

Police (Property) Act 1997

CHAPTER 30

POLICE (PROPERTY) ACT 1997

- 1 Power of police authority to retain unclaimed property.
- 2 Disposal of property used, or intended for use, for purposes of crime: England and Wales.
- 3 Disposal of property used, or intended for use, for purposes of crime: Northern Ireland.
- 4 Further amendments of Police (Property) Act 1897: Northern Ireland.
- 5 Repeal of s. 9 of Constabulary (Ireland) Act 1874.
- 6 Property in possession etc. of person taken into police custody in Scotland.
- 7 Short title, commencement and extent.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Police (Property) Act 1997.