

Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995

1995 CHAPTER 46

PART XI

SENTENCING

[^{F1}Restriction of liberty orders]

Textual Amendments

F1 Ss. 245A-245I and preceding cross-heading inserted (20.10.1997 for specified purposes and 1.7.1998 otherwise) by 1997 c. 48, s. 5; S.I. 1997/2323, arts. 3, 5(1), Sch. 1

[^{F2}245A Restriction of liberty orders.

- (1) Without prejudice to section 245D of this Act, where a person ^{F3} . . . is convicted of an offence [^{F4} punishable by imprisonment] (other than an offence the sentence for which is fixed by law) the court, ^{F5} . . . may [^{F6}, instead of imposing on him a sentence of, or including, imprisonment or any other form of detention,] make an order under this section (in this Act referred to as a “restriction of liberty order”) in respect of him. ^{F7} . . .
- (2) A restriction of liberty order may restrict the offender’s movements to such extent as the court thinks fit and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may include provision—
 - (a) requiring the offender to be in such place as may be specified for such period or periods in each day or week as may be specified;
 - (b) requiring the offender not to be in such place or places, or such class or classes of place or places, at such time or during such periods, as may be specified, but the court may not, under paragraph (a) above, require the offender to be in any place or places for a period or periods totalling more than 12 hours in any one day.
- (3) A restriction of liberty order may be made for any period up to 12 months.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995, Cross Heading: Restriction of liberty orders is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Before making a restriction of liberty order, the court shall explain to the offender in ordinary language—
- (a) the effect of the order, including any requirements which are to be included in the order under section 245C of this Act;
 - (b) the consequences which may follow any failure by the offender to comply with the requirements of any order; and
 - (c) that the court has power under section 245E of this Act to review the order on the application either of the offender or of any person responsible for monitoring the order,
- and the court shall not make the order unless the offender agrees to comply with its requirements.
- (5) The clerk of the court by which a restriction of liberty order is made shall—
- (a) cause a copy of the order to be sent—
 - [to any person who is to be responsible for monitoring the offender's
 - ^{F8}(i) compliance with the order; ^{F9} and
 - (ii) if the offender resides (or is to reside) in a place outwith the jurisdiction of the court making the order, to the clerk of a court within whose jurisdiction that place is;] and
 - (b) cause a copy of the order to be given to the offender or sent to him by registered post or by the recorded delivery service; and an acknowledgment or certificate of delivery of a letter containing such copy order issued by the Post Office shall be sufficient evidence of the delivery of the letter on the day specified in such acknowledgment or certificate.
- (6) Before making a restriction of liberty order which will require the offender to remain in a specified place or places the court shall ^{F10}—
- (a) obtain and consider ^{F11} a report by an officer of a local authority about—
 - (i) the place or places proposed to be specified; and
 - (ii) the attitude of persons likely to be affected by the enforced presence there of the offender ^{F12}; and
 - (b) if it considers it necessary, hear the officer who prepared the report.]
- (7) A restriction of liberty order shall be taken to be a sentence for the purposes of this Act and of any appeal.
- (8) The Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe—
- (a) which courts, or class or classes of courts, may make restriction of liberty orders;
 - (b) what method or methods of monitoring compliance with such orders may be specified in any such order by any such court; and
 - (c) the class or classes of offenders in respect of which restriction of liberty orders may be made,
- and different provision may be made in relation to the matters mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) above in relation to different courts or classes of court.
- (9) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (8) above, in relation to district courts, regulations under that subsection may make provision as respects such courts by reference to whether the court is constituted by a stipendiary magistrate or by one or more justices.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995, Cross Heading: Restriction of liberty orders is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (10) Regulations under subsection (8) above may make such transitional and consequential provisions, including provision in relation to the continuing effect of any restriction of liberty order in force when new regulations are made, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (11) A court shall not make a restriction of liberty order which requires an offender to be in or, as the case may be, not to be in, a particular place or places unless it is satisfied that his compliance with that requirement can be monitored by the means of monitoring which it intends to specify in the order.
- ^{F13}(11A) [A court shall not make a restriction of liberty order in respect of an offender who is under 16 years of age unless, having obtained a report on the offender from the local authority in whose area he resides, it is satisfied as to the services which the authority will provide for his support and rehabilitation during the period when he is subject to the order.]
- (12) The Secretary of State may by regulations substitute for the period of—
(a) hours for the time being mentioned in subsection (2) above; or
(b) months for the time being mentioned in subsection (3) above,
such period of hours or, as the case may be, months as may be prescribed in the regulations.
- (13) Regulations under this section shall be made by statutory instrument.
- (14) A statutory instrument containing regulations made under subsection (8) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (15) No regulations shall be made under subsection (12) above unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.]

[^{F18}245D] Combination of restriction of liberty order with other orders.

- (1) Subsection (3) applies where the court—
- intends to make a restriction of liberty order under section 245A(1) of this Act; and
 - considers it expedient that the offender should also be subject to
 - [in the case of an offender who is under 16 years of age,] a probation ^{F19}(i) order made under section 228(1) of this Act
 - [^{F20}(ii) in the case of an offender who is 16 years of age or more, a probation order made under section 228(1) of this Act,] a drug treatment and testing order made under section 234B(2) of this Act or ^{F21}. . . both such orders.
- (2) In deciding whether it is expedient to make a probation order or a drug treatment and testing order by virtue of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) above, the court shall—
- have regard to the circumstances, including the nature of the offence and the character of the offender; and
 - obtain a report as to the circumstances and character of the offender.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995, Cross Heading: Restriction of liberty orders is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where this subsection applies, the court, notwithstanding sections 228(1), 234B(2) and 245A(1) of this Act, may make a restriction of liberty order and
- ^{F22}(a) in the case of an offender who is under 16 years of age, a probation order;
 - (b) in the case of an offender who is 16 years of age or more,] either or both of a probation order and a drug treatment and testing order.
- (4) Where the court makes a restriction of liberty order and a probation order by virtue of subsection (3) above, the clerk of the court shall send a copy of each order to—
- (a) any person responsible for monitoring the offender’s compliance with the restriction of liberty order; and
 - (b) the officer of the local authority who is to supervise the probationer.
- (5) Where the court makes a restriction of liberty order and a drug treatment and testing order by virtue of subsection (3) above, the clerk of the court shall send a copy of each order to—
- (a) any person responsible for monitoring the offender’s compliance with the restriction of liberty order;
 - (b) the treatment provider, within the meaning of section 234C(1) of this Act; and
 - (c) the officer of the local authority who is appointed or assigned to be the supervising officer under section 234C(6) of this Act.
- (6) Where the court makes a restriction of liberty order, a probation order and a drug treatment and testing order the clerk of the court shall send copies of each of the orders to the persons mentioned—
- (a) in subsection (4) above;
 - (b) in paragraph (b) of subsection (5) above; and
 - (c) in paragraph (c) of that subsection, if that person would not otherwise receive such copies.
- (7) Where the offender by an act or omission fails to comply with a requirement of an order made by virtue of subsection (3) above—
- (a) if the failure relates to a requirement contained in a probation order and is dealt with under section 232(2)(c) of this Act, the court may, in addition, exercise the powers conferred by section 234G(2)(b) of this Act in relation to a drug treatment and testing order to which the offender is subject by virtue of subsection (3) above and by section 245F(2) of this Act in relation to the restriction of liberty order;
 - (b) if the failure relates to a requirement contained in a drug treatment and testing order and is dealt with under section 234G(2)(b) of this Act, the court may, in addition, exercise the powers conferred by section 232(2)(c) of this Act in relation to a probation order to which the offender is subject by virtue of subsection (3) above and by section 245F(2)(b) of this Act in relation to the restriction of liberty order; and
 - (c) if the failure relates to a requirement contained in a restriction of liberty order and is dealt with under section 245F(2)(b) of this Act, the court may, in addition, exercise the powers conferred by section 232(2)(c) of this Act in relation to a probation order and by section 234G(2)(b) of this Act in relation to a drug treatment and testing order to which, in either case, the offender is subject by virtue of subsection (3) above.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/04/2005.

[^{F23}245E Variation of restriction of liberty order.

- (1) Where a restriction of liberty order is in force either the offender or any person responsible for monitoring his compliance with the order may
- ^{F24}(a) [^{F25}except in a case to which paragraph (b) below applies,] apply to the court which made the order [^{F26}or]
- ^{F27}(b) [where a copy of the order was, under section 245A(5)(a)(ii) of this Act or subsection (7)(a) below, sent to the clerk of a different court, [^{F28}apply] to that different court (or, if there has been more than one such sending, the different court to which such a copy has most recently been so sent),]
- for a review of it.
- (2) On an application made under subsection (1) above, and after hearing both the offender and any person responsible for monitoring his compliance with the order, the court may by order, if it appears to it to be in the interests of justice to do so—
- (a) vary the order by—
 - (i) amending or deleting any of its requirements;
 - (ii) inserting further requirements; or
 - (iii) subject to subsection (3) of section 245A of this Act, increasing the period for which the order has to run; or

(b) revoke the order.

(3) Where the court, on the application of a person other than the offender, proposes to—

- (a) exercise the power conferred by paragraph (a) of subsection (2) above to vary (otherwise than by deleting a requirement) a restriction of liberty order, it shall issue a citation requiring the offender to appear before the court and section 245A(4) shall apply to the variation of such an order as it applies to the making of an order; and
- (b) exercise the power conferred by subsection (2)(b) above to revoke such an order and deal with the offender under section 245G of this Act, it shall issue a citation requiring him to appear before the court.

[The unified citation provisions apply in relation to a citation under this section as they ^{F29}(3A) apply in relation to a citation under section 216(3)(a) of this Act.]

(4) If an offender fails to appear before the court after having been cited in accordance with subsection (3) above, the court may issue a warrant for his arrest.

[Before varying a restriction of liberty order so as to require the offender to remain in ^{F30}(4A) a specified place or places or so as to specify a different place or different places in which the offender is to remain, the court shall—

- (a) obtain and consider a report by an officer of a local authority about—
 - (i) the place or places proposed to be specified, and
 - (ii) the attitude of persons likely to be affected by any enforced presence there of the offender; and
- (b) if it considers it necessary, hear the officer who prepared the report.]

[Where a reason for an application by the offender under subsection (1) above is that ^{F31}(5) he proposes to reside in a place outwith the jurisdiction of the court to which that application is made, and the court is satisfied that suitable arrangements can be made, in the district where that place is, for monitoring his compliance with the order it may—

- (a) vary the order to permit or make practicable such arrangements; and
- (b) where the change in residence necessitates or makes desirable a change in who is designated for the purpose of such monitoring, vary the order accordingly.

(6) Before varying a restriction of liberty order for the reason mentioned in subsection (5) above, the court shall—

- (a) if the order will require the offender to remain in a specified place or in specified places—

[obtain and consider [^{F33}a report by an officer of a local authority ^{F32}(i)] about the place or places proposed to be specified and] the attitude of persons likely to be affected by any enforced presence there of the offender; [^{F34} and

(ii) if it considers it necessary, hear the officer who prepared the report;] and

- (b) satisfy itself that his compliance with that requirement can be monitored by the means of monitoring specified, or which it intends to specify, in the order.

(7) Where a restriction of liberty order is varied as is mentioned in subsection (5) above, the clerk of the court shall send a copy of the order as so varied to—

- (a) the clerk of a court within whose jurisdiction the place of proposed residence is;
