

Architects Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 22

PART V

GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY

General

[<sup>F1</sup>22 Appeals.

- (1) A person may appeal to the High Court or, in Scotland, to the Court of Session if he is aggrieved by—
  - (a) refusal of his application for registration in Part 1 of the Register ;
  - (b) failure of the Registrar to comply with section 6(4);
  - (c) his name not being re-entered in, or his name being removed from, Part 1 of the Register by virtue of section 9;
  - (d) the Board's ordering under section 10 that the Registrar remove his name from Part 1 of the Register; or
  - (e) the making of a disciplinary order in relation to him.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), an appeal under subsection (1)(a), (c), (d) or (e) must be made not later than three months after the date on which notice of the decision or order concerned is served on the person.
- (3) Where an appeal under subsection (1)(a) is made by a person who relied on subsection (2A) of section 4 in applying for registration in pursuance of that section, the appeal must be made not later than four months after the date on which notice of the refusal is served on the person.
- (4) The time limits for making an appeal under subsection (1)(b) are—
  - (a) where the appeal is made by a person who relied on subsection (2A) of section 4 in applying for registration in pursuance of that section, within seven months, and

- (b) where the appeal is made by a person who, in applying for registration in pursuance of that section, relied on subsection (1)(a) of that section without also relying on subsection (2A) of that section, within six months, beginning with the date on which the person’s application for registration is made.
- (5) An appeal under subsection (1)(b) to which subsection (4) does not apply must be made within nine months beginning with the date on which the person’s application for registration is made.
- (6) If a person claims to be entitled to be registered in Part 2 of the Register but the person’s name is not entered in that Part, the person may appeal to a county court or, in Scotland, to the sheriff.
- (7) On an appeal under this section the court concerned may make any order which appears appropriate, and no appeal shall lie from any decision of a court on such an appeal.]

[<sup>F2</sup>22B Administrative co-operation

- (1) The Board, in its capacity as competent authority for the purposes of the Directive, is to—
- work in close collaboration with competent authorities of other relevant European States, and
  - provide assistance to competent authorities of other relevant European States in accordance with and in order to facilitate the application of the Directive.
- (2) The Board is to exchange professional-regulation information about—
- registered persons who are Directive-rights nationals, or
  - Directive-rights nationals who have made an application for registration in the Register,
- with competent authorities of other relevant European States.
- (3) In this section “professional-regulation information” means information regarding—
- disciplinary action taken,
  - criminal sanctions imposed, or
  - any other serious, specific circumstances,
- where the action is, or the sanctions or circumstances are, likely to have consequences for the pursuit of the profession of architect by a person.
- (4) If in any case the Board receives professional-regulation information from a competent authority of another relevant European State, the Board—
- is responsible for investigating and establishing the position in the case, and
  - is to pass on its conclusions in the case to a competent authority in each relevant European State in which the person concerned is established as an architect or (without being established) is providing services as an architect.

22C Confidentiality

- (1) The Board, the Registrar, and persons acting on behalf of either of them, are prohibited from disclosing information to which subsection (2) applies.
- (2) This subsection applies to information if—
  - (a) the information is received in the course of the carrying-out of functions of the Board or the Registrar;
  - (b) the functions are functions under the Directive or under any enactment giving effect to the Directive; and
  - (c) the information—
    - (i) is provided by a competent authority of another relevant European State, or
    - (ii) relates to an application made by a Directive-rights national for registration in the Register.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to disclosure which is—
  - (a) to the Secretary of State; or
  - (b) necessary in order to facilitate the carrying-out of functions of the Board, or of functions of the Registrar, under this Act or any other enactment.
- (4) An authority within subsection (5) must, so far as it is within the authority's power to do so, ensure the confidentiality of information which, in the course of the carrying-out of functions of the authority under the Directive or under any enactment giving effect to the Directive, is disclosed by or on behalf of the authority to a competent authority of another relevant European State.
- (5) The authorities within this subsection are—
  - (a) the Board; and
  - (b) the Registrar.]
