

Activity Centres (Young Persons' Safety) Act 1995

1995 CHAPTER 15

3 Supplementary provisions

- (1) An order under section 1(1) shall be made by statutory instrument; and an order revoking a previous order may include transitional or incidental provision (including provision for the transfer of property, rights and liabilities from the old licensing authority to the new).
- (2) Regulations under section 1 or 2—
  - (a) shall be made by the Secretary of State by statutory instrument;
  - (b) may make different provision for different cases; and
  - (c) may include transitional provisions.
- (3) Before making regulations under section 1 or 2 the Secretary of State shall consult the Health and Safety Commission and such other persons (if any) as he considers it appropriate to consult.
- (4) The Health and Safety Commission may from time to time submit to the Secretary of State such proposals as the Commission considers appropriate for the making of regulations under section 1 or 2; and where the Secretary of State proposes to make regulations in the form submitted under this subsection, the requirement under subsection (3) to consult the Commission shall not apply.
- (5) Nothing in, or done by virtue of, this Act or regulations under it shall prejudice any of the relevant statutory provisions (whenever made) as defined in Part I of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 or anything done by virtue of any of those provisions.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing an order or regulations under section 1 or 2 shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (7) The Secretary of State may make grants to the licensing authority in respect of such of their expenses under this Act as are not met by fees; and grants under this subsection may be made subject to such conditions, including conditions as to repayment, as the Secretary of State may determine.
