Northern Ireland Arms Decommissioning Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 7

An Act to make provision connected with Northern Ireland about the decommissioning of firearms, ammunition and explosives; and for connected purposes. [27th February 1997]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 1.—(1) In this Act a “decommissioning scheme” is any scheme which—
- (a) is made by the Secretary of State to facilitate the decommissioning of firearms, ammunition and explosives in Northern Ireland, and
 - (b) includes provisions satisfying the requirements of sections 2 and 3 (whether or not it also includes other provisions).
- (2) Section 2 of the Documentary Evidence Act 1868 (mode of proving certain documents) shall apply to a decommissioning scheme. Decommissioning scheme. 1868 c. 37.
- 2.—(1) A decommissioning scheme must identify a period during which firearms, ammunition and explosives may be dealt with in accordance with the scheme (“the amnesty period”). Duration of decommissioning scheme.
- (2) The amnesty period must end before—
- (a) the first anniversary of the day on which this Act is passed, or
 - (b) such later day as the Secretary of State may by order from time to time appoint.
- (3) A day appointed by an order under subsection (2)(b) must not be—
- (a) more than twelve months after the day on which the order is made, or
 - (b) more than five years after the day on which this Act is passed.

(4) An order under subsection (2)(b) shall be made by statutory instrument; and no order shall be made unless a draft has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Methods of decommissioning.

3.—(1) A decommissioning scheme must make provision for one or more of the following ways of dealing with firearms, ammunition and explosives (and may make provision for others)—

- (a) transfer to the Commission mentioned in section 7, or to a designated person, for destruction;
- (b) depositing for collection and destruction by the Commission or a designated person;
- (c) provision of information for the purpose of collection and destruction by the Commission or a designated person;
- (d) destruction by persons in unlawful possession.

(2) In subsection (1) “designated person” means a person designated by the Secretary of State or, in the case of firearms, ammunition or explosives transferred or collected in the Republic of Ireland, a person designated by the Minister for Justice of the Republic.

Amnesty.

4.—(1) No proceedings shall be brought for an offence listed in the Schedule to this Act in respect of anything done in accordance with a decommissioning scheme.

(2) The Secretary of State may by order add any offence or description of offence to, or remove any offence or description of offence from, the list in the Schedule to this Act.

(3) An order under subsection (2)—

- (a) shall be made by statutory instrument, and
- (b) may include such transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be expedient.

(4) No order shall be made under subsection (2) unless a draft has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Evidence.

5.—(1) A decommissioned article, or information derived from it, shall not be admissible in evidence in criminal proceedings.

(2) Evidence of anything done, and of any information obtained, in accordance with a decommissioning scheme shall not be admissible in criminal proceedings.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply to the admission of evidence adduced in criminal proceedings on behalf of the accused.

(4) Subsection (1) shall not apply to proceedings for an offence alleged to have been committed by the use of, or in relation to, something which was a decommissioned article at the time when the offence is alleged to have been committed.

Testing decommissioned articles.

6.—(1) A person who has received a decommissioned article shall not carry out, or cause or permit anyone else to carry out, a test or procedure in relation to the article the purpose of which is—

- (a) to discover information about anything done with or in relation to any decommissioned article,

- (b) to discover who has been in contact with, or near to, any decommissioned article,
- (c) to discover where any decommissioned article was at any time (including the conditions under which it was kept),
- (d) to discover when any decommissioned article was in contact with, or near to, a particular person or when it was in a particular place or kept under particular conditions,
- (e) to discover when or where any decommissioned article was made, or
- (f) to discover the composition of any decommissioned article.

(2) Subsection (1)(f) does not prohibit a test or procedure the purpose of which is—

- (a) to determine whether an article is, or contains, an explosive or ammunition,
- (b) to determine the quantity of explosive or ammunition present, or
- (c) to determine whether an article can safely be moved or otherwise dealt with.

(3) Subsection (1) does not prohibit a test or procedure the purpose of which is to discover information in relation to a decommissioned article where the information—

- (a) is sought for the purposes of the investigation of an offence alleged to have been committed at a time after the article became a decommissioned article, and
- (b) does not concern the treatment of the article in accordance with a decommissioning scheme.

7.—(1) In this section “the Commission” means an independent organisation established by an agreement, made in connection with the affairs of Northern Ireland between Her Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom and the Government of the Republic of Ireland, to facilitate the decommissioning of firearms, ammunition and explosives.

The Commission.

(2) The Secretary of State may by order—

- (a) confer on the Commission the legal capacities of a body corporate;
- (b) confer on the Commission, in such cases, to such extent and with such modifications as the order may specify, any of the privileges and immunities set out in Part I of Schedule 1 to the International Organisations Act 1968;
- (c) confer on members and servants of the Commission and members of their families who form part of their households, in such cases, to such extent and with such modifications as the order may specify any of the privileges and immunities set out in Parts II, III and V of that Schedule;
- (d) make provision about the waiver of privileges and immunities.

1968 c. 48.

In this subsection “servants of the Commission” includes agents of, and persons carrying out work for or giving advice to, the Commission.

(3) An order under subsection (2)—

- (a) may make different provision for different cases (including different provision for different persons);

(b) shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(4) The Secretary of State may—

(a) make payments to the Commission or to members of the Commission;

(b) provide for the Commission such premises and facilities, and the services of such staff, as he thinks appropriate.

(5) This section shall come into force on such day as the Secretary of State, after consulting the Minister for Justice of the Republic of Ireland, may by order made by statutory instrument appoint.

(6) This section shall cease to have effect at the end of such day as the Secretary of State, after consulting the Minister for Justice of the Republic of Ireland, may by order made by statutory instrument appoint; and an order under this subsection may include such transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be expedient.

Arms in England and Wales and Scotland.

8.—(1) This section applies to any scheme which—

(a) is made by the Secretary of State, for purposes relating to the affairs of Northern Ireland, to facilitate the decommissioning of firearms, ammunition and explosives in England and Wales or in Scotland, and

(b) includes provisions satisfying the requirements of sections 2 and 3 (whether or not it also includes other provisions).

(2) The Secretary of State may by order provide that a scheme to which this section applies shall be a decommissioning scheme for the purposes of this Act.

(3) In relation to a scheme which is a decommissioning scheme by virtue of subsection (2), the Schedule to this Act shall have effect with the substitution for any offence under the law of Northern Ireland of such similar offence under the law of England and Wales, or as the case may be of Scotland, as the Secretary of State may specify by order.

(4) An order under this section shall be made by statutory instrument; and no order shall be made unless a draft has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Expenses.

9. Any expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in connection with a decommissioning scheme or under section 7(4) shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament.

Interpretation.

10.—(1) In this Act—

“ammunition” means anything which is—

(a) ammunition within the meaning of the Firearms (Northern Ireland) Order 1981, or

(b) a component of such ammunition;

“decommissioned article” means—

(a) anything which has been transferred, deposited or collected in accordance with a decommissioning scheme,

S.I. 1981/155 (N.I. 2).
