 and, subject to sub-paragraph (6) below, the cost of removing, inspecting and re-installing a meter and of fixing a substitute meter shall be defrayed by the transporter, supplier or shipper.
- (6) Where such a meter is removed for the purpose of being examined by a meter examiner in accordance with section 17 of this Act, the expenses incurred in removing, examining and re-installing the meter and fixing a substitute meter shall be defrayed as follows—
 - (a) if the examination is carried out at the request of any person and the meter is found in proper order, by that person;
 - (b) if the meter is not so found, by the person required by sub-paragraph (1) or (3) above to keep the meter in proper order.
- (7) A meter is found in proper order for the purposes of sub-paragraph (6) above if it is found to register correctly or to register erroneously to a degree not exceeding the degree permitted by regulations under section 17 of this Act.
- (8) Nothing in this paragraph shall apply in relation to any meter which, in pursuance of an agreement falling within section 17(14) of this Act, is used for ascertaining the quantity of gas supplied to a consumer if either—
 - (a) the agreement was entered into before the appointed day; or
 - (b) the public gas transporter and each relevant gas shipper have agreed that the meter should be kept in proper order by a person other than the consumer.

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies where a consumer is supplied with gas through a meter at a rate not exceeding 75,000 therms a year.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, the register of the meter shall be prima facie evidence of the quantity of gas supplied.

- (4) In sub-paragraph (3) above “the relevant date” means—
- (a) the penultimate date on which, otherwise than in connection with the examination, the register of the meter was ascertained; or
 - (b) if regulations so provide, such other date as may be determined by or under the regulations.

Installation of meters in new premises etc.

- (a) gas has not previously been conveyed by the public gas transporter to the consumer’s premises;
 - (b) a new or substituted pipe is to be laid between the transporter’s main and the meter; or
 - (c) the meter is to be installed in a different position.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, the meter shall be installed as near as practicable to the public gas transporter’s main, but within a building comprised in the premises.
- (3) The meter may be installed otherwise than within a building comprised in the premises if it is installed either—
- (a) in accommodation of a type and construction approved by the public gas transporter by an approval given in relation to premises generally, or to any class or description of premises; or
 - (b) in a separate meter house or other accommodation outside a building comprised in the premises which is approved by the transporter in the case of those particular premises.
- (4) If the requirements of this paragraph are not complied with, the public gas transporter may refuse to connect or, as the case may be, disconnect the consumer’s premises.

Meters for disabled persons

- 6 Where, in the case of any consumer, the public gas transporter or a relevant gas supplier, for the purpose of meeting the needs of a disabled person—
- (a) alters the position of any gas meter which is owned by the transporter or supplier and is lent or hired to the consumer; or
 - (b) replaces such a meter with one which has been specially adapted,
- the transporter or supplier shall not charge the consumer for the alteration or replacement.

Recovery of gas charges etc.

- 7 (1) Sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) below apply where—
- (a) a demand in writing is made by a gas supplier for the payment of any of the charges due to him from a consumer in respect of the supply of gas to the consumer’s premises, or to any premises previously owned or occupied by him; and

- (b) the consumer does not pay those charges within 28 days after the making of the demand.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (3) below also applies where—
 - (a) a request in writing is made by a gas supplier for the provision of a deposit by way of reasonable security for the payment of the charges due to him from a consumer in respect of the supply of gas to the consumer's premises; and
 - (b) the consumer does not provide such a deposit, or agree to take his supply through a pre-payment meter, within 7 days after the making of the request.
- (3) If the supplier is a relevant supplier, he may, after giving not less than 7 days' notice of his intention—
 - (a) cut off the supply to the consumer's premises by disconnecting the service pipe at the meter or by such other means as he thinks fit; and
 - (b) recover any expenses incurred in so doing from the consumer.
- (4) If—
 - (a) the supplier is not a relevant supplier but another supplier ("the new supplier") is such a supplier; and
 - (b) the supplier has assigned to the new supplier his right to recover any of the charges due to him from the consumer, sub-paragraph (3) above shall apply as if any reference to the supplier were a reference to the new supplier.
- (5) The powers conferred by sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) above shall not be exercisable as respects any charges or deposit the amount of which is genuinely in dispute.

Deemed contracts in certain cases

- 8 (1) Where a gas supplier supplies gas to a consumer otherwise than in pursuance of a contract, the supplier shall be deemed to have contracted with the consumer for the supply of gas as from the time ("the relevant time") when he began so to supply gas to the consumer.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) the owner or occupier of any premises takes a supply of gas which has been conveyed to those premises by a public gas transporter in pursuance of arrangements made with the transporter by a gas shipper, or by a person authorised to make the arrangements by an exemption granted under section 6A of this Act;
 - (b) that supply is not made by a gas supplier, or by a person authorised to make it by an exemption granted under section 6A of this Act or an exception contained in Schedule 2A to this Act; and
 - (c) a supply of gas so conveyed has been previously made by a gas supplier, the owner or occupier shall be deemed to have contracted with the appropriate supplier for the supply of gas as from the time ("the relevant time") when he began to take such a supply; but nothing in this sub-paragraph shall be taken to afford a defence in any criminal proceedings.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2) above "the appropriate supplier" means—

- (5) If a gas supplier at any time so elects, sub-paragraph (4) above shall have effect, so far as relating to him and to supplies begun to be made or taken after that time, as if the reference to 2,500 therms were a reference to 75,000 therms.
- (6) If a gas supplier at any time withdraws an election under sub-paragraph (5) above, sub-paragraph (4) above shall have effect, so far as relating to him and to supplies begun to be made or taken after that time, without the modification made by sub-paragraph (5) above.

- (8) Each gas supplier shall make, and from time to time revise, a scheme for determining the terms and conditions which are to be incorporated in the contracts which, by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) or (2) above, are to be deemed to have been made; but this sub-paragraph shall not apply in any case where it is reasonably expected that neither of those sub-paragraphs will apply.
- (9) The terms and conditions so determined may include terms and conditions for enabling the gas supplier to determine, in any case where the meter is not read immediately before the relevant time, the number of therms or kilowatt hours which are to be treated as supplied to the consumer, or taken by the owner or occupier of the premises, during the period beginning with the relevant time and ending with—
 - (a) the time when the meter is first read after the relevant time; or
 - (b) the time when the supplier ceases to supply gas to the consumer, or the owner or occupier ceases to take a supply of gas,whichever is the earlier.
- (10) A scheme under this paragraph may make different provisions for different cases or classes of cases, or for different areas, determined by, or in accordance with, the provisions of the scheme.
- (11) As soon as practicable after a gas supplier makes a scheme under this paragraph, a revision of such a scheme, an election under sub-paragraph (5) above or a withdrawal under sub-paragraph (6) above of such an election, he shall—
 - (a) publish, in such manner as he considers appropriate for bringing it to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it, a notice stating the effect of the scheme, revision, election or withdrawal;
 - (b) send a copy of the scheme, revision, election or withdrawal to the Director and to the Council; and

- (b) the supply is taken otherwise than in pursuance of a contract made with a gas supplier, or deemed to have been made with such a supplier by virtue of paragraph 8 above or paragraph 19 of Schedule 5 to the Gas Act 1995,
- the transporter shall be entitled to recover from that person the value of the gas so taken.
- (3) Each public gas transporter shall make, and from time to time revise, a scheme providing for the manner in which, and the persons by whom, the number of therms or kilowatt hours represented by a supply of gas taken in such circumstances as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) above is to be determined for the purposes of that sub-paragraph.
- (4) Sub-paragraphs (10) and (11) of paragraph 8 above shall apply in relation to a scheme under this paragraph as they apply in relation to a scheme under that paragraph.

 - (b) where the supply is restored, the consent of the supplier who cut off the supply, or the consent of a person who is or is about to become a relevant gas supplier.

Failure to notify connection or disconnection of service pipe

- 12 (1) No person shall connect any meter with a service pipe through which gas is conveyed to any premises by a public gas transporter, or disconnect any meter from any such pipe, unless he has given—
- (a) in a case where gas is supplied to the premises by a relevant gas supplier whose name and address are known to him, to the supplier; and
 - (b) in any other case, to the transporter,
- so that it is received by the supplier or transporter at least 48 hours before he does so, notice in the prescribed form of his intention to do so.

- (4) If any person acts in contravention of this paragraph, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

Failure to notify disconnection of meter

- (2) This paragraph does not apply where the meter—
- (a) is disconnected for the purposes of an examination under section 17 of this Act or an inspection under paragraph 3(5) above; or
 - (b) is disconnected for a particular purpose (whether repair or repositioning of the meter, detection of a gas leak or otherwise) and is intended to be reconnected.
- (3) Except in so far as it is not reasonably practicable for him to do so, the person making the disconnection shall—
- (a) ascertain the name and address of the owner of the meter; and

 - (b) any apparatus liable to produce in any main of the public gas transporter a pressure less than atmospheric pressure,
- he shall, if so required by the transporter by notice, fix in a suitable position and keep in use an appliance provided by him which will effectually prevent pressure fluctuation in the transporter's pipe-line system and any other inconvenience or danger being caused to persons by reason that he and they are supplied with gas conveyed through the same system.
- (2) Where a consumer uses for or in connection with the consumption of gas—
- (a) any air at high pressure ("compressed air"); or
 - (b) any gaseous substance not conveyed by the public gas transporter ("extraneous gas"),

Improper use of gas

- 18 If a consumer improperly uses or deals with gas so as to interfere with the efficient conveyance of gas by the public gas transporter (whether to the consumer or to any other person), the transporter may, if he thinks fit, disconnect the consumer's premises.

No obligation to restore supply where consumer in default

- (2) The transporter or supplier shall not be under any obligation to reconnect the consumer's premises or, as the case may be, resume the supply of gas to the consumer's premises until the consumer either is no longer an owner or occupier of the premises or—
- (a) has made good the default, or remedied the matter, in consequence of which the premises were disconnected or the supply was cut off; and
 - (b) has paid the reasonable expenses of disconnecting and reconnecting the premises or, as the case may be, of cutting off the supply and restoring the supply.
- (3) In this paragraph "consumer", in relation to a disconnection or cutting off under paragraph 11(2)(b) above, means—
- (a) the owner of the premises at the time when the reconnection was made, or the supply was restored, without the relevant consent—
 - (i) if the premises were unoccupied at that time, or
 - (ii) if that reconnection or restoration of supply was made by him or on his behalf; and
 - (b) the occupier of the premises at that time in any other case;
- and in this sub-paragraph "relevant consent" has the same meaning as in paragraph 11 above.

 - (b) that he did effectually prevent the escape as soon as it was reasonably practicable for him to do so.
- (4) In any proceedings for an offence under sub-paragraph (2)(b) above it shall be a defence for the public gas transporter to prove that he took all such steps to avert danger to life or property as were reasonably practicable.
- (5) It shall be the duty of any public gas transporter, gas supplier or gas shipper to take any steps necessary to ensure that, if he is informed by any person (“the informant”) of an escape of gas (other than one, in the case of a transporter, that he is required by sub-paragraph (1) above to prevent), he passes the information on, without avoidable delay, either—
- (a) to a responsible person, that is to say, a person appearing to him—
 - (i) to be responsible (whether under that sub-paragraph or otherwise) for preventing the escape; or
 - (ii) to be a public gas transporter within whose authorised area the gas is escaping; or
 - (b) to a nominated person, that is to say, a person nominated by a responsible person to receive information about escapes of gas on his behalf.

 - (b) is in a position to do so.
- (7) References in sub-paragraphs (5) and (6) above to the passing on of information to a nominated person are references to the passing on of information to that person in such manner (if any) as may be specified by the responsible person by whom that person was nominated.

- 22 (1) Where a public gas transporter has reasonable cause to suspect—
- (a) that gas conveyed by him is escaping, or may escape, in any premises; or
 - (b) that gas so conveyed which has escaped has entered, or may enter, any premises,
- any officer authorised by the transporter may, on production of some duly authenticated document showing his authority, enter the premises, inspect the gas fittings, carry out any work necessary to prevent the escape and take any other steps necessary to avert danger to life or property.
- (2) Where a public gas transporter has reasonable cause to suspect—
- (a) that gas conveyed through pipes by some other person is escaping, or may escape, in any premises in an authorised area of his; or
 - (b) that gas so conveyed which has escaped has entered, or may enter, any premises in such an area,
- any officer authorised by the transporter may, on production of some duly authenticated document showing his authority, enter the premises and take any steps necessary to avert danger to life or property.
- (3) In this paragraph any reference to any officer authorised by a public gas transporter includes a reference to any officer authorised by another such transporter with whom the transporter has made arrangements for officers authorised by the other transporter to discharge any functions of the transporter under paragraphs 20 and 21 above.
