

Landmines Act 1998

1998 CHAPTER 33

Information and records

17 Information and records for Ottawa Convention purposes.

- (1) The Secretary of State may, by notice served on any person, require him to give, in such form and within such reasonable period as is specified in the notice, such information as—
 - (a) the Secretary of State has reasonable cause to believe is or will be needed in connection with anything to be done for the purposes of the Ottawa Convention, and
 - (b) is described in the notice;and the information required by a notice may relate to a state of affairs subsisting before the coming into force of this Act or of the Ottawa Convention.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, by notice served on any person, require him to keep such records as—
 - (a) the Secretary of State has reasonable cause to believe will facilitate the giving of information which that person may at any time be required to give under subsection (1); and
 - (b) are specified in the notice.
- (3) A person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with a notice served on him under subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine of an amount not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (4) A person on whom a notice is served under subsection (1) and who knowingly makes a false or misleading statement in response to it is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine of an amount not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both.

18 Power to search and obtain evidence.

- (1) If—
- (a) a justice of the peace is satisfied, on information on oath, that there are grounds for issuing a warrant under this subsection in relation to any premises, or
 - (b) in Scotland, a justice (within the meaning of section 307 of the ^{M1}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995) is so satisfied by evidence on oath,
- he may issue a warrant in writing authorising a person acting under the authority of the Secretary of State to enter the premises, if necessary by force, at any time within one month from the time of the issue of the warrant and to search them.
- (2) There are grounds for issuing a warrant under subsection (1) in relation to any premises if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—
- (a) that an offence under this Act is being, has been or is about to be committed on the premises; or
 - (b) that evidence of the commission of such an offence is to be found on the premises.
- (3) A person who enters any premises under the authority of a warrant under this section may—
- (a) take with him such other persons and such equipment as appear to him to be necessary;
 - (b) inspect any document found on the premises which he has reasonable cause to believe may be required as evidence for the purposes of proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act;
 - (c) take copies of, or seize and remove, any such document;
 - (d) inspect, seize and remove any device or equipment found on the premises which he has reasonable cause to believe may be required as such evidence;
 - (e) inspect, sample, seize and remove any substance found on the premises which he has reasonable cause to believe may be required as such evidence.
- (4) A constable who enters the premises—
- (a) under the authority of the warrant, or
 - (b) by virtue of subsection (3)(a),
- may search any person found on the premises whom he has reasonable cause to believe to be in possession of any document, device, equipment or substance which may be required as evidence for the purposes of proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act.
- (5) No constable shall, by virtue of subsection (4), search a person of the opposite sex.
- (6) If a warrant under this section so provides, a person (other than a constable) who exercises the powers conferred by the warrant shall do so only in the presence of a constable.
- (7) A person is guilty of an offence if he wilfully obstructs another in the exercise of any power conferred by a warrant under this section.
- (8) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (7) is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine of an amount not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
