21 Special provisions relating to child witnesses.

- (1) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) a witness in criminal proceedings is a “child witness” if he is an eligible witness by reason of section 16(1)(a) (whether or not he is an eligible witness by reason of any other provision of section 16 or 17);
  - (b) a child witness is “in need of special protection” if the offence (or any of the offences) to which the proceedings relate is—
    - (i) an offence falling within section 35(3)(a) (sexual offences etc.), or
    - (ii) an offence falling within section 35(3)(b), (c) or (d) (kidnapping, assaults etc.); and
  - (c) a “relevant recording”, in relation to a child witness, is a video recording of an interview of the witness made with a view to its admission as evidence in chief of the witness.
- (2) Where the court, in making a determination for the purposes of section 19(2), determines that a witness in criminal proceedings is a child witness, the court must—
- (a) first have regard to subsections (3) to (7) below; and
  - (b) then have regard to section 19(2);
- and for the purposes of section 19(2), as it then applies to the witness, any special measures required to be applied in relation to him by virtue of this section shall be treated as if they were measures determined by the court, pursuant to section 19(2)(a) and (b)(i), to be ones that (whether on their own or with any other special measures) would be likely to maximise, so far as practicable, the quality of his evidence.
- (3) The primary rule in the case of a child witness is that the court must give a special measures direction in relation to the witness which complies with the following requirements—
- (a) it must provide for any relevant recording to be admitted under section 27 (video recorded evidence in chief); and
  - (b) it must provide for any evidence given by the witness in the proceedings which is not given by means of a video recording (whether in chief or otherwise) to be given by means of a live link in accordance with section 24.
- (4) The primary rule is subject to the following limitations—
- (a) the requirement contained in subsection (3)(a) or (b) has effect subject to the availability (within the meaning of section 18(2)) of the special measure in question in relation to the witness;
  - (b) the requirement contained in subsection (3)(a) also has effect subject to section 27(2); and
  - (c) the rule does not apply to the extent that the court is satisfied that compliance with it would not be likely to maximise the quality of the witness’s evidence so far as practicable (whether because the application to that evidence of one or more other special measures available in relation to the witness would have that result or for any other reason).

- (5) However, subsection (4)(c) does not apply in relation to a child witness in need of special protection.
- (6) Where a child witness is in need of special protection by virtue of subsection (1)(b)(i), any special measures direction given by the court which complies with the requirement contained in subsection (3)(a) must in addition provide for the special measure available under section 28 (video recorded cross-examination or re-examination) to apply in relation to—
- (a) any cross-examination of the witness otherwise than by the accused in person, and
  - (b) any subsequent re-examination.
- (7) The requirement contained in subsection (6) has effect subject to the following limitations—
- (a) it has effect subject to the availability (within the meaning of section 18(2)) of that special measure in relation to the witness; and
  - (b) it does not apply if the witness has informed the court that he does not want that special measure to apply in relation to him.

- (a) subject to subsection (9) below, and
  - (b) except where the witness has already begun to give evidence in the proceedings,
- the direction shall cease to have effect at the time when the witness attains the age of 17.
- (9) Where a special measures direction is given in relation to a child witness who is an eligible witness by reason only of section 16(1)(a) and—
- (a) the direction provides—
    - (i) for any relevant recording to be admitted under section 27 as evidence in chief of the witness, or
    - (ii) for the special measure available under section 28 to apply in relation to the witness, and
  - (b) if it provides for that special measure to so apply, the witness is still under the age of 17 when the video recording is made for the purposes of section 28,
- then, so far as it provides as mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) above, the direction shall continue to have effect in accordance with section 20(1) even though the witness subsequently attains that age.

Prohibition imposed by court

36 Direction prohibiting accused from cross-examining particular witness.

- (1) This section applies where, in a case where neither of sections 34 and 35 operates to prevent an accused in any criminal proceedings from cross-examining a witness in person—
  - (a) the prosecutor makes an application for the court to give a direction under this section in relation to the witness, or
  - (b) the court of its own motion raises the issue whether such a direction should be given.
- (2) If it appears to the court—
  - (a) that the quality of evidence given by the witness on cross-examination—
    - (i) is likely to be diminished if the cross-examination (or further cross-examination) is conducted by the accused in person, and
    - (ii) would be likely to be improved if a direction were given under this section, and
  - (b) that it would not be contrary to the interests of justice to give such a direction, the court may give a direction prohibiting the accused from cross-examining (or further cross-examining) the witness in person.
- (3) In determining whether subsection (2)(a) applies in the case of a witness the court must have regard, in particular, to—
  - (a) any views expressed by the witness as to whether or not the witness is content to be cross-examined by the accused in person;
  - (b) the nature of the questions likely to be asked, having regard to the issues in the proceedings and the defence case advanced so far (if any);

- (c) any behaviour on the part of the accused at any stage of the proceedings, both generally and in relation to the witness;
  - (d) any relationship (of whatever nature) between the witness and the accused;
  - (e) whether any person (other than the accused) is or has at any time been charged in the proceedings with a sexual offence or an offence to which section 35 applies, and (if so) whether section 34 or 35 operates or would have operated to prevent that person from cross-examining the witness in person;
  - (f) any direction under section 19 which the court has given, or proposes to give, in relation to the witness.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “witness”, in relation to an accused, does not include any other person who is charged with an offence in the proceedings; and
  - (b) any reference to the quality of a witness’s evidence shall be construed in accordance with section 16(5).

41 Restriction on evidence or questions about complainant's sexual history.

- (1) If at a trial a person is charged with a sexual offence, then, except with the leave of the court—
  - (a) no evidence may be adduced, and
  - (b) no question may be asked in cross-examination, by or on behalf of any accused at the trial, about any sexual behaviour of the complainant.
- (2) The court may give leave in relation to any evidence or question only on an application made by or on behalf of an accused, and may not give such leave unless it is satisfied—
  - (a) that subsection (3) or (5) applies, and
  - (b) that a refusal of leave might have the result of rendering unsafe a conclusion of the jury or (as the case may be) the court on any relevant issue in the case.
- (3) This subsection applies if the evidence or question relates to a relevant issue in the case and either—
  - (a) that issue is not an issue of consent; or
  - (b) it is an issue of consent and the sexual behaviour of the complainant to which the evidence or question relates is alleged to have taken place at or about the same time as the event which is the subject matter of the charge against the accused; or
  - (c) it is an issue of consent and the sexual behaviour of the complainant to which the evidence or question relates is alleged to have been, in any respect, so similar—

- took place as part of the event which is the subject matter of the charge against the accused, or
- (ii) to any other sexual behaviour of the complainant which (according to such evidence) took place at or about the same time as that event, that the similarity cannot reasonably be explained as a coincidence.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) no evidence or question shall be regarded as relating to a relevant issue in the case if it appears to the court to be reasonable to assume that the purpose (or main purpose) for which it would be adduced or asked is to establish or elicit material for impugning the credibility of the complainant as a witness.
- (5) This subsection applies if the evidence or question—
- (a) relates to any evidence adduced by the prosecution about any sexual behaviour of the complainant; and
- (b) in the opinion of the court, would go no further than is necessary to enable the evidence adduced by the prosecution to be rebutted or explained by or on behalf of the accused.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (5) the evidence or question must relate to a specific instance (or specific instances) of alleged sexual behaviour on the part of the complainant (and accordingly nothing in those subsections is capable of applying in relation to the evidence or question to the extent that it does not so relate).
- (7) Where this section applies in relation to a trial by virtue of the fact that one or more of a number of persons charged in the proceedings is or are charged with a sexual offence—
- (a) it shall cease to apply in relation to the trial if the prosecutor decides not to proceed with the case against that person or those persons in respect of that charge; but
- (b) it shall not cease to do so in the event of that person or those persons pleading guilty to, or being convicted of, that charge.

42 Interpretation and application of section 41.

(1) In section 41—

- (a) “relevant issue in the case” means any issue falling to be proved by the prosecution or defence in the trial of the accused;
- (b) “issue of consent” means any issue whether the complainant in fact consented to the conduct constituting the offence with which the accused is charged (and accordingly does not include any issue as to the belief of the accused that the complainant so consented);

- (d) subject to any order made under subsection (2), “sexual offence” shall be construed in accordance with section 62.

(2) The Secretary of State may by order make such provision as he considers appropriate for adding or removing, for the purposes of section 41, any offence to or from the offences which are sexual offences for the purposes of this Act by virtue of section 62.

(3) Section 41 applies in relation to the following proceedings as it applies to a trial, namely—

In this section “reporting direction” has the meaning given by subsection (6).

(2) If the court determines—
