

Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999

1999 CHAPTER 30

PART V

WELFARE

CHAPTER I

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

Additional pensions

52 Preservation of rights in respect of additional pensions.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make such provision as is authorised by one or more of subsections (2) to (4).
- (2) The regulations may provide for any prescribed provision of Part II of the Contributions and Benefits Act (contributory benefits) which relates to additional pension for [^{F1}widows, widowers or surviving civil partners] to have effect, in relation to persons of any prescribed description, with such modifications as may be prescribed for securing—
 - (a) that any such additional pension, or
 - (b) in the case of any provision of Schedule 5 to that Act (increase of pension [^{F2}or payment of lump sum] where entitlement is deferred), that any constituent element of an increase [^{F3}or of a lump sum] provided for by that Schedule, is increased by such percentage as may be prescribed (which may be 100 per cent.).
- [^{F4}(3) The regulations may amend (or further amend) any prescribed provision set out in section 39(2) of the Child Support, Pensions and Social Security Act 2000 (which sets out provisions falling within subsection (2) of this section) so as to substitute a reference to a later date for—
 - (a) any reference in that provision to 5th October 2002 or 6th October 2002; or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999, Part V. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) any reference to a date inserted in that provision by a substitution made by virtue of this subsection.]
- (4) The regulations may make provision for and in connection with—
 - (a) the establishment, for a prescribed period, of a scheme for dealing with claims made by persons on the grounds that, in reliance on any incorrect or incomplete information provided by a government department with respect to the SERPS reduction (however that information came to their knowledge), they—
 - (i) failed to take any, or any particular, relevant steps which they would have taken, or
 - (ii) took any steps which they would not have taken, had they instead received correct and complete information with respect to that reduction; and
 - (b) securing that, where persons have made successful claims under the scheme, surviving spouses of those persons (or, as the case may be, those persons themselves) will not be affected by the SERPS reduction.
- [^{F5}(4A) The regulations may provide, for the purposes of any provision made by virtue of subsection (4), for a case in which a person who, as a consequence of receiving incorrect or incomplete information, did not give any consideration to—
 - (a) the taking of a step which is a step he might have taken had he considered the matter on the basis of correct and complete information, or
 - (b) refraining from taking a step which is a step he did take but might have refrained from taking had he considered the matter on that basis, to be treated as a case in which his failure to take the step, or his taking of the step he did take, was in reliance on the incorrect or incomplete information and as a case in which that step is one which he would have taken, or (as the case may be) would not have taken, had the information been correct and complete.]
- (5) In subsection (4) “relevant steps”, in relation to a person, means steps towards safeguarding the financial position of that person’s spouse in the event of the spouse becoming that person’s surviving spouse or (as the case may be) towards safeguarding that person’s own financial position in the event of that person becoming a surviving spouse (whether or not, in either case, that person was at any material time already married); and “the SERPS reduction” means—
 - (a) (in the context of subsection (4)(a)) the operation of any of—
 - (i) the provisions of section 19 of the ^{M1}Social Security Act 1986, or
 - (ii) the provisions of Part II of the Contributions and Benefits Act reproducing the effect of those provisions;
 - (b) (in the context of subsection (4)(b)) the operation of any of the provisions of the Contributions and Benefits Act mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii) above or of section 39C(4) or 48BB(7) of that Act.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (4) may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) with respect to the time within which, and the manner in which, claims under the scheme are to be made;
 - (b) for requiring claimants—
 - (i) to supply such information in connection with their claims as may be prescribed or reasonably requested by any person for the purpose of dealing with their claims,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999, Part V. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) to attend interviews at such time and place as may be reasonably specified by any person for that purpose;
 - (c) for a claim to be disallowed where the claimant fails to comply with a requirement imposed by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) above and does not show within the prescribed period that he had good cause for that failure;
 - (d) prescribing—
 - (i) matters which are or are not to be taken into account in determining whether a person does or does not have good cause for any failure to comply with any such requirement, or
 - (ii) circumstances in which a person is or is not to be regarded as having or not having good cause for any such failure;
 - (e) prescribing the conditions which must be satisfied in relation to any claim in order for it to be a successful claim under the scheme;
 - [^{F6}(ea) prescribing the matters that may be relied on, and the presumptions that may be made, in the determination of whether or not the prescribed conditions have been satisfied;]
 - (f) with respect to—
 - (i) the manner in which decisions under the scheme are to be made (which may include authorising decisions of any prescribed description to be made by a computer), and
 - (ii) the time within which, and the manner in which, such decisions are to be notified to claimants;
 - (g) for provisions of Chapter II of Part I of the ^{M2}Social Security Act 1998 (social security decisions and appeals) to apply in relation to decisions under the scheme with such modifications as may be prescribed;
 - (h) for provisions of Part II of the Contributions and Benefits Act to apply in relation to—
 - (i) surviving spouses of persons who have made successful claims under the scheme, or
 - (ii) persons who have themselves made such claims, with such modifications as may be prescribed.
- (7) If no regulations under this section are in force on 6th April 2000, then until such time as any such regulations come into force—
- (a) any provisions of Part II of the Contributions and Benefits Act which (whether alone or together with other provisions) would otherwise result in a reduction of one-half in the amount payable by way of additional pension in cases where a person's spouse dies after 5th April 2000 shall be taken—
 - (i) as not applying, or
 - (ii) as providing for the full amount to be payable by way of additional pension, as the case may require; and
 - (b) in Schedule 5 to that Act—
 - (i) any provision which is expressed to apply in relation to deaths occurring after that date shall not apply, and
 - (ii) any provision which (with or without any other limitation) is expressed to apply in relation to deaths occurring before 6th April 2000 shall be taken as applying also in relation to deaths occurring on or after that date.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999, Part V. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) No regulations shall be made under this section unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (9) In this section “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations under subsection (2), (3) or (4), as the case may be.

79 Measures to reduce under-occupation by housing benefit claimants.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make a scheme providing for a housing benefit claimant, where he moves from an under-occupied dwelling in the public or social rented sector to a qualifying dwelling, to be entitled to be paid an amount calculated by reference to the difference between—
 - (a) the prescribed payments he was liable to make in respect of his former dwelling, and
 - (b) those he is liable to make in respect of his new dwelling.
- (2) In subsection (1) the reference to a qualifying dwelling is to a dwelling (whether in the public or social rented sector or not) which, in relation to the claimant, either—
 - (a) is not under-occupied, or
 - (b) is under-occupied to a lesser extent than the claimant's former dwelling.
- (3) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) as to the circumstances in which, in relation to a housing benefit claimant, a dwelling is or is not to be regarded for the purposes of the scheme as under-occupied or under-occupied to a lesser extent than another dwelling;
 - (b) as to the manner in which an amount payable to such a claimant under the scheme is to be calculated;
 - (c) for any such amount to be payable (subject to subsection (7))—
 - (i) in a case where the claimant's former and new dwellings are situated in the area of the same local authority, by that authority, or
 - (ii) in a case where they are situated in the areas of different local authorities, by whichever of those authorities is prescribed.
- (4) Regulations made in pursuance of subsection (3)(b) may provide for the amount payable to a housing benefit claimant under the scheme ("the relevant amount") to be reduced on account of—
 - (a) any arrears of rent payable by him, or
 - (b) any amount paid to him by way of housing benefit which constitutes an overpayment for housing benefit purposes;

but regulations under this section shall not otherwise provide for the making of any reduction in the relevant amount on account of any sum due to or recoverable by any public or local authority.
- (5) A person aggrieved by a determination of any prescribed description made under regulations under this section may appeal to such court or tribunal as may be prescribed; and the regulations may make provision as to the procedure to be followed in connection with appeals under this subsection.
- (6) Regulations under this section may provide that the scheme is to apply only in relation to one or more prescribed areas; and, if they do so, they may also—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999, Part V. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) include such transitional, consequential or saving provisions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in connection with the scheme ceasing to be in force in relation to the area or areas at the end of that period.
- (7) Despite the fact that the scheme is in force in relation to the area of a local authority (whether by virtue of subsection (6) or otherwise), it shall not have effect in relation to the authority unless it has been adopted by resolution of the authority.
- (8) Where a local authority makes any payment under the scheme the authority shall be reimbursed by the Secretary of State in respect of that payment in such manner and subject to such conditions as to claims, records, certificates or other information or evidence as may be prescribed (any reduction made by virtue of subsection (4) being disregarded for the purposes of this subsection).
- (9) Subject to any prescribed exceptions or modifications, the provisions of the Administration Act shall have effect in relation to payments under the scheme as they have effect in relation to housing benefit.
- (10) For the purposes of this section a dwelling occupied by a housing benefit claimant is in the public or social rented sector if the payments which the claimant is liable to make in respect of the dwelling (and on account of which he is entitled to housing benefit) are to be made to—
