

Private Hire Vehicles (London) Act 1998

1998 CHAPTER 34

Licences: general provisions

15 Applications for licences.

- (1) An application for the grant of a licence under this Act shall be made in such form, and include such declarations and information, as the [^{F1}licensing authority] may require.
- (2) The [^{F1}licensing authority] may require an applicant to furnish such further information as [^{F2}the authority] may consider necessary for dealing with the application.
- (3) The information which an applicant for a London PHV operator's licence may be required to furnish includes in particular information about—
 - (a) any premises in London which he proposes to use as an operating centre;
 - (b) any convictions recorded against him;
 - (c) any business activities he has carried on before making the application;
 - (d) if the applicant is or has been a director or secretary of a company, that company;
 - (e) if the applicant is a company, information about the directors or secretary of that company;
 - (f) if the applicant proposes to act as an operator in partnership with any other person, information about that person.
- (4) An applicant for a London PHV driver's licence may be required by the [licensing authority]—
 - (a) to produce a certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner to the effect that—
 - (i) he is physically fit to be the driver of a private hire vehicle; and
 - (ii) if any specific requirements of physical fitness have been prescribed for persons holding London PHV licences, that he meets those requirements; and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Private Hire Vehicles (London) Act 1998, Cross Heading: Licences: general provisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) whether or not such a certificate has been produced, to submit to examination by a registered medical practitioner selected by the [^{F1}licensing authority] as to his physical fitness to be the driver of such a vehicle.
- (5) The provisions of this Act apply to the renewal of a licence as they apply to the grant of a licence.
