or other area the existing joint board for which ceases to exist by virtue of subsection (3), or any reference which is to be construed as such a reference, shall be construed as a reference to so much of the area of the new principal council by whom the functions formerly exercisable by the existing joint board become exercisable on 1st April 1996, as comprises the united district or other area for which the board acted; and

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. - (c) any reference to an existing local authority whose functions as port health authority become exercisable on 1st April 1996 by virtue of this section by a new principal council, or any reference which is to be construed as such a reference, shall be construed as a reference to that council.

(17) In this section “existing” means existing immediately before 1st April 1996.

(18) This section has effect subject to any provision made by or under this Act.

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTAL

VALID FROM 03/04/1995

60 Records.

- (1) Each new principal council shall make and maintain a scheme setting out their arrangements for the proper care, preservation and management of their records.
- (2) Each scheme shall include details of any relevant shared arrangements which the council concerned have made.
- (3) The council by whom a scheme has been made shall keep the scheme under review and, where they consider that it should be modified, make such adjustments to it as they consider appropriate.
- (4) Before making, or modifying, their scheme a new principal council shall consult the Secretary of State and have regard to any advice that he may give.
- (5) Where the records of a new principal council relate to the area, or part of the area, of another such council, that other council shall have the right—
 - (a) to inspect those records at all reasonable times (without payment of any fee); and
 - (b) to take copies of any of them, in such manner as carries no risk of damage.
- (6) The right conferred by subsection (5) is subject to any shared arrangements which affect the records concerned.
- (7) In this section—

“documents” includes records, of whatever form and in whatever medium, which convey or are capable of conveying information;

“records”, in relation to a council, means any documents which—

 - (a) belong to the council or of which they have custody; and
 - (b) have been retained for reference and research purposes or because of their likely historical interest; and “shared arrangements”, in relation to a council, means any arrangements which the council have made with any other authority under section 25 of this Act or section 101 of the 1972 Act (arrangements for the discharge of functions by other local authorities).

SCHEDULE 2

Section 1(3).

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO PRESERVED COUNTIES

SCHEDULE 3

Section 3.

ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW PRINCIPAL COUNCILS

The following is substituted for Schedule 5 to the 1972 Act—

“SCHEDULE 5

ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW PRINCIPAL COUNCILS

Election of councillors

1 The elections of councillors of the new principal councils which are to be held in 1995 shall be held on a date fixed by the Secretary of State by order.

Electoral divisions

2 (1) For the purpose of any election of such councillors, each principal area shall be divided into electoral divisions specified in an order made by the Secretary of State after carrying out (either before or after the passing of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994) such consultations as he thinks appropriate.

(2) An order under this paragraph for any area shall specify the number of councillors to be returned for each electoral division.

(3) There shall be a separate election of councillors for each electoral division.

(4) An order under this paragraph may contain such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplemental provision as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

First elections of new councils

3 (1) At the first elections of councillors for each new principal area, the returning officer shall be an officer of the council appointed by such county council or district council as the Secretary of State may by order designate and not a person appointed under section 35 of the Representation of the ^{M42}People Act 1983.

(2) Section 36(4) of the Act of 1983 shall not apply to any such election.

(3) All expenditure properly incurred by a returning officer or other officer in relation to the holding of the first elections of councillors for a new principal area shall be paid in

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the first instance by the council by whom the returning officer was appointed and shall be defrayed by the district councils in the area—

- (a) in such proportions as may be agreed between them; or
- (b) in default of such agreement, as may be determined by the Secretary of State.

- (4) In relation to the first elections of councillors for a new principal area, “the appropriate officer”, in Parts II and III of the Representation of the People Act 1983, does not have the meaning given by section 67(7) of that Act but means the returning officer appointed under this paragraph.

Declarations of acceptance of office

- 4 (1) For the purpose of taking and receiving delivery of declarations of acceptance of the office of councillor of any new principal council before the first meeting of that council, the head of paid service of an authority designated by the appropriate transition committee—
- (a) shall be deemed to be and shall act as the proper officer of the new council; and
 - (b) shall transfer any such declaration which has been delivered to him to the custody of the proper officer of the new council on the appointment of the latter.
- (2) In this Schedule “head of paid service”, in relation to an authority, means the officer of that authority who is designated under section 4 of the ^{M43}Local Government and Housing Act 1989.

First meetings of new principal councils

- 5 (1) The first meeting of each new principal council shall be held within 21 days immediately following the day of election and shall be treated as the annual meeting of the council for 1995.
- (2) The meeting shall be convened by the head of paid service of an authority designated by the appropriate transition committee and shall be held at such place as he may appoint.
- (3) The notice of the meeting required by paragraph 4(2) of Schedule 12 to this Act shall be published at the place where the meeting is to be held and the summons to attend the meeting shall be signed by the person convening it.
- 6 (1) Until the completion of the election of a chairman at the first meeting of a new principal council, persons designated by the appropriate transition committee shall exercise any functions falling to be exercised by the chairman and vice-chairman of the council.
- (2) Any person so designated shall not vote in the first instance at the election of the chairman unless he is a councillor for the new area.
- (3) At the first meeting of a new principal council the head of paid service of an authority so designated shall exercise any functions falling to be exercised by the proper officer of the new council in relation to the meeting.
- (4) The standing orders for the regulation of the proceedings and business of an authority so designated shall apply at the first meeting of a new principal council.
- 7 If he is requested to do so, the Secretary of State may himself exercise a committee’s power of designation for the purposes of any provision of paragraph 4, 5 or 6 above on the ground that the committee is unlikely to exercise the power in time for that provision to operate.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Qualification for membership

- 8 For the purposes of section 79 above, in its application to a candidate for membership of a new principal council, the new principal areas shall be treated as having been established not less than 12 months before the day of his nomination as such a candidate or, in relation to an election not preceded by the nomination of candidates, before the day of election.

Suspension of elections

- 9 (1) In this paragraph “council” means a county or district council which ceases to exist on 1st April 1996 by virtue of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994.
- (2) No election of councillors of a council shall be held after 31st December 1994, except—
- (a) to fill a casual vacancy in the office of councillor of that council where before 31st December 1994—
 - (i) the office has been declared to be vacant; or
 - (ii) notice of the vacancy has been given under section 89(1) of this Act; or
 - (b) where the number of casual vacancies in the office of councillor of a council occurring after 31st December 1994 exceeds half of the total number of such offices.
- (3) Any such councillor holding office immediately before 31st December 1994, or elected after that date to fill a casual vacancy, shall, unless he resigns his office or it otherwise becomes vacant, continue to hold office until 1st April 1996.
- (4) It shall not be necessary—
- (a) to fill any casual vacancy in the office of councillor of a council occurring after 31st December 1994; and accordingly section 89 of this Act shall have effect with the necessary modifications in relation to any such vacancy; or
 - (b) to fill any casual vacancy occurring during March 1996 in the office of chairman or vice-chairman of a council.

Appropriate transition committee

- 10 In this Schedule, “appropriate transition committee” means the committee established under section 46 of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 in relation to the new principal council in question.”

SCHEDULE 4

Section 18(7).

EXERCISE OF PLANNING FUNCTIONS IN WALES

After Schedule 1 to the planning Act insert the following Schedule—

“SCHEDULE 1A

DISTRIBUTION OF LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY FUNCTIONS: WALES

- 1 (1) Where a local planning authority are not the local highway authority, the Secretary of State may include in a development order such provisions as he thinks fit enabling the local highway authority to impose restrictions on the grant by the local planning authority of planning permission for the following descriptions of development relating to land in the area of the local highway authority—
 - (a) the formation, laying out or alteration of any means of access to—
 - (i) a road classified under section 12(3) of the ^{M44}Highways Act 1980 or section 27 of the ^{M45}Local Government Act 1966; or
 - (ii) a proposed road the route of which has been adopted by resolution of the local highway authority and notified as such to the local planning authority;
 - (b) any other operations or use of land which appear to the local highway authority to be likely to—
 - (i) result in a material increase in the volume of traffic entering or leaving such a classified or proposed road;
 - (ii) prejudice the improvement or construction of such a road; or
 - (iii) result in a material change in the character of traffic entering, leaving or using such a road.
- (2) The reference to a local planning authority in sub-paragraph (1) shall not be construed as including a reference to an urban development corporation who are the local planning authority by virtue of an order under section 149 of the ^{M46}Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980, and no provision of a development order which is included in it by virtue of that sub-paragraph is to be construed as applying to such a corporation.
- (3) The Secretary of State may include in a development order provision enabling a local highway authority to impose restrictions on the grant by an urban development corporation who are the local planning authority of planning permission for such descriptions of development as may be specified in the order.
- 2 (1) A local planning authority who have the function of determining applications for planning permission shall, if requested to do so by the council for any community or group of communities situated in their area, notify that council of—
 - (a) any relevant planning application; and
 - (b) any alteration to that application accepted by the authority.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) “relevant planning application” means an application which—

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) relates to land in the community or (as the case may be) one of the communities concerned; and
 - (b) is an application for—
 - (i) planning permission; or
 - (ii) approval of a matter reserved under an outline planning permission within the meaning of section 92.
- (3) Any request made for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) shall be in writing and shall state that the community council wishes to be notified of all relevant applications or all applications of a description specified in the request.
- (4) An authority shall comply with the duty to notify a community council of an application by—
 - (a) sending the council a copy of the application; or
 - (b) indicating to the council the nature of the development which is the subject of the application and identifying the land to which it relates, and any notification falling within paragraph (b) shall be in writing.
- (5) An authority shall comply with their duty to notify a community council of an alteration by—
 - (a) sending a copy of the alteration to the council; or
 - (b) informing the council in writing of its general effect, but they need not notify a community council of an alteration which in their opinion is trivial.
- (6) A development order may require a local planning authority who are dealing with an application of which a community council is entitled to be notified—
 - (a) to give to the council an opportunity to make representations to them as to the manner in which the application should be determined;
 - (b) to take into account any such representations;
 - (c) to notify the council of the terms of their decision or, where the application is referred to the Secretary of State, the date when it was so referred and, when notified to them, the terms of his decision.
- 3 Paragraphs 4 to 10 apply only in relation to any area for which, by virtue of any provision of or made under section 6, 7 or 8, there is more than one local planning authority.
- 4 In sections 178(1), 181(4)(b) and 190(2), (3) and (5) any reference to the local planning authority shall be construed as a reference to the authority who issued the notice or made the order in question or, in the case of a notice issued or an order made by the Secretary of State, the authority named in the notice or order.
- 5 The functions of a local planning authority under section 187B are exercisable by any body having the function of taking enforcement action in respect of the breach in question.
- 6 Where a local planning authority have made a tree preservation order under section 198 or the Secretary of State has made such an order by virtue of section 202, the powers of varying or revoking the order and the powers of dispensing with section 206 or serving, or appearing on an appeal relating to, a notice under section 207 shall be exercisable only by the authority who made the order or, in the case of an order made by the Secretary of State, the authority named in the order.

7 (1) The copy of the notice required to be served by paragraph 4(5) of Schedule 8 on a local planning authority shall, in the case of a proposal that a government department should give a direction under section 90(1) or that development should be carried out by or on behalf of a government department, be served on the local planning authority who, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, would have been responsible for dealing with an application for planning permission for the development in question if such an application had fallen to be made.

(2) References in paragraphs 3(2) and 5(1) of that Schedule to the local planning authority shall be construed as references to the local planning authority on whom that copy is required to be served.

Compensation

8 (1) Claims for payment of compensation under section 107 (including that section as applied by section 108) and sections 115(1) to (4) and 186 shall, subject to sub-paragraph (3), be made to and paid by the local planning authority who took the action by virtue of which the claim arose or, where that action was taken by the Secretary of State, the local planning authority from whom the appeal was made to him or who referred the matter to him or, in the case of an order made or notice served by him by virtue of section 100, 104 or 185, the appropriate authority, and references in those sections to a local planning authority shall be construed accordingly.

(2) In this paragraph “appropriate authority” means—

(a) in the case of a claim for compensation under section 107 or 108, the local planning authority who granted, or are to be treated for the purposes of section 107 as having granted, the planning permission the revocation or modification of which gave rise to the claim; and

(b) in the case of a claim for compensation under section 115(1) to (4) or 186, the local planning authority named in the relevant order or stop notice of the Secretary of State.

(3) The Secretary of State may, after consultation with all the authorities concerned, direct that where a local planning authority is liable to pay compensation under any of the provisions mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) in any particular case or class of case they shall be entitled to be reimbursed the whole of the compensation or such proportion of it as he may direct from one or more authorities specified in the direction.

9 Claims for payment of compensation under a tree preservation order by virtue of section 203, and claims for payment of compensation under section 204 by virtue of directions given in pursuance of such an order, shall be made to and paid by the local planning authority who made the order or, in the case of an order made by the Secretary of State, the authority named in the order; and the reference in section 204(2) to the authority exercising functions under the tree preservation order shall have effect subject to the provisions of this paragraph.

10 The local planning authority by whom compensation is to be paid under section 279(1)(a) to statutory undertakers shall be the authority who referred the application for planning permission to the Secretary of State and the appropriate Minister, or from whose decision the appeal was made to them or who served the enforcement notice appealed against, as the case may be.

“plan area”, in relation to an existing plan or interim plan, means the area in respect of which it was in force immediately before 1st April 1996 or, as the case may be, comes into force on or after that date.

Revocation of structure plan

- 2 (1) Where under Chapter I of Part II of this Act the Secretary of State approves all or any of Part I of a unitary development plan for the whole or part of the area of a local planning authority in Wales (“the relevant whole or part area”), he may by order—
- (a) wholly or partly revoke an existing plan which is a structure plan in respect of the plan area, to the extent that it is comprised in the relevant whole or part area or any part of it; and
 - (b) make such consequential amendments to that existing plan as appear to him to be necessary or expedient.
- (2) Before making an order under this paragraph, the Secretary of State shall consult the local planning authority for the area to which the unitary development plan relates.

Incorporation of current policy in unitary development plan

- 3 (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) a unitary development plan is being prepared for the area of a local planning authority in Wales;
 - (b) the local planning authority preparing that plan have published in the prescribed manner a statement in the prescribed form identifying a policy included in the plan as an existing policy;
 - (c) one or more local plans is or, as the case may be, are together in force throughout the policy area; and
 - (d) a local inquiry or other hearing is held for the purpose of considering any objection to the plan.
- (2) The person holding the inquiry or other hearing need not allow an objector to appear if he is satisfied that—
- (a) the objection is to a policy identified in the statement published under sub-paragraph (1)(b);
 - (b) the policy so identified is an existing policy; and
 - (c) there has been no significant change in circumstances affecting the existing policy since it first formed part of any plan mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(c).
- (3) In this paragraph—
- “existing policy” means a policy the substance of which (however expressed) was contained in the local plan or local plans mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(c);
 - “policy” includes a proposal; and

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The provisions of this Part of this Schedule apply separately in relation to—
- (a) the Park area or, if there is more than one, each Park area, and
 - (b) the remaining area.
- (5) Any reference in this Part of this Schedule to the area of the local planning authority (including any reference which falls to be so construed) shall be construed—
- (a) in its application in relation to any Park area, as a reference to that Park area, and
 - (b) in its application in relation to the remaining area, as a reference to that area.
- (6) In this paragraph—
- “the Park area”, in relation to a National Park, means the part of the local planning authority’s area which is within the area prescribed under section 23B(2) of the planning Act in relation to that Park or, where there is more than one such part, those parts taken as a whole;
- “the remaining area” means the part of the local planning authority’s area which is not within an area so prescribed in relation to any National Park.

Application in relation to National Parks

- 10 The functions of a local planning authority under this Part of this Schedule are functions to which Part I of Schedule 17 to the 1972 Act (discharge of planning and countryside functions in National Parks) applies.

Interpretation

- 11 (1) In this Part of this Schedule—
- “affected area”, in relation to a new planning authority, means—
- (a) in the case of a required plan (or proposed required plan) or a structure plan, the plan area, and
 - (b) in the case of alteration proposals or structure plan alteration proposals, the related area,
- to the extent that, on 1st April 1996, it became comprised in the area of the new planning authority;
- “alteration proposals” means proposals for the alteration or replacement of a required plan (or of a plan which is treated as such a plan by virtue of paragraph 44(2) of Schedule 4 to the ^{M51}Planning and Compensation Act 1991)—
- (a) previously permitted to be prepared under section 39(1) of the planning Act; or
 - (b) previously required to be prepared by a direction of the Secretary of State under section 39(2) of that Act;
- “modified plan”, in relation to a required plan (or proposed required plan) and any area, means that plan to the extent that it relates or is to relate to the area;
- “modified proposals”, in relation to alteration proposals and any area, means those proposals to the extent that they relate or are to relate to the area;

Status: Point in time view as at 05/07/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 19 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“modified structure plan proposals”, in relation to structure plan alteration proposals and any area, means those proposals to the extent that they relate or are to relate to the area;

“new planning authority” means a new principal council or a joint planning board who are the local planning authority for any area in Wales;

“old development plan” has the meaning given by paragraph 14(1)(b);

“plan area”, in relation to a required plan (or proposed required plan) or structure plan, means the area to which the plan relates (or is to relate);

“previously” means immediately before 1st April 1996;

“related area”, in relation to alteration proposals or structure plan alteration proposals, means, to the extent that the proposals relate or are to relate to it, the plan area of the relevant required plan or, as the case may be, structure plan;

“relevant authority” means a new planning authority in whose area any part of—

- (a) in the case of a proposed required plan, the plan area; or
- (b) in the case of alteration proposals or structure plan alteration proposals, the related area,

became comprised on 1st April 1996;

“required plan” means—

- (a) a local plan which previously had been prepared or was required to be prepared under section 36(1) of the planning Act;
- (b) a minerals local plan which previously had been prepared or was required to be prepared under section 37(1) or (3) of that Act; or
- (c) a waste local plan which previously had been prepared or was required to be prepared under section 38(2) or (4) of that Act;

and for this purpose a plan which was permitted to be prepared jointly is not to be treated on that ground alone as not being required to be prepared;

“saved local plan” has the meaning given by paragraph 14(1)(a);

“structure plan” means a structure plan previously in force under section 31 of the planning Act; and

“structure plan alteration proposals” means proposals for the alteration or replacement of a structure plan—

- (a) previously permitted to be prepared under section 32(1) of the planning Act; or
- (b) previously required to be prepared by a direction of the Secretary of State under section 32(2) of that Act.

(2) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule—

- (a) even if the part of a required plan that relates to a part of the plan area has been prepared, the plan is to be treated as being in course of preparation in relation to that part of the area if the plan as a whole is in course of preparation; and
- (b) even if the part of alteration proposals or structure plan alteration proposals that relates to a part of their related area has been prepared, those proposals are to be treated as being in course of preparation in relation to that part of the area if the proposals as a whole are in course of preparation.

Preparation of modified schemes

- 12 (1) Where any planning scheme was previously in course of preparation, any relevant authority may submit to the Secretary of State a request for approval to prepare a modified scheme for the affected area.
- (2) The Secretary of State may approve any such request if he is satisfied that the planning scheme was previously in course of preparation in relation to the affected area, and that—
- (a) it is expedient that preparation of the planning scheme be continued in the preparation of the modified scheme;
 - (b) continued preparation of the planning scheme in relation to the affected area is likely to be of assistance to the new planning authority in preparing the unitary development plan for their area; or
 - (c) the adoption or approval of a modified scheme is otherwise expedient or desirable.
- (3) Any approval under sub-paragraph (2)—
- (a) may be given subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State thinks fit, including conditions as to the period within which the modified scheme is to be prepared and a copy of it submitted to him;
 - (b) may be accompanied by a direction modifying in such manner, and for such period, as the Secretary of State thinks fit the duty of the new planning authority to prepare a unitary development plan under Chapter I of Part II of the planning Act.
- (4) Where the Secretary of State gives a direction under sub-paragraph (3)(b), Chapter I of Part II of the planning Act shall have effect in relation to the new planning authority subject to that direction.
- (5) Where a planning scheme for any area in Wales had previously been prepared but not adopted or approved under Chapter II of Part II of the planning Act, the Secretary of State may, on an application made to him by a relevant authority, give permission to prepare a modified scheme for the affected area.
- (6) The Secretary of State shall, whenever he gives any approval under sub-paragraph (2) or permission under sub-paragraph (5), direct that such of—
- (a) the provisions of Chapter II of Part II of the planning Act, and
 - (b) any regulations made under any provision of that Chapter,
- as may be specified in the direction shall apply for the purpose of the preparation, adoption or approval of the modified scheme in relation to the affected area.
- (7) The provisions applied by a direction under sub-paragraph (6)—
- (a) may include any requirement with respect to a modified scheme (or its preparation) corresponding to one already satisfied with respect to the planning scheme;
 - (b) may be applied subject to such modifications as may be specified in the direction; and

- (c) may be applied for such limited period (if any) as may be specified in the direction.

(8) For the purposes of this paragraph—

“planning scheme” means a required plan, alteration proposals or structure plan alteration proposals; and

“modified scheme”, in relation to a planning scheme—

- (a) which is a required plan, means a modified plan,
- (b) which consists of alteration proposals, means modified proposals,
- (c) which consists of structure plan alteration proposals, means modified structure plan proposals.

Default powers

13 (1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) a new planning authority have been given approval or permission under paragraph 12(2) or (5);
- (b) the Secretary of State has required that proposals for a modified plan or modified proposals or modified structure plan proposals be submitted to him; or
- (c) a new planning authority have prepared, but have not adopted, a modified plan, modified proposals or modified structure plan proposals.

(2) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) if at any time the Secretary of State is satisfied, after holding a local inquiry or other hearing, that the new planning authority are not taking the steps necessary to enable them to submit or adopt the proposals for a modified plan or the modified proposals or modified structure plan proposals within a reasonable period, or
- (b) in a case where a condition was imposed in the approval given under paragraph 12(2) for the submission of a copy of the plan or proposals within a specified period, if that copy has not been submitted within that period, the Secretary of State may take such steps, which may include the alteration of any plan, as he thinks fit.

(3) The provisions of Chapter II of Part II of the planning Act shall, so far as applicable, apply with any necessary modifications in relation to the doing of anything under this paragraph by the Secretary of State and the thing so done.

(4) The new planning authority shall on demand repay to the Secretary of State so much of any expenses incurred by him in connection with the doing of anything which should have been done by them as he certifies to have been incurred by him in the performance of their functions.

Effect of adoption or approval of modified plan

14 (1) Upon the adoption or approval of a modified plan for which the related required plan was previously the only required plan or the last of the required plans for the affected area—

- (a) any local plan which was continued in operation in relation to that area by paragraph 44(1) of Schedule 4 to the ^{M52}Planning and Compensation Act 1991 (a “saved local plan”), and

- (b) any plan which was previously in force by virtue of Schedule 7 to the ^{M53}Town and Country Planning Act 1971 and Part III of Schedule 2 to the planning Act (an “old development plan”), shall cease to have effect in relation to that area.
- (2) If the Secretary of State so directs, any specified provisions of a saved local plan or of an old development plan shall continue in operation—
- (a) for such period as may be specified or determined in accordance with the direction;
- (b) in relation to the affected area or any specified part of the affected area to which the saved local plan or the old development plan relates.
- (3) The Secretary of State may at any time revoke any direction given under sub-paragraph (2).
- (4) Before giving or revoking any such direction the Secretary of State shall consult the new planning authority.
- (5) Any provision of a saved local plan or old development plan in force for any area in Wales by virtue of a direction under this paragraph shall have effect subject to the provisions of any modified plan in force for that area.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph, “specified” means specified in the direction given under sub-paragraph (2).

Other plans to prevail over old development plans and saved local plans

- 15 (1) Where an old development plan is in force for any area in Wales, the provisions of—
- (a) any structure plan,
- (b) any part of the unitary development plan, or
- (c) any local plan,
- in force in respect of that area shall, to the extent that they conflict with it, prevail over any provision of the old development plan for the purposes of Parts III, V, VI, VII, VIII and IX of the planning Act, the ^{M54}Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 and the ^{M55}Planning (Hazardous Substances) Act 1990.
- (2) Where a saved local plan is in force in respect of any area in Wales, the provisions of—
- (a) any local plan, minerals local plan, or waste local plan,
- (b) any part of a unitary development plan,
- in force in that area shall, to the extent that they conflict with it, prevail for all purposes over any provision of the saved local plan.

Local plans to prevail over structure plans

- 16 (1) The provisions of a local plan in force by virtue of paragraph 1 of Part IA of Schedule 2 to the planning Act (continuation of structure, local and old development plans) for any area in Wales prevail for all purposes over any conflicting provisions in the structure plan so in force for that area unless the local plan is one which—
- (a) before 1st April 1996 had been stated under section 35C of the planning Act not to be in general conformity with the structure plan; and
 - (b) has been neither altered nor replaced after the statement was supplied.
- (2) Where, in relation to a modified plan in force for any area in Wales, the required plan was a local plan, the provisions of that modified plan prevail for all purposes over any conflicting provisions in the structure plan in force for that area.

Development plans for compensation purposes

- 17 (1) This paragraph applies where, in relation to any area in Wales, there is no local plan in force.
- (2) For any of the purposes of the ^{M56}Land Compensation Act 1961, the development plan or current development plan shall as respects that area be taken as being—
- (a) if any part of the unitary development plan is in force for that area, that part of that plan; or
 - (b) if no part of such a plan is in force for that area, whichever of the structure plan and the old development plan (if any) in force for that area gives rise to those assumptions as to the grant of planning permission which are more favourable to the owner of the land in question.
- (3) For any of the purposes of the Act of 1961, land situated in an area defined in the current development plan as an area of comprehensive development (“the defined area”) shall be taken to be situated in whichever of the following areas leads to such assumptions as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b)—
- (a) any area which is wholly or partly within the defined area and is selected by the structure plan as an action area; and
 - (b) the area so defined in the old development plan.

or any part of so much of the area to which it relates as is comprised in the area of the new planning authority.

Temporary duty in relation to existing structure plan

- 19 It is the duty of a local planning authority in Wales, when exercising their functions under section 70 of the planning Act (determination of applications for planning permission) in relation to an application for planning permission, to seek the achievement of the general objective of the structure plan (if any) for the time being in force in their area (or, where different structure plans apply in respect of different parts of their area, in that part of their area to which the application relates).

Unitary development plan to prevail over other plans

- 20 Where a unitary development plan is operative in part, but has not become fully operative, in the area of a new planning authority, to the extent that they conflict with any provision of any—
- (a) structure plan,
 - (b) local plan,
 - (c) minerals local plan,
 - (d) waste local plan, or
 - (e) modified plan,
- in force for that area or any part of it, the provisions of the unitary development plan shall prevail for the purposes of Parts III, V, VI, VII, VIII and IX of the planning Act and of the ^{M57}Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 and the ^{M58}Planning (Hazardous Substances) Act 1990.

Access to documents

- 8 (1) Any person authorised in that behalf by the Residuary Body shall be entitled on producing, if so required, evidence of his authority—
- (a) at all reasonable times to inspect and make copies of any document belonging to or under the control of any authority or body whose staff, assets, rights or liabilities are affected by any provision made by or under this Act ; and
 - (b) to require copies of any such documents to be delivered to him.
- (2) In this paragraph “document” includes any record of information and, where the record is not in legible form, the rights conferred by sub-paragraph (1) include the right to require the information to be made available in legible form for inspection or copying and to require copies of it in that form to be delivered.
- (3) References in this paragraph to copies of a document include references to copies of any part of it.

Giving of advice to Secretary of State

- 9 The Residuary Body—
- (a) may from time to time give such advice to the Secretary of State with respect to the exercise by him of his powers under section 54(2)(c) as it considers appropriate; and
 - (b) shall give to the Secretary of State advice on such matters connected with the exercise of those powers as he may specify.

Reports and information

- 10 (1) The Residuary Body shall—
- (a) publish an annual report on the discharge of its functions;
 - (b) send a copy of every such report to the Secretary of State; and
 - (c) give the Secretary of State such information relating to the discharge of its functions as he may require.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall lay before each House of Parliament a copy of any report sent to him under sub-paragraph (1).
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(c), the Residuary Body shall—
- (a) permit any person authorised by the Secretary of State to inspect and make copies of—
 - (i) any part of the accounts of the Residuary Body; or
 - (ii) any document in the possession of the Residuary Body, or any part of such a document; and
 - (b) provide such explanation of the accounts or document as that person or the Secretary of State may require.

Acquisitions and disposals

- 11 (1) On 1st April 1996 all property, rights and liabilities of the old authorities, in respect of which provision is not otherwise made by or under this Act as to vesting, shall, by virtue of this paragraph, vest in the Residuary Body.
- (2) This paragraph shall not be construed—
- (a) as continuing in force any contract of employment made by an old authority, or
 - (b) as imposing any liability on the Residuary Body in respect of the termination of any such contract by the abolition of an old authority,
- but the rights and liabilities to which this paragraph applies shall include any rights and liabilities attributable to anything done or omitted under or in respect of such a contract before 1st April 1996 except any liability to make a payment which is prohibited by section 43(2).
- (3) The Residuary Body may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, acquire by agreement any land or additional land required by it for carrying out its functions.
- (4) The Residuary Body—
- (a) may dispose of any land held by it in such manner as it considers appropriate, and
 - (b) shall dispose of any land which is not required by it for the carrying out of its functions,
- subject to the same restrictions as those imposed by section 123(2) and (2A) of the 1972 Act (disposal of land of principal councils) in the case of disposals by a principal council under section 123(1) of that Act and any other restrictions imposed by or under this Act.

Power of Secretary of State to give directions

- 12 (1) The Residuary Body shall exercise its functions subject to such directions as the Secretary of State may from time to time give to it.
- (2) No transaction entered into by the Residuary Body in the exercise of its functions shall be invalid by reason only of a failure to comply with any direction given under this paragraph.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall publish any directions given by him under this paragraph.

Application of receipts

- 13 (1) Any sum received by the Residuary Body (together with any accrued interest) which would be treated as a capital receipt for the purposes of section 58 of the ^{M74}Local Government and Housing Act 1989 if received by a local authority shall be paid—
