

Greater London Authority Act 1999

1999 CHAPTER 29

PART IV

TRANSPORT

CHAPTER IV

PUBLIC PASSENGER TRANSPORT

173 Provision of public passenger transport

- (1) Transport for London may provide or secure the provision of public passenger transport services to, from or within Greater London.
- (2) Without prejudice to section 176 below, any agreement entered into by Transport for London by virtue of section 156(2) or (3)(a) above may in particular provide for—
 - (a) combined services for the through carriage of passengers or goods to be provided by Transport for London or any of its subsidiaries and any other party to the agreement, the quoting of through rates and the pooling of receipts and expenses in respect of such services;
 - (b) securing efficiency, economy and safety of operation in the provision of any public passenger transport services in pursuance of the agreement;
 - (c) the exercise by Transport for London, in accordance with the agreement, of control over fares in respect of any such services and their routes and frequency of operation and over charges in respect of any other facilities provided in pursuance of the agreement; and
 - (d) the making of payments by Transport for London to any other party to the agreement.

174 Structure of fares and services

- (1) The Mayor shall exercise his powers under section 155(1) above so as ensure that the matters specified in subsection (2) below are determined.

- (2) The matters mentioned in subsection (1) above are—
- (a) the general level and structure of the fares to be charged for public passenger transport services provided by Transport for London or by any other person in pursuance of any agreement entered into by Transport for London by virtue of section 156(2) or (3)(a) above or in pursuance of a transport subsidiary's agreement;
 - (b) the general structure of routes of such services and the general level of provision to be made with respect to their frequency of operation; and
 - (c) the general level of charges to be made for other facilities provided as mentioned in paragraph (a) above.

175 Co-operation with the Franchising Director

- (1) It shall be the duty of Transport for London (either acting directly, or acting through a subsidiary) and the Franchising Director to co-operate with one another in the exercise and performance of their respective functions for the purpose—
- (a) of co-ordinating the passenger transport services for persons travelling to, from and within Greater London—
 - (i) which are provided by Transport for London or any of its subsidiaries, and
 - (ii) which are provided under franchise agreements, or whose provision is secured by the Franchising Director pursuant to section 30, 37 or 38 of the Railways Act 1993; and
 - (b) of securing or facilitating the duty of Transport for London under section 154(3) above;
- and to afford to one another such information as to the services mentioned in paragraph (a) above as may reasonably be required for those purposes.
- (2) For the purposes of the co-operation required under subsection (1) above, Transport for London and the Franchising Director may enter into such arrangements with one another with respect to the exercise and performance of their respective functions on such terms as may appear to them to be expedient.
- (3) The references in subsections (1) and (2) above to the functions of the Franchising Director shall be taken as a reference to—
- (a) his functions under sections 23 to 31 of the Railways Act 1993 (franchising of passenger services), and
 - (b) the duties imposed upon him by sections 37 and 38 of that Act (discontinuance of railway passenger services) to secure the provision of services.
- (4) In this section, “the Franchising Director” means the Director of Passenger Rail Franchising.

176 Co-operation with other persons

- (1) Where a public passenger transport service is provided under—
- (a) an agreement entered into by Transport for London under section 156(2) or (3)(a) above, or
 - (b) a transport subsidiary's agreement,

by a person other than a subsidiary of Transport for London, it shall be the duty of that person and the other party to the agreement in question, either acting directly, or acting indirectly through subsidiaries of theirs, to co-operate with one another in the exercise and performance of their respective functions for the purposes specified in subsection (2) below.

- (2) The purposes mentioned in subsection (1) above are—
 - (a) the co-ordinating of passenger transport services, and
 - (b) the securing of, or the facilitating of, the proper discharge of the duty of Transport for London under section 154(3) above.
- (3) The duty of co-operation imposed by subsection (1) above requires both parties to an agreement under section 156(2) or (3)(a) above or to a transport subsidiary's agreement to provide to one another such information as to their services as may reasonably be required for the purposes specified in subsection (2) above.

177 Provision of extra passenger transport services and facilities

- (1) The council of a London borough and the Common Council shall each have power to enter into and carry out agreements with—
 - (a) Transport for London,
 - (b) the Franchising Director, or
 - (c) any person who is the holder of a passenger licence, a network licence or a station licence,with respect to the provision or retention, and financing, of public passenger transport services and facilities which would not be available apart from any such agreement.
- (2) Transport for London and the Franchising Director shall each have power to enter into and carry out agreements with the council of a London borough or the Common Council with respect to the matters specified in subsection (1) above.
- (3) The terms of an agreement entered into under this section shall be such as may be agreed between the parties to the agreement.
- (4) Expressions used in this section and in Part I of the Railways Act 1993 have the same meaning in this section as in that Part.

178 Information and publicity about plans as to services and fares

- (1) Transport for London shall in each year inform the bodies mentioned in subsection (2) below of its current plans with respect to—
 - (a) the general level of transport services and facilities to be provided by Transport for London, any subsidiary of Transport for London or any other person in pursuance of an agreement entered into by virtue of section 156(2) or (3)(a) above or in pursuance of a transport subsidiary's agreement;
 - (b) the general structure of routes of such services;
 - (c) the general level and structure of fares to be charged for such services; and
 - (d) the general level of charges to be made for such facilities.
- (2) The bodies are—
 - (a) the London borough councils;
 - (b) the Common Council;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) the council of any county or district any part of whose area appears to Transport for London to be affected significantly by any plans falling within subsection (1) above; and
 - (d) the London Transport Users' Committee.
- (3) Transport for London shall cause particulars of the general level and structure of the fares falling within subsection (1)(c) above as they apply for the time being to be published in such manner as it thinks fit.
